The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Vermont Branch of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held in the North church, St. Johnsbury, on Wednesday, Sept. 28. A meeting for the delegates will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 27, at 3.30 p. m. Everyone will enjoy the Caledonia county fair so much that they will want to go to the Lyndonville fair which comes the following week, Sept. 21 and 22. It will be a regular old-fashioned fair with a large exhibit of stock and plenty of fast trotting by well-known horses. The St. Johnsbury Cycle Club enjoyed a trip to Emerson Falls, Saturday evening. A corn roast and picnic supper were the special features. The club are planning a moonlight excursion on the Moose river road Wednesday evening, if the weather is favorable, starting from the Athenaeum at 7 o'clock. The upper end of Eastern avenue has been greatly improved by raising the sidewalk and placing a well just above the walk at the top of the hill. The well will catch much of the surface water that has hitherto gone down the avenue and save much washing away of the street in a heavy storm. The Boston & Maine is this year offering cheap rates to Sherbrooke fair from all points as far south as Manchester. Two special trains will be run Wednesday and Thursday from St. Johnsbury. On each day the train will be held, so as to allow visitors to attend the evening performances. The American Express Company will henceforth deliver goods free in Paddock Village and Sumnerville. Delivery had not been made in these sections of St. Johnsbury by the express company and the extension of service was in response to a petition from the sections in question. Express will be delivered once every day. During the heavy shower Friday evening the elm tree opposite Walker's drug store caught fire from an electric light wire and there was a lively blaze for a few minutes. Some boys cried "fire" and the alarm was rung. A crowd quickly gathered and at least one of the fire companies started out before the real location of the fire was ascertained. The Passumpsic division of the Boston & Maine advertise a cheap Memphremagog excursion on Saturday, Sept. 3, and Saturday, Sept. 10. The boat makes two trips on each of those days, morning and afternoon, and the fare from Newport and return is only 25 cents. This is the lowest price that has ever been offered for such a trip and the excursion ought to be well patronized.

We Have to be Careful in Buying Drugs

And this habit makes us careful in buying Cigars.

CALEDONIA,

Our leading 10c cigar, seasoned just right, smokes easily because carefully hand-made. Good flavor because it has the right kind of tobacco in it. The delightful aroma of a Caledonia always provokes the inquiry, "Where did you get that Cigar?" There is a profit for us in the answer, which is Fatally Burned.

Mrs. John McCue died Saturday morning from the effects of the sad accident which occurred Friday.

While moving a lighted oil stove Friday noon it was overturned upon her setting fire to her clothing and before assistance could be rendered her clothing was destroyed by the flames and almost the entire surface of the unfortunate woman's body was burned in a manner too horrible for description. Mr. McCue was seriously burned in his efforts to assist his wife.

The flames were finally extinguished by Ezra Clark. Physicians were called immediately and everything possible was done to relieve the suffering woman, but without avail. Mrs. McCue was about 35 years of age and leaves two little children. The funeral was held from St. Aloysius church Monday morning.

RECENT DEATHS.

Woodruff.
Horace Evans Woodruff, a long time resident of this place, died at his home north of the village Thursday, Aug. 25. He was born at Burke, July 7, 1819. He taught school for several years, moving to Lyndon in 1857 where he was station agent. In 1861 he went to California where he remained a year. In September, 1867, he moved from Hartford to St. Johnsbury, where he was in the tin and hardware business in the firm of H. E. & D. Q. Woodruff for 23 years. In 1890 he returned to his "Riverside" home where he has since lived. He was married Nov. 6, 1842, to Mary Scott, who, with one son, Daniel Q., survives him.

Ranney.
The news of the death of Mrs. Charles H. Ranney of Swanton will come very suddenly to her many friends in this vicinity. Conductor Ranney left here yesterday at 3.20 on his regular trip and when he reached his home in Swanton he found his wife dead in bed. She had suffered a good deal from rheumatism and her death was undoubtedly due to heart failure.

Davis.
Death has again entered a happy home and taken from our midst a promising young lady, who was beloved by all who knew her. Mrs. Emma Bailey Davis was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey of Goss Hollow. She was born at St. Johnsbury Center in 1874. The first years of her life were spent in St. Johnsbury Center and Goss Hollow. She then went to Concord, N. H., where she remained about five years, after which she came to St. Johnsbury, where she has since resided. Although not a member of the Methodist church, her absence will be felt there as elsewhere. The relatives have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2.30 at her late residence.

Our Soldier Boys in Camp.

Mrs. P. F. Hazen, who has been at Camp Olympia the past few days writes the CALEDONIAN very interestingly as follows:
"Many will be interested to know that the barrel sent Company D by the Volunteer Aid Association, reached Camp Olympia, Burlington, safely and in time for the use of the boys when they arrived at their quarters the first of last week. Chaplain Day and Major Bonett expressed to the association most hearty thanks saying also that the fresh clean articles were just what they needed, as many were sick at the time of their arrival. The barrel contained sheets, (the size of cot beds) pillow cases, pajamas, hospital shirts, towels, handkerchiefs, soap, a few magazines and papers, a scrap book and envelopes of cuttings for the use of the sick. About $45 was used in material.

"It has been my privilege to visit Camp Olympia the past few days and it is needless to say that I was glad to take the boys by the hand and say 'I am glad to see you home again.' The camp is delightful for situation and all seemed glad to be in 'God's Country' again, though many were sorrowful that the regiment has not seen service except in the shade of Chickamauga Park. The boys now have good milk and butter provided by the state, beside their government rations and these extras are highly appreciated. The $50 sent Major Jenne two weeks ago by the Volunteer Aid was transferred to Major Bonett, while at Chickamauga and came to hand at just the right time. Ten dollars was left for the boys of the company in the hospital at Chickamauga, $20 used for the sick and well, on the way home and $10 for expenses at the time of the death of one of the company. The remainder Major Bonett will use as he thinks best.

"Every one speaks in praise of Chaplain Day. He is the life of the regiment, so kind to the sick, bright and cheery with all." "A few of the boys have been sick with the measles, but their sickness lasted only a few days, and many of the regiment are suffering from typhoid and malarial fever. A nurse in the hospital ward at Fort Ethan Allen where one of our boys is said, 'we need old cotton, so much has to be burned.' Any one wishing to give any such articles please send them to me and they will be forwarded with a few other things which, I am sure, could be made most useful in hospital wards.

"Mon'y will still be acceptable to the Volunteer Aid Association as many need medicine and tonic in the hospitals at the camp and such assistance will not come amiss to the sick boys who have come home with malaria in their systems." "All the boys were ordered back to camp Monday to be ready for the review by Gov. Grout on Wednesday afternoon."

An August Wedding.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the bride's home in Northwood Narrows, N. H., at 10 o'clock last Wednesday morning when J. W. Sault of St. Johnsbury was married to Miss Lena L. Watson. The ceremony was performed before about 40 friends and relatives by Rev. W. A. Bushee of Northwood Center. The Episcopal form of service was used. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns, golden rod, clematis, etc., and piano music for the occasion was furnished by Misses Mollie Grimes of Hillsboro and Alice McBride of Northwood.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white swiss with veil and carried lilies of the valley. Her dress was also trimmed with these flowers. Miss Marion Prior, a former teacher in the Union schools, was the maid of honor and the flower girls were Marie Watson and Dorothy Bartlett. The ushers were Dr. Warren Grimes of Hillsboro, N. H., and Albion Bartlett of Lynn, Mass. Among the guests were Mrs. Fannie K. Peck and Albert C. Sault of St. Johnsbury.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, included several delicious dishes. There was a choice array of wedding presents and cut glass, china and silver pieces were prominent. Mr. and Mrs. Sault will return to St. Johnsbury this week and will be 'at home' to their friends Tuesday in September.

Mr. Sault has been closely identified with St. Johnsbury journalism for many years and is superintendent of the North church Sunday school. The bride was the head teacher in our public schools the past two years and her work there was highly acceptable to all. They will receive a cordial welcome back to St. Johnsbury and the best of good wishes from a large circle of friends.

Odd Fellows Field Day.

The annual field day of the Odd Fellows of this district was held at the Fair Ground last Saturday and nearly 5000 people attended and of course had the best kind of a time. As in previous years the affair was a financial success and the boys paid all their bills and added a good sum to their surplus account. Much interest centered in the athletic contests and the following gives the results of the various contests:—

Base ball game, prize, silver drinking cup, umpire, Charles McLaughlin; score 16 to 15, five innings; contestants, Union Lodge of Lyndonville and Connecticut River Lodge of Barnet. Game won by Union Lodge.

Hiccup contest, prize, horse blanket, won by W. S. Brock.

Salvation Army Festival.
The Salvation Army Annual Harvest Thanksgiving Festival was observed last Sunday and Monday. The local branch here worked untiringly to make the occasion a complete success. The apportionment was $30. This was not only met, but exceeded, over $37 being contributed. The hall was tastefully decorated with fancy articles, fruits, flowers, vegetables, etc., and on Monday evening occurred the sale of the goods. The proceeds of the festival are sent to headquarters at Toronto and used to aid the different branches of Salvation Army work. It is expected that the sum total this year will reach $14,000.

The officers stationed here at present are Capt. Maggie Hill and Lieuts. Tuck and Stickels, and a good work is being done.

Vaudeville at the Fair.

The management have engaged an entirely new attraction for the Caledonia county fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13, 14 and 15, and the public will be treated to a free platform exhibition the last two days of the fair. The artists were secured of Mr. Gorman of Boston who has about 300 in his employ throughout the year. The performance will consist of a trained Shetland pony with a riding monkey, a couple of clown acrobats and trapeze performers and the laughable presentation of the trick house. The animals and actors will appear between the heats of the races during Wednesday and Thursday and all who have seats on the grand stand can see these novel performances. Similar entertainments have been given at the fairs throughout the state and wherever a vaudeville performance has been given one year there is a great demand for it the succeeding year.
