Orleans County Farmers' Exchange.

The annual directors' meeting of the Orleans County Farmers' Exchange was held at the Exchange office Newport Saturday afternoon, with thirteen of the fifteen directors present.

President J. H. Bartlett of Orleans presided at the meeting and C. W. Richmond as clerk. The constitution and by-laws of the Farmers' Exchange call for directors meeting within ten days following the annual meeting of the Exchange. The principal business is to elect a president, vice president and treasurer, also to hire a manager and elect an executive committee of five from the board of directors whose business it shall be to direct and manage the business of the exchange.

J. H. Bartlett who has served the exchange faithfully for several years was re-elected to that office. E. S. Kelley of Brownington, was elected vice president and C. W. Richmond, treasurer. Harry W. Shaw, who has served seven years as manager of the Orleans County Exchange was hired for another year. The directors who were selected to serve on the Executive committee were: J. H. Bartlett, Orleans; H. E. Robbins, Derby; E. S. Kelley, Brownington; Fred May, Barton; and C. W. Richmond, Newport. These five men will direct the work of the exchange the coming year subject to policies of all the directors. At the Saturday meeting the work and policies of the exchange the past year were discussed and the work for the coming year outlined.

The past year was the banner year of the exchange, the business transacted being double that of the year previous and the directors feel that a big gain in the amount of feed, fertilizer and seed which they handle will be made this year. Those present at Saturday's meeting were J. H. Bartlett, Orleans; C. W. Richmond, Newport; R. H. Calkins, Westmore; B. W. Farman, Island Pond; Fred May, Barton; E. S. Kelley, Brownington; S. Phoenix, Troy; B. J. Williams, Morgan; H. E. Robbins, Derby; C. M. Borland, Glover; J. A. Griggs, North Troy; E. L. Edson, Greensboro and E. A. Dutton, Brownington.

"SONGADEWIN WIGWAM"

Name of Girls' Camp at Willoughby Where 98 Persons Are.

Mr. Editor:

It has occurred to me that citizens of Barton and Westmore and subscribers to your paper in other towns may be interested to know the exact situation that obtains in the girls' camp on Lake Willoughby, formerly known as Camp Westmore.

As most of your subscribers will remember, the Camp Westmore Co., Inc., of which Russell G. Bancroft was manager, went into bankruptcy in April 1920. The assets of the company were purchased by Messrs. C. O. Stone & Son, Inc., of Middletown, Conn., the contractors who had built the new buildings of the camp, and Barton, Conn., vice president of the Webber Lumber Co., of Fitchburg, Mass.

Mr. Stone and Mr. Cookman felt that to conduct the camp themselves was rather more than they cared to attempt; accordingly, they proposed to me that the assets be taken over by the Keewaydin Camps, Limited, a New York corporation of which I am president.

The Keewaydin Camps, Limited, is the oldest camp in America, having been conducted by the same management since July 1st, 1893. Keewaydin had conducted for 29 years, a large camp for boys on Lake Timagami in Canada—its principal camp, and one that handles annually some 250 campers, another camp at Dunmore in the town of Salisbury, and a camp for girls at Brewster, Mass., on Cape Cod bay. The Keewaydin camps, as far back as 1900, were characterized by "Country Life" as the "Standard Camps of America."

After considerable negotiation and several conferences, it was decided among Messrs Stone and Cookman and the directors of the Keewaydin Camps, Limited, that Keewaydin should take over the property of the defunct Camp Westmore Co., Inc., and conduct the same as Lake Willoughby under the name of Songadewin Wigwam of the Keewaydin Camps. For this purpose a subsidiary corporation was formed under the laws of the state of Vermont, with the name of Songadewin, Inc., and the same to be a subsidiary corporation of the Keewaydin Camps, Limited. Since July 1st, 1921, "Songadewin of Keewaydin" has been conducted by this corporation.

It was on April 1st that I first set foot on the property at Lake Willoughby. I had a great desire to get it ready for occupancy by July 1, and to get together even a small group of girls. By considerable work, we succeeded in opening the camp July 1st of last year, with 31 campers.

The season at Songadewin last year was wonderfully successful in every way. We had a most efficient staff, a fine group of girls, and a program that gave our campers the greatest satisfaction—so much so that the great majority of those campers have returned this year for a second season.

As soon as last season was over, we began to plan for this year. Keewaydin does no advertising of any kind. Our boys and girls all come through our staff, and each boy or girl is personally known to at least one member of the staff before he or she arrives at camp. They are thus "hand picked," and it would be difficult indeed to find a group of girls that would compare with them in personal characteristics in breeding, campers that would be a credit to Songadewin and to Keewaydin.

The season of 1922 opened most auspiciously on July 1st. The staff is a most excellent one, being composed of young women who have made education of girls their life work and who are experts in their own particular lines of camp activity. The girls are a remarkably fine group and have taken to camp life as the proverbial duck does to water. It may interest the readers of the Monitor to know that the camp family regular consists of 98 practically one hundred that we consider the proper limit to the camp's numbers.

It has been our practice to patronize as far as possible local institutions and industries, and to "pay as we go" in cash. We appreciate the fact that the name of the camp is the people of Barton, Westmore, Orleans, and other surrounding towns; and we wish to assure them that we expect to make Songadewin the foremost girls' camp in America and one that every citizen of Orleans county can be proud of as a local institution.

There has been some confusion in the minds of local people as to what the name of the camp is and how it should be made out. As I have said above, the name of the camp is Songadewin Wigwam of the Keewaydin Camps. This can be shortened either to Songadewin or Keewaydin, but bills should be made out to Songadewin Incorporated.

With renewed assurances of our appreciation of the courtesies of the citizens of Orleans county and of our intention to reciprocate in every way, I remain, sir,

Very respectfully yours,

A. S. Gregg, Camps, President.

Greensboro and County Office.

To the Voters of Orleans County: The undersigned citizens of the town of Greensboro feel that the situation regarding the assistant judgeship in the south end of the county should be thoroughly understood and we desire to place the following facts in your hands for consideration:

A. C. Chase of Greensboro is a candidate for assistant judge and F. W. Tenney of Albany is a candidate for reelection, having served three terms already, or six years, one term longer than usual.

The record of Greensboro and of Albany with reference to county office in the past generation and more, is as follows:

H. S. Tolman, assistant judge in the 90's.

L. A. Jackson, senator in 1902.

L. D. Miles, high sheriff many years.

J. F. Chamberlain, senator in 1888.

M. B. Chaffee, senator in 1898.

R. M. Cowles, senator in 1921.

F. W. Tenney, assistant judge since 1916.

We do not claim location is all that is to be considered, but no one denies the ability of Mr. Chase, his services to the party and to the county in the past have been freely given for many years and his townsmen feel that Mr. Chase as a man deserves your support, and that Greensboro as a town is not asking too much in hoping for your consideration of her claim to recognition.

Mr. Chase has the support of the majority of the bar of the south end of the county, is a citizen of the best type, would bring to the bench a keen sense of justice and would administer the business affairs of the county with the same judgement and fidelity which has marked his successful career in our midst.

We feel justified in making these facts public, believing that your judgment can best be rendered with fairness to all by a frank statement of the case.

Very truly yours, R. A. Ritchie, J. H. Barrington, A. E. Tolman, Don C. Barber, Mary E. Barber, H. B. Miller.

Mrs. F. R. LaPlant, Fred LaPlant, C. A. Duport, Mrs. C. A. Duport, Mrs. Bertha Miller, F. A. Goodrich, Edwin E. Dudley.

B. M. Willey, Fred Lewis, C. H. Olmstead, Mrs. A. B. DeBrune, H. M. Cuthbertson, Geo. A. Porter. Also give the names.
