LOCAL GATHERINGS.
—The St. Johnsbury hospital has six patients, one or two of them being very sick.
—Newton Beers and his company entertained a fair audience in Stanley Opera House last evening, presenting their funny comedy, "Two Old Cronies." —J. J. Eagan of Montpelier, State Chief Ranger of the Catholic Order of Foresters, was in town this week in the interests of a new court for the English-speaking Catholics.
—A special meeting of the Choral Union will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall next Monday evening when the executive committee will present several matters of interest to members.
—Dr. J. E. Hartshorn was thrown from his wheel Monday evening upon the fence at the schoolhouse common. He sprained an ankle and broke a rib and has to ride to his office in a carriage.
—The St. Johnsbury band give their weekly concert at the Railroad street band stand this evening commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Barrington will remain with the band while the out-door concerts last.
—Barbour's Business College continues to receive additions, four new scholars arriving this week. Mr. Barbour has also added two more Remington typewriters to the department in shorthand and typewriting.
—Frank Carr has sold his trotter, Mamie O., to Ben & Winslow of Barton for $200. She was entered in the 2:23 race at the fair last week and came in fourth in the second heat.
—"Living Pictures of the Civil War" will be brought out by the Woman's Relief Corps early in October. These have been presented in other towns and given great satisfaction to all who have been fortunate enough to see them.
—Barbour's Business College has issued a neat little pamphlet announcing the opening of its evening school on Monday, Oct. 5. The day school of this college has a good number of scholars and a most successful school year is assured.
—The Mahogany Quartette go to Manchester, N. H., this afternoon to sing at the Y. M. C. A. convention. The boys sang at the same convention last year at Bellows Falls and made such a favorable impression that they were invited to sing this year.
—The first frost of the season came Tuesday night, doing considerable damage to the garden vegetables that were not covered up. The frost came about two weeks later than usual and as a result late vegetables and fruits have done unusually well.
—Hiram R. Goss, administrator of the estate of the late Willard Goss, will sell the David Goss farm in Goss Hollow at auction on Wednesday, Oct. 7. This is one of the oldest homesteads in town, having been occupied by David Goss and his children over 100 years.
—The wind storm Saturday night tore the big McKinley flag on Main street so badly that it had to be taken down.

PERSONALS.

Ernest Morrill is enjoying a vacation at his home in Danville, P. Q.
W. T. King is spending this week at his old home in Portland, Me.
Rev. H. M. Douglas is attending the Baptist state convention at Bristol.
Chauncey S. Walker of Richmond has been visiting his brother, Col. Frank Walker.
Miss Jane Drouin has left the employ of McKane Bros. and Miss Ida Peck takes her place.
Mrs. John Flanagan of Worcester, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibson.
Mrs. Elmore T. Ide has gone to Jacksonville, Ala., to spend the winter with her son, George P. Ide.
Miss Winona Snow left Saturday for Burlington, where she has a position in the telephone exchange.
Miss Glines of Sunset Home left yesterday for a visit of several weeks with friends in Massachusetts.
Miss Martha Ross is engaged to teach drawing in the primary and intermediate schools at Wells River.
Frank L. Aldrich, local editor of the Suncook, N. H. Journal, spent a few days in town the past week.
Harry Cross has gone to Sing Sing, N. Y., to enter a military academy. Mrs.
George H. Cross went to Sing Sing with him.
Benjamin Shaw and son, Prof. Clement B. Shaw, of Chicago, returned home last week after a ten days' visit among friends in this place.
Warren Bishop of New York was the guest of Mrs. C. P. Carpenter the first of the week. Mr. Bishop is connected with the Laffan News Agency.
Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Aldrich, Irving J.
Folsom, Postmaster Bundy and Mrs.
Thaddeus Cormier are at Birch Lodge, Lake Morey, for a two weeks' outing.
Harry Belknap and mother are spending this week in Sutton. Mr. Belknap took his rifle along and will show his friends there a few points about sharpshooting.
Miss Hattie Ann Morse, a former resident of this place, was married on September 14 to Irving Usner. Mr. and Mrs.
Usner will be at home after October 1 at 2330 Michigan avenue, Chicago.
Fred W. Carr has gone to Lancaster to conduct a plumbing and tinware business. Mr. Carr has been in the scale works for 16 years, making boxes for scales and is an excellent workman.
Harry Drennan, a former workman in the CALEDONIAN office, was here Monday en route to his old home in Hardwick.
Mr. Drennan is now connected with a Lowell, Mass., printing establishment.
Dr. F. E. Leonard has come here from Groveton, N. H., to practice medicine and educate his children in our public schools.
He has opened an office in the Masonic block on Main street. Dr. Leonard has practiced medicine for 20 years, having spent the last 10 years in Groveton.
Selim Newell has resigned his position as bookkeeper at Fairbanks' dry goods store to enter the University of Vermont.
The clerks presented him with a handsome traveling bag as a recognition of his courtesies and their friendship. James Cushman succeeds him as bookkeeper.
Arthur Knapp of the Boston Public Library has been the guest of E. F. Brown through the week. Mr. Knapp's father, Hiram Knapp, was one of the first subscribers of this paper, and Arthur Knapp recently found among his father's papers a receipt for the CALEDONIAN for the first year of its publication.
Don Cameron has entered Yale college.
J. Henry Brackett of the University of Vermont and Walter Rankin, now of Boston, has entered Dartmouth college.
Ira Drew, who expected to enter the University of Vermont, has entered the CALEDONIAN office to learn the printer's trade.
Mrs. Walter P. Smith gave a party last Friday evening in honor of guests who have many friends in St. Johnsbury.
—Mrs. Henry Fairbanks entertained a number of friends in a most hospitable manner at Elmwood Tuesday evening.
—Mrs. John C. Thompson entertained Chamberlin Relief Corps at her home on Portland street Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 8.
W. C. T. U. Notes. The monthly meeting of the local society will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is a very important meeting as plans for the state convention to be held here Oct. 22-26 must be discussed and important business transacted with reference to the convention. Every member of the union is most earnestly urged to be present if possible, and all interested in the work are cordially invited to attend the meeting.
Miss Willard's work has detained her in England longer than was anticipated, and she will not sail for home quite as soon as she expected. The date is not definitely fixed yet, but the ladies still have hope that she may be here at the state convention. There are several excellent speakers engaged for this convention, and a very interesting programme is expected.

Business Notes.

—Mrs. F. B. Martel has gone to Boston and New York after fall military goods and will be back the first of next week with the newest styles.
Charles A. Calderwood has greatly improved his furniture store by the addition of two plate glass windows.
Addresses to Young Men.—Rev. Mr.
Tyrle will begin a course of lectures to young people next Sunday evening at Grace Methodist church, at 7 o'clock.
The list of topics and dates is as follows: Sept. 27. Children of Issachar.
Oct. 4. The Mistakes of a Life.
Oct. 11. "The Great Stone Face." Oct. 18. A Young Man with Whom Every Young Man should be Acquainted.
Oct. 25. The Kind of a Young Man Business Men are Looking for.
Nov. 1. A Young Man Whose Eyes Were Opened; What He Saw.
Nov. 8. A Young Man with a Future.
Nov. 15. Notes, Prisoner and His Books.
Nov. 22. Why So Many Young Men Fail.
Nov. 29. A Young Man Who Won the Heart of a Great Man.
Dec. 6. Some Young Men with Whom I Wouldn't Associate.
Dec. 13. What I Would Do if I Were a Young Man.

Boston and Maine Earnings.—A Boston & Maine director says: "Freight earnings of the Boston & Maine for July and August were very unsatisfactory, but this is to be expected with so many mills along the line closed down, and with general business in such a poor condition. During August there was an unprecedented passenger travel to the seashore resorts in Maine, and this has to an extent offset the bad freight earnings, but is not sufficient to bring the gross earnings for the month of August up to the figures of last year. Lean earnings will probably continue through September as there is apparently no immediate prospect of business improving sufficient to start all the mill wheels going, and passenger travel will probably show a loss, as the vacation season is about over."

Good News for the Academy.—The announcement of "ten thousand dollars to St. Johnsbury Academy" by the will of A. B. Darling of New York brings great gratification to everyone here and to friends of the school everywhere. No official notification of this has yet been received by the trustees, but the statement is undoubtedly correct as given in the New York papers. Mr. Darling never had any personal connection with the Academy but its history and work were familiar to him. His estimate of its rank and worth and his expectation of its permanent usefulness may be inferred from the bequest which he has made.
Coming at a crisis of need in the history of the school, this gift awakens an immediate feeling of cheer, and everyone is hoping it will prove to be the first token of large replenishments to the Academy treasury.

Among the Churches.—Rev. C. W.
Dockham, who has filled the pastorate of the Second Advent church of this place for four years, will close his labors with that church next Sunday, when he will preach his farewell sermon. Mr. Dock-ham has no definite plans for the future and will remain in St. Johnsbury for the present.
Bishop Michaud of Burlington was in town the first of the week and spoke to the English-speaking members of the Catholic parish at the church Monday evening. He gave an interesting talk and encouraged the people in their plans for erecting a new church.
Rev. H. H. Hoyt will preach a sermon next Sunday morning appropriate to the harvest season and the church will be appropriately decorated for the occasion.
The ladies of the Episcopal church are preparing for their harvest home sale of canned fruits, jam, pure fruit jellies, sweat and sour pickles, spiced currants, etc. This sale will be early in October.

Reunion of the 17th Vermont Volunteers.—Two years have elapsed since the survivors of the 17th Vermont volunteers have been called together and it seems best that they again assemble. It is hoped that as many as possible do so will assemble at Morrisville, Wednesday, Sept. 30th. Headquarters will be established at Hotel Randall, where a business meeting will be held at 1 o'clock p. m. for the election of officers, after which an informal meeting will be held, and every comrade requested to give an account of the things most pleasing for him to relate. The survivors of the regiment have among its members scores that can tell the story of the hardships and incidents of their service that will be worth listening to. Frank Kenfield of Morrisville is president of the organization and D. E. May of St. Johnsbury, secretary. An interesting reunion is anticipated.

The Cavalry Here.—Company F of the United States cavalry, who are stationed at Fort Ethan Allen, arrived here Monday night on their way home from the Manchester centennial. There were 55 members in the company, with G. A.
Dodd, captain; D. S. Tate and J. P.
Ryan, lieutenants. The company pitched their tents on the fair ground and were the cynosure of all eyes during their brief stay in town. They left Tuesday morning for the military post, and as they rode up through Main street at the sound of the bugle they were heartily applauded and three cheers were given them. Capt. C. M. Bonette and A. J.
Corriveau accompanied the troops as far as Danville. Company F is the "crack" troop of the United States, having seen plenty of service. They are most accomplished horsemen and are going to England this winter to show the English the Indian methods of warfare.

A. B. Darling's Will.

The will of the late Alfred B. Darling, one of the proprietors of the Fifth Avenue hotel, was filed for probate in the surrogate's office, New York, last Saturday. The will was dated June 15, 1892. Mr. Darling died on Sept. 6 last. The amount of the estate is not stated. He leaves to his widow, Lydia A. Darling, the income of $20,000 a year, part from property at Auburndale, Mass.
He bequeathed to his nephew, Charles M. Darling, $50,000; Nina Glunt, $10,000; his brother-in-law, N. F. Nye, $10,000; Grace D. and Alice Wetherbee, $25,000 each; Edward F. Carpenter, $10,000; his nephew, Elmer A. Darling, one share in the Fifth Avenue hotel property; Charles N. Vilas, one-half share in the same property; his niece, Louisa A. Darling, $75,000; his niece, Mrs. H. E. Folsom of Lyndonville, $100,000.
The will leaves to the Congregational society at East Burke, the property they occupy and $10,000 in trust; $10,000 to St. Johnsbury Academy and $2,500 to the Lyndon Literary and Biblical Institute.

A Patriotic Address.—At the Methodist church last Sunday evening Rev. Mr.
Tyrle gave a fine address to a crowded house on the emancipation proclamation. He told of the events that led up to this remarkable document and said that the magna charta, the declaration of independence and Lincoln's proclamation were the three most remarkable documents ever promulgated among English-speaking nations.
The last half of his address was devoted to a presentation of the evils that we should be emancipated from. The first one was provincialism, and the speaker said this talk last winter about a war with England over a piece of land in South America that wasn't worth going down there to look at, showed a fault of some Americans that ought to be reminded at once. Intolerance was the next matter alluded to, and in the course of some pertinent remarks on this theme Mr. Tyrle said that he wondered if those who cried "America for Americans" realized that this meant America for the Indians, the only real Americans in the United States. He said there was not an American in his hearing, but that all were near descendants of the English, the Scotch, the Irish and the Germans.
We had invited the foreigners to our shores and it was our duty to make them good American citizens rather than criz-ze their ancestry. The last evil that he emancipated from was the idea that wealth makes a man. A nation is exalted by character rather than affluence and character would remain if our material prosperity was destroyed. During the service recitations were given by Miss Hamilton and Miss Woodruff and the emancipation proclamation was read by W. P. Kelly.

Dartmouth College Notes.—The 128th year of the college opened very propitiously last week Thursday with 160 enrolled in the freshman class, it being the largest number in the history of the institution. Stuckey and Hatch are the Academy representatives in the class. Crosby hall is nearly completed and is a model of its kind. Butterfield college has been turned over to the college authorities and with its excellent laboratories, recitation and lecture rooms makes a great addition to Dart-mouth's equipment. It is occupied by the departments of biology, geology and social science. Mr. Aiken, Dartmouth's famous athlete of the class of '87, has accepted the invitation of the Y. M. C.
A. and has assumed the secretaryship.
He is universally popular and much is expected from the association under his leadership.
The first game of base ball in the class championship series was played Monday between the seniors and juniors, resulting in a score of 8 to 4 in favor of the former. Taylor and Patey were the opposing pitchers.
S. C. Smith '97 is confined to the hospital, threatened with typhoid fever.
B. I. Marshall '97, has gone to Waterville, Me., to coach the Colby university football team for the coming month.
The annual foot-ball rush between the sophomores and freshmen was won by the sophomores.

Corbett's Racing Record.—Herbert E.
Moore's Corbett, by Cobden, has just finished a ten weeks' racing tour which eclipses in speed and money earned the work of any horse ever owned in this country. H. T. Ball of Staunstead drove the horse and succeeded in getting speed out of him in almost every race. In the last 10 weeks the horse has been in nine races, winning six first and one fourth moneys. The value of the purses is over $500. Corbett began racing the 19th day of July and in the first two races failed to get a purse. At Lancaster he won first in a six heat race and got a mark of 2:27 1/2. The next week he reduced this to 2:26 1/2 at Newport and won his race in three heats. At Stanstead he won his race in three heats and the following week won a race at Richmond in six heats. At the Sherbrooke fair in a seven heat race he took first money and lowered his record to 2:25 1/2. At the St. Johnsbury fair last week he won the race in five heats, lowering his record to 2:24 1/2. At Morrisville, Wednesday, he caught a cold and finished fourth in the race, the winner, Parker John, crossing the wire in 2:23 1/2. Mr. Moore was planning to send Corbett to a Connecticut circuit next month, but has decided to give the horse a rest for the present.
Corbett is one of Cobden's most promising descendants and he ought to get below 2:20 next season.

CALEDONIA COUNTY FAIR.

Last Day of the Great Fair.—Good Crowd, Good Races and a Grand Balloon Ascension.
The weather last Friday was as good as if made to order, and the programme, arranged for Thursday but postponed on account of rain, was most successfully carried out. There was a good crowd on the ground, but not as large as it would have been if the weather had allowed the programme to be carried out on Thursday as advertised.
The 2:27 race in the morning was the most interesting one of the day and was won by Corbett to the great satisfaction of many local sports. It was the only St. Johnsbury horse in the races that morning and attracted a good deal of attention. In the 2:40 class there were eight entries and there was a good long distance between the first and last horse in each heat. In the free-for-all there were only two entries and Barney took three straight heats. The last mile was made in 2:15, breaking by 6 seconds the track record of 2:21 1/4 made by W. S.
Bailey's Helen M. The first quarter was made in 34 seconds, the half in 1:07 1/2, the three-fourths in 1:41 1/2 and the mile in 2:15. Following is the score of the races:

2:27 Class. Purses $200.

Corbett, ch. r.	1	3	1	1
Farker, John, b. c.	2	1	2	3
Kate M., bk. m.	3	2	4	3
Henry's Boy, E. E.	4	4	5	4
Bessie Wood, b. g.	5	5	6	4
Time—2:24 1/2, 2:27 1/2, 2:28 1/2, 2:27 1/2.

2:40 Class. Purses $150.

Felice, b. g.	1	1	1
Happy Coon, b. g.	2	2	2
McInty, b. g.	3	4	4
Tramp, b. g.	4	5	5
Cruikshank, b. g.	5	3	6
Daniel K., b. r.	6	7	5
Harry, b. g.	7	8	6
Almont, b. g.	8	6	dis.
Time—3:11 1/2, 3:33 1/2, 3:35 1/2.

Free for All. Purses $400.

Barney, b. g.	1	1	1
Mary B., b. g.	2	2	2
Time—2:16, 2:20, 2:15.

During the afternoon Prof. Bonette repeated his performance on the high trapeze and also his slide-for-life act. A wire was stretched across the track from the grand stand to a tower erected near the judges' stand. Mr. Bonette got hold of this wire in some way with his teeth and slid across at the rate of a mile a minute or less.
Master Harry Roncoe, the ten-year-old trick bicyclist wonder, went through his tricks in excellent shape and received hearty applause from the crowd. The tricks were about the same as he did Wednesday, but they were much better done.
The balloon ascension and parachute drop by Prof. Bonette and wife was the best thing of the kind ever seen in this section. The balloon went up about four o'clock with two parachutes attached, the professor with the first one and his wife a few feet below in the second. Mrs. Bonette was the first to drop and landed just a little above the railroad gate entrance inside the fair ground. The balloon went up quite a distance after Mrs. Bonette left it, and the professor seemed loath to leave it, probably greatly enjoying his mid-air sail and the view spread out before him.
The balloon rose slowly and gracefully, and when over the Ladd farm Bonette let it and commenced his journey down.
The drop was perfect and he touched ground on the Ladd farm over the hill just out of sight. It was not many minutes before he joined his wife on the fair ground.
This closed the 50th anniversary of the Caledonia county fair and was pronounced by all one of the most successful in its history.

Notes.
Mr. Drake of Burlington acted as starter at the races and gave excellent satisfaction. Mr. Drake is very fair in his decisions and never lets a string of horses start until a good line is formed across the wire.
Photographer Kellogg had a large exhibit of photographs in the children's department of Floral hall. All sizes of photos were in the collection and it occupied almost one side of the room.
The unusual number of entries in the live stock department made lots of extra work for J. L. Peck, who has had charge of supplying the stock with feed for many years. About 20 tons of hay and straw were used this year, which is all furnished to exhibitors by the Fair Ground company.
The premium list will be found on pages six and seven of this paper.
In the premium list under the working oxen the first premium of $5 goes to Gen. Groat, the second of $4 to George W. Varney and the third of $3 to George Roberts. (The premium list on the inside page was printed before this correction was received. Editor CALEDONIAN.) "You didn't stay long at that hotel which advertised a fine trout stream in the vicinity?" "No; the hotel man explained that it was a fine trout stream, but he couldn't help it if the trout hadn't sense enough to find it out."—[Chicago
