

Difficult Breathing

I could not lie on either side, my heart fluttered, and I was so weak I could scarcely walk. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy did wonders for me. I can sleep, eat, and do more work than I have in ten years.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is a safe, sure remedy for these symptoms. It strengthens and builds up the weakened nerves and muscles.

Lyndonville.

A Good List of Lectures Arranged for this Winter.—Club Meeting Tomorrow Night.

The prospectus of the Lecture Course is now in preparation and promises to give an attractive list of entertainments. The lecturers are the famous Dr. F. W. Gonsauls, John C. Bowker, who will give an illustrated lecture on "Portugal," and Dr. Cathall, a great favorite in the West, who will speak on "Abraham Lincoln."

The next meeting of the Lyndon Union club will be held in the Cable hall Thursday evening at eight o'clock. The meeting is under the charge of the forestry committee, and there will be an illustrated lecture by the State Forester, A. F. Hawes. The gentlemen are especially invited to this meeting.

Lyndon Institute Wins. The Littleton High School football team drove over Saturday, and sustained a defeat of 18 to 0 at the hands and feet of the newly organized Lyndon Institute team.

The home boys distinguished themselves by some very good playing and have every promise of becoming strong players. A dance in the Cable hall enabled the young people to celebrate their victory.

E. M. Campbell and E. J. Blodgett took a motor trip to East Haven, Friday, to settle a fire loss for the Union Mutual Ins. Co. The property burned was the barn of George Spencer, and involved a loss of $2229, including the barn, 17 cows, several pigs and hens, beside hay, grain, farming tools, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinds of Eden are visiting their daughters, the two Mrs. Ruggles, and their son here. Rev. Robert Wilson, formerly of Bethel, and now a missionary in Shanghai, China, gave a most interesting lecture on his work in China at the Episcopal church Sunday evening.

Miss Christabel Brown was in Lexington, Mass., last week, and gave readings there.

Mrs. Emily Wetherbee of Montpelier recently visited her brother, George Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Griswold returned last week from their wedding trip and are keeping house on Main Street. Miss Marguerite Robinson has engaged for a year with the Beck entertainment company of Boston, and expects to leave this week for her work. Her headquarters will be at the Westland Hotel, in the Back Bay.

Mrs. Dudley Carleton of Newbury is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Howe have been entertaining their son, Albion Howe, and his wife from Dorchester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Prescott have been taking a short trip to Boston. Frank Thompson has moved from Mrs. Cairns' house on Main street to George Rimes tenement at Lyndon Center.

Miss Jessie Carr has been visiting at North Stratford, P. O. Harley Fisher of Lexington, Mass., has been visiting his brother, Charles Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stuart of Winchester, Mass., have been visiting his father, Charles Stuart, for a few days at Mrs. Stuart, who is still at Brightlook Hospital. Last week they took a motor trip to the McCall place at Lancaster.

Miss Estelle Gronberg visited over Sunday with friends in St. Johnsbury. Fred Gorham and family from Newbury took an automobile trip here last week to visit his brother.

Ernest Drown of Barre was in town last week in his motor car, stopping with his father, Alfred Drown. W. I. Powers has returned from his western trip and Mrs. Powers has also returned from Boston and from a visit to Northampton, where her daughter Thien is now in Smith college.

Our New Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show you it, "the new kind."

As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely and for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff.

Mrs. Thayer from St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with her old school friend, Mrs. Josephine Wilder. Miss Mildred Silsby and her friend, Miss Beulah Fuller of Littleton were also at H. L. Parker's for the weekend.

Mrs. Clarke B. Hutchinson entertains the Christmas club this (Wednesday) afternoon.

Mrs. A. L. Finney is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Harry White at Fitch Bay, P. O.

Mrs. B. G. Morrison, who has been ill with rheumatism has not been quite so well the past week.

Miss Susan Cunningham was at Irasburg over Sunday with her friend, Miss May Wheeler.

Prof. and Mrs. G. A. Jamieson spent Sunday with friends at Newport.

Mrs. Henry Wilkie has been ill with another attack of pleurisy and is absent from her work in E. J. Blodgett's store.

There was a successful supper and social at the Universalist vestry Friday evening, hash and beans with accompaniments, being the principal viands. On the same evening, the ladies of the Methodist church served a delicious corn supper at which the various forms of Indian corn were presented in attractive styles.

The attraction at Music Hall last Wednesday evening was the old time comedy, "Peck's Bad Boy." On Tuesday evening "Ten Nights in a Barroom," was given by a good company. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lyster accompanied by Mr. Lyster's mother, have been spending the past week in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Lyster of Whitefield, N. H., with their wives also joined them at the Hub. The Lyster Brothers have sold their business at Whitefield but will remain and work for the new firm for the next two years.

Mrs. Ed Brown has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Brown Davis in Boston.

[From another correspondent.] Avis Todd had a very successful operation at Hanover last week, and is improving rapidly. Mrs. L. C. Todd was with her daughter several days last week.

Homeer Watson and Lincoln Wilson have been at home from Dartmouth for a few days.

Mrs. Daniel Gregory burned her hands badly last week.

Fred Gorham of South Newbury has been here for a few days purchasing cows.

Mrs. Guy Blake of St. Johnsbury has been at the home of her father, F. C. Lynch, for several days.

Bess Hutchinson is clerking in Mrs. F. J. Willey's store.

Annie Houghton visited in St. Johnsbury last week.

Erwin Bundy and Howard Hunter have been camping a few days at Long Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Evans of St. Johnsbury Center visited relatives here last week.

Henry Cowles moves this week from the L. B. Harris tenement near the Lyndon Center bridge into W. F. Stoddard's tenement house on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bradshaw of Waterford visited here over Sunday.

Fred Russ, who has been working in Charles Bradshaw's place at the railroad shops, has finished work, and Mr. Bradshaw has resumed work after being away for some time with a broken collar bone.

Dr. F. E. Dwinell has been at home from Glover for a few days.

Ray Crawford has moved his household goods here from Fairlee.

Della Gray of East Lyndon has been spending several days with Mrs. Horace Jones.

Merton Vance and Leon Jeffords of East Burke visited in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Drown and daughter have been visiting relatives at Barton.

F. J. Willey is with relatives in Northfield for a few days.

Mrs. S. W. McCall has returned to her summer home in Lancaster after spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Thompson and sister, Mrs. C. L. Stewart.

Miss Louise Trowbridge has returned to her home in Newton, Mass.

Ralph Chapman of Sutton visited here the first of the week.

Ira Batchelder has gone to Sherbrooke to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Bundy have been for a few days at their cottage at Wiloughby lake.

Mrs. A. E. Weed of South Wheelock is visiting Mrs. W. S. Guild.

Mrs. Robert Monroe is very ill and threatened with pneumonia.

Herman Butterfield has returned from Philadelphia.

Pearl Wilnot of Stanstead is visiting relatives here.

A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Boulisse.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Griswold have been spending a few days with Mr. Griswold's parents and a reception was given them Friday night by their relatives and friends.

Mrs. John Gorham is visiting in South Newbury.

Archeus Drown moves this week into the house he recently bought.

Minnie Jones is in Boston for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hunter have been visiting in Glover.

Mrs. Olive Rounady and Ona visited at West Burke last week.

Earl Davis of Hardwick is visiting relatives here.

Charles Richards of Dover, N. H., was called home the first of the week by the death of his son Wesley.

Money Comes in Bunches to A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infalible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c. at Flint Bros. and Frank G. Landry.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR for children; safe, sure. No opiate

GROTON. Mr. and Mrs. Plummer of Groton, N. H., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morrison.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Leslie E. Arthur and Miss Lou Martha Hatch of Pantton on Wednesday, October 20.

Miss Ida Clough of Bellows Falls has been spending a few days with friends in town.

"The Mexican Serenaders" is the first number of the series of five entertainments to be furnished by the Lovett Entertainment Bureau of Boston and will be given at the opera house on Friday evening, Oct. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Clark left Friday for a carriage drive to East Montpelier where they will spend several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Clark.

Mrs. Allen Smith of Franconia, N. H., visited relatives in town last week.

Miss Bertha Paige is home from Hampton, N. H., where she has been working the past summer.

W. R. Carbee was in Peacham, Friday and Saturday to set up a monument on the Farrow lot.

J. F. Hatch left Monday for Canada where he expects to be several weeks looking after his timber land.

J. W. Morrison and sister, Mrs. M. J. Plummer, returned from a trip to Boston and Manchester, N. H., Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown of Bridge-water, N. H., arrived in town Thursday for a short stay with friends.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 27 and 28 will occur the annual sale at the vestry of the Baptist church. A chicken pie supper will be served Wednesday evening and a variety supper Thursday evening.

L. S. Blanchard and B. S. Eastman have bought 2000 bushels of potatoes. Two carloads have already been shipped to market and another is to be loaded this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gordon and daughter Kathryn of Meredith, N. H., are visiting her father, Charles Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Hall were in Topham, Sunday, to attend the funeral of Jefferson Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ricker and children left Saturday for Hillsboro, N. H., in his automobile. They were accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Gould, whose home is in that place.

Harvey Noyes of St. Johnsbury was a visitor in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross are visiting relatives at Meredith, N. H.

The many friends in this place of Ralph E. Pillsbury are sorry to learn that he has been compelled to resign his position at Bellows Falls on account of poor health. G. H. Pillsbury and A. S. Clark left Saturday to assist Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury in packing their goods preparatory to moving to this place.

Miss Reta Welch was home from Goddard Seminary over Sunday.

Among those who attended the Arthur-Hatch wedding at Pantton, Wednesday, were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arthur, Winford Arthur, Miss Grace Arthur and Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Myers.

A. E. Kendrick, butter maker at the Groton creamery, has received the first prize and sweepstakes on a twenty pound tub of butter at the Valley fair at Brattleboro, also the first prize by the Vermont Farm Machine company and first prize by the Worcester Salt company. The score was 98. This is the second first prize won by Mr. Kendrick this year, the other being at the state fair.

Mrs. James Adams is on the sick list.

The Ladies' Needle Craft club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. R. D. Sherry.

F. W. Cairns has moved his family to the Clarence Bell place at East Ryegate. Edell Whitehill will move to the tenement vacated by Mr. Cairns as soon as necessary repairs can be made.

The first number of the people's entertainment course will be given at the opera house, Oct. 29. This course is furnished by the Lovett entertainment bureau of Boston. The list of dates is as follows: October 29, The Michigan Serenaders; December 10, The Pooler Lecture; January 14, J. Edward Wood; February 11, Mary Baile; March 11, A Nautical Fantasia.

Its A Top Notch Doer. Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and cures colds and grippe, coughs, and colds, and cures, sore throats, and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo. Moore, Black Jack, N. C., writes "It cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Flint Bros. and Frank G. Landry.

BARNET. Dr. Robert Hazelton of Lebanon, was in town one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rounady were called to Lyndon by the death in the Lyndon accident of Mrs. Rounady's aunt.

Russell Lowrey is at home sick.

The Ladies' Society will give an old fashioned concert in the Town Hall Friday evening October 29.

Rev. Mr. Clark preached his first sermon here Sunday. He expects Mrs. Clark the first of this week.

Mrs. Emily Davison, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Margaret Gillilan, returned to her home in Turners Falls Saturday.

Mrs. Charlotte Dow has been appointed delegate to the State Sunday School Convention to be held at Woodstock next Thursday and Friday.

M. E. Turner, who has been sick for some time is able to be out again.

At the harvest supper last Thursday evening the ladies took about $16.00.

Mrs. Nettie Kendall and Mrs. Nellie Drew spent Monday in St. Johnsbury.

C. B. Whitney spent three days last week in Ryegate on business.

The old folks concert will be given Friday evening October 29 in the town hall.

A social dance and box supper will be given in the town hall Thursday evening.

LUNENBURG. On Tuesday evening of this week the W. R. C. will raise a fine flag near the soldiers' monument with appropriate exercises. Later supper will be served to the members of Howard post and their families. The 19th is the anniversary of the dedication of the monument five years ago.

A large number attended the auction at Lancaster last Saturday.

Miss Edith Luce and friend, who have been spending several weeks with relatives here returned to their home in Old Orchard on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Earnest Palmer, who went to Brooklyn last Friday on business returned on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Susie Silsby of Lyndonville is a guest of M. D. Bowker and wife for a few weeks.

James Silsby returned from New York last Wednesday. Mrs. Silsby remains awhile to visit relatives.

Daniel Powers and wife have been quite ill but are improving.

George Balch is making several additions and improvements on his buildings. Rev. and Mrs. Howard left last Wednesday for a visit of two weeks in Jeffersonville.

George Silsby leaves this week for his winter's work in the lumber camp of Silsby brothers at Meriden, N. H.

A flurry of snow came last Saturday evening and Sunday morning, the first of the season.

LOCAL Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

GREENSBORO. Neighbor's ring was observed at Caspian Lake Grange last Thursday evening. Members from five granges were present. The program was in charge of the Craftsbury Grange and the chairs were filled by the East Hardwick Grange. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Rev. W. E. Allen of Craftsbury preached at the Presbyterian church last Sunday in exchange with Rev. John Hood.

Dr. O. W. Daley is at his cottage for a few days.

Several from town attended the memorial service at East Hardwick, Saturday, of the late Ex-Gov. C. J. Bell.

The post office has been moved to its new quarters in the Messer house. Tuesday evening, October 26, the committee in charge of the piano fund at the Congregational church will hold a "State Capitol Experience" at the chapel. The ladies will furnish supper in the dining room.

Mrs. J. D. Willey returned to her home in Montpelier, Wednesday, after a two weeks' stop with her brother.

She Was Pleasantly Surprised. Miss H. E. Bell, Wausau, Wis., writes: "Before I commenced to take Foley's Kidney Pills I had severe pains in my back, could not sleep, and was greatly troubled with headache. The first few doses of Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief, and two bottles cured me. The quick results surprised me, and I can honestly recommend them." C. C. Bingham.

EAST BURKE. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gillilan of West Burke visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler of Lyndon Center visited Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard over Sunday.

Mrs. Scott Stafford of St. Johnsbury is visiting relatives here.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Alonzo Hudson at East Haven, Saturday.

There was a good house at the entertainment Friday night and it was greatly enjoyed.

R. A. and George Eggleston have returned from their trip to Boston.

John McNally has gone to Groveton, N. H., to visit his mother and other relatives.

W. H. Jeffrey returned from Boston Friday and is at Montpelier this week.

George Eggleston will move his family to Canaan, N. H., where he has bought a store.

H. D. Webster has gone to New Haven, Conn., Providence, R. I., and Boston on a business trip.

Those taking the medal in the town examination who received 90 or over were: Heustis McNeal, 98; Glenn Street, 97; Mabel Plumley, 97; and Edna Welch, 97; Alice Harvey, 95; John Nagle, 94; Ernest Temple, 93; Edmond McNally, 93; and Harold Phillips, 90.

Leon Jeffords finished clerking for Mr. Webster Saturday night and Jefferson Welch commenced Monday morning.

Both Boys Saved. Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. C. C. Bingham.

NEWARK. Mrs. Charles Gray has had another attack of illness and is very low.

About 30 couples attended the dance in the new "Grange Hall" Friday evening and all report a good time.

Mrs. Will Montgomery has been enjoying a visit from her mother for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Moulton are in Boston on a visit.

J. B. Watchie of West Burke was in town Saturday on business.

Lois Batchelder has finished work at C. E. Ball's and has gone home in very poor health.

M. E. Daniels, superintendent of schools, held a teacher's meeting at the Street schoolhouse Friday afternoon. All the teachers were in attendance.

NORTH MONROE. Pearl Bort of Ohio is at his brother, George Bort's. He will soon move his family here.

Mrs. S. D. Azette and Mrs. F. N. Cross visited in Lisbon the 18th.

Mrs. George Drew has returned from her visit in East Burke. Her two little grandsons, Ray and Howard Lavelly, returned with her.

Mrs. Mabel Drew accompanied her sister to St. Johnsbury Wednesday. Her sister had a successful operation for appendicitis at Brightlook.

Mrs. C. P. Pratt visited at John Hall's last week. Her mother, Mrs. Merrifield, has been quite sick.

Arthur Eldridge of Ryegate visited his little daughter at R. D. Hall's Sunday.

Charles Emery, Jr., has been in Boston and Millis, Mass., on a visit.

Edward Emery is still very feeble.

Hugh Nelson lost quite a valuable horse last week from colic.

Henry Bennett's moved to the farm owned by Oscar Frasier.

Clinton D. Nelson has gone to Laconia for the winter, working at carpenter work.

Miss Annie Schoff of Portland, Me., is visiting at O. H. Schoff's.

Hugh Nelson and N. T. Bolton were in Woodsville Saturday to attend the Lang auction.

Henry Byron is getting along nicely now from his recent serious illness.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. C. C. Bingham.

RYEGATE. The harvest supper and fair to be held in the vestry of the United Presbyterian church Friday evening, Oct. 22, promises to all who come an enjoyable evening. A bounteous chicken pie supper will be served from six to eight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chalmers of St. Johnsbury visited for a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson. Mr. Chalmers is a brother of Mrs. Nelson.

Miss Alice White of Topham spent Saturday and Sunday with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White and family, returning Monday.

Mrs. Dr. Miller of Woodsville, who has been caring for the home of Mrs. Cyrus Holmes during Mrs. Holmes' absence at Boston, returned to Woodsville, Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Leach of St. Johnsbury came on Saturday to make a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McLam.

Knox and Leslie McLam came over from Goddard Saturday to remain over Sunday with home folks.

Wesson Sargent moved his family to the new home last week. The farm is the one owned for a number of years by N. H. Ricker. Mr. Sargent has had the house remodelled and it presents a fine homelike appearance.

The Red-Rock Success lies in a keen, clear brain, backed by indomitable will and resistless energy. Such power comes from the splendid health that Dr. King's New Life Pills impart. They vitalize every organ and build up brain and body. J. A. Harmon, Lizenor, W. Va., writes: "They are the best pills I have ever used." 25c. at Flint Bros. and Frank G. Landry.

NEWBURY. Mrs. J. C. Marey spent last week with friends in West Topham.

Miss Nettie Tucker spent a few days last week with Mrs. W. S. Jenne.

Mrs. D. S. Fulton was seriously ill a few days last week, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Buswell who have spent several days visiting friends in Concord, N. H., returned last week.

A. W. Silsby, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meserve attended the ball game at Hanover Saturday.

Archie Sleeper was home a few days last week from his work as fireman on train from Springfield to Albany, N. Y.

Miss Beth Renfrew visited friends in Bradford over Sunday.

John Perkins had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse last week while on a business trip to Littleton.

The schools at the Seminary will close Thursday and Friday of this week so the teachers can attend the state teachers convention at Burlington.

Mrs. Young of Ely spent two or three days with Mr. and Mrs. George Slack.

Rowley Flagg of Newport spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of Harold Hale.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chamberlin of Concord, N. H., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heath.

Miss Edith Nash of Portland visited a few days last week with Miss Mary Hale.

Harry Barnett of Dartmouth was home to spend Sunday with his parents.

Frightful Fate Averted. "I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disberry, Kellier, Minn., "without Puckler's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infalible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Boils, Skin Eruptions. World's best for Piles, 25c. at Flint Bros. and Frank G. Landry.

EAST RYEGATE. Mrs. F. H. Powers spent last week at Lyndonville with her sister, Mrs. Clayton Libby.

Burns Hooker, the tele