Basket Ball.

Tomorrow, Thanksgiving day, marks the opening of St. Johnsbury's gay winter season, as on that date the first basket ball game is scheduled. The opposing teams are Company D, about whom no remarks are necessary, and the team representing the Stapleton Athletic Association of New York City. The latter is recognized as the champion heavy weight team of Greater New York and comes here with a record of victories that is only excelled by the remarkable record achieved by our own favorites last season.

In tomorrow's games the teams will line up as follows: Company D, forwards, Matthews and Brennan; center, Wright; guards, Krueger and Callahan; Stapleton—A. A., forwards, O'Brien and Spain; center, Meaney; guards, Goward, Lamb, and Spindler. Pick your winners.

The auction sale of season tickets will begin immediately after the afternoon game and will be continued at 7:30 in evening. Please bear this in mind and avoid confusion. A few cents invested at this time ensures the investor a good seat for the entire season and will undoubtedly bring its returns many fold in pure fun before spring.

The new team have already made a good impression in practice. Toby's long shots occasion as much surprise now as they ever did, even though they are expected. Brennan shows up well as a shot and looks as though he would deliver the goods. He is fast on the floor and in passing he gets away with the ball in a way that is sure to please the fans. Sivets Wright and Gus Krueger look as though they were all that has been claimed for them, and altogether it looks like Company D for the opening games.

The past two days have been devoted to signal practice and working up team plays. Considering the short time the boys have had for practice they have progressed remarkably and have a few plays perfected that will cause the visitors to open their eyes.

It is rumored that Pat Doyle and Swenson, now of McKeesport, already have their cars to the ground awaiting even the faintest call from the green clad hills.

Toby looks as fit as a fiddle and after an exciting summer as chauffeur of a steam roller it isn't likely that the polite game of basket ball affect his heart action.

Referee Gunn will officiate and the games will be called at 3:30 and 8:00 p. m.

Local Legislative News.

[From our Montpelier correspondent.] A lot of people who never fired a gun are now urging the Governor to veto the doe killing bill. They do not take into account that the committee of fish and game and Commissioner Thomas have thoroughly investigated the whole situation and were unanimous in recommending the passage of the bill.

The Woman's Suffrage bill came very near being late. It was finally allowed to come in by unanimous consent. Lieut. Gov. Mead is not partial about calling senators to the chair to preside. Nearly one-half the Senators have thus far been honored.

One legislator who seems over anxious to have the legislature adjourn early remarked after reading the Governor's Thanksgiving proclamation that although the Governor had enumerated many things for us to be thankful for he had neglected to say we should be thankful that things are no worse.

Being a member of the legislator is not so profitable as some may suppose. Each member received his pay last week and I saw one member indorse his check and then reach for his pocket book and draw out a few dollars more and pass over to the landlord.

A miniature scare was started here Monday when it was reported that a case of small pox had broken out at the Montpelier House. The rumor was promptly run down and was found to be entirely false. The sickness was found to be due to over eating.

Speaker Cheney has had an electric bell placed in the lobbies at the State House. This is to call in delinquent members to get the benefit of the morning prayers. As the sessions begin at 10 o'clock it has been suggested that each member be provided with an alarm clock.

The Senate has passed a hunters' license bill which provides that every person who goes into the woods with a gun shall have a license for which he must pay one dollar to the town clerk of the town. For two dollars one can get a license to run automobiles, spoil the highways and scare horses. It seems as though there ought to be more than one dollar difference.

That time may not hang heavy on his hands, Horace Graham has had his pay raised to $2500 per year with a provision that he may devote his whole time to the state.

New Universalist Minister.
Rev. B. F. Butler of Potsdam, N. Y., who has preached so acceptably at the Church of the Messiah some recent Sundays, has accepted a call to this church and will begin his duties next Sunday. Mr. Butler is a graduate of the theological school at Canton, N. Y., and his last pastorate was at Binghamton, N. Y., where he preached for five years. His family consists of his wife, a son and a daughter. He comes highly recommended and may be sure of a cordial welcome to the religious and social circles of the town.

Gospel Meetings.
Rev. N. T. Hafer, who for the past two years has been the state evangelist of the Vermont Baptist State Convention, will conduct a series of gospel meetings in the First Baptist church beginning Friday, Nov. 23 and continuing through Sunday Dec. 6. Mr. Hafer comes highly recommended. He both sings and preaches the gospel. He brings a simple, earnest and powerful message to thinking people. A cordial welcome is extended to the public to attend these meetings.

At Four Corners School.
Miss Eleanor K... invited the parents of school children and neighbors to attend a social at the school house last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served, a good time was had and music and games were enjoyed. About 30 were present from the neighborhood of Miss K...

EAST ST. JOHNSBURY.

H. F. Griswold has been confined to the house the past few days with a severe cold. W. S. Russell is doing his work at the depot and grain store.

The next number in the East St. Johnsbury lecture course will be given Thursday evening, Dec. 3, and will be a lecture by Rev. Smith Baker of Lowell, Mass. His subject will be "Lessons from Art."

Rev. Edward Lee is making quite extensive repairs on his home at Lechurst Farm.

The friends of Mrs. Charles Owens, who went to Brightlook Hospital three weeks ago for a serious operation, will be glad to know that she is rapidly improving.

Rev. E. E. Grant will preach in Concord next Sunday in exchange with Rev. Mr. Smith.

The Ladies' Society are preparing for their annual sale, which will take place about the middle of next month.

At Summerville.

Miss Addie Williams is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Amasa Hastings, this week.

Rev. Fr. Comi and nephew of Montpelier were entertained over Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marcotte.

L. N. Smy has bought the Lambert H. Farnham house and moved in the first of this week.

Frank Reed's family are to move to Patrick Leonard's house soon.

Mrs. Lambert H. Farnham went to Boston, Sunday, where she will make her home for the present.

Harry M. Cross returned from a hunting trip last week Monday bringing two deer.

Henry Hudson's daughter Nina is expected from Massachusetts to spend Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chalmers will spend Thanksgiving at Groton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Taylor of South Wheelock have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Abbie J. Taylor.

C. H. Goss was in Boston on business last week.

Special Service.

Rev. Otto S. Raspe of Morrisville, secretary of the Universalist Y. P. C. U. of Vermont and Province of Quebec, will speak at the church of the Messiah Monday evening, Nov. 30, at 7:30, preaching a sermon on "Universalism" with special reference to the general policy of the church, and its work in the state. Mr. Raspe is an able speaker, and all who are interested are cordially invited to attend. Good music will be provided.

Scotland in Song and in Story.

The Scotia Club have arranged for a most attractive entertainment in Athenaeum Hall next week Friday evening, the artists being Miss Ninio Strachan, soprano; Miss Maud S. Kerr, violinist and accompanist, Gavin Spence, tenor and entertainer. Mr. Spence has had an experience of 24 years touring in all countries on the globe and has associated with him on a farewell trip of the United States, Miss Strachan, one of the most talented vocalists Scotland ever produced, and Miss Kerr of Glasgow, a noted violinist. Miss Strachan has a sweet, clear voice and accompanies her singing with a tinge of dramatic expression that is very effective. She is called the "Jenny Lind of Scotland" and possesses an extraordinary compass. Mr. Spence is a capital entertainer, as well as a singer, and the program is a rich and varied one.

An Evening of Vaudeville.

On Friday evening the New Music Hall management introduced a new feature into their program of entertainment this season by furnishing an evening of vaudeville. With the exception of Mrs. Laura Gleason Childs, an impersonator from Worcester, Mass., who appeared three times, the artists were all local. Mrs. Don C. Stiles sang charmingly, Frank O. French entertained in his own way with his red book and songs, M. Frank Tinker did some very clever vaudeville dancing, Samuel C. Carrier gave a splendid imitation of exhibition day at a district school. In addition there were some good moving pictures and some stereopticon views of St. Johnsbury taken by C. H. Clark and shown by A. S. Huskins. The program closed with a very amusing little playlet "Senator McPhee," presented by Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Peters, E. N. Carter and E. O. French, which was much enjoyed.

Y. M. C. A. Lecture Course.

Every winter for 40 years announcements have been made in local papers under the above heading, which were received with pleasure by St. Johnsbury people. Under the new arrangement made last year, amusements of various nature are given from time to time at New Music Hall, but there appears to be a desire for a few lectures of high class by some of the real men of our country. The Y. M. C. A. committee have accordingly arranged for two lectures by men who can justly be described as both statesmen and orators.

The first of the two will be a lecture by Senator J. P. Doliver on Tuesday evening, Dec. 15. His subject will be, "Public Virtue as a Question of Politics." This theme has received very great attention of late, and it will be interesting to hear it expounded by an "insider" and a man of Senator Doliver's ability.
