Miss Margaret Stuart of St. Johnsbury was in town last week called here by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Aaron Tilton.

Death of James N. Frye. Albert Frye received word last week of the death of his brother James Frye of Boston, but was not able to attend the funeral owing to his feeble health. James N. Frye was born in Concord Oct. 3, 1828, the second son of Capt. David and Betsey (Joslin) Frye. He attended St. Johnsbury Academy in 1848 and worked at the same time in the post office there. He went to Boston in 1849 and engaged in the wholesale hardware business, being the senior member of the firm of Frye, Phipps & Co., at the time of his death. He never relinquished his kinship with Vermonters, and was instrumental in forming the Vermont Association of Boston, of which he was vice president. He was fond of sports and had been president of the Massachusetts Rifle Association and an active member of the Winchester Club, a well-known sporting club. The Ladies favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting. Wears and covers like gold. Don't pay $1.20 a gallon for Linsed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it. 8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want 14 gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M. and mix six gallons pure Linsed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon. Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linsed Oil mixed therewith. These Celebrated paints are sold by Flint Bros.
