LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—Try the American Throat Tablets.

—The directors of E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., have declared a quarterly dividend of $5 a share, payable Dec. 15, 1905.

—The directors of the Merchants National Bank have declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable Jan. 1, 1906. This is an increase of 1/2 per cent over the last dividend and since that time their capital stock has been reduced from $300,000 to $150,000.

—Houghton & Co., will give up their retail store the first of the year and Mr. Houghton will devote his entire time to the manufacture and sale of the country kiosk, corn brittles and other candy specialties. Mr. Houghton has been in trade about five years and made many friends by his honorable business methods.

—Charles E. Kirk has a good express sleigh and several other good sleighs for sale at the St. Johnsbury House stables.

—Miss Helen F. Shaw will hold her exhibition and sale of painted china and other articles suitable for the holidays, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, at 13 Belvidere street. All are cordially invited.

—Use the American Little Liver Tablets.

—Harry H. Carr is building a storehouse 65 by 35 feet opposite the passenger depot to be used for supplies for agricultural machinery. Mr. Carr has built up a large trade in this line of goods and the erection of the new building is necessitated by the transfer of a large lot of these supplies from the supply houses at Burlington and White River Junction.

—Herbert L. Doyle found his stolen horse and team at Woodsville last week though he could find no trace of the man who hired the rig last fall. He is still behind the game as the next day a fine pair of his horses ran away on the North Danville road and plunged into the river near the bridge above the "All Wright Spring."

One horse broke his neck and the other had to be shot.

—The ladies of the Free Baptist church will serve a chicken pie supper in their vestry Thursday evening. An excellent bill of fare for 25 cents.

—Miss Belle Ward will have a sale of handkerchiefs, aprons and inexpensive fancy articles on Friday afternoon at 19 Spring street.

—Call at Hunt's for your holly and wreaths.

—The Berry-Ball dry goods store will be open every night next week.

—Light and continuous falls of snow throughout the week have made good sleighing to the especial delight of the merchants who have a big and varied stock of holiday goods for everybody. It is also remarkable that only once this present winter has the mercury dropped below zero at the home of C. C. Bingham who furnishes the CALEDONIAN with its weather record every week.

—Gov. Bell's appointments for the past week included A. B. Noyes as one of our justices of the peace and Mrs. Walter P. Smith to succeed herself upon the Vermont Free Public Library Commission. St. Johnsbury has been well represented on this commission ever since it was created and Mrs. Smith has been the superintendent of traveling libraries.

—The Woman's Association of the North church will hold a sewing meeting at the church Thursday afternoon at 1.30. Articles left from the sale will be placed on tables, and it is hoped many will like to purchase.

—Come to the supper to be served by the ladies of St. Andrew's church at Pythian hall Friday evening and get some of that good roast pork purchased from Manager Spencer at the Fairbanks grocery store.

—The ladies of the Church of the Messiah will serve a clam chowder supper Thursday evening at six o'clock. One table will be ready at 5.30.

—William Gill has a musical instrument that is sure to attract attention. It is a piano that is operated by electricity and plays the tunes from a paper roll. The piano can also be used as an ordinary instrument and has a good tone and easy action.

—E. S. Roy very properly claims the belt as the champion coon hunter in town, having caught 17 this season. The largest one weighed 40 pounds and furnished considerable excitement for both the hunter and his two dogs.

—At Grace Methodist church Tuesday night, Dec. 19, the Junior League will give a Christmas Cantata, with tableaux and recitations. Gill's Orchestra will furnish music. Admission 10 cents.

—Regular meeting of the Junior Order, Thursday evening, Dec. 14th, at 7 o'clock. Let all members try and be present.
