

THE TOWNS AROUND.

BARNET.

The Old Maid's auction at the town hall on Friday secured a good attendance, the ladies' society realizing about $25.

EAST BARNET.

We are glad to hear good news from Mrs. Mary Quimby, who has been a long time ill, now under the doctor's care at Lisbon, N. H.

EAST BURKE.

Rev. C. P. Taplin is in Montpelier this week on business. Mr. Wyman is moving into the Hibbard Smith house.

WEST BURKE.

George Dean and his son Carl have purchased the grist mill. The Dramatic Club is about to put on the play entitled "The Enemy's Camp."

W. S. STEVENS.

W. S. Stevens' mail route has changed hands again, George A. Bush being the latest carrier. Very many sick in this vicinity, among whom are a number of aged people.

WEST CONCORD.

Rev. F. E. Currier exchanged with Rev. Chas. Tucker of Lunenburg last Sunday. Frank Cutting, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of our town, died last Friday.

DANVILLE.

James Borland, Jr., is in town. Miss Mary Barnes is very sick. Abial Palmer and family are on the sick list. Miss Flora Green is quite sick with the grip.

McINDOES FALLS.

Mrs. Pearl is at Danville visiting friends. Miss Mary Hunt has been quite sick but is reported better. William Morrison of Ryegate was the guest of Seth Ford last week.

PASSUMPSIC.

L. E. Gillfillan is painting his house. Fred Miles, who has been very sick with pneumonia, is gaining. Mrs. Jennie Powers from Lunenburg is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. D. Gould.

Mr. Williams has bought Moses Weston's farm. Mrs. Martha Morrill from McIndoes, who has been in town on account of the sickness of her brother, Eleazer Dole, has returned to her home.

Chas. Wilson has sold seven acres of land near the depot to Frank Stocker, five acres to Winfield Fisher and three acres to Chas. Brainard. There was quite a gathering of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mat Greenbanks at their home last Thursday evening.

Chas. W. Shaw, we are sorry to learn, is again on the sick list. Miss Nettie Stevens is numbered with the sick on this week.

Mr. Gilman has the contract to build a barn for Vernon Vance this summer. Mrs. Charles Clifford, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is on the gain.

Mrs. Wm. Clement, Jr., has been visiting friends in St. Johnsbury for the past few days. Frank Emerson has purchased the grist mill in this place and has already taken possession. Consideration, $750.

Martin Sanborn is home from St. Johnsbury Academy sick with the prevailing epidemic, the mumps. Mrs. Susan Woodward of Danville, who has been stopping with her daughter, Mrs. G. D. Wells, returned to Danville last week.

George Gilman of St. Johnsbury Center is moving on to Charles Hubbard's farm. Charles goes to St. Johnsbury to work for Mark Russell. Aaa Chamberlain has moved his family back to his tenement here.

Olin Chesley has bought the farm recently occupied by Mr. Chamberlain in Sheffield. R. M. Walker was kicked by a colt one day last week, receiving severe injuries.

Eli Partridge had a little difficulty with a ram one day last week and is now up for repairs. In an item in last week's CALEDONIAN the writer gave a list of the singers from out of town and spoke of some who entertained. Below we give a list of those who so kindly entertained and assisted in making the convention a success.

Mrs. Elsie Merrill entertained 2, Walter Blanchard 1, W. H. Bayley 5, Plynny Bolton 4, Rev. J. K. Williams 2, Dea. Kinnerson 2, Mrs. McLarry 2, Mr. Strobbridge, Wm. Steele 1, E. R. Mackay 2, W. W. Morse 2, Cloud Harvey 2, Mrs. T. Martin 1, R. S. Hooker 3, F. S. Harriman 2, F. S. Palmer 2, W. A. Ricker 3, C. L. Brown 4, E. W. Clark 2, and others who would have, if it had been necessary. Among those who could not entertain, but contributed to the dinners at the hall, were C. A. Bunker, Mrs. Eastman, L. Dana, Mrs. Merrill, G. Stoddard, F. J. Stoddard, W. J. Pollard and many others.

The committee of entertainment wish to "thank all" who so kindly helped us, both by entertaining and helping with the dinners in making it a success. C. L. BROWN, B. S. HOOKER.

Geo. L. Page returned to Boston last week. A large number of fat hogs will go to market from this place next week. Sugaring has commenced in earnest. Many of the orchards are tapped. Nellie McLam came home from St. Johnsbury school sick with the mumps. Travel on some of the back roads is nearly at a standstill, but the weather here is having will soon remedy the evil. George G. Nelson went West last week and expects to bring to town a car load of horses. When George gets stuck on horses Ben Dow of Woodsville comes to his aid, taking from two to five at a time.

Roswell Leach and wife of Lyndon Centre are at Arthur Kincaid's. E. Miles has the start of the most of the sugar-makers in town, as he commenced in earnest last week and gave the first sugar party of the season at his sugar camp last Saturday to all who would attend from the village, and a goodly number put in an appearance. It was Mr. Miles' 67th birthday, Orville Peck's 78th birthday, and Sadie Blake's 22nd birthday, all being in the jolly company at the sugar camp.

Jonathan Stevens has bought of Dr. Colby what is known as the John Beck with place on the street back of the church and is to move in at once from Glover. Andrew P. Taft has bargained for the H. L. Gilman place at the village, where he now lives, for $500. He has also bargained the field of 11 acres to his son, S. E. Taft, for $220, which leaves the buildings and three acres of land to him for $280.

Mrs. Drew has been dangerously sick, but is now recovering; also Mr. Drew has been very sick. Mrs. J. E. Holmes, Mrs. F. W. Barker, Mrs. F. A. Holmes, L. B. Sanborn and others are on the sick list. The literary club connected with the young people's society of A. C. P.'s met with Sadie Blake and had Longfellow and his works under discussion last Friday evening. A goodly number were present and an enjoyable time was had by all. John Bennett is moving back from Brownington Centre, where he went last fall, to his farm above Corydon Parker's, and Mr. Hill, who lived here, has moved to the farm where he bought of Miss Gray in the Whipple neighborhood. Several of our largest and best sugar places are going to be idle this spring, as their owners say it will not pay them to hire help to carry them on at the prospective price for sugar and the wages that help ask.

G. W. Patch has gone to South Danville to work. Frank Forrest of Greensboro was in town Monday. Warren Rollins has sold a part of his farm to P. J. Jennison. O. E. Lane was home over the Sabbath, returning to Morrisville Monday. Though it seems early for sugaring some of the farmers in this vicinity have tapped their sugar orchards, securing quite a good run of sap last week. The new creamery laboratory has progressed so far as to take the form of a covered building, and doubtless all accessories will be supplied as needed, so the farmers can receive benefit from it in due time.

Rev. J. T. Buzzell and wife, Mrs. Mary Woods, Mrs. Willard Hill and Thomas Miles are quite sick with hard colds. Nelson Rash returned last week from the far West, where he has been at work for the past year, satisfied that old Vermont is good enough place to live in. It was a surprise to nearly all, Sunday, March 4, when Rev. J. T. Buzzell announced to his congregation that his services as pastor would close with the last Sabbath in May. We need not say that we deeply regret the circumstances which have led to this result. Ever since he came to this church seven years ago next June, he has shown himself to be a spiritual Christian minister, both in the pulpit and parish, and a good degree of prosperity has been seen during this time. Forty-four have been baptized and twelve added by experience and letter. The present membership of the church is 134.

David Harriman of St. Johnsbury visited friends in town last week. Mrs. C. E. Sargent has moved from the rooms over her store to her house. Frank Dow, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. B. S. Hooker, has returned to New York. Scott M. Farnum has opened his repair shop at North Peacham, has four men working for him and is prepared to do all kinds of repairing. He has lately received a carload of stock from which he will manufacture all kinds of farm wagons. County Sunday schools will have a rally at the Congregational church next Friday at 10 o'clock and at two in the afternoon, to which Sunday schools in adjoining towns are cordially invited. Dinner will be served in the rooms below. The drama "Chrononhotastrology" was very much enjoyed last Friday night, as was also the farce, "The Rough Diamond. The parts were very well represented, and together with the lovely costumes, made it a grand success and a good sum was realized for the piano.

James Willey has bought the John Sheldon farm. Price $450. Olin Chesley has bought the Charles McLellan farm, stock and tools. Price $2000. Asa Chamberlain, who has carried on the farm for the last four years, moves to Glover. Mr. Chamberlain is a good townsman and we are sorry to lose him. Mr. Heath, who moved from West Glover on to Fred Folsom's farm, has returned to Glover. David Wood has improved his house by putting on a bay window. Eugene Bickford, Jr., is home from Boston, where he is clerking for a wholesale house. Ford Rogers from Barre was in town last week. Cephas T. Patch is quite low from heart failure. George Davenport has rented James Scott's farm for one year and taken possession. Sugar makers are busy nowadays and we expect soon to be sweetened up in good shape. There will be a sugar party at Carpenter's hall next week Thursday under the auspices of the Mite Society. The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kingsbury met at their home in large numbers last Saturday evening to remind them of the tenth anniversary of their marriage. Several beautiful presents were left and a sum of money. Cake and coffee were served and a good time was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. J. G. Gray is gaining slowly. Mattie Kelley was at home over Sunday. Quite a number of the farmers have begun sugaring. E. J. Dana has moved his family onto Wm. Folsom's farm. Rev. E. J. Bodman is holding special meetings with L. B. Rose at Hortonville, Mass. James Ball has hired out with Henry Hoffman through sugaring, and Bert Bean with Joseph Ingalls of Lyndon.
