

PERSONALS.

George Chatter of Reading, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. L. B. Hartshorn. Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Bachand are in Sherbrooke. Dr. Bachand will return in a week or two. Rev. J. A. Lynch of Waterbury, Rev. James Rann of Winoski and Rev. Fr. Cray of Barre visited friends in town last week. A. W. Mears visited friends in Morrisville last week. Miss Alice Roach is visiting friends in Hyde Park and enjoying an outing at lake Eden. Misses Mary and Mildred Tillotson are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Melora Noyes, at Hyde Park. Miss Caryle D. Eaton has been visiting friends in Randolph, N. H. Herman Lee and daughter of Chicago were in town a short time last week, having been spending some time in this vicinity. Miss Marion D. Patterson of Northampton, Mass., is spending part of the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Patterson. Mrs. C. E. Somerville and son Paul have gone to Old Orchard, for a few weeks vacation. Mr. and Mrs. George Ayer and daughter, Miss Emily, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cameron, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis visited at H. A. Chesley's last week. They left Saturday for a two weeks outing at Caspian lake, occupying the Ayer cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jewett and W. O. Rocheleau are enjoying a vacation at Caledonia Springs. George Thompson is visiting his mother Mrs. Mary Hutton, in Bethlehem. Miss E. M. Daggett of Littleton is the guest of friends in town. Miss Maude McCosco is spending the week with Miss Mary MacKenzie at Barre. Mrs. Ella F. Richardson and Miss Frances M. Richardson of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. Rebecca P. Fairbanks, and will spend several weeks in town. Mrs. Priscilla Miles of Minneapolis and Mrs. Elizabeth Allen and little granddaughter of Newton, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Kidder. John Charland and Fred Bedard from Lyndonville have entered the employ of the St. J. & L. C. R. Miss Mabel Streeter, who has been the guest of Mrs. Clinton B. Weeks, returned to her home in Boston, last week. Miss Grace C. Cree of St. Albans has been spending a few days at her home here. Mrs. Allen Spear of Newton Center, Mass., returned to her home last week, after spending a few days with Mrs. E. P. Brown and Mrs. Flora E. Rowell. Rev. Dr. Edward D. Eaton is in Boston this week. Donald McGregor is spending two weeks in Boston and Lowell. Mrs. E. M. Leland left Tuesday for Caledonia Springs. F. L. Hayford, who has been teaching in the Philippine Islands for the past five years, has returned to St. Johnsbury and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. L. Knowlton. Miss Alice M. Daniels visited friends in Barton the first of the week, also Miss Alice M. Parkhurst. Miss M. I. Savage, who has been the guest of Mrs. David E. Porter, returned to her home Monday. F. O. Wolfe has also been the guest of Mrs. Porter for the past week. Dr. A. J. Piche will reopen his office Monday, after spending two weeks at "Idle House Cottage," Lake Morey, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Langlois of Lebanon. Mrs. George W. Cree and Miss Frances Cree are spending a couple of weeks at Old Orchard, Me. Robert Cobb returned from a ten day's vacation at Caledonia Springs last week. Mrs. B. I. Staples is spending a few days at Caledonia Springs. Rev. J. M. Frost has returned from Peaks' Island, Me., where he left his family for a few days longer. Frank Taplin left Tuesday for an outing at Old Orchard, Me. Floyd Holmes is assisting in Lougee & Smythe's store. W. H. Worthen is spending a few days at Caledonia Springs. Rev. A. H. Gage started on a month's vacation Monday to be spent at his old home in New York state. On August 15 he is to be married to Miss Fanny Vail of Stormville, N. Y., and after a short wedding trip they will return to their new home in this place. Mrs. C. M. Stone gave an afternoon tea Thursday in honor of her sister, Mrs. C. L. Gonnell of Brookline, Mass. The guests included many former residents of St. Johnsbury who are spending the summer here. Mrs. John Libbey of Woodsville, formerly Miss Lois Albee, of Bradford, was cordially greeted by her friends here yesterday. Miss Grace E. Russell of Providence, R. I., is visiting her sister, Miss Fannie E. Russell, and other relatives here, being the guest of Mrs. Anna H. Puffer, 10 Winter street while here. Mrs. Frank J. Moore of Quincy, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Sargent, and other friends. Mrs. George Mead of Lyndonville was in town Monday, and was a guest at the luncheon at Rev. and Mrs. James A. Thompson's. Mrs. Harley J. Emerson of Rochester, N. Y., who is spending part of the summer at Danville, is visiting friends here. Misses Grace and Florence Williams of Newport, and Miss Annie Fullington of Pittsburg, Pa., were the guests of friends here, Saturday. Miss Mary E. Ide, who has spent the past two years in Manila and Japan, is en route to her home, and is expected to reach San Francisco, August 3, on the Pacific Mail Liner Manchuria. Miss Emily H. Cheney of New York city is visiting friends here. Miss Edna Lucas of Concord, N. H., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. H. M. Laird who has been seriously ill the past week is convalescing. Mrs. George B. Walker of Worcester, Mass., is visiting friends here, coming especially to attend the anniversary exercises of St. Andrew's church. Mr. and Mrs. James Imprey are spending the week at Old Orchard Beach. Fred Lizott, who has conducted a photographic studio in Newport the past few years has closed his studio and returned to his home here. Mr. Lizott's health has not been very good lately and he has decided to try a change in the hope of being benefited. Mr. and Mrs. James T. Borland and son Sidney are spending the week at Old Orchard Beach. Mrs. George H. Noyes and son Clarence are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John A. E. Noyes at Peak's Island, Me. Ami Lanctot, the popular express messenger, resumed work Monday, after a two weeks' vacation spent in Boston and vicinity. E. A. Sibley and Mrs. Charles T. Ranlet sang in the chorus at the Bethlehem music festival last week. Miss Maud Smith of West Burke has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank E. Humphrey. George W. Young, Junior P. S. C., has returned from a trip in the western part of the state in the interests of the Junior Order of American Mechanics. Mrs. J. L. Perkins, who has spent the past few months in New York, has returned to St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Thomas Bishop of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. P. Carpenter. Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Aldrich, Jamie Aldrich and J. Woodbury are taking a trip through the White Mountains, Ports mouth, Portland and the beaches returning the last of the week. Miss Elsie Sargent is spending the week at the Barbour cottage at Lake Memphremagog. Rev. Father N. Lachance of Hyde Park visited Rev. Father Boissonault the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Lyman H. Hooker returned Monday from Hardwick. While there they were the guests of Mrs. Hooker's sister, Mrs. M. K. Hall. Roy Hooker has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. I. E. Woodward at Cabot. Letters have been received from Judge and Mrs. W. P. Smith and John Ritchie reporting a fine passage. The gentlemen are in Scotland and Mrs. Smith met, while in London, the quartet of St. Johnsbury young ladies who are touring Europe. The party of seven expect to sail August 3 on the White Star Liner, Republic for home. Mrs. Olin D. Adams was called to Boston last week by the death of a relative. Miss Margaret L. Ely is visiting Miss Annie Dale at Waitsfield. Warren L. Estabrooks of "Maincrest", is spending his vacation in Boston and on the Maine benches. Mrs. Frank J. Simpson and children are spending a short time in Scottstown, Canada. William P. Richardson, formerly of this town, now of Montpelier, visited his sister, Mrs. H. F. Estabrooks, the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Brown spent Sunday with friends in Littleton. E. B. Nitchie of Brooklyn, Edward Barron and Wellington H. Tinker of New York, are guests at C. F. O. Tinker's. Robert Lewis is spending a two weeks vacation at Peaks' Island and Greensboro. C. H. M. Anderson and family left Tuesday for a ten days outing at Joe's Pond. They will occupy the Hooker cottage.

rank and playing as opponents the pair that was assigned them by lot. Thursday noon the Waterville, P. O. team is scheduled for a game here and on Saturday the return match will be played with the Mountain View Club of Greensboro. As the first match resulted in a tie the result of Saturday's game promises to be exceedingly close. The hostesses next Saturday will be Mrs. Clara D. Walker, Miss Isabel M. Paddock and Miss Josephine Peck. ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER. Mrs. Perley Hinman of West Derby and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of Mendon are visiting at William Wallace's. Mr. and Mrs. Jenness of Lyndonville were the guests of Mr. Eastman over Sunday. George Wright of Bridgeport, Conn., spent Sunday with his family in this village. Mrs. George Black and two children of East Theford are visiting at Ed. Simpson's. Births. At St. Johnsbury, July 25, a son, Joseph Charles Prudent, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henault. At St. Johnsbury, July 29, a son to Mr. and Mrs. George Tremblay. Marriages. At St. Johnsbury, July 26, by Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks, John E. Hamilton and Mrs. Cora K. Hamilton, of St. Johnsbury. Deaths. At Stannard, July 28, Ephraim G. Weed, aged 84 years, 5 months and 3 days. At Ryegate July 24, Mrs. N. H. Ricker, aged 93 years. At South Wheelock July 26, Miss Mattie McGovern aged 40 years. At Hanover, July 23, Alonzo C. Dennett. At Dallas, Texas, July 27, Harry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goss, of Greensboro, aged 28 years. At Kirby, July 27, Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Quimby, aged 8 months. At Pasadena, Cal., July 30, Maj. Nathan P. Bowman of St. Johnsbury, aged 84 years. At St. Johnsbury, July 26, J. L. Couch. At Bingham's Drug Store, for the week ending July 30. Highest Lowest Tuesday..... 72..... 62 Wednesday..... 77..... 48 Thursday..... 74..... 47 Friday..... 81..... 51 Saturday..... 81..... 54 Sunday..... 82..... 60 Monday..... 77..... 65

DISSOLUTION SALE!

Having purchased of A. W. Stone his interest in the firm of Scott & Stone, we propose to conduct a Clearance Sale for the next thirty days

Commencing July 19,

at which time rare bargains will be made.

25 Per Cent Discount

on our entire stock of up-to-date Clothing, consisting of

- Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits.
- Men's, Boys' and Children's Odd Pants.
- Men's and Boys' Fancy Dress Shirts.

Big Lot Fancy Hosiery.

ALL OF OUR

Hard, Soft and Straw Hats.

Children's K. and E. Wash Suits, all sizes, 2 years to 16 years.

Several lines Ladies' Oxfords, Slippers, Button and Lace Boots at cost!

Entire Stock Men's Oxfords, which includes the well-known makes Ralston Health, M. A. Packard and Crown, and many broken lots. Men's Button and Laced Shoes at cost.

Every article offered at this sale will be a genuine bargain. All goods guaranteed as represented or money refunded.

Amos W. Scott,

63 Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury.

Saturday Special
One-half Ton
Cream Chocolates
at 10 Cents a Pound.

E. L. HUNT & CO.

MARKED DOWN SALE ON SHIRT WAISTS.

We have taken from stock about 100 Waists, all new and desirable styles, placed them on a separate counter and out the price. Many of these are small lots, not enough to advertise.
1 lot $1.75 White Waists, now $1.25.
1 lot $2.75 White Waists, long and short sleeves, now $1.75.
1 lot $3.75 White Embroidered Waists, now $2.75.
1 lot $3.75 White Silk Waists, now $2.75.
1 lot $5.00 Black Silk Waists, now $3.75.

Commencing Thursday

A. M. and continuing till Saturday night we will give a special discount of 10 percent on every Shirt Waist in our store not marked down. Last call on Summer Dress Goods. All our 12 1/2 and 15c figured Muslins, Satens and Percales reduced to choice 9 1/2c yard.

Our 39c Corset Sale

is meeting with great success. About 3 dozen only of those 75c Corsets left at 39c each.

RANDALL'S DEPARTMENT STORE,

77 and 81 R. R. Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

East St. Johnsbury.

Misses Flora and Susan Atkins of Cabot visited Mrs. W. S. Russell last week. J. A. Ramage has hired Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sweet of Franklin, N. H., to work on his farm. Mrs. Fred B. Stevens and son of St. Albans are visiting relatives in this vicinity. Miss May Stiles is spending several days with relatives in Boltonville and Nashua, N. H. Mrs. Howard Lee and Miss Bertha Lee spent several days at Bethlehem, last week. The depot was broken into Friday night, entrance being made by removing a pane of glass from the window. The intruders found no money and nothing was stolen, but the desk and drawers evidently were thoroughly overhauled and the floor was covered with burnt matches. Joseph Clark was called to Barton last week, by the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Churchill.

At the Golf Links.

The Bethlehem team came over here Saturday and were defeated by the Old Pine Golf Club team by the score of 20 to 2. The features of the match were the fine playing of Carl H. Turner, the captain of the home team, and Frank H. Brooks. Mr. Turner made the first hole in three strokes and each round of nine holes in 40, thus establishing the record of the course. Mr. Brooks made one round in 38 which is the lowest record for nine holes. Following is the score of the match:

OLD PINE	BETHLEHEM
F. H. Brooks	0 W. F. Garby	1
C. H. Turner	4 A. Powell	0
E. A. Sibley	4 W. Sayers	0
George Bailey	5 C. English	0
E. S. Bailey	0 E. English	0
E. M. Taft	4 V. Bank	0
A. G. Sprague	12 J. A. Guthrie	0
W. L. Peck	0 H. P. Fish	1
Totals	29	2

Following is the medal score of the players:

C. H. Turner	80
C. A. Sibley	82
W. F. Garby	85
A. Powell	86
George Bailey	87
E. M. Taft	87
F. H. Brooks	87
A. G. Sprague	89
E. English	90
E. S. Bailey	90
V. Bank	93
C. English	95
W. Sayers	97
J. A. Guthrie	104

This week a mixed foursome tournament is being played, the pairs being matched up according to their respective

MILEAGES

Bought, sold, exchanged and rented at

Desrochers & Nutt's

Barber Shop. 61 Railroad Street.

NOTICE.

My wife, Mrs. Eleazer L. Packard, having left my bed and board without just cause or provocation, I hereby forbid anyone trusting her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting after this date. ELEAZER L. PACKARD, July 21, 1906.