LUNENBURG.

Arthur Whiting, who lives on Pond Hill, committed suicide last Saturday afternoon while out hunting. Not returning at the usual time, search was made during the night. Sunday afternoon he was found hanging to a tree with a rope around his neck and a rifle shot through his lungs. The authorities were notified, and late Sunday afternoon the remains were brought to the undertaking rooms here. The deceased leaves three daughters and three sons, an aged mother and several sisters. His wife died several years ago. It has been thought for some time that he was melancholy. He was between 50 and 60 years of age. Pastor's Tribute to his Associate. Deacon Phelps has received the following letter from Rev. Charles W. Kelley, pastor of the Methodist church, which will interest our readers. "I am truly sorry, as are the Methodist people, in the loss you have sustained in the resignation of Rev. Mr. Jennings as pastor of your church. I am very glad that on this evening at your home a farewell reception is to be tendered my friend and brother, and that the Methodist people have been invited to participate. Mr. Jennings will certainly be followed to his new field of labor with the prayers and best wishes of a host of friends. It is the earnest wish of the writer that the Congregational society may not be shepherdless long, but soon another be divinely appointed to lead the flock in the green pastures and beside the still waters. Until this time shall come, the members and friends of the Congregational church are most cordially and sincerely invited to any and all of the services of the Methodist church." Last Friday evening James Phelps and wife opened their home to the members of the Congregational church, to give Rev. and Mrs. Jennings a farewell reception. The evening was spent socially with several selections of music. Refreshments were served. During the evening a purse containing a sum of money was presented to Mr. Jennings by Mrs. M. D. Bowker on behalf of the society. Last week Wednesday evening the Catholic society held their annual fair and entertainment. A fine lecture was given by Rev. Father Lynch, formerly pastor of the church, to a good audience. The evening was a success financially and socially. Parrish Stearns and wife of Whitefield were in town over Sunday, guests of James Smith and wife. Rev. W. L. Jennings leaves the last of this week for his new home at Cabot. The best wishes of all go with him and his wife. Presiding Elder Lewis occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church last Sunday. A good number were out. Mrs. Frank Colby's house on Pond Hill was burned a week ago with all its contents. The cause of the fire is not known. The winter term of school begins this week after the Thanksgiving vacation. L. I. Bishop returns to Montpelier this week, after a recess of one week. Nathan Bean has been quite poorly for some time, but is now feeling much better.
