

AT DANVILLE.

Death of Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Nancy Morse Williams died at her home in this village Friday morning of heart disease. She had been in poor health during the latter part of the winter and confined to her bed for about ten days. The end came very suddenly, as few realized how serious her condition was. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Morse and was born in Danville in 1841. In 1863 she was united in marriage to Abel Morrill of Cabot, who was then home on a furlough from his regiment, of which he was adjutant and acting major. Mr. Morrill returned to the front after a very short leave, and was killed in the Battle of the Wilderness. She later married Albert Stevens of Danville, and two children were born to them, a son, Morrill Stevens, who died at the age of 5 1/2 years and a daughter, Adelia, who died at the age of ten years. Mr. Stevens was married in 1880 to Newell Scocker Williams and a son, John David, was born to them. Mrs. Williams died the Congregational church in 1892, and was very active in the church and all its filiating societies, and for a great many years was a member of the choir. Always active in the Ladies Aid she had been its president and was vice president at the time of her death. In these various organizations her presence will be greatly missed. She is survived by her husband, John, a brother, Judge Stephen Morse of this town, and two sisters, Mrs. Violetta Fisher of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. John Nutting of Northfield, Minn. The funeral was held at the house Monday, Rev. G. H. Cummings officiating. Music was furnished by a male quartet from Peacham. The bearers were C. S., H. S., W. P., and Lyman Dole, and Murray D. Clement. Among those present from out of town were John D. Nutting, of Northfield, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. William Spooner and son Ralph, Mrs. Emma Massey, Ethan E. Carr, Lewis, Fisher, Miss Hattie Fisher, and Charles Weeks of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. George Kingsbury of Walden, Elwin Kingsbury of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of Peacham.

Mrs. J. E. Tinker, who has been ill for several weeks, is recovering. Washburn Lodge F. and A. M., and Diamond Chapter, O. E. S., will join in the installation of their newly elected officers Wednesday evening, May 2. The installation will be open to all members of both orders, their families and invited friends. A banquet will follow the exercises.

J. A. Hill of Burlington is working at the Elm House stables. The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. E. W. Sturdevant, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Miss Lydia Taylor has returned to the Normal school at Johnson for the spring term.

Mrs. O. E. Carter will have her millinery opening Thursday and Friday, May 3 and 4. Miss Nellie Ash will trim for her again this year.

Aaron Wesson has been spending several days in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bennett of New York city are at their summer home here.

Mrs. David R. Brown is at home from Brightlook hospital.

Fred Stocker is at home from a short business trip to Boston.

Joseph Morse is moving onto the farm he recently purchased of the estate of Moses Porter. Mr. Morse has made quite extensive repairs to the interior of the house, and plans to build a large barn next year.

George Parker, a life long resident of Danville, and a veteran of the civil war, is quite ill with kidney trouble.

A. H. Hill of Greensboro, is working in E. E. Budger's blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Ona McKensie of Hardwick is visiting at Mrs. E. Iwin Williams'.

Lost between Danville and St. Johnsbury on the evening of April 10, a black far robe. Finder notify Albert Heath, Danville, and get reward.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hamilton of Woodstock, visited at M. V. B. Dow's on his way to conference.

Mrs. W. H. Cass was called to Morrisville, Saturday, to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. A. C. McLeann has been visiting friends at St. Johnsbury.

Mr. Pierce of Burlington has been visiting at Dr. David R. Brown's.

The Hastings Supply Co., of Miles Pond want 200 head of cattle to pasture. They have the best pastures in the state and make right prices.

LYNDON. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eaton returned this week and are occupying their residence here for the summer.

Mrs. Henry Chase and daughter Charlotte, who have spent the winter in Europe, have returned and opened their house.

Rev. Mr. Clark has recently organized a Christian Endeavor society among his congregation and officers were elected last Sunday evening. E. V. Perkins, president, Miss Mattie Colby, vice president, Misses Ruth Hoffman and Dorothy Walter, secretaries, Miss Etta Parker, treasurer, with the usual committees. The Hastings Supply Co., of Miles Pond want 200 head of cattle to pasture. They have the best pastures in the state and make right prices.

Miss Durlam of East Concord is at E. C. Morse's for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dana were called to Peacham Saturday, by the death of their cousin, William Dana.

Miss Mary Chayer returned to her school Saturday.

Miss Anna Thompson has so far recovered from her long illness as to be out.

Mrs. E. M. Sweet and Murray Sweet are in Boston selecting their spring stock of dry and fancy goods and millinery.

Mrs. Mary Hower is also spending a few days of this week in Boston.

A room formerly occupied by the Vermont Union in the basement of Gage's block has been fitted up for the use of the fire and the hose cart, and other belongings were moved in Monday.

L. W. Gray has bought of George Ide the small unpaired building formerly used to store the hose cart, and is repairing and fitting it up for a meat market.

On account of Rev. Mr. Shaw's absence at conference and also the illness of a good many of the congregation with severe colds, no service except Sunday school was held at the Methodist church last Sunday.

MCINDOES. A Fund for Students. By the death recently of the widow of Darwin Mason, of this place, students at Tilton, N. H. seminary, who are studying for the ministry become beneficiaries under the will of Mr. Mason, executed some years ago. The estate is valued at $12,000, and by the terms of the will the widow was to have the use of this property during her life, when it was to be divided equally between Tilton seminary and conference claimants. The clause relating to Tilton students provides that the money is to be invested, and the income used in assisting needy and deserving young men who are at the institution fitting for the ministry in the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Finlay left last Tuesday for Fairport, N. Y., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Cowles.

Herbert Jewett of Wheelock, visited his sister, Mrs. Walter Skinner last week.

George Payne of South Ryegate was in town last Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Joe Shantig has gone to the hospital at Burlington for treatment.

A. B. Perry has been to Boston on a business trip and to Cambridge to visit his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Drew. Ora Bishop worked in the store during Mr. Perry's absence.

Mrs. Wood of St. Johnsbury is visiting her sisters, Mrs. John and James Bishop.

M. E. Turner has taken the job to cut the lumber near Horace Gleason's which is owned by Roy Bros.

Adner McGrath returned Monday to his work at Johnson, after a couple of week's vacation.

Mrs. Alice Field and son Gervel returned last Saturday from Guildhall, where they have been visiting Mrs. Field's sister, Mrs. George Ramsdell.

Dudley Chase of Woodsville, N. H., spent several days last week at his brother's, Charles Chase.

Miss Abbie and Philo Van Dyke returned to their schools at Manchester, N. H., Monday.

Mrs. M. E. Turner is sick with tonsillitis.

A. J. Guthrie has been confined to his bed several days. Mrs. Guthrie continues to gain slowly.

Miss Lillian Robie returned to her home in Barnet last week on account of illness.

Miss Nellie Manchester commenced her school at Monroe, N. H., this week, Miss Lena Moore returns to East Concord for the spring term, Miss Lillian Bishop to West Danville, Miss Alice Moore and Daisy McFarland to Danville.

David Gates moves this week onto the Abe Gillfillan farm which he purchased last fall.

EAST CABOT. Miss Grace Blake returned to her school in Marshfield the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clark of Barre, were in town calling on friends recently.

School commenced Monday with Miss Grace Wooster of Marshfield, as teacher. Raymond Abbott who has been with his uncle, Walter Abbott, through the winter, has gone to Williamstown to live with his cousin, Mrs. Marshall Lamson.

Charlie Paige and son George of Montpelier, are in town visiting relatives for a few days.

WELLS RIVER.

Miss Adine Hale returned from Boston last week.

Mrs. D. D. Davis of Burlington is in town the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Farr.

Miss Lotta Belanger has returned from Pompanoosuc.

Mrs. George Parker and Mrs. Samuel Hutchins were in St. Johnsbury Thursday and in the evening Messrs. Hutchins, Parker, Carleton and others were there to attend the Sousa concert.

Mrs. Sarah J. Hutchins was called to St. Johnsbury Thursday to attend the funeral of Zela Richardson.

Mrs. J. L. Shattuck is visiting friends in Manchester and Suncook, N. H.

Miss Young, who has been taking care of Mrs. Julia Smith, returned home last week.

Mrs. Sheldon returned Saturday from a visit in Morrisville.

Miss Muriel E. Goodwin returned to Wellesley, Mass., last week and Arthur Graves to Hanover.

A. H. Bailey is wiring Tenny Memorial Library, Newbury, for electric lights.

Mrs. Freeman Lyons has recovered from the grip sufficiently to be out.

Mrs. Mary Learned is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

All who have been confined to the house by the measles are recovering and will soon be out again.

E. B. Atkinson of Newbury has been a guest at Hale's Tavern for the past two weeks.

Installation of O. E. S. officers will occur Wednesday evening, April 25th.

The lecture by Rev. Mr. Kneeland last Thursday evening was highly enjoyed by those who attended. It is regretted that so few availed themselves of the opportunity to hear a first class lecture.

Mr. Back, who bought the Durant house sometime ago, is making it over into nice tenements, both of which are engaged. Alex. Cochran of Groton is to have one, and Mr. Farwell, superintendent of the new paper mill at East Ryegate, the other.

The junior pupils of A. R. Bigelow have organized a musical club, for the purpose of studying music and the lives of the great composers. It is named the "Fanny Mendelssohn Club," its motto "B sharp." The club colors are green, white and gold; its flower, the white daisy. Officers for six months are Pres., Nellie Bailey, Sec. Beatrice Smith, Treas. Gladys Lyons, Manager, Mrs. Bigelow. A program of music and reading is given every Saturday at the home of Mrs. Bigelow. We are all interested in the young people and hope that before long the members will consent to appear in public.

LUNENBURG. A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by James C. Warren. He has liabilities of $956 and assets of $728, of which $122 are claimed exempt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silsby and Harry Silsby and family of Lyndonville came last week to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Addie Silsby Hale, also Dr. G. Orge Cheney and his sisters, Mrs. Dr. Adams of Derby and Mrs. Elden Pierce of Berlin, cousins. Mr. Gould of Passumpsic also came.

Mrs. Judge Savage of Lewiston, Me., sister of C. L. Hale, is spending a few days here with him.

Mrs. Hale's funeral was held in the Congregational church Thursday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. W. L. Jennings and Rev. C. W. Kelley, Porter H. Dale of Island Pond spoke briefly and fittingly of the life of Mrs. Hale. There were a great many beautiful flowers, tributes of love from many friends.

Franklin Bell is suffering with rheumatism.

Irving James and wife are visiting at Mrs. J. M. Dodge's for a short time.

Ira Blood is soon to move his family into the house with his sister, Mrs. J. M. Dodge.

Stephen Smith is employed at the Merrill mill.

The sugar season is nearly over for this year.

Among those who attended the funeral of Mrs. Hale was Editor Bishop of the Island Pond Herald, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Bailey of Lancaster, Miss Burnham of Lyndonville, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Turner of Canaan.

Rev. William Jennings has gone to Brockton, Mass., to visit his mother.

Schools in town began this week.

Goss and Conly have built an addition to their granite sheds for their air compressor and will soon have it in operation.

Grover Perkins has been quite sick for a few days with the measles, but is getting better.

Sugaring seems to be one of the lost arts. Farmers have made from one to two pounds per tree.

Prof. Arthur L. Wheeler of Philadelphia, Penn., was in town last week looking up accommodations for the summer.

Will Fitch of Morrisville has been busy getting Dr. Daley's cottage ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Henry Miller and Beth Cook are having the measles. Mr. Miller is gaining slowly.

HARDWICK. Zeando Wheeler, who lives in the Good-nough district, a man of 70 years, has during the winter as a pastime hunted foxes and bagged 28 the pelts of which have brought him three dollars and fifty cents each. They were all killed in front of a dog. Mr. Wheeler has displayed his youth and activeness in other ways during the spring, having tapped 3,500 sugar trees with other work.

Last July Clarence Billings, at that time working here, stole a horse wagon and harness of Mr. Foss, and sold the team for $50. Sheriff W. M. Smith of Cambridge, got the team and delivered it to Mr. Foss, and since that time has been looking for Billings. Last week Tuesday Smith located him in Edwards, N. Y. Billings said he was willing to go to Hardwick. Smith arrived in Malone, N. Y., with him Friday night, and took him to Hyde Park Monday for safe keeping till the June term of court.

BARNET. A revival service will be conducted by Rev. John W. Evans of St. Johnsbury, Thursday evening, in the town hall. A cordial invitation to all.

Mrs. John Nutt from Walden is visiting Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Chandler Whiting has been absent for a week with friends at Littleton.

Miss Nellie Bone from South Ryegate spent Sunday with Miss Anna Perry.

Mrs. W. S. Brock has gone to spend a few weeks with her son Lyman at Newport, Maine.

Milo Kinney has received his papers for the new mail route to commence the first of June.

The Barnet people who have friends in San Francisco have not received tidings yet from them, regarding their safety.

The Hastings Supply Co., of Miles Pond want 200 head of cattle to pasture. They have the best pastures in the state and make right prices.

NORTH DANVILLE. W. L. Drew who was called here by the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. George R. Drew a short time since returned to his home in Manchester, Iowa, Monday.

Rufus Hubbard had the misfortune to be kicked by a horse and injured quite badly, but is somewhat better now.

Mark Hubbard is recovering from pneumonia following measles.

D. W. Hubbard is confined to the bed by illness.

Mrs. Charles Hubbard of Hardwick who has been stopping with relatives returned to Hardwick Friday.

STANNARD. Miss Austin is a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. S. Smith.

E. M. Jackson has rented his farm to H. L. Munsey for one year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of St. Johnsbury were recent visitors at H. H. Hill's.

Harry Clark is on the sick list.

Mrs. King returned home from Hardwick last Saturday.

F. A. Page was in Morrisville last week, a guest of his son E. C. Page.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Stevens returned from Wolcott last week.

VICTORY. Mr. and Mrs. John Magee have returned from a visit at Whitefield.

The many friends of Mrs. Peter Lamere are glad to hear she is getting along so well after undergoing three painful operations at the St. Johnsbury hospital last week.

Sam Haley was called home to Nova Scotia last week by the death of his sister.

Alek and Delor Nadeau spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. James Barhaw.

Miss Dora Thornton was quite sick with neuralgia last week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stoddard last week.

The most imposing ornament of which she can boast is a diamond necklace left her by her godmother, the old duchess of Inverness.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER. Mrs. Mattie Hill Trip of Barton has been visiting a few days with her mother.

Miss Emma Lockwood of White River Junction, who has been visiting her parents, has returned to her work.

Mrs. Rebecca Harriman, who fell and broke her shoulder March 9, and who has been cared for at Brightlook Hospital, was able to come home Friday. Her many friends are glad of her return. She is boarding at Mrs. Byron Wright's and Miss Helen Harriman is also there.

Rev. Mr. Anderson who has been attending the Methodist Conference at Morrisville, returned home Saturday.

William McLaughlin is quite sick with bronchitis.

Miss Lucy Merrill of St. Johnsbury has been visiting at George Morrill's.

Ralph Johnson, who has been sick, is able to be out again.

Miss Mattie Blake has been stopping at Rev. Mr. Anderson's while he has been at Conference.

Lester Berry, who has been spending a few days at home, returned to Dartmouth, Wednesday.

Miss Bessie Wallace spent Thursday with friends at East Barnet.

Henry Phelps and family of Eaton, Canada, has moved into the Williams place at the north end of the village.

Lucian Farnham, who has been spending the winter at Punta Gorda has returned to Bert Farnham's. Mr. Farnham is in very poor health.

Austin Emerson of Wheelock and Luther Emerson of Lyndon have been visiting their brother, Smith Emerson, who is quite poorly.

Mrs. Morrill, Mrs. Wallace's mother, fell and hurt her back quite badly.

Miss Ella Drew of Boston, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Flint.

Mrs. Bert Farnham expects to start for Boston, Thursday, to visit her sister, Mrs. Jennie Butler. Mrs. A. N. Page will keep house for her while she is away.

Eugene Joyce has bought the Hollis Pierce place and will take possession May 1st. Mrs. Pierce will move to St. Johnsbury.

Union services were held at the Congregational church, Sunday. Next Sunday there will be union services at the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Giliam will hold revival meetings here, beginning May 3.

Mrs. M. D. Parks has sent for her spring hats and will soon have them on exhibition.

Miss Grace Franklin, who is working at St. Johnsbury, was at home Saturday.

At Joe's Pond. Mr. and Mrs. Milo Chandler of Walden have moved to their cottage at Lake View for the season. Mr. Chandler is building a piazza on three sides of the cottage.

Lake View Farm has been equipped with a fleet of new steel fishing boats, which will be used in the boat livery this summer.

Aldrich and Burbank have decided to run their steamer all the season, making regular trips around the pond, and to all trains at Lake View Park and West Danville. Maurice Lovejoy of St. Johnsbury will be the pilot, engineer and captain.

Joseph Fairbanks of St. Johnsbury was at Lake View, Thursday, and decided on the location of a cottage, which will be built for him this spring.

The ice is slowly melting around the shore of the pond and small spots of open water can be seen. All of the ice will probably be out by the first of May.

A. E. Counsel and Frank M. Shaw were at their cottage, "Taveler's Home," Saturday.

Married in Canada. At the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Donaghy, at Lower Ireland, P. Q., occurred the wedding of their daughter, Miss Isabella L. Donaghy, and William T. Simons, on the afternoon of April 4. The bride was attired in white silk and the bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Margaret Donaghy. The groom was supported by his brother, Wallace Simons, and the bride was accompanied by her father. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Sutcliffe, D. D., of Inverness. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room. The wedding gifts included many costly and useful articles and some money. The guests remained during the evening, which was spent in vocal and instrumental music and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Simons will reside at 96 Eastern Avenue. Mrs. Simons' home had been in St. Johnsbury for several months previous to her marriage.

NOTICE. St. Johnsbury Cemetery Association. The Annual Meeting of the St. Johnsbury Cemetery Association will be held at the Y. M. C. A. parlors Tuesday Evening, May 1, 1906, at 7:30 o'clock, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of any other business that may legally come before said meeting.

HARRY M. NELSON, Secretary, St. Johnsbury, Vt., April 24, 1906.

Commissioners' Notice. LAMBERT PACKARD'S ESTATE. The subscribers, having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the district of Caledonia, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Lambert Packard, late of St. Johnsbury, Vt., in said district deceased, and the term of six months from the 14th day of April, 1906, being allowed by said Court to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit and prove their respective claims before us: Give notice that we will attend to the duties of our appointment at the office of W. W. Sprague & Son in said district, on the 22nd day of May and the 12th day of October next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, on each of said days.

WILLIAM HIGGINS, W. W. SPRAGUE, Commissioners. St. Johnsbury, Vt., April 23, A. D. 1906.

SMITH & SON. TURN THE WHEELS OF INDUSTRY AND PRODUCE CARLOADS OF HANOVER CRACKERS EVERY MONTH. THE DEMAND FOR THIS CRISP AND WHITE, ALWAYS READY FOOD, STEADILY INCREASES. Get them of your Grocer. A blue box. 100 count. Made at White River Junction, Vt.

AUTOMOBILES, GAS and GASOLENE ENGINES. Buick Automobile, Cadillac Automobiles. Model and Abenague. Gas and Gasolene Engines. Automobile, Gas and Gasolene Engine Supplies. St. Jock's Automobile Garage, 43 Pearl Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Ten Per Cent Annually. Do you want a safe investment that is paying 5 per cent twice a year or 10 per cent annually where the same is guaranteed by a responsible firm and in property that will double in value within 12 months? Address Lock Box 861, Littleton, N. H.

6 Per Cent Home Investment. $20,000. Manchester, Vt., Light and Power Co., 6 per cent First Mortgage Gold Bonds. Denominations $500 and $100. Net earnings of Co. over 2 1/2 times interest on this issue of bonds. Write today for circular giving full particulars. HARRY B. POWELL & CO., Woodstock, Vt.

Commissioners' Notice. WARREN W. SANBORN'S ESTATE. The subscribers, having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the district of Caledonia, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Warren W. Sanborn, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district deceased, and the term of six months from the 14th day of April, A. D. 1906, being allowed by said Court to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit and prove their respective claims before us: Give notice that we will attend to the duties of our appointment at the dwelling house of Charlotte M. Sanborn in St. Johnsbury in said district, on the 15th day of May, and the 6th day of October next, at one o'clock in the afternoon on each of said days.

JOHN P. WEEKS, A. M. MCFARLAND, Commissioners. April 18, A. D. 1906.

A Top Coat For Young Men. makes a dressy and comfortable overcoat for Spring wear. This coat and a suit made from the latest shades of grey equips a man for comfort and style combined. See our line from $15.00 to $25.00.

J. C. Stevens, Tailor. St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville. J. C. DANFORTH, Architect. 80 EASTERN AVENUE. Stair Designing a Specialty. N. E. Phone 38-31.

Probate of Will. ZELA A. RICHARDSON'S ESTATE. STATE OF VERMONT, Caledonia District, ss. In Probate court, held at the Probate office in St. Johnsbury, within and for said district, on the 23rd day of April, A. D. 1906. An instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Zela A. Richardson, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district deceased, being presented to court by Susan J. Richardson, executrix therein named, for Probate.

It is ordered by said court that all persons concerned therein be notified to appear at a session of said court, to be held at the Probate office in St. Johnsbury, on the 12th day of May, A. D. 1906, and show cause, if any they may have, against the probate of said will; for which purpose it is further ordered that a copy of the record of this order be published three weeks successively in the Caledonian, printed at St. Johnsbury, previous to said time appointed for hearing.

By the Court, Attest: WALTER P. SMITH, Judge. A true copy of record, Attest: WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

When the Ice Goes Out fish are always hungry and good catches are made at that time. The New Steel Boats have arrived and are ready for use. These boats are for rental by the hour, day, week, month or season. Poles, lines and bait are also kept on hand. Did you know that the train stops at Lake View Station which is a half minute's walk from the boats? Take a day off and enjoy yourself fishing. Ralph C. Sulloway, Lake View Farm, West Danville, Vt. N. E. Telephone.

All Humors. Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them. They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, and tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills. Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system. "I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. IMA O. BROWN, Rumford Falls, Me. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.