

THE TOWNS AROUND.

LYNDONVILLE.

Lyndonville.

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stevens celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, Wednesday, Jan. 1. In the afternoon a large number of relatives gathered at their home in this village to offer their congratulations and wish them many more years of happy married life.

Death of Mr. Palmer.

The remains of James T. Palmer, a long time resident of this place, were received from Franklin, Mich., and interred in the family lot at Lyndonville on Wednesday of last week.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

William Henry Lockwood was born in Fairfield, Conn., 1850, and died in St. Johnsbury, Dec. 28, 1901, aged 51 years.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Miss Eliza Belden, who has been caring for Mrs. C. G. Norris has returned to her home in St. Johnsbury.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. Julia Graves of St. Johnsbury is visiting friends here.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

B. H. Pierce has just received as a Christmas gift a valuable coach horse from F. W. Stearns of the firm of R. H. Stearns & Co. of Boston.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Miss Lula Kendrick of Newport visited Miss Carrie Smith last week.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. R. R. Wilnot has been visiting her friend Miss Susie Hume at St. Johnsbury.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Susie Bloodgett has been quite ill for several days.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Gentlemen's night of the Woman's Club was postponed from January 22, till a later date, on account of the ladies being so busy in preparing for their bazaar to be held the first of February.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Charles Wilson of Boston has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wilson.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Miss Fannie Hastings has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Demore.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. F. B. Davis last Friday afternoon.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Herbert Burnham of Sutton has been visiting friends here.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Fred Shonyo has been visiting in Boston.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robarge and niece Olivia have returned from a two weeks visit in Canada.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. Porter Baldwin of Barton, and Miss Emma Jerome, of Holland, are visiting at Mrs. J. P. Webster.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Ernest Haltham is ill with grip.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Rosa, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, has been very ill with heart trouble but is a little better at this writing.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. Josephine Wilder Carr of Littleton is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Parker.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Adrienne Beatesche, aged two years and eight months, died Saturday, December 28, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery the following Tuesday.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held with Mrs. W. L. Jeffers, instead of Mrs. C. L. Stuart, according to the club calendar.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

A. A. Rand, a former resident of this place and now of South Royalton, visited friends here last week.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. Fred Pownall and daughter Crystal are visiting in East Concord.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. Napoleon Mayhew is visiting her sister in Claremont, N. H.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

The following officers for the Methodist Sunday School were elected last Sunday: Superintendent, Robert McDowell; assistant, Robert Child; secretary, Eva Werthebe; treasurer, Adelbert Goss; librarian, George Batchelder; organist, Daisy Powers.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

A reception will be given in the M. E. church parlors next Wednesday evening, to William L. Bailey, who for the past two years has so creditably filled the office of Sunday School superintendent.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Mrs. A. C. Eastman has returned from Sutton, P. Q., where she has been visiting her parents.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

E. V. Stevens and family left Thurs day for their new home in Herkimer.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Miss Annie Clark is visiting in Georg ville, P. Q.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

Dr. M. O. of New York, a famous authority, finds as a result of experiments that the drinking of tea retards the removal of food. This is especially true of Chase & Sanborn's teas, which are almost foods in themselves.

LYNDONVILLE.

Kenison-Edgerston.

About 250 friends and relatives witnessed the marriage of Marion Edgerston and Warren Kenison, which took place at the Universalist church last Wednesday evening, January 1. The church was prettily decorated with flowers and trailing vines, and two fir trees, with tapers of lace curtains between. The front pews which were occupied by the bride and groom were draped with white satin ribbon, with large bows on the end of each row of seats. Miss Annie Colby of West Burke acted as bridesmaid and Fred Kenison of Worcester, Mass., as best man and Gladys Stevens as flower girl. At eight o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Nellie Colby, the bridal party entered the church, and the ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. V. Stevens. The bride wore a dress of white tulle, trimmed with lace and chiffon, and wore a veil, which was held in place with white carnations, and carried a bouquet of white brideloses. The bridesmaid and flower girl were dressed in white. After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, Harry Wakefield acting as caterer. Mr. and Mrs. Kenison will reside in Woodsville, where Mr. Kenison has work. The following is a list of the out-of-town guests who attended: Dr. Dimick of Jefferson, N. H.; Mrs. C. L. Duncan and children of Melrose, Blanche Kenison of Worcester, Mass., and Fred Kenison of Irving, Mass. There was also a large party from West Burke.

Rev. Arthur Stone of the Episcopal church, who was hurt while riding horseback last week is improving.

A meeting will be held soon to see about extending the electric lights to Red Village and from there to Kirby.

The Rebekahs served a salad and baked bean supper to the members and their families, last Monday evening at six o'clock. In the evening the following officers were installed by Mrs. A. L. Finney: N. G., Mrs. E. W. Powers; V. G., Mrs. C. B. Brudshaw; R. S., Mrs. E. E. French; F. S., Mrs. G. Wheeler; treasurer, Mrs. Jesse Spencer; O. G., George Wheeler; J. G., Eben Wheeler; chaplain, Mrs. Ella Finney; conductor, Mrs. John Lynn; warden, Mrs. J. S. Butler; R. S., N. G., Mrs. W. H. Wilmarth; L. S., N. G., Mrs. Ed. Harris; R. S. V. G., Mrs. Lara Hotchinson; L. S. V. G., Mrs. Sarah Biglow; R. A. S., Miss Adele Watson; L. A. S., Mrs. F. I. Wiley; carrier bearers, Mrs. E. C. Frost, Mrs. Carrie McDonald, Nettie Lynn and Ethel Park; organist, Miss Daisy Powers; tableaux ladies, Mrs. Elva Dodge, Lila French, Dora Laine, May Watson; P. N. G., Mrs. Ida Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Harvey left last Wednesday morning for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

H. W. Lyster, and C. L. Stuart have been on a business trip to Montreal.

The infant child of Frank Lynch died Tuesday evening.

Miss Eliza Belden, who has been caring for Mrs. C. G. Norris has returned to her home in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Julia Graves of St. Johnsbury is visiting friends here.

B. H. Pierce has just received as a Christmas gift a valuable coach horse from F. W. Stearns of the firm of R. H. Stearns & Co. of Boston.

Miss Lula Kendrick of Newport visited Miss Carrie Smith last week.

Mrs. R. R. Wilnot has been visiting her friend Miss Susie Hume at St. Johnsbury.

Susie Bloodgett has been quite ill for several days.

Gentlemen's night of the Woman's Club was postponed from January 22, till a later date, on account of the ladies being so busy in preparing for their bazaar to be held the first of February.

Charles Wilson of Boston has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wilson.

Miss Fannie Hastings has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Demore.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. F. B. Davis last Friday afternoon.

Herbert Burnham of Sutton has been visiting friends here.

Fred Shonyo has been visiting in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robarge and niece Olivia have returned from a two weeks visit in Canada.

Mrs. Porter Baldwin of Barton, and Miss Emma Jerome, of Holland, are visiting at Mrs. J. P. Webster.

Ernest Haltham is ill with grip.

Rosa, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, has been very ill with heart trouble but is a little better at this writing.

Mrs. Josephine Wilder Carr of Littleton is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Parker.

Adrienne Beatesche, aged two years and eight months, died Saturday, December 28, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery the following Tuesday.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held with Mrs. W. L. Jeffers, instead of Mrs. C. L. Stuart, according to the club calendar.

Mrs. Fred Pownall and daughter Crystal are visiting in East Concord.

Mrs. Napoleon Mayhew is visiting her sister in Claremont, N. H.

The following officers for the Methodist Sunday School were elected last Sunday: Superintendent, Robert McDowell; assistant, Robert Child; secretary, Eva Werthebe; treasurer, Adelbert Goss; librarian, George Batchelder; organist, Daisy Powers.

A reception will be given in the M. E. church parlors next Wednesday evening, to William L. Bailey, who for the past two years has so creditably filled the office of Sunday School superintendent.

Mrs. A. C. Eastman has returned from Sutton, P. Q., where she has been visiting her parents.

E. V. Stevens and family left Thursday for their new home in Herkimer.

Miss Annie Clark is visiting in Georg ville, P. Q.

Dr. M. O. of New York, a famous authority, finds as a result of experiments that the drinking of tea retards the removal of food. This is especially true of Chase & Sanborn's teas, which are almost foods in themselves.

A series of meetings commenced Tuesday evening in the Methodist church, to be continued for an indefinite period.

Miss Della Foster and George Smart sang a beautiful duet at the evening service in the Methodist church last Sunday.

Don't forget the entertainment given by Maro, the magician, in Music hall, next Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Batchelder are visiting in White River Junction.

District Deputy Lee Shortt visited the Masonic Lodge at Waitsfield, Monday evening.

Union services are being held at the churches this week.

District Deputy Lavfette Myers is away visiting Odd Fellow lodges in different towns and expects to be away about two weeks.

Mrs. P. B. Elmer, who lives in Alva, Lee county, Florida, sent each member of her former Sunday school class a Christmas present. Alva will appreciate their little gifts which came from so far away.

William Waldo, wife and daughter, of West Danville, visited at E. D. Waldo's, New Year's day.

Elmer Ford and son Charles have gone to Hardwick.

Otis Rollins visited his son Willis at Montpelier Seminary, Monday.

WEST WATERFORD.

Amos B. Carpenter is the recipient of a very valuable and enjoyable Christmas present from his Carpenter friends of Jamaica, British West Indies, who he only knows by the late very interesting correspondence in regard to the Carpenter family, they being the descendants of Samuel Carpenter of Philadelphia, in whose house Congress held its first session. They very generously sent him a barrel of Jamaica fruit of sixteen different kinds, freight and express prepaid to St. Johnsbury. Mr. Carpenter is now satisfying his appetite on that delicious fruit and proudly showing the same to callers. The barrel was opened Christmas morning.

EAST BARNET.

J. G. Roy has gone to New York on a business trip.

Work has commenced in the shop this week with full force.

C. Dickinson's family spent New Year's at Lyndonville, at F. C. Shonyo's.

Mrs. Robert Gilfillan celebrated her 90th birthday Saturday at her son's, L. E. Gilfillan.

Carlos Gilfillan and wife from West Burke, and Mrs. Elvira Brock from Pampunswick, were here Saturday to celebrate their mother's birthday.

Mrs. Jenkins, who had a shock at Mr. W. J. McGill's two weeks ago, has had another and is in a critical condition.

Leslie Gilfillan and Harry Batchelder are on the sick list this week, caused by being vaccinated.

St. Johnsbury Center.

Death of Mr. Lockwood.

William Henry Lockwood was born in Fairfield, Conn., 1850, and died in St. Johnsbury, Dec. 28, 1901, aged 51 years.

Miss Eliza Belden, who has been caring for Mrs. C. G. Norris has returned to her home in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Julia Graves of St. Johnsbury is visiting friends here.

B. H. Pierce has just received as a Christmas gift a valuable coach horse from F. W. Stearns of the firm of R. H. Stearns & Co. of Boston.

Miss Lula Kendrick of Newport visited Miss Carrie Smith last week.

Mrs. R. R. Wilnot has been visiting her friend Miss Susie Hume at St. Johnsbury.

Susie Bloodgett has been quite ill for several days.

Gentlemen's night of the Woman's Club was postponed from January 22, till a later date, on account of the ladies being so busy in preparing for their bazaar to be held the first of February.

Charles Wilson of Boston has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wilson.

Miss Fannie Hastings has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Demore.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. F. B. Davis last Friday afternoon.

Herbert Burnham of Sutton has been visiting friends here.

Fred Shonyo has been visiting in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robarge and niece Olivia have returned from a two weeks visit in Canada.

Mrs. Porter Baldwin of Barton, and Miss Emma Jerome, of Holland, are visiting at Mrs. J. P. Webster.

Ernest Haltham is ill with grip.

Rosa, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, has been very ill with heart trouble but is a little better at this writing.

Mrs. Josephine Wilder Carr of Littleton is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Parker.

Adrienne Beatesche, aged two years and eight months, died Saturday, December 28, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery the following Tuesday.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held with Mrs. W. L. Jeffers, instead of Mrs. C. L. Stuart, according to the club calendar.

Mrs. Fred Pownall and daughter Crystal are visiting in East Concord.

Mrs. Napoleon Mayhew is visiting her sister in Claremont, N. H.

The following officers for the Methodist Sunday School were elected last Sunday: Superintendent, Robert McDowell; assistant, Robert Child; secretary, Eva Werthebe; treasurer, Adelbert Goss; librarian, George Batchelder; organist, Daisy Powers.

A reception will be given in the M. E. church parlors next Wednesday evening, to William L. Bailey, who for the past two years has so creditably filled the office of Sunday School superintendent.

Mrs. A. C. Eastman has returned from Sutton, P. Q., where she has been visiting her parents.

E. V. Stevens and family left Thursday for their new home in Herkimer.

Miss Annie Clark is visiting in Georg ville, P. Q.

Dr. M. O. of New York, a famous authority, finds as a result of experiments that the drinking of tea retards the removal of food. This is especially true of Chase & Sanborn's teas, which are almost foods in themselves.

1901 IN REVIEW.

FIRES.

JANUARY.

1. A $125,000 blaze at Burlington, Ia.

2. The Grand Opera House burned in Cincinnati; loss, $1,000,000.

3. A block of business buildings, including the board of trade, burned at Montreal; loss, $4,000,000.

4. Several buildings, including an opera house, destroyed by incendiary fires at Matawan, N. J.; loss, $100,000.

5. Fire in the business district of Des Moines, Ia.; caused a loss of $500,000.

6. Coates' Opera House burned at Kansas City; loss on building, $150,000.

FEBRUARY.

1. Wholesale millinery establishment of Foots, Reed & Co., burned in Cleveland; loss, $500,000.

2. The National Wire works burned at Fair Haven, Conn.; loss, $25,000.

3. Fire caused a loss of $175,000 in the business district of Evansville, Ind.

4. Armstrong Bros' cork factory burned at Pittsburg; loss, $500,000.

5. A glass plant burned at Rochester, Pa.; loss, $500,000.

6. A block in the wholesale district of Atlanta burned; loss, $500,000.

MARCH.

1. The Old Motor works burned at Detroit, Mich.; loss, $200,000.

2. The office of the New York division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, in New York City, burned; loss, $1,000,000.

3. Glass factory at Gowanda, N. Y., burned; loss, $150,000.

4. Fire caused by the explosion of natural gas nearly wiped out the town of Cloverport, Ky.; loss, $500,000.

5. The Morning Advertiser burned in Boston; loss, $150,000.

6. The main building of the Pittsburg exposition and Chicago, Ind., burned; loss, $200,000.

7. 50 of the 60 houses in Memphis, Ind., destroyed by fire; loss, $200,000.

8. The Jenks shipbuilding plant at Port Huron, Mich., burned; loss, $175,000.

9. The Chicago Printing Works at Fort Wayne, Ind., nearly destroyed by fire; loss, $500,000.

10. The village of Glen Garden, N. J., nearly destroyed by a fire caused by a flood of burning oil from a railway train; loss about $500,000.

11. The Jefferson hotel burned at Richmond; loss, $1,000,000.

12. $500,000 loss in a fire in the business district of Paterson, N. J.; the plant of The Guardian Publishing Co. destroyed.

13. The Standard Packing Co. a noted landmark of Passaic, N. J., which originally cost $500,000, destroyed by fire.

14. The new $500,000 hotel, Hendrik Hudson, at Yonkers, N. Y., destroyed by fire.

15. Plant of the Dobb Brothers Packing Co. burned at Kansas City; loss, $400,000.

APRIL.

1. Sawmill of the Ashtland Manufacturing Co. at Ashtland, Mo., burned; loss over $100,000.

2. Elevator of the St. Louis Storage Co. burned; loss, $50,000.

3. The Student Flower works at Jamaica Plain, Mass., burned; loss over $500,000.

4. The plant of the Plaz Leather Co. burned at Racine, Wis.; loss, $105,000.

5. White & Co.'s woolen mill, Battle, Me., caused a loss of $200,000.

6. A loss of $100,000 by fire in the plant of the American Steel and Wire Co. at Latrobe, Pa.

MAY.

1. Disastrous fire in Jacksonville, Fla.; loss (estimated), $15,000,000; 145 blocks laid waste.

2. The Standard Packing Co. a noted landmark of Passaic, N. J., which originally cost $500,000, destroyed by fire.

3. The town of Jasper, Jasper county, Tex., wiped out by fire; loss, $100,000.

4. The West Baden Springs hotel at West Baden, Ind., destroyed by fire; loss, $500,000.

5. The Empire theater burned at Lynn, Mass.; loss, $100,000.

6. Fire at the mill of the Tower Lumber Co., near Lake, Minn., caused $150,000 loss.

7. The Sikes saddle plant and other buildings burned in St. Louis; loss, $500,000.

8. Fire destroyed a brick factory and other property valued at $300,000 in Newark, N. J.

9. Fire in the business district of Bradford, Pa., caused a loss of $200,000.

JULY.

1. Allenhurst Inn, near Asbury Park, N. J., destroyed by fire; loss, $175,000.

2. Homestead hotel at Hot Springs, Va., burned; loss, $50,000.

3. A $200,000 blaze in Huntington, W. Va.

AUGUST.

1. Buildings, including mills and dwellings, burned at Stillwater, Minn.; loss, $200,000.

2. The Hoer building, Baltimore, occupied by a lithographic establishment and company offices, burned; loss, $650,000.

3. Fire destroyed 15 business places in Colebrook, N. Y.; loss, $100,000.

4. 15,000 acres of wheat burned at Great Bend, Ind.; loss, $300,000.

5. The plant of the Kansas City Consolidated Smelter works burned at El Paso, Tex.; loss, $150,000.

6. 4 blocks of business houses burned at Enid, Okla.; loss, $100,000.

7. The packing plant of Jacob Fold at Wichita, Kan., burned; loss, $1,