Elsie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Desouteaux died Saturday after a short illness. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon. Wedding Bells. Theatre goers were treated to a pleasant surprise Friday night at the Stanley opera house, when the Lyndonville Dramatic Company presented the comedy drama, "Wedding Bells." It was, without doubt, one of the best performances of the season. The play abounds in clever dramatic and humorous situations, which harmonized to the best advantage. The inclement weather kept many away, but those who did attend were very profuse in their praise of the acting of our neighbors from the 'Ville, and the general opinion is, that should they appear here again, they would be greeted by a much larger audience. The play was given under the direction of B. F. Crandall, who was well supported by Lyndonville talent.
