THE ANDERSONVILLE POST OFFICE.

[The following touching lines, descriptive of an incident in the "prison" of the Union prisoners at Andersonville, Ga., are attributed to G. H. Hollister, Esq., of Littlefield, Conn. The war has elicited nothing of sadder interest. It cannot be read too often.]

Running the Gauntlet.

The terrible chastisement known as "running the gauntlet" was abolished in Austria in 1854. For years it had been a favorite mode of punishment, and was a cruel and barbarous remnant of those dark and dismal times called the middle ages.

The Third District Convention.

WAGES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Labor is well paid in San Francisco. Bricklayers get five dollars a day; culkers (for Sunday work) fifteen dollars, and for ten hours in other days, nine dollars and fifty cents; stevedores, five dollars; blacksmiths, four to six dollars; chambermaids, twenty to twenty-five a month; laundresses, twenty-five to thirty dollars per month; men servants thirty to thirty-five; men cooks, forty to ninety; printers, 75 cents per 1000 ems; shoemakers, five dollars per each pair of boots or shoes; and policeman twelve dollars a month. These of course, are gold prices.
