Mrs. Valentine Guilmette Seriously Injured in Automobile Accident--Locals.

Wilson's Weakness After many years the free traders have gained complete control of the Democratic party and named one of the most violent of free traders for president.

Skilled workmen of every trade and farmers should not allow the dust raised by other issues to blind their eyes to these facts. Free trade is beautiful in theory, but ruinous in practice. It means inevitably lower wages and less money in circulation.

Read the history of any manufacturing nation which has tried both free trade and protection during the past 100 years or ask any man who worked for a living during the great depression of 20 years ago. Wilson is a fine type of manhood and his platform contains many splendid things, but his free trade advocacy is a fatal weakness. [Bennington Banner.]

Will have Progressive Senate The state of Vermont has much reason to expect progressive legislation from certain of the men who have been nominated to the state senate. While disavowing all intention of classifying unfavorably anybody not mentioned and specifically omitting the Rutland county men because we have referred to them with all good favor before, we name the following senatorial nominees as of promise in raising the state senate out of the ultra conservatism of the past: Messrs. Dyer and McCuen of Addison county; Messrs. Calderwood and Darling of Caledonia county; Mr. Mower of Chittenden county; Mr. McPeckers of Franklin county; Mr. Darling of Orange county; Mr. Blanchard of Orleans county; Messrs. Babbitt and Barber of Windham county; Messrs. Elliott and White of Windsor county. These men are twelve in number and with Rutland county's four, a majority of the senate for progressive service is assured. [Rutland News.]

PRESS COMMENT

Roosevelt's Idea of Virtue The Roosevelt idea of virtue seems to be that it is something for the other fellow to practice.

The great majority of the contested cases brought before the Republican National committee were so entirely lacking in merit that they were dismissed by a vote that was unanimous or practically so, all the Roosevelt members in many cases and nearly all in most cases voting against them.

Here was a deliberate attempt on the part of the Roosevelt management to get delegates to which they had no shadow of title, in other words to steal them. Because they failed in their attempt they are held guiltless.

The law holds an unsuccessful attempt to steal to be a crime.

And now we see the man whose attempt to steal more than 100 delegates was frustrated in part by his own friends on the National Committee, bolting the republican party and founding a new one bent on stealing somebody else's success in stealing delegates where he tried and failed.

A man who charges others with theft should come into court himself with clean hands.

The testimony presented to the National committee justified the seating of the Taft delegates. The cry of fraud iterated and reiterated by the Roosevelt party is an attempt to prejudice public opinion.

Mr. Roosevelt is not above the law or the Ten Commandments. It cannot be right for him to attempt to do what he charges others with doing. He charges that Taft is surrounded by bosses and calls to his own aid men like Flinn and Woodruff. He thunders at "big business" and endeavors to persuade the public that the corporations are against him.

The Colonel searches his head for an issue and found a big one. It is the High Cost of Living. "Some think the trusts are to blame," he said, "and some the tariff, and," he added, firmly, "this is a matter which must be squarely met."

The Colonel must be gaining a little although still very sick. Mrs. Murdo Smith who has been assisting in caring for their niece Lena B. Emmons returned to her home at St. Johnsbury the last of the week.

Carl J. Sanborn of Claremont, N. H., departed by Mr. Virtue of that place visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Sanborn last week.
