

AT DANVILLE.

Reception to Representative. A large company of the friends and neighbors of Frank Clement gathered at his house last Wednesday evening in celebration of his election as town representative.

A Word from South Africa. Miss Anna M. Cummings of Willington, Cape Colony, spoke at the Congregational church Sunday evening on South Africa and the schools established there by Rev. Andrew Murray.

Social and General. The concert held at the Town Hall Friday evening for the benefit of the Methodist church was very enjoyable and netted the society about $21.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cutting of North Hampton, Mass., and Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Hooper and family, have been at the Elm House for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Badger and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Heath are attending the Barton fair.

John Harris of Washington, D. C., is back at the Elm House after a trip to Boston.

Mrs. Hattie Swanson and sister, Miss Mabel MacDonald, visited friends at Hardwick and Cabot last week.

William Weirs of West Concord visited at Frank Crane's, Tuesday.

J. Q. Wilkins of Salem, Mass., has been visiting at Isaac Colby's.

Mrs. Ella Laird returned to her home in Hardwick Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Packard of St. Johnsbury have been visiting at E. E. Badger's. They start for California, Monday.

Mrs. F. A. Crane and son Fred visited John Crane at Cabot, Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Swan and Miss A. L. Morrison of Chicago, have been stopping at Thurber's.

Mrs. M. B. Hale and Mrs. L. F. Thornton of West Barret, and Mrs. A. J. Mackey of Peacham, visited friends at Thurber's, Wednesday.

L. B. Hartsborn and wife of St. Johnsbury are stopping at the Elm House.

Murray Morse and Bert Morrill have been to the Bradford and Sheldon Junction fairs, and will go to Barton fair this week.

Roger and Emma Crane of Barret visited their uncle, Frank Crane, Friday.

Rev. George H. Cummings and family left Monday for a carriage drive to Stratford, where they will attend a family reunion and the 51st anniversary of the wedding of Mr. Cummings' parents.

Ertel Winn has moved into Mrs. Silas Boyce's house on the hill and Harry Gorman into the basement of the same house.

Mrs. H. K. Ide, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. E. E. Porter, has returned to her home in Wayland, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Hamilton, who have been visiting Mr. Hamilton's parents, returned to their home at Newport.

Miss Alice Hamilton commenced the fall term at Morse's Mills, Monday.

Misses Bertha West, Nancy Peck, Blanche Hartsborn and Willey and Maurice Hoyt are attending St. Johnsbury Academy this fall.

Guy Rowe has returned to Peacham Academy for another year.

F. N. Tinker has been spending a few days with his father, George A. Tinker, and has now returned to Mount Hermon school for his senior year.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

WEST DANVILLE. Charles Bean of Newark is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown of East Hardwick visited at George Merrill's, Saturday. Mr. Brown is 84 years old but remarkably well preserved for one of his age. He has been associated with the book trade in northern Vermont for over 40 years.

Deddo Labru, who was injured on the railroad, has returned from the hospital at St. Johnsbury and is stopping at John McCormick's in Cabot.

SUTTON. Mrs. Ellen (Otis) Down, who has been visiting at H. A. Blake's and other friends in this and adjoining towns, started for her home at Washington, D. C., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gray of St. Johnsbury visited friends in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Willard and Jerry Hill have returned to their home at Harrover.

Hollis Allard has traded his land north of the village with John Beckwith for some lots in Pettis County, Mo.

Dr. Mary Bachelder, returned missionary from India, is to speak at the church on Wednesday evening of this week, giving a lecture in the interest of missions in India, at half past seven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chapman are taking a carriage drive to Laconia and other places where they will spend several days with relatives and friends.

E. H. Deavitt of Montpelier has sold all of the machinery of every kind and the gas cylinders that formerly belonged to the Leckwith Muff Company to Mr. Bickford of New York, and the buildings are being gutted of every thing which is to be shipped to New York so that decides that no more gas is to be made in Sutton.

Between 60 and 70 were present at the Union House Aid society meeting at Monson P. Whipple's last Wednesday afternoon and evening and nearly $6 was raised.

A Grange meeting will be held Saturday evening, when the third and fourth degrees are to be given to two who could not be present at the last meeting, and the first and second degrees will probably be conferred upon three candidates.

There was a goodly number at the ice cream and cake supper at Grange hall Friday evening and a good sum of money realized toward furnishing crockery and articles for use on such occasions.

W. B. Eastman and family, who spent some days in town with Mr. Eastman's mother, have gone to their home in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. C. F. Fogg has gone to Springfield to visit her sister and family, Mrs. F. M. Abbott.

Mary J. Willard has gone to Johnson to attend normal school.

Miss Abbie Chapman is attending school at Lyndon Institute.

Miss Lucy Fisher of Lawrence, Mass., is stopping at her sister's, Mrs. G. R. Willard's.

Mrs. S. N. Royal has gone to Boston to visit her sisters.

Mrs. Caroline Duck has gone to Bellows Falls and Rockingham, her former home for a visit.

H. R. Willard has been in town for a visit before going to Gambier, Ohio, where he teaches.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mitchell have returned from a trip to Lancaster, where they went to attend the wedding of a granddaughter.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

LYNDON CENTER. Pearl Kent accompanied her brother Harry to Barre last week.

Mrs. Julia Quimby returned to her home in Springfield, Friday morning.

Channing Carpenter left Saturday morning for Ramsey, N. J., where he has a position in an office.

Lorne Downey is taking a much needed vacation at his father's home in Jackson, N. H. He will remain there until his health is improved.

Miss Winnifred Batchelder is attending Normal School in Johnson.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a social with Mrs. Eugene Clement Thursday evening. Maple sugar on ice will be served.

On account of the yearly meeting of Free Baptists at Starkboro there will be no service at the Free Baptist church next Sunday. The covenant meeting which was to have been held next Saturday will be postponed one week.

Dr. Mary Walker, a missionary from India, gave a very fine address in the Free Baptist church Monday evening. The talk was made especially interesting as a little girl was dressed to represent a bride and afterward to represent a widow.

Miss Leona Quimby has been having erysipelas in her foot, but is more comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley, who have been visiting here for the summer, start today for their home in Minneapolis.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists return the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

WHEELLOCK. At the town meeting last week Fred Hoffman was elected representative on the first ballot.

The ladies received $9 at the town meeting dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Craig visited friends in Peacham and Barret last week. Mr. Craig went to Montpelier Saturday to see the President and reported a large crowd and a very pleasant time.

The frost Friday night did considerable damage to crops in this vicinity.

Mae Peak is boarding at G. A. Orcutt's and attending the village school.

WEST CONCORD. Miss Charlotte Morrill of Brooklyn, N. Y., was the guest of Misses Nellie and Jennie Ranney last week Monday.

The many friends of Miss Ann Howe of St. Johnsbury, formerly of this place, will be very glad to learn that she is gaining as fast as could be expected from the surgical operation she had performed at the St. Johnsbury Hospital last week Tuesday.

Fred Dodge paid $800 instead of $1800 for the place he bought of Walter Douglas.

C. H. Dudley is having the rooms upstairs in his house fitted up for a tenement. Mr. Stevens of Massachusetts will occupy them.

William Douglas is boarding with his daughter, Mrs. C. L. Bryer.

Mrs. Mary Farahan is having good sales at the bakery in Dudley's block.

Several from this place attended Sherbrooke fair last week.

There was a good attendance at the dramatic Friday evening and a fine time enjoyed.

Freeman's meeting passed off quietly. L. W. Hastings received 170 votes, S. H. Kellogg 32, C. H. Dudley 3, scattering 2.

L. W. Hastings and J. H. Walbridge were given a serenade Tuesday evening. A delightful time was spent by the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Haviland returned from their wedding trip the last of last week.

Willie Harvey with his sisters, Mrs. Elmore Wade of St. Johnsbury and Mamie Harvey, returned from Canada, Thursday, after an absence of several weeks. Mrs. Harvey will remain some time longer with her sister, who has been very ill.

Hugh Miltmore has returned to his home at Swetsburg, F. O., after spending some time with his brother.

Schools commenced Monday.

Those attending St. Johnsbury Academy from here are Harold French, Walter Rich, Margaret Hull, Katie Russell and Vera Mooney.

The former pupils of H. C. Woodward, who is now visiting in this place from Springfield, Mass., propose to hold a reunion at the hour of the vestry of the Universalist church, Saturday, and they cordially invite as many of Mr. and Mrs. Woodward's friends as can, to come and enjoy the day with them. The forenoon will be spent socially. At noon a picnic dinner is to be served. After this there will be several speeches, music, etc. Mr. Woodward will be remembered by the older citizens as for a long time identified with the interests of our public schools, both as teacher and superintendent. The gathering will be of interest to many. Let notice of the reunion be extended by those interested.

BRADFORD. Miss Edith Bruce Jones returned last week from Rochester.

Miss Ellen McDuffy of Montpelier is spending her vacation in town.

Mrs. William Farnham and little son, who spent several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Farnham returned last week to Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Lelia Baker of Keene, N. H., is visiting at Asa Shaw's.

Mrs. Olive A. Baldwin was called to Lowell, Mass., last Tuesday by the death of her cousin, Mrs. Ellen Aldrich Burns.

Ernest Davis is clerking in Cunningham's pharmacy.

Mrs. Kate Buckley has been very ill for several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Asa Shaw. At present writing she is in a critical condition.

Miss Sara Parker, Charles Parker and Andy Peters have gone to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where they will attend the Eastman Business College.

Mrs. Fred Batchelder and Miss Ruth, her daughter, were the guests of Mrs. H. B. Chamberlain last week.

J. E. Sleeper and wife left last Wednesday for their home, Hon. A. E. Sleeper, in Lexington, Mich.

Mrs. Robert A. Turner of Paris was a guest at the Low mansion last week. She is well remembered by the older people as a former Bradford girl.

Miss May Creden of Portland is spending two weeks with Mrs. Frank Brigham.

Mrs. Mima Spence of Randolph spent Sunday at E. H. Nye's.

For Over Sixty Years. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferers immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

HARVEY. Misses Rose and Lizzie McGill were in St. Johnsbury last week.

Minnie Paquin is working for Mrs. E. R. Mackey for a few weeks.

Mrs. Sarah Tyler and Miss Sadie Newell visited at Mrs. S. M. Frye's last Tuesday.

George Towne is moving his family to East Barret where he has employment with M. D. Gibson.

Dora Blair from Springfield, Mass., has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Blair the past few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dunn visited at J. L. Frye's recently.

Frank Hooker is at home from Boston for a few weeks' vacation.

Nettie Hooker is working for Mrs. Frank Blain.

BARNET. A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the Congregational church, when Miss Alice Brown and Frank Guernsey of Boston were united in marriage by the bride's former pastor, Rev. Joseph Boardman. The church had been tastefully decorated in green and white, by the bride's friends, the altar being a bank of green foliage and white flowers, white asters and ferns predominating. The background was of evergreen and oak branches, and the gallery where the Laughlin orchestra dispensed sweet music was also banked in green and white. The bride and groom entered the church unattended and proceeded up the broad aisle, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. At the altar they were met by Rev. Mr. Boardman and little Miss Marion Morgan who performed the service of maid of honor, holding the bride's bouquet and having in charge the wedding ring. The double ring service was used. The bride was gowned in white point de esprit over white tulle silk, en traine, trimmed all over with narrow quilline of white liberty silk, and a sash of liberty silk fell from the waist. The bride's veil was caught with wax berries, and she carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Guernsey left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's brother's, George I. Brown, where a company of about 25 friends and relatives sat down to a bountiful but daintily laid table. Mr. and Mrs. Guernsey were the recipients of many beautiful presents. In the afternoon they drove to St. Johnsbury to take the train for Boston, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of Lowell, Mass., and Will Brown and Miss Carrie Jones of St. Johnsbury, besides a large number of friends from Ryegate attended the Guernsey-Brown wedding last week.

Mrs. Lyman Stanley has returned from a visit to Monroe.

Ned Abbott is quite sick with grip.

Miss Anna Perry visited friends in Lyndon over Sunday.

Miss Laura Gleason from Pasadena visited at the home of J. S. T. Wallace last week.

Miss Martha Gleason of McIndoes called on friends Friday.

Dorothy, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, who arrived at Sherburne Moore's from California, about the first of May, died Sunday night. She has been very sick ever since coming here. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Moore Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Laughlin has entered the State Normal school at Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Waterford visited their daughter, Mrs. Julian Laughlin, the past week.

Just Look at Her. Whence came that sprightly step, faultless skin, rich, rosy complexion, smiling face. She looks good, feels good. Here's her secret. She uses Dr. King's New Life Pills. Result, all organs active, digestion good, no headaches, no chance for "blues." Try them yourself. Only 25c at Flint Bros.

LYNDON. Reception to Representative Hubbard. The republicans feeling elated over their recent victory tendered the representative-elect, Dr. L. W. Hubbard, a reception at his home Friday evening. Being informed beforehand of their intention Dr. Hubbard was prepared to receive them. The house was decorated with flags and bunting, the yards brilliantly illuminated with electric lights and Chinese lanterns and furnished with seats sufficient to accommodate quite a large number of people. The Lyndon band was in attendance and their music was much enjoyed. Dr. Hubbard responded in a short speech promising adherence to the principles and platform of the republican party. Refreshments were served and the company dispersed with many congratulations and kind wishes to the doctor.

Miss Anna Perry of Barnet has been visiting at Scott Parum's.

Miss Maud Bailey returned Saturday from a visit to Peacham and starts today for Northfield, Mass., to resume her studies.

Miss Anna Thompson has returned from her visit to Joe's pond and is at work for two or three weeks at the telephone central at St. Johnsbury.

Frank Bailey and Miss Blanche Aldrich are at work at the Union office.

Will Buckman of Somerville, Mass., has been visiting at Murray Par's.

Misses Hattie and Effie Colby left Saturday for Orange, Mass., where they have for several years been successful teachers.

Mrs. S. M. Farnum visited at her mother's in Peacham last week.

Miss Florence Chase started Monday for Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barrett of Massachusetts are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. E. J. McMullen. Mrs. Barrett is well remembered here as Miss Ethel, one of the twin daughters of Mrs. Mary Little.

Richard Gage has sold his place near Lyndon depot for $1500.

Miss Grace McGilvery has gone to Canada for a visit of a few weeks.

On Sunday evening about 7 o'clock the village was visited by a sudden shower of great force but of short duration. As it ceased hail stones of considerable size were picked up.

There was no preaching service at the Methodist church last Sunday and there will be none next Sunday but Sunday school and Epworth League meeting as usual.

Rev. Mr. Mather has gone to Ohio.

The corn roast and social at Scott Parum's last Monday evening was a novelty in this place and drew a crowd of over 70. An immense bonfire was lighted which furnished a place to roast the corn and while that was being attended to the company was served with dishes of succotash and a large kettle of beans were drawn out of the ground smoking hot. Other bonfires assisted in keeping the grounds warm and dry and were useful for popping all the corn that could be eaten. The fee asked was very small but it added nearly $5 to the treasury of the Ladies' Aid society.

WALDEN. Mrs. Eva Perkins and children, who have been spending the summer at A. A. Scott's, returned to their home in Lowell, Mass., Friday.

Abortion Prevented. Saved a Calf - Saved a Foal. Hood Farm Abortion Cure. I lost four calves and had three more cows that showed signs of abortion. One lost her calf the year before at a little over 8 months. She was about 7 months along and her udder was badly swollen. I gave her Hood Farm Abortion Cure as directed for three weeks. The swelling all left her and two months later she dropped the best calf on the farm. I had a mare that showed signs of abortion. Gave her this remedy and she foaled a living colt." R. C. Thompson, Dows, Iowa.

Two sizes - $1 and $2.50. Large four times dollar size. Call for treatise on Abortion and Failure to Breed.

Hood Farm Remedies are for sale by WELCOME B. EASTMAN, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

LUNENBURG HEIGHTS HOUSE, Lunenburg, Vermont. Open all the year for permanent and transient guests.

MRS. E. C. WHITE.

Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day.

GREENSBORO. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Melvin have been spending a week in Stowe.

Miss Mabel Gillis went to Manchester, N. H., Wednesday, to attend school.

Mrs. Byron Smith and her mother, Mrs. Hendricks, are visiting friends in Milton and Enosburg.

B. H. Fairbanks visited in Franklin county last week and attended the Sheldon fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Hill spent last week in Danville and Passumpsic.

Schools in town commenced Monday.

Fish Commissioner Merrill put 1500 land locked salmon into the lake last week.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. B. H. Fairbanks Tuesday afternoon.

E. O. Randall was in Glover last week on business.

Miss Florence Wilson is in charge of the post office while Miss Lindsay is taking a vacation.

Alpha Gebbie and Miss Mellic Babcock were married Wednesday evening. Cigars were in evidence Thursday and congratulations are extended.

Mrs. J. B. Chandler as guardian of her husband has sold the farm for $1200 to Frank Ingalls of New Hampshire. She will soon sell the personal property at auction.

In accordance with an appeal from the Woman's Home Temperance League of Ludlow, the two W. C. T. U. societies of Greensboro united in a thorough canvass of the town and secured 229 names on a petition favoring the present prohibitory law and earnestly praying for its strict enforcement. There were only three ladies in town refusing to sign and it is those who did sign to say that they were intelligently alive to what it would mean to have the licensed saloon enter our state and were glad to be placed on record as being in sympathy with and in favor of the present law and desiring its strict enforcement that there by we may have better protection for our homes and sons and daughters against the awful curse of intemperance in all its forms.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ritchie were in Barnet over Sunday.

PASSUMPSIC. MARRIAGE. A simple but pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Almira Annis last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when her daughter, Lillian Belle, was united in marriage to Linnie Emeric Moore, Rev. G. M. Rees of Waterford, officiating. The ring service was used and while Lohengrin's wedding march was played by P. K. Sloggy of St. Johnsbury, the bride party entered the sitting room, which was tastefully decorated, and stood under an arch of evergreens. The bride wore white Persian lawn trimmed with white silk applique and chiffon and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Catherine Annis, sister of the bride, wore white organdie with pink trimmings and carried pink carnations. Elmer Laekie served as best man. After congratulations were extended by 25 invited friends they were served with fruit punch, ice cream and cake, in the dining room. The bride was the recipient of many nice presents. Mr. and Mrs. Masure left for a carriage drive through the White Mountains, and on their return will live in George Richardson's house on the meadow at East Barret.

Rev. C. D. R. Meacham was given a reception Thursday evening in honor of his election as town representative. A large number gathered at the vestry where speeches, music and hand shaking constituted the program of an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Elvira Brock is in East Barret staying with her aged mother while her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gillilan, take a trip to Boston.

Chester Felch who is boarding at George Goodall's is quite ill.

Samuel Meacham returned to Newport Friday night. His niece, Miss Litchfield, will remain at the parsonage some time longer as her aunt, Mrs. Meacham, is quite poorly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hill of Greensboro visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. Emilie Eastman has purchased the Newell place for the use of her hired help.

Jesse Cleveland of Webster City, Iowa, and Leon Litchfield of Coventry, visited at the parsonage last week. Both young men are nephews of Mr. Meacham.

Mrs. Milo Lackie is visiting in Burlington and other points in the western part of the state.

Mrs. Emily Garland of Newbury visited Mrs. Whitcomb and Miss Lamb, also at Mr. Meacham's.

Milo Lackie and G. G. Winslow have been elected delegates from this church to the Baptist state convention to be held in Bennington Sept. 25 and 26.

Prof. Pierce was here over Sunday and played the organ at church much to the delight of all. He will return to Chicago this week.

Mrs. Horace Miller of Lunenburg is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Keith.

Some misceant broke up a swarm of bees at R. P. Kidder's Saturday night and carried off a box of honey.

Miss Margie Todd, from Palmer, Mass., spent Sunday at her uncle's, William Kelley.

WALDEN. Mrs. Eva Perkins and children, who have been spending the summer at A. A. Scott's, returned to their home in Lowell, Mass., Friday.

Abortion Prevented. Hood Farm Abortion Cure. I lost four calves and had three more cows that showed signs of abortion. One lost her calf the year before at a little over 8 months. She was about 7 months along and her udder was badly swollen. I gave her Hood Farm Abortion Cure as directed for three weeks. The swelling all left her and two months later she dropped the best calf on the farm. I had a mare that showed signs of abortion. Gave her this remedy and she foaled a living colt." R. C. Thompson, Dows, Iowa.

Two sizes - $1 and $2.50. Large four times dollar size. Call for treatise on Abortion and Failure to Breed.

Hood Farm Remedies are for sale by WELCOME B. EASTMAN, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

LUNENBURG HEIGHTS HOUSE, Lunenburg, Vermont. Open all the year for permanent and transient guests.

MRS. E. C. WHITE.

Mrs. Carl Foss has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rogers.

Presiding Elder Spermberne had charge of the services here Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Della Pike entertains the Ladies' Mite society Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Phebe McGinnis and children are visiting relatives in Ryegate.

Mrs. Oliver Kittredge and two sons of Swanton have been visiting at Eugene Kittredge's.

Harry Young of Peacham visited at Charles Cox's last week.

EAST BARNET. Mrs. Mary Bowman Fish from Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. Lenora Sauborn of Washington, D. C., visited at J. F. Adams' recently.

A number of young people from the village met at the home of Miss