POTORKETESIE, Dec. 18. The Hudson River is practically closed .-The weather is cold and there is much float-

The ice gorge in the river below this city gave away this alternoon. The ice swept past this city with tremendous power, sink ng or seriously damaging a dozen steamers and a number of barges, involving a loss of about $300,000.

New York, Dec. 19. A St. Louis despatch says the scene of the ice disaster on the river yesterday was a most exciting one. The levee was a perfect prom-enade of all kinds of people gazing at and commenting upon the scene of smashed and sers. The river is frozen solid, and huge chunks of ice five inches thick were piled up in shapeless masses around the domed steamers, flathouts and broken wharves. A group of four boats tightly jammed together and so damaged that it was | trial. ot easy to distinguish one from another, lay in the stream on the verge of the chan nel. All the others are crushed against the bank, some were fairly broken in the middle, others had their pilot houses, upper decks and chimnies carried away. The gunboats and chimnies carried away. The gunboats beach and Shiloh, lying at the foot of Plum street, are uninjared, their iron sides resisting the pressure of the ice. Yesterday the ice at Cora street was strong enough for quite a large number to cross to and fro. Mails were brought over on sleighs by the post office employees from this city to a point about 50 miles below there, the river s cleared but there is a heavy gorge at that point and when it moves the boats which escaped total wreck on Saturday will proba-
