

THE TOWNS AROUND.

BARNET. Scott M. Farnum and wife are looking for a big drive in the sled business this fall and have a good supply already to hitch onto. Also a lot of bent sled runners. See advertisement elsewhere.

Last week Tuesday evening a very lively and interesting meeting was held by the Active Fire Co., to decide whether the hall should be let for dances and the structure changed or whether the hall should be used as it is for the storage of carriages. Nothing was done, however, and the meeting was adjourned for two weeks. All who are interested will do well to attend that meeting.

Saturday the shop and water power belonging to the late E. B. Clement was sold at public auction to Eber Willey of Monroe. Also the house of Mrs. Maggie Clement. Mr. Willey will be welcomed as a citizen of Barnet and he will do a good thing for us if he establishes a manufacturing business of some kind as it is expected he will.

The village schools closed Friday afternoon with very interesting exercises in the schoolhouse hall.

At a special meeting for the purpose of the Christian Endeavor Society passed a vote of approval of and thanks to our representative Charles Choate for the part he took in the House at Montpelier in connection with the local option liquor bill. The same vote was given Mr. Taft of Peabach.

Erskine Warden of Waltham, Mass., has been visiting his brother, William Warden, of this place since Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Laura Stanley has been visiting at St. Johnsbury for some time.

Mrs. Murray Martin of Plainfield in tends to stop another week with her mother.

Mrs. William J. Perry of St. Johnsbury was with her sister, Mrs. Robina Laughlin and Anna Perry, one day last week.

Mrs. Moses Somers of St. Johnsbury has been visiting in town for a few days. Frank Thompson of Boston was in town visiting last week.

Miss Brook of St. Johnsbury spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Donley.

Mrs. French of Rochester, N. Y., who has been caring for her brother for the past seven weeks, expects to return to her home this week.

Quite a number of the young people gave Nellie and Julian Laughlin a surprise party Monday evening. A good time was enjoyed by all.

WEST BARNET.

Richard A. Lyster has rented the blacksmith shop of E. X. Somers and has gotten a large stock of all kinds of iron horse shoes and carriage bolts to supply anyone who may come his way. We trust he can supply the long needed want of a village blacksmith.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a fair and chicken pie supper, at the Village Hall on Friday afternoon and evening, Dec. 2. The young people will present "The Japanese wedding" in the evening. A good time for all is anticipated.

Ralph Grey, Bernice Conant and Gladys Conant did not receive a mark during the fall term of the village school. Rex Morrison, Cur Dumber, Francis Hastie, Roy Hastie, Carrie Chickering and Agnes Conant were not absent during the term.

Hoed's pills cure liver ills, biliousness, indigestion, headache. Easy to take easy to operate. 25c.

WEST BURKE.

Mrs. F. T. Porter has been seriously ill for the past few days.

Thursday night was "Gentlemen's Night" at the Ladies' Whist Club. Forty-four were present, refreshments were served and the gentlemen voted it the pleasantest occasion of the season.

Miss Annie Silsby is rejoicing in the possession of a new piano.

The ladies of the Relief Corps are making bedding and towels for the Soldiers' Home to be sent at Christmas.

Dana Hall and Miss Effie Thompson were married on Thursday. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. John McLellan and children are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Dean.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures over night the most stubborn cold as well as all its complications—tickling in the throat, husky voice and violent coughing. It is the most wonderful medicine science has produced.

EAST BURKE.

Mr. Webster was at home over Sunday. Mrs. Webster has not returned yet.

The village schools closed a very successful term last Friday. The same teachers, Mr. Farnum and Miss Bemis, have been engaged for the winter.

The lecture by Rev. J. B. Farrow was very well attended and was a fine thing. Miss Ida Farmer is spending a part of her vacation with friends at St. Johnsbury.

George Gilson has gone to New Hampshire on a hunting trip with a party from Lunenburg.

The King's Daughters will meet with Mrs. J. E. Parker Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 22.

Miss Annie Belden is teaching in Sutton.

Miss Mabel Austin is at home for a short vacation.

Austin Barney is much worse and not expected to live many days.

Presiding Elder Rev. J. O. Sherrburn will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Quarterly conference at the parsonage Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Epworth League will give an entertainment at the church Friday evening, Nov. 18. Refreshments served and all cordially invited.

Consumption Positively Cured. Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment, but could not procure tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair, was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in this community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at Flint Bros' Drug Store.

DANVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hodgdon and Miss Mary Hodgdon are visiting relatives in Sutton.

Twenty-three members of the Christian Endeavor Society attended the County Convention at St. Johnsbury last Thursday and brought home the county banner, which is awarded for the largest attendance in proportion to the membership of the society.

There will be a social at the library rooms Saturday evening, Nov. 19. Home made candles will be sold.

Mrs. Rachel Cole will open a store at her rooms in the Trussell building next Saturday. She will have 5 and 10 cent counters and hosiery.

Geo. Gonyo is visiting friends in Canada.

Charles Fellows has moved into part of Anson Hoy's house.

It is requested that all who have books from the library return them Saturday. No books will be given out this week. The library has purchased 70 new books which will be ready for distribution a week from Saturday.

Sam Rodgers is quite ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Geo. Woodward of Morrisville is visiting her father, E. S. Pierce.

Mrs. Farnham of North Danville has moved into Abel Hartshorn's tenement house.

Sam Currier gave a reading at East Barnet Friday evening.

The promenade that was to be given by the Village Improvement Association on Thanksgiving night, has had to be postponed until Wednesday, Nov. 30.

WEST DANVILLE.

About 50 attended the supper and social at Merrill's Thursday. The receipts which amounted to $8, were given to the pastor, F. E. Currier. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

From six to eight inches of snow fell here last Wednesday and Thursday, and sleighing from here to Danville was very good Thursday night.

Pattie Hawkins is at work for Nelson Crane and brother.

Maplewood Lodge, N. E. O. P., held a banquet Saturday evening, in Merrill's hall, which was well attended.

The manager of Pike Manufacturing Co., of New Hampshire, is expected to be soon to look at the vacant stone shop, in view of locating their business of making whetstones and other goods in that line, here. They will employ 50 men.

NORTH DANVILLE.

F. E. Bickford is very ill with pneumonia.

HARVEY.

W. G. Bartlett is painting for Mr. Rock in Walden.

Mrs. Eva Hatch and children returned from Corinth last Saturday, where she has been for a short visit.

William Hastings has his new barn nearly completed and it adds much to the looks of his place.

W. E. Hatch attended the Christian Endeavor Convention at St. Johnsbury last Thursday.

Harry Young has finished his work for John Bacon and returned to his home in Peabach.

WEST CONCORD.

Death of Mr. Burroughs.

One more of our respected townsmen has passed away. Dan C. Burroughs, after a lingering illness, died last Thursday evening of consumption. Over a year ago he was very poorly for a long time, but gained in strength gradually, and through the summer has been busy at work nearly all the time, but for the past three months he has been failing fast. He kept up as long as his strength would permit.

He was a son of the late Wesley Burroughs of Kirby, and brother of the late Henry Burroughs of this place. He was born in December, 1842. He was a member of Company A, 11th Vermont Volunteers and served his country during the war of the Rebellion. Since the close of the war he has lived in Kirby, Passumpsic and Concord and leaves many friends in each of these places to mourn his loss, as he was a kind and industrious citizen. He was closely identified with the interests of the Universalist church of this place and was a constant attendant at the meetings when his health permitted. He leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. William L. Reed of this place and Wesley Burroughs of Melrose, Mass., and one sister, Mrs. J. P. Lewis of Concord, besides a large circle of relatives and friends. Funeral services were held at his late residence Sunday at 1 o'clock, p. m., Rev. H. H. Hoy officiating. The interment was at Grove cemetery East St. Johnsbury.

The illustrated lecture given by Rev. J. B. Farrow, a former pastor here, has now taken place at the Town Hall and was very well attended and was a fine thing. All who attended the lecture greatly enjoyed it. It was illustrated with many beautiful views and was very interesting and instructive.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burroughs of Melrose, Mass., were called home to attend the funeral of Mr. Burroughs' father, D. C. Burroughs, which occurred Sunday.

Farmers were obliged to get up their stock for the winter last Thursday on account of the severe snow storm.

Mrs. Fanny Sargent returned from Massachusetts last week where she has been stopping for the past few weeks.

Hiram Goss of St. Johnsbury was in town Thursday last week.

A profitable term of school closed in the village last Friday. There will be three weeks' vacation.

Harvey Judevine and John Pratt were in Montpelier a part of last week.

Mrs. Andrew Lyon is suffering severely with her ankle which she sprained a short time ago.

Prof. and Mrs. H. H. May have gone to housekeeping in C. L. Stacey's tenement.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver is inactive, you have a bilious look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alternative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys. Purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at Flint Bros' Drug Store at 50 cents per bottle.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

is the remedy on which you can depend for the cure of a protracted cough or lung affection, brought on by exposure to cold. It is the most excellent medicine sold. A bottle costs only 25 cts.

LYNDONVILLE.

About fifty attended the Ladies' club meeting at Mrs. W. S. Jeffers last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. W. P. Smith read a very interesting and instructive paper on "Melrose Abbey," which was listened to with a great deal of pleasure. Music was furnished by a ladies' double quartette composed mostly of members of the club. Refreshments of sandwiches, waters and coffee were served by the hostess in a very charming manner. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. W. H. Ford's, when a farewell reception will be tendered to Mrs. M. L. Sterns.

Mrs. H. E. Folsom and Mrs. Stephen Folsom went to Boston last Tuesday returning home Saturday night.

Stephen Folsom has been appointed as local freight agent at Greenfield, Mass., and commenced his labors there Monday Nov. 1. Mrs. Folsom will go there to live in a few weeks.

Mrs. Mattie Campbell Ball of Lebanon, N. H., visited her brother, G. M. Campbell, and sister, Mrs. F. E. Winslow last week.

Mrs. Hovey of Lancaster, visited at I. W. Sanborn's last week.

Mrs. Elisha May and Mrs. W. P. Smith of St. Johnsbury were the guests of Mrs. J. T. Gleason, president of the Ladies' club, last Saturday.

Miss Lilla Parker, who is ill at Sheffield, with neuralgia of the heart is gradually improving.

Miss Susie B. Hume has had to give up her school at St. Johnsbury on account of her mother's ill health.

The fish chowder supper given by the Relief corps last Saturday evening called out a very good patronage. Nearly ten dollars being netted by the society.

Mrs. L. F. Shonyo is in a very critical condition. She is suffering with gangrene in one of her feet. The doctors advise its amputation, but Mrs. Shonyo will not consent to it. It is feared that she will not recover.

Editor B. U. Wells has purchased Mrs. Julia Hutchins' house on Park avenue. Reported price $3300.

The Sunday school rally at the Congregational church Sunday evening was very largely attended. A fine programme was carried out. Excellent singing was provided for by a combination of the Congregational and Methodist choirs. Reports of nearly all the Sunday schools in town were read and show an increased interest in the work since the State Sunday school convention.

Miss Alice Walter is expected home from Pittsburg, Penn., this week.

Grant's Southern Plantation Specialty Company are booked at Village Hall this evening. The colored folks give a lively show, full of fun and frolic.

LYNDON CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Dresser visited E. H. Hinds and wife at Cambridge last week.

James Crafton moved from S. L. Easterbrook's tenement house last week to Mrs. D. B. Stoddard's house.

Rev. and Mrs. Chester Brown have gone to their home in East Hardwick.

Rev. George A. Downey represented the Christian Endeavor Society at the County Christian Endeavor Convention held at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. S. Bradley is critically ill with a brain trouble. Her granddaughter, Miss Sarah McLellan of Glover, is assisting Mrs. Morgan in caring for her.

E. M. Campbell and L. B. Harris were at Montpelier last week in the interests of the village.

Speaking by the junior class at the Institute occurs next Thursday evening at the Institute chapel. There are 13 in the class and the entertainment promises to be excellent. The original parts by the seniors will be given next week Tuesday evening.

The Free Baptist Ladies' Aid held a social at the home of Mrs. Charles Hoy's last Tuesday, which was very well attended considering the bad going.

Fred M. Campbell has completed his work at the Bradford Opinion office and will soon go to Hyde Park where he has a position in the office of the News and Citizen.

LUNENBURG.

The Womens' Club met with Mrs. Thomas and her daughter Mrs. Balch last Tuesday afternoon. The subject for work was "The life of Miss Alcott."

After roll call the ladies listened to a paper on Miss Alcott's life by Miss Jennie Silsby; music by Mrs. Mabel Balch; paper on Miss Alcott's books by Miss Julia White; reading from Little Women by Miss Lotie Barnard; current events.

The Christian Endeavor entertainment was well attended and passed off well with a good programme.

Frank Currier has sold his farm on the river road to a Mr. Currier from Derby or Newport and will give possession in a short time.

Burt Cutting has returned to town and gone into business with Alden Vance.

The pupils attending the academy, will give an exhibition the last of this week.

The schools in town closed last Friday, and several new teachers will take the place of those who go to other places.

An immense flock of wild ducks passed over this place last Friday morning.

The first snow storm of the season came upon us quite unexpectedly last Wednesday.

NORTH WALDEN.

H. F. Kittredge's new house is nearly completed.

It is reported that Charles Brown of Newport has bought the Root place.

Henry Haselton and son were in Montpelier quite recently.

Charles Wilmerston of East Hardwick, who has been painting for H. F. Kittredge, is at work for E. Downer.

H. Barnett has been plowing for J. C. Stafford as the latter is away at the capital.

The buildings of Ernest Orton narrowly escaped being burned by a fire caused by an overturned lantern recently. The flames were extinguished before any great damage was done.

Speaking of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving, 1898, ranks in importance with that of 1865. As then, the country has gone through the war, and upon our banners is inscribed Victory. It is, therefore, a season of greater interest. In honor of the occasion, The Boston Herald, with characteristic enterprise, will give it special attention, devoting pages to the time-honored festival in the issue of Nov. 20. Every New Englander will want this issue, and we are sure that our readers will find the Boston Herald of Sunday, Nov. 20, one to their liking. It is not out of place to suggest that an order with your newspaper is the only sure way of securing a copy. The demand for the Boston Herald is very great.

HARDWICK.

Joe Wark has purchased the Caroline Lowell house on South Main street and will reside there with his family.

Dana J. Bell has traded his Church street house to William Cheney of Morrisville for horses, carriages and sleigh. It is reported that Dana will open a livery stable in the barn attached to his home place on South Main street.

Daniel F. Holden, recently manager of the Woodbury Granite Co., at this place, has resigned his position and will sell out his household goods and remove with his family to Palmer, Mass. It is with regret that we lose this very estimable family who have during their short stay made many friends in this community.

Schools close Nov. 18.

A Chinaman has rented the basement of the block on Main street occupied by O. J. Paquette and F. E. Lee and will operate a laundry.

A. E. Reed of St. Johnsbury is canvassing the town with weather strips for doors and windows.

H. R. Mack was in Morrisville Wednesday on granite business.

P. J. Cowles and family have removed to Burlington, where Mr. Cowles has a position with the Equitable Life Ins. Co.

Charles Ward is able to be about the streets after a serious accident received in Portland, when two trolley cars came in collision. Mr. Ward has a position as motor man.

French & Warren are selling No. 1 New Hampshire apples for $3.10 per barrel. They report the apple crop to be very short.

B. F. Taylor of Wheelock was in town over Sunday returning Monday with his daughter Abbie. Miss Taylor is teaching the village school at the east village.

A Christmas goods drummer is using the Aiken store on Main street to show up his goods.

Charles Ward is gaining quite rapidly. A. Perley is taking a short trip to the west.

Abial Fisher is again back at work for Edwin Hall, on the job team.

Victor Stewart is removing from Elm street to 18 Mill street.

School examinations are taking place this week.

Walter Caudall was formally voted in as bank treasurer by the directors last week. Mr. Caudall is a model young man for the place and is specially adapted to the position.

GREENSBORO.

Eight inches of snow fell Thursday. A. C. Harvey and wife from St. Johnsbury have been in town on business for a few days.

G. W. Lumsden has improved slightly so that he is able to talk; otherwise he is about the same as reported last week.

Mrs. C. L. Baker has been taken to Burlington for treatment at a private hospital.

Winnie Dow, who was burned so seriously several weeks ago is gaining very slowly and is not yet able to sit up.

Mary McCue has gone to Brockton, Mass., to work this winter.

Alec Calderwood and W. H. Austin are working on S. Hill's new house.

Mrs. B. F. Dow has been seriously ill the past week.

Thursday the sale of personal property belonging to the Keniston estate was well attended by one of the best bidding crowds on record and everything sold high. Hay sold at $5.00; one cow for $35 and a horse for $19.

The post office has been thoroughly renovated and comes on deck newly plastered, papered, painted and varnished, with new furniture throughout.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

The village school has closed for two weeks before commencing the winter term.

Rev. John J. Hall will give a bible reading at the house of Frank R. McColl on Wednesday evening.

A Christian Endeavor social will be held in the vestry of the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening.

The sale of work held by the ladies of the Reformed Presbyterian church in the Depot Hall on Thursday afternoon and evening was well patronized. The amount realized from the sales and supper being about $50.

Miss Anna Perham, who has been spending a week with her sister, returned home to Brookfield Monday.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies will meet in the vestry of the church Thursday afternoon, the storm of last week prevented the meeting being held on Jefferson Hill.

Rev. John J. Hall went to Wells River Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Orange Ministerial Association.

Miss Ruby Benzie came from Newbury Saturday to spend a week with her aunt, Mrs. James Johnson.

RYEGATE.

Everyone is glad to welcome Miss Isabel Nelson back to town. She has been engaged the past year in mission work in Chicago in connection with the Moody Institute. She expects to spend part of the winter with her brother and family.

Last Thursday evening William Thompson and wife very pleasantly entertained the Christian Endeavor Society at their home.

Miss Nellie McLam spent last week at home.

R. F. Jaynes has been engaged by the School of Agriculture held at Burlington the coming winter, to take charge of the creamery department in this school.

Next Thursday evening C. R. Taggart of Topsham, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society, will give one of his popular entertainments in the vestry of the church. After the entertainment oysters will be served by the society.

Prof. F. L. Gibson spent Sunday in town.

Speaking of Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving, 1898, ranks in importance with that of 1865. As then, the country has gone through the war, and upon our banners is inscribed Victory. It is, therefore, a season of greater interest. In honor of the occasion, The Boston Herald, with characteristic enterprise, will give it special attention, devoting pages to the time-honored festival in the issue of Nov. 20. Every New Englander will want this issue, and we are sure that our readers will find the Boston Herald of Sunday, Nov. 20, one to their liking. It is not out of place to suggest that an order with your newspaper is the only sure way of securing a copy. The demand for the Boston Herald is very great.

MCINDOE FALLS.

The new depot is now all completed and was used the first time Friday Nov. 4, 1898. It stands on the west side of the track north of the underground pass. It is lighted with electric lights and has all modern conveniences. The old depot has been made into a freight depot and has been moved across the track directly back of the new depot.

C. J. Houghton of Waltham and Walter Morgan of New York were in town a few days last week.

Arthur Peck has returned home from Derby Line, where he has been for the past month.

Miss Mabel Cassidy of Lincoln, spent Sunday with Miss Ella Winch.

The district schools closed last Friday afternoon, after a successful term of eleven weeks.

Miss Emma Buffum has returned home from Grooton.

There will be a prayer meeting held in the vestry next Sunday morning at ten o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Charlie Scillers and sister Helen, who have been visiting at A. L. Guthrie's residence, returned to their home in Mass., last week.

Miss Delia Blanchard is in Littleton.

The chicken pie supper in the vestry last Friday evening was a great success, despite the bad weather. The ladies made $28 and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

The academy school closes next Friday and there will be a social in the hall in the evening. The winter term will open December 31.

Jerry Byran of North Monroe will move his family into the Toll Bridge house, soon.

PEABACH.

Rev. G. W. Patterson of East St. Johnsbury preached at the Congregational church last Sunday in exchange with Rev. J. K. Williams.

E. Wesson Clark of East Boston, was in town over Sunday.

Leonard Darling and family have gone to Chelsea to spend the winter, as he has work there.

Dr. Thomas and wife of McIndoes were in town Saturday.

Harry Davis has finished his labors as blacksmith in East Peabach and gone to McIndoes.

Mrs. Blodgett had the misfortune to lose nearly all of a pig which had just been killed, same being stolen last week Sunday night.

Quite a party from Topsham have been camping at the poor farm the past week, and hunting in that vicinity.

In his advanced and chronic form a cold in the head is known as Nasal Catarrh and is the recognized source of other diseases. Having stood the test of continued successful use, Ely's Cream Balm is recognized as a specific for membranous diseases in the nasal passages, and you make a great mistake in not resorting to this treatment in your own case. To test it a trial size for 10 cents or the large for 50 cents is mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. Druggists keep it.

PASSUMPIC.

The oyster supper and social last Friday evening was quite well attended and an enjoyable time was had by all. Several dollars were added to the treasury of the society.</