JONATHAN WAINWRIGHT

KEEPS constantly on hand at the shop formerly occupied by R. & J. WAINWRIGHT, in Burlington, all kinds of stoves wanted in a northern country. He would say to his friends that he has just made large additions to his former stock, and is now prepared to supply the public with almost every thing wanted in his line—he has just added many new and convenient patterns of Cooking Stoves, which together with his former very large assortment cannot fail to suit all those who will be suited. The attention of Tavern Keepers & heads of large families is solicited in particular to a NEW PATTERNS STOVE: for cooking, now to be seen at his shop, which for real convenience and facilities for doing business he thinks cannot be surpassed. Also, the TOWN COOKING STOVE, he considers one that will make its way into almost every family. This stove takes in a large round boiler back, and two smaller in front, that can be swung off the fire; a convenience not found in other stoves—also, has a Furnace attached underneath that can be used without heating the whole stove, and will be found very convenient for summer use—has a large oven, and taken altogether will be found a perfect stove.
A lot of entire New Style PARLOR STOVES of three sizes are offered for sale. Also—ROTARY STOVES, cheap as can be bought in the state. A general assortment of hollow ware—CALDRON KETTLES, of different sizes—PLOUGH, Plough castings—Cast Iron Sled and Sleigh Shoes. Splendid RUSSIA PIPE—AMERICAN and ENGLISH do—together with many other articles not mentioned. The best of workmen are constantly employed manufacturing all kinds of Copper, Sheet Iron, and Tin Ware.
The fact that he has a Furnace continually in operation, and that people can at all times be accommodated with extra plates for any of his castings is worthy the consideration of every one who wishes to buy a stove.
Burlington, Nov. 1833.

THE HYGEAN SYSTEM OF MEDICINE
Having TAUGHT for its foundation, and SIMPLICITY for its structure, has stood the test of time—has triumphed over prejudice and opposition, and has become world renowned. These medicines cure ALL diseases which admit of cure. WHY? because all diseases have one origin, Impurity of the Blood, and these medicines are not only the most certain and efficacious of all purifiers of the blood, but they leave the stomach in healthful action to make good soon which is Health.
The following speaks for itself:
CAUTION—British College of health Hamilton Place, New Road, London, July 12, 1833. Whereas Horatio Shepherd M.D. of New York, late general Agent to the British College of health, London, is publicly making use of my name for the sale of certain medicines purporting to be mine. This is to certify that I am in no wise connected with such medicine, and that I protest against such use of my name by said M.D. in any manner whatsoever, the same being calculated to mislead the public.
And I hereby declare that Dr. Geo. Taylor now of Wall st. New York is my only authorized Agent in the United States, and from whom alone and the Agents appointed by him can my medicines be had GENUINE.
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, signed,
JAS. MORISON,
The Hygeist, President of the British College of health.
Our sub-agents through the state will please to see that the above is correctly published in ALL the papers in their counties, and one copy sent us and one to Dr. Geo. Taylor 64 Wall or 6 New-st. New York.
We are now prepared to answer all their orders for Medicine and Powders, and we intend to keep a full supply to answer all the numerous calls for them. This medicine takes the lead of all others.
PANGBORN & BRINSMALD,
Jewellers, Burlington, Vt. Agents for the state, appointed by Dr Geo. Taylor, 64 Wall and 6 New sts., New York, member of the British College of health, and sole Agent for the United States.
