AN EXCEEDINGLY UNIQUE

And attractive series of little books particularly adapted for Christmas gifts. Printed in two colors, 35 cents each.

- WHENCE COMETH HELP
By John W. Buckham
Professor Buckham adds to a devout spirit of worship high literary ideals and unerring good taste—a combination which produces a rather unusual little devotional book, which will bring strength and blessing from the everlasting hills, whence cometh help.
- THE STORY OF THE CHILD THAT JESUS TOOK
By Newman Smyth
A delightful sketch of a life that might have been lived in Galilee when Jesus was among men. The story is told with sympathetic insight into the ways and meanings of human nature, set against the background of the old life of Palestine.
- THE BLUES CURE
AN ANTI-WORRY RECIPE
By Delia Lyman Porter
The reader must find out for himself what the Great Golden Remedy is which was administered by the Blues Cure office to a lugubrious theologian, a sorrowing widow, a lonely girl, and others. This story will add to the happiness of the world.
- THE LAND OF PURE DELIGHT
By Rev. George A. Gordon, D. D.
Starting with Isaac Watts' grand old hymn, Dr. Gordon develops one of his most sincere and impressive talks on an inexhaustible theme. It convinces by its appeal to the depths of our human need and the heights of our heavenly aspirations.
- THE GOSPEL OF GOOD HEALTH
By Charles Reynolds Brown
The cry of "Good Health for a dollar a bottle" is becoming a spent force. The cry of good health by bringing all one's powers into harmony with the will of God is now to the fore. This inspiring message is a genuine contribution to the subject.
- THE SIGNS IN THE CHRISTMAS FIRE
By William Allen Knight
In this very human and touching Christmas story Dr. Knight has shown again the same qualities of sympathetic insight into human lives of all ages and races, tender sentiment, fresh power of interpretation, and delicate grace of expression.
- A MAN'S FAITH
By Wilfred T. Grenfell, M. D.
In this simple Credo Dr. Grenfell strikes deep into the heart of things fundamental. The vital beliefs which spur a man to high action and daily faithfulness to duty are frankly set down in words which are simple yet telling.
- THE LOVE WATCH
By William Allen Knight
A beautiful little story by the author of the world-famous "Song of Our Syrian Guest."
- THE KEEN JOY OF LIVING
By John Edgar Park
One seldom encounters the sheer zest for living that bubbles up in these pages as from a perennial spring. His book is a tonic for persons who regard life only as a burden, while eager young folks will delight in it.
- THE VALLEY OF TROUBLING
By Grace Duffield Goodwin
The way of life so frequently descends into the "Valley of Troubling" that a book which brings peace is invaluable to life's travelers. This little book is expressed in the language of peace and beauty and will cheer the heavy-hearted.
- THE FACE ANGELIC
By Hiram Collins Haydn
In this choice book Mr. Haydn pays graceful tribute to the rare souls possessing this beauty of expression, and shows how the ordinary human being may realize the face angelic, "suggestive only of beautiful thoughts, transparent goodness, and heavenly tempers and aspirations."
- THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH
By George A. Gordon
An inspiring setting forth of the Spirit of Truth, and a plea for complete reliance on the guidance of the Spirit into all truth.
- THE SHEPHERD OF JEBELNUR
By William Allen Knight
In this picturesque little pastoral the author returns to the theme which he has already interpreted so feelingly. The scene of this new portrayal of shepherd life in the Orient is located in a region admirably adapted to this narrative.
- THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT
Introduced by J. Edgar Park
A wonderfully illuminating approach to this great discourse. The reader enters upon the sermon itself with clearer understanding after reading this foreword, written with the same enthusiasm which characterized the earlier work of this author, "The Keen Joy of Living."
- THE MYSTERY OF PEACE
By George T. Smart
Dr. Smart describes Peace felicitously and opens our eyes to its nature, its focus, where and how to obtain and use it, and what its benison does for the human spirit. The volume will fall like a benediction upon a feverish world.
- THE SONG OF OUR SYRIAN GUEST
By William Allen Knight
An interesting frontispiece, from a painting by Harold Sichel, beautifies this publication; also the twenty-third Psalm printed in two colors with decorative border and embellishments. Over half a million copies sold and the demand greater than ever.
