

St. Johnsbury Center.

Election of Officers. At Green Mt. Grange last Saturday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, E. A. Gray; overseer, G. C. Willey; lecturer, Miss Lula Campbell; steward, Don Gray; chaplain, I. W. Dana; treasurer, Chas. Nichols; sec., Miss Stella Allen; ass't sec., Bert Farnham; gate keeper, Robert Nichols; Flora, Mrs. Campbell; Ceres, Mrs. G. C. Willey; Pomona, Mrs. Charles Nichols; lady ass't, Mrs. Bert Farnham.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bacon spent Thanksgiving at Woodsville; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sargent at Bradford; A. B. Pringle at Barnet; Mrs. Woodham at Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Roberts at St. Johnsbury.

Pliny Chase moved last week to the place lately vacated by W. S. Williams, and Mr. Thurber has moved on to the place vacated by Mr. Chase.

Remember the Passion Play to be given at the Congregational church this evening.

Miss Emma Lockwood who has been spending a week with her parents returned to her work at White River Junction Monday.

Mrs. H. N. Roberts succeeded in capturing a rare specimen of a butcher bird last Saturday. The bird was considerably larger than a robin, with a hawk's bill, very sharp claws, and the feathers gray with black on the wings and tail. At the time the bird was caught it was trying to get Mrs. Roberts' canary which hung at the window.

"The Brownies in Fairyland" come to St. Johnsbury, Dec. 21 and 22. Don't miss them.

At Summerville.

Frank Nourse has moved into E. L. Hovey's house on Mountain avenue.

Mrs. Charles Goss and two daughters have returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Boston.

Miss Myrtle Davison and niece and nephew went to Lunenburg for their Thanksgiving.

George S. Morris of Jackson, Mich., is visiting his father, L. C. Morris.

John Powers, W. J. Walker and other railroad men have moved away from here and gone to work on the Fitchburg railroad.

Herbert Hovey of Hanover was in town last week.

John Chandler is making improvements on his residence on Concord avenue.

H. R. Newton, who has been confined to the house with pneumonia, is slowly improving.

W. H. Carr was confined to the house last week with illness.

Mrs. Bertha Deby and daughter are stopping at C. A. Gashill's.

J. J. Huard has moved from Paddock Village to No. 7 Elm street.

Joseph Nadreau has moved from Elm street to No. 2 Concord avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young were given a pleasant surprise on Thanksgiving day, planned by H. H. Young of South Acton, Mass. The affair consisted of a family reunion and all the children were present: H. H. Young, E. F. Young of South Sudbury, Miss. A. T. Young of Gaskill, Mrs. Frank Olcott of Kirby, Mrs. Dr. Wishart of West Burke and A. N. Young, who lives here. It was a reunion which will be long remembered by the parents, and especially enjoyable because of its complete surprise.

East St. Johnsbury.

J. B. Knowles is moving to St. Johnsbury Center. We regret their departure.

The Ladies' Society meet with Mrs. Charles Owens Thursday afternoon. Gentlemen are invited to tea.

At Fairbanks Village.

The two young children of H. W. Ford are quite sick.

Thomas Wilkie of Ashland, N. H., is visiting among old friends.

Charles Koepke is moving into a tenement on High street.

Mrs. I. P. Rider has improved a little the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Randall of Lyndon spent Monday with their daughter, Mrs. G. W. Robinson.

Letter to Elmore T. Ide.

Dear Sir: Some think we take a good deal of risk in inviting complaints of Devoe lead and zinc—we authorize our agent to sell it under this guarantee: "If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT

IN MUSIC HALL

Tuesday, Dec. 11, 1900.

PROF. W. E. FLOYD, Magician. MRS. FLOYD, Memory Tests. HARRY BOWER, Xylophone Wonder. IDA WIGGINS-BOWER, Pianist.

An Evening of Mystery, Melody and Mirth, at the popular prices of 35 and 50 Cents.

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense." The following story tells how little the risk is:

J. H. Asher & Co., hardware dealers, Philadelphia, N. Y., have sold Devoe from '76 to now, and have had just one complaint in all this time.

Three sides of a house were perfect; the fourth was as bad as the three were good.

Explanation—It rained the night before the fourth side was painted; and the painters didn't wait for the wood to dry.

What is done in such a case? Whatever the dealer, who sold the paint, considers it fair to do. We leave it to him. He may not do exactly what we should do if we were there; but we are not there. The best we can do is to leave it to him.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co.
