NEWBURY.

Tenney Library Association. The tenth anniversary of the dedication of the Tenney Memorial Library, and the 112th of the birth of Col. A. B. W. Tenney was observed on the evening of June 10th by appropriate exercises.

Following a reception in the library a large audience gathered in the Congregational church. T. C. Keyes, president of the trustees, presided, and the choir rendered excellent music. A paper upon "Colonel Tenney as an example for Young Men," by F. P. Wells, was admirably read by Mrs. Wells, and a scholarly address was delivered by Edwin A. Bayley, Esq., of Lexington, Mass. Hon. Horace W. Bailey, one of the trustees, now under treatment in a hospital at Rutland, was unable to be present. A reading by Charles K. Taggart was followed by remarks by Rev. N. A. Turner. Letters from Miss M. J. Tenney, and from the son and daughter of Mrs. H. Tenney White, enclosing checks for $3,000, in aid of the library, were read. These gifts, with others, and some pledged annual subscriptions, materially increase the funds of the library.

The Tenney Memorial Library has now nearly 6,000 volumes. By virtue of a fund bequeathed by Mrs. Sophia Tenney Hale, for this purpose the library is making a collection of town and family histories, which will soon be the largest in this section.
