COUNTY COURT.

A Long Term Expected.

The June term of the Caledonia county court opened yesterday morning with Hon. John H. Watson, presiding judge, and Hon. T. A. Meader of Ryegate, and Hon. D. E. Ruggles of Sutton, assistant judges. Chief Judge Rowell was assigned to this county, but he exchanged with Judge Watson and is presiding at the Orange county court at Chelsea.

Abner W. Smith is acting clerk and Mrs. E. A. Nutt of Montpelier official stenographer. Following the prayer by Rev. A. Francis Walch, Sheriff Salloway made the opening proclamation and the docket was called by the clerk. On the jury calendar there were 59 cases with about 40 set for trial. A few were settled, others continued and there are several of which no disposition has been made.

There are 30 cases on the court calendar, nearly all of which are set for trial, while there is nothing of importance coming up on the chancery docket. A few divorce cases are set for hearing and there are 22 state cases left over from previous terms, but these will be easily disposed of. As this week the grand jury term it looks now as if the session would be a long one.

At the afternoon session the grand jurors were called, the oath administered and they were instructed in regard to their duties. Henry A. Gilfillan of Barnet was appointed foreman. The petit jurors were then called and sworn. The case of Lynde vs. Barr, an International Co. et als was commenced and the jury empaneled. Cook and Norton are the attorneys for the savings bank and Young and Young for the defendant. This case will occupy several days.

Among the lawyers present from out of town at the sessions yesterday were W. W. Miles and W. R. Aldrich of Barton; Young and Young of Newport; E. A. Deavitt and B. E. Bailey of Montpelier; Taylor and Dutton, and Bullard and Morse of Hardwick; Cook and Norton and J. F. Gleason of Lyndonville; Fred Wright and Scott Sloane of Woodsville; and J. P. Lamson of Cabot.

Accompanying the grand officers were Charles C. Hutchinson of Lowell, deputy of the supreme council for Massachusetts; Everett C. Benton, James S. Blake, Moses C. Plummer and Eugene A. Holton. The work was conducted in full ceremonial form. A collation and speaking by several of the prominent Masons closed the reunion.

A special convocation of the Mystic Shrine was held here Monday evening which was largely attended from members residing on the east side of the state. A class of 19 candidates were initiated at the Army in the evening after which Caterer Atwood served a fine banquet to 225 members of the organization. The banquet was served in Pythian Hall.

At Paddock Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniels were called to Lynn, Mass., Thursday, by the critical illness, which resulted in the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bangs, formerly of this place. They have many friends here, who will regret to hear of the loss of their only child.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Graves have returned to Winchester, Mass., after a several months' stay in St. Johnsbury and vicinity. Mr. Graves' health is much improved by the Vermont air.

RECENT DEATHS.

Word was received here Thursday of the sudden death in Detroit, Mich., of Mrs. Kate Lewis, for many years a resident of this town. She had been spending the winter with her son and was in comparatively good health when heart failure attacked her that noon and she passed away. She was born in White Sulphur Springs, Va., Nov. 1, 1856, and over half of her life was spent in the South. About 17 years ago she came North to educate her children and came to St. Johnsbury in the fall of 1893. During her 11 years' residence here she made many friends in a kindly manner, her cheery disposition and her deep interest in the welfare of others winning her many friends. She was a member of the North Congregational church. She leaves three children, Robert E. and Miss Katherine M. of this place and Edwin C. Lewis of Detroit with whom she had been making her home. The remains were brought to Waitsfield, Vt., where the funeral was held on Sunday.

County Conference.

The 70th annual meeting of the Caledonia county conference of Congregational churches was held with the church in Lower Waterford on Tuesday, May 31, and the following account of the gathering was contributed by Rev. W. C. Clark of Lyndon to the Vermont Missionary for June:

The church at Lower Waterford had not entertained the Conference since 1876. Notwithstanding the difficulty in reaching the place the attendance was larger than for several years, all the churches being represented except three. The reports were unusually encouraging, special mention being made of favorable financial conditions and repairs upon church property. The most unsatisfactory point noted, as in former years, was the failure to bring the young people into church membership.

The sermon was by Rev. J. P. Marvin on the text, "In the beginning God." Mr. J. H. Fuller of Lyndonville spoke on the topic, "Who is a Christian?" and Rev. A. F. Eldridge answered the question, "Who should join the church?" During the Woman's Missionary hour an address was given by Miss DeBusk of New Mexico. The topic of the evening was, "Co-operation in Religious Work." This was discussed by Dea C. C. Bell, Rev. J. K. Williams and others. Dea Bell's remarks were informal and practical, showing that with all his activities on the farm and in public matters he is keenly and vitally interested in the work of his church.

At the business session it was voted that a portion of the missionary offerings of the churches, to the amount of $800, or 50 cents per resident member, should be used for the support of a foreign missionary. A resolution was introduced providing for the partial payment of the delegates' expenses to the National Council, but it was not adopted, as it was deemed unwise to impose a tax upon the churches for that purpose. Feeling against the taxation of the churches prevailed to such an extent that the delegates voted to bring before the National Council, but it was not adopted, as it was deemed unwise to impose a tax upon the churches for that purpose.

As the day was not an ideal picnic day the regular meeting, which had been anticipated by so many, had to be held in doors and about 50 ladies thoroughly enjoyed themselves in Y. M. C. A. Hall, where ice cream was served by the social committee, in addition to the lunch brought by the members. Mrs. Rebecca P. Fairbanks, president, was the special attraction of the evening. The program of the committee in charge. Mrs. W. P. Smith read some very pleasing selections from "Songs of the Glens of Antrim" by Moira O'Neill.

It Costs You Nothing.

W. B. Eastman Will Return Your Money If His Remedy Does Not Cure You.

There are hundreds of people in St. Johnsbury who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the "CALEDONIAN" that W. B. Eastman was selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not cure.

This marvelous dyspepsia remedy will cure the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness or the general played out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble.

Mi-o-na does not simply relieve; it cures. W. B. Eastman can tell you of many well known people in this city whom this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.
