

Calf Scours Cured

Hood Farm "My calf was taken 24 hours after birth with scours of a watery, foamy nature, was weak and staggered and refused its food. Three doses of Hood Farm Calf Scour Cure and Digestive Powder brought it around all right and it has been doing well ever since."

AT THE 'VILLE.

A Centennial Honored. It is not often a town has the privilege of celebrating the 100th anniversary of the birth of one of its citizens, as Lyndon had last Wednesday, when the townspeople united in showing this honor to John Dunton.

AT DANVILLE.

Two Pleasant Occasions. The social held at the Congregational church, Wednesday of last week, was most enjoyable and very successful financially. The concert in the evening at which a collection was taken netted about $11 for the piano fund.

WEST CONCORD.

County Sunday School Convention. The Essex County Sunday School Convention is held here this week, Thursday and Friday. Thursday afternoon and evening in the Methodist church and Friday morning in the Universalist church.

Too Many Cooks are no worse than a poor cook-stove. To have a good digestion wait on appetite only one thing is absolutely essential, and that is a MAGEE RANGE. Highest Award at all expositions. Magee Furnace Co. 32 Union St. Boston.

called here Sunday by the death of Mildred Chapman. Homer Goodell of Newport is a guest at Louis Carpenter's. Air rifles at Eastman's, St. Johnsbury. While Mrs. L. W. Hastings with her two youngest children, and Miss Lila Hastings were driving down the steep hill...

IN HUB MARKETS.

Quotations on the Leading Products in Demand. Boston, Sept. 7.—Butter is firm, with no change in prices. Northern creamery, round lots, 21 1/2 @ 22 1/2 c; western, 21 1/2 @ 22 c; Vermont dairy, 18 1/2 @ 20 c; renovated butter, 16 1/2 @ 18 c; jobbing, 1/2 @ 1 c more.

Gathering of the Aged. Charlestown, Mass., Sept. 3.—The 34th annual gathering of the Old Folks' society was attended by more than 300 persons over 70 years old, by many over 80 and 90, and by two or three nearly a century old. Practically all towns in western Massachusetts and southern Vermont were represented.

THE LATEST. The Tenebris Lace Wheel, the greatest in-seam-making invention of today. Simple, speedy, effective. Can you make more in less time?

Lace Collars. Appliques, Medallions, Edges and Insertions. All over Lace, in Black, White and Beige. New Neck wear, Veilings, etc.

F. M. SPENCER, 61 Eastern Av., St. Johnsbury. Silverware, Jewelry, & Cut Glass.

Private Sale. Allen Underwood administrator, will sell all of the Personal Property of the late J. C. Underwood at private sale at 115 Portland Street. Saturday Afternoon.

AT THE 'VILLE.

It is not often a town has the privilege of celebrating the 100th anniversary of the birth of one of its citizens, as Lyndon had last Wednesday, when the townspeople united in showing this honor to John Dunton.

The Universalist convention last week was very successful, and the visitors expressed themselves as highly delighted with the place and the people. The ladies of the church furnished dinners and suppers in the boarding hall in the camp grove, while lodging and breakfasts were given by the townspeople.

Mrs. Kimball preached a fine sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The Episcopal society was held with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Webster last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Charles Miller of West Lebanon is visiting in town. Mrs. W. H. Child of Fairlee is in town last week. Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Davis visited in Hardwick and Greensboro last week.

George Parker has moved his barber shop and pool room into the middle store in Ide's block. The bank and railroad shops were closed Monday, Labor Day. The rest of the town spent the day "laboring" as usual.

Hereafter the railroad shops will not close until 4 p. m. on Saturday, the summer arrangement having ended. Mr. and Mrs. Salmon Stern have returned from their European trip.

Rev. Mr. Mather, the Methodist pastor, has started on a trip to his former home in England. His family will visit in Ohio during his absence. E. C. Earle was in Boston last week. On account of his absence Mrs. Brock furnished the music for the usual Friday evening hop.

AT DANVILLE.

The entertainment "A Modern Ananias" was given very successfully, Friday evening, the actors all taking their parts with credit. There was not as large an audience as was expected owing to other attractions. The management were very sorry to disappoint those who came for the promenade, but were not at all fault as the music engaged for the evening failed to appear.

Mrs. Page and daughters, Miss Helen and Miss Alice Pillsbury and Miss Rand have gone to Woodstock and New York en route for their home in Minneapolis. The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Bacon, late of Woodville, was held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Rev. Joseph Hamilton officiating.

Mrs. Belle Patterson, who has been visiting her father, returned to her home at Reading, Mass., last week. Miss Carrie Mathewson has gone back to Lyndonville to work for F. Norris. I. K. Gray went to Hardwick last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Dr. George.

Mrs. Bessie Cree and daughter Avis are visiting at Hardwick for a few days. Mrs. Symes, who has been staying at the Caledonia Springs House for the past two months, has returned to her home at Lowell, Mass. Miss Alice Preston has returned to her home at Boston and Miss Carrie Buck to Sharon, to attend school.

What is said to be the first round barn ever built in Washington county has just been completed by George Dow and son of Cabot. It is 89 feet across and is a very commodious, roomy structure. From what people say regarding the barn it looks as if a number of others when they build will follow the example set by the Messrs. Dow.

His Future. Father—Well, how did you come out in the bean guessing contest? Dull Boy—I guessed there was 150 beans in the jar, and there was 9,200. Father (sadly)—I'm afraid you'll never be fit for anything but a weather bureau chief.—Youth.

At a Boarding House. Stout Man (whose appetite has been the envy of his fellow boarders)—I declare I have three buttons off my vest. Mistress of the House (who has been itching to give him a hint)—You will probably find them in the dining room, sir.

WEST CONCORD.

County Sunday School Convention. The Essex County Sunday School Convention is held here this week, Thursday and Friday. Thursday afternoon and evening in the Methodist church and Friday morning in the Universalist church.

Miss Julia Pike, who was engaged to teach the intermediate room in the village school, has resigned her position and Mrs. Snug has that room. Miss Margaret Keating of Norwalk, Conn., is the teacher in the grammar room.

Mrs. R. A. McKelvey officiated as organist in the Universalist church, Sunday. A petition is in circulation to have the name of our postoffice changed to Concord instead of West Concord. Mrs. Em. Lilliecar has been suffering from the mumps. Several of her children have also been having them.—Carl Richards, who has been quite sick, is improving.—Emery Adams has been confined to the house the past week with sciatic rheumatism.

Robert Duthie was in Barre last week on a business trip. Mrs. Nettie Morton has gone to St. Johnsbury, where she has a position as housekeeper. Mrs. William Lindsay and Sadie Green have been visiting at Ira Lewis' in Concord.

Mrs. Helen Stockwell left last Saturday for a visit to her son, Richardson Stockwell, in Chelsea, Mass. Mrs. Deney Burbank, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Willard Chase, returned to her home in Fitzwilliam Depot, N. H., last Thursday.

Mrs. John Folsom and son Ross of Lunenburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt last Thursday. Harry Bagholder of East Barret was in town last Thursday calling on his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Bingham, and sister, Mrs. Francis Chapman.

Miss Samuel Ford of Kirby is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Lindsay, Mrs. Florence Underwood Wakefield of Orange, Mass., and Hazel Underwood, daughter of Clarence Underwood. Mrs. Mido Green and Mrs. Stevens and two children of St. Johnsbury were also guests there last week.

WEST CONCORD.

County Sunday School Convention. The Essex County Sunday School Convention is held here this week, Thursday and Friday. Thursday afternoon and evening in the Methodist church and Friday morning in the Universalist church.

Miss Julia Pike, who was engaged to teach the intermediate room in the village school, has resigned her position and Mrs. Snug has that room. Miss Margaret Keating of Norwalk, Conn., is the teacher in the grammar room.

Mrs. R. A. McKelvey officiated as organist in the Universalist church, Sunday. A petition is in circulation to have the name of our postoffice changed to Concord instead of West Concord. Mrs. Em. Lilliecar has been suffering from the mumps. Several of her children have also been having them.—Carl Richards, who has been quite sick, is improving.—Emery Adams has been confined to the house the past week with sciatic rheumatism.

Robert Duthie was in Barre last week on a business trip. Mrs. Nettie Morton has gone to St. Johnsbury, where she has a position as housekeeper. Mrs. William Lindsay and Sadie Green have been visiting at Ira Lewis' in Concord.

Mrs. Helen Stockwell left last Saturday for a visit to her son, Richardson Stockwell, in Chelsea, Mass. Mrs. Deney Burbank, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Willard Chase, returned to her home in Fitzwilliam Depot, N. H., last Thursday.

Mrs. John Folsom and son Ross of Lunenburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt last Thursday. Harry Bagholder of East Barret was in town last Thursday calling on his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Bingham, and sister, Mrs. Francis Chapman.

Miss Samuel Ford of Kirby is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Lindsay, Mrs. Florence Underwood Wakefield of Orange, Mass., and Hazel Underwood, daughter of Clarence Underwood. Mrs. Mido Green and Mrs. Stevens and two children of St. Johnsbury were also guests there last week.

Catarrh

It is a constitutional disease. It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition. It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the vocal organs, disturbs the stomach.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of all diseases depending on scrofula or the scrofulous habit. HOOD'S PILLS are the best cathartic.

What's Her Lay? Is the hen's egg yield small? Sick perhaps, or moulting. Special feeding means speedy recovery. Up-to-date poultrymen always use Sheridan's CONDITION POWDER. Mixed with any food it invigorates—supplies needed elements for new plumage—restores moulting—insures early laying when eggs are high. 25c a pack; $1.00 a dozen. Sold by all dealers. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.