

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR

Vol. 49 No. 43

BARTON, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1920

Single Copies 5 Cents.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Advertisements will be inserted under this heading at the rate of 10 cents per word for the first insertion and 5 cents per word thereafter. Cash in advance. No advertising accepted for less than twenty-five cents.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Dry block wood. F. M. McNeil, Irasburg, Tel. 146-22, Orleans, 42-43

FOR SALE—Rose Comb Rhode Island Red chickens. George E. Johnson, East Charleston, Box 47. 42-45

FOR SALE—Two nice yearling calves. Andrew Wadsmbeck, Irasburg, 361f

FOR SALE—Fox Hound pups, also trained rabbit dog, one trained dog. G. A. Govro, Barton. 1wp

FOR SALE—One gray mare, weight about 1200 lbs. Would exchange for cow. G. A. Gilman, Orleans. 1wp

FOR SALE—Sound work horse, weight 1200 lbs. M. J. Owen, Barton. 381f

FOR SALE—High grade Guernsey bull calves, also Duroc Jersey pigs. E. S. Kelley, Orleans, R. D. 411f

FOR SALE—Good young Jersey cow to freshen last of this month. S. A. Hunt, Barton. 401f

FOR SALE—Half blood Shropshire buck year and a half old. Fine animal. J. J. Waters, Irasburg, R. D. 1. 401f

FOR SALE—Two 31x2 second hand saws and one 30x3 1/2 tub. A barrow. C. D. Salt, High street, Barton. 371f

FOR SALE—Two cook stoves, one with water front, new grates. Guaranteed in good condition. E. Soekol, Barton. 381f

FOR SALE—Nearly new DeLaval separator, No. 17, also second hand harness. V. O. Miles, Barton. Phone 34-14. 371f

FOR SALE—Cows, heifers and one registered Holstein bull calf, 5 months old. Hastings & Smith, West Glover. 41-43p

FOR SALE—Registered Holstein cow and heifer, both due to freshen in February. John A. McDonald, Box 256, East Ford, Vt. 1wp

FOR SALE—1917 model Ford touring car with new body, in good running order, also nearly new Roadster, upright piano, in excellent condition. C. E. Jenkins, Orleans. 1f

FOR SALE—My place on High street, two-tenement house, large garage, besides building lot, at reasonable price. Address Mrs. P. J. Plunkett, 149 Belmont, a v. e. n. e. Springfield, Mass., until November 1. 401f

FOR SALE—Peerless Touring car, 1915 model. Mechanical condition and paint excellent. New rear wheels. Franklin Touring car. A new 1921. Extra tires. Price right. A. H. Groat, Newport, R. D. 44-45

FOR SALE—My real estate in Barton village, consisting of two residences facing on Post-office square. Good barn and garden. One house has two tenements and might easily be made into fine business property. Inquire of Mrs. McDougall or W. M. Wright. 431f

FOR SALE OR RENT—Farm with 160 acres, sugar and apple orchards, only two miles from Barton village on Westmore road. Good granite quarry on property. Also 130 acres of woodland and pasture. J. M. Bernard, Barton. 161f

WANTED

WANTED—Man to work on farm. G. T. Cook, Glover. 431f

WANTED—At once, a pastry cook. Valley House, Orleans. 391f

WANTED—More milk and cream customers. C. B. Joy, Barton. 43-44p

WANTED—Man and wife to work on farm. G. T. Cook, Glover. 421f

WANTED—Orders for pullets and chickens. E. S. Kelley, Orleans, Phone 123-13. 421f

WANTED—Live poultry. Elicek, Barton. 181f

WANTED AT ONCE—Laundry woman, work to be done by machinery. Valley House, Orleans. 201f

WANTED AT ONCE—Competent housekeeper, able to take charge of house. W. W. Keirden, Barton. 431f

WANTED—Ten brick layers at once. Flynn Construction Co., Barton. 421f

WANTED—To hire or rent small farm by experienced man. Myron Morse, Box 297, Barton. 351f

WANTED—Fresh eggs and poultry Mondays and Tuesdays at Orleans express station. E. S. Kelley. 171f

WANTED—Girl for general work in restaurant. No cooking. Mrs. Belle Kibby, Barton. 361f

WANTED—Calfskins, and horse hides, also all kinds of junk. E. S. Kelley, Water St., Barton. Both phone. 431f

WANTED—Men's and boys' suits cleaned and pressed. Mrs. Lewis Gilman, Main street, Beede block, Orleans. 43-44p

WANTED—25 good lumbermen for a day on board. Apply to Mr. Eugene Sutton, Vt. Green Mountain Station 10-6166. 1wp

WANTED—Clerks, (men, women) for postal mail service, $125 monthly. Experience unnecessary. For full particulars of examination write to Mr. Barry, (former civil service examination) 767 Continental Bldg., Washington, D. C. 1wp

STOLEN GOODS WORTH $1000

Seaver's Hardware Store Entered Monday Night and Burglarized

A quantity of valuable hardware was taken from H. T. Seaver's store in Barton Monday night, the value of the goods taken being at least a thousand dollars and including rifles, razors, knives, flashlights and other articles. Mr. Seaver's desk was ransacked. Practically every fire arm in the store, with quantities of ammunition was taken. Only one or two razors were left and all jackknives in sight were stolen. These knives had Mr. Seaver's name etched on the blades which the burglars probably did not know. Only a very few flash lights were left.

Entrance was made through the front doors which were pried in or pushed in with considerable force and in plain sight of the entire Post-office square which is lighted all night.

No clue as to the guilty parties is known but it is thought the act is one of outside parties, though some indications point to local operators.

BARTON LOCAL NOTES

The weather continues warm and summerlike.

Carl Hamblet spent Sunday at his home here.

Horace Cook of Orleans recently visited friends in town.

Ernest Davenport has finished work in the Seaver hardware store.

Miss Retta Lane and Clyde Walcott are new employes at the Monitor office.

C. H. Blood was a business visitor in Montreal and other places the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sawyer of Lyndonville spent Sunday with his mother here.

Brick work has begun in earnest at the Wessell, Nickle & Gross plant on Water street.

Mrs. Bernard Lee has been visiting her mother in Skowhegan, Me., for several days.

Mrs. Ruth Griffin was operated on for appendicitis at Cleasby's hospital, Orleans, Monday.

Mrs. Laura Rochelle, of the Barrows store, is taking a vacation at her former home in Hardwick.

Miss Lillian Robinson of Brattleboro spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Robinson.

Election returns will be received at Seaver's hall Tuesday night, next, and all interested will be welcomed.

There will be work at the regular meeting of Keystone Chapter, No. 16, R. A. M., Monday evening at Masonic hall.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Willard motored to Burlington Saturday to visit their daughter, Frances, who is at U. V. M.

The Afternoon Study Club will meet with Mrs. W. E. Hanson Thursday, October 28. Subject, "Immigration."

Mr. Bissell, who recently purchased a house of Noah Brooks on High street, was here on business this week.

C. B. Webster of Springfield, Mass., has been spending several days with relatives here, returning home Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Burpee and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards of Lyndonville motored to town Sunday to attend church and hear their former pastor.

W. J. Edwards, who has been taking a vacation with friends in Canada, called on old friends here enroute to his home in Barre last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert Salt are moving from a tenement in the Williams house, recently sold to Charles Webster to a house on Elm street.

Mrs. Mary Baxter of Concord, N. H., who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Blake, has returned home accompanied by Mrs. Blake.

The last chance to get names on the check list is Saturday. Men and women who are entitled to the vote should see that their names are on the list.

Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Morrill, Miss Kidder and Mrs. Emma Sylvester of Coventry were callers at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. P. L. Webster, recently.

COUNTY COURT

Orleans County court which opened Sept. 14, took its final adjournment, Friday.

Judge Frank L. Fish went to his home in Vergennes to spend the week-end and Miss Mabel Spencer, court stenographer, returned to her home in St. Johnsbury. Judge Fish and Miss Spencer are in Guilford this week attending the fall term of court in Essex county.

The last case coming up at this term was the divorce case of Mabel Leith vs. Thomas Leith which was contested, the court awarding Mrs. Leith all of the personal property on the Leith farm in the town of Charleston.

A large part of this term was spent in hearing divorce cases of which there was an unusual large number.

The term would have been much longer had not the parties in the criminal cases, pleas guilty, and jurors which were not called until Sept 21st had but little work to do and were excused early in the term.

Sheriff E. J. Hill and Deputy Sheriff Solon E. Gray of Derby took Russell G. Bancroft, William Phillips and Joseph Rossiter Windsor to serve out their sentences, and Fred Daniels was committed to the House of Correction.

One of the important sessions of court last week was when Bailey, alias, Bancroft, and others were sentenced.

Bancroft was the promoter of Camp Westmore on Willoughby Lake and during the season of 1919 obtained several sums of money from various people in Orleans county, supposedly for the camp. He represented himself to be the owner of valuable real estate, and holder of bonds and stock aggregating over $200,000 and on the strength of this representation and to aid a local business project, secured many thousands dollars. The heaviest contributor being the National Bank of this city. The banking house into the loss by Bancroft. State's Attorney Thompson run this slick gentleman to earth and succeeded in obtaining extradition papers from the state of New Jersey, and Sheriff Hill brought him back to Vermont.

Bancroft was brought into court last week and plead not guilty to the charge. Later in the day, after a jury had been empaneled, he changed his plea to guilty. Bancroft was the first to come up for sentence. State's Attorney Thompson reviewed the case and asked for Bancroft. Bancroft was asked if he had anything to say, and made a lengthy statement of his case, showing he was a person of intelligence and well informed on banking laws and methods, stocks, investments and business in general. He reviewed his case, taking up the conditions of his health and asking clemency of the court on the ground of

(Continued on Page Six.)

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Pres. Aitkin, Sec. Houghton and Prof. Rider Present

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Holstein breeders of the county was held at Barton, Friday evening, October 22. The meeting opened at 8:15, President Bean of the county Holstein club presiding. Sec. Houghton of the Holstein Friesian Association of America, the first speaker of the evening, outlined the work of the association saying that the organization was in good condition financially, having a reserve fund of $385,000 with an annual budget of $400,000 for administrative and extension purposes. At the present time 70,000 people are doing business with the Holstein Friesian association which has a membership list of 19,000. There was an increased membership last year of 4,000 members and new members are signing up this year to the extent of 300 monthly. The organization has grown to the extent that 170 people are regularly employed at the home office at Brattleboro. In closing Mr. Houghton expressed the need of cooperation to extend still further the praises of the black and white breed.

Pres. Aitkin, the next speaker on the program devoted his remarks chiefly to the high value of milk as a food and emphasized the great necessity of educating the people of the country to the extent that the dairy industry of the country will realize greater consumption and a correspondingly greater demand. Much educational work is being done by the National Dairy council to which the Holstein Dairy council contributes to the extent of $500 monthly. The American Jersey Cattle club contributes a like amount. Aside from these two associations no other organization contributes to this educational work. Pres. Aitkin emphasized the necessity of educating every farmer on the value of their own dairy products, especially butter, since a large number are using old-fashioned methods. He stressed the need of better individual machines in the dairies especially in Vermont where 75% of the gross receipts from the farm comes from the dairy. With these better machines and better education on the value of dairy products, less difficulty will be realized in keeping the boys on the farm.

The next speaker, Mr. R. C. Pollock, one of the executive officers of the association, outlined the work accomplished by Holstein extension men in other parts of the country and emphasized the need of such a man in New England where there is such a large percentage of Holstein cattle. At the close of Mr. Pollock's remarks opportunity was given all present to become members of the New England Holstein club, the membership fee being $1 per head for registered stock and 25 cents for grades. After these things had been filed out the membership blanks, Prof. Rider reported that the men present had signed up to the extent of about $200. The speakers of the evening expressed themselves as being well pleased with the attendance and interest shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson were in Craftsbury Saturday to attend the funeral of Gilman Hodgdon.

Oney E. Rowell visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Abbie N. Whipple, of West Burke last week.

A little son, Earl Howard, was welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Anderson last week. Mrs. C. H. Porter is the nurse.

A box party is to be held at John Comer's for the benefit of their church on Saturday evening, October 30. Everyone is invited.

Thomas Calderwood of Hardwick has come to board at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Calderwood.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

Barrows Makes Statement to Voters

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years; my record in those offices with which you have entrusted me; my service to the Republican party; and my promise to give careful consideration to all legislation.

I believe such laws as will tend to lessen the present excessive burden of taxation are more vital to the individual voter than many distant and visionary planks concerning national and international affairs, yet I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe the principles set forth in the progressive Republican state platform with which I trust every voter is familiar, and for which I shall work.

If elected to the high honor which I seek from the hands of the voters of this town, I do not expect to become a leader in the legislative halls of Vermont, I do not consider myself a radical or a conservative, a reformer or a corruptionist, but merely a plain representative of the people, and under the oath of office which I seek will, if elected, give my best effort and consideration to such legislation as comes before me, voting for what appears to be for the best interests of my constituents and my state.

More I cannot say.

Respectfully,
C. A. Barrows.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS AT BARTON

Mr. Editor:

Allow me space for a few words to the voters of the town of Barton.

Since the Democratic nominee for town representative has given the voters his creed, which consists of at least 14 points and therefore runs true to his party's leader, some of my friends have urged me to give my platform. This I am glad to do.

It consists of my record as a resident and business man among you for 20 years;