Vernor District, es.

Pursuant to a monition issued out of the Honorable District Court of the United States, for the District of Vermont, I hereby give notice that an information for violation of the Revenue Laws of the United States has been filed in said Court by D. C. Denison, Esq., attorney of the United States for the District of Vermont, against

ONE HORSE, ONE HARNESS, AND ONE WAGON,

Seized at Highgate, in said District, on the r3d day of April, A. D. 1868, by Geo. J. Stannard, Esq., Collector of Customs for said District, and trial will be had on the property scized and the same will be condemned as forthe highest prices in market, and it requires no more labor or care to raise a good colt than an inferior one. It was with the view to improve the stock of horses in Northern New York, Vermont and New Hampshire, etc., that Young Dexter was purchased by its present owner, Mr. H. C. Page, Editor of the People's Journal—the object being to benefit farmers and stock growers who are willing to undergo the care and expense necessary to the raising of good horses.
