

LOCAL GATHERINGS

The regular meeting of Clover Temple No. 1, P. E. will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 28.

The first entertainment in the lecture course was given Wednesday evening and consisted of a fine program of mystery and mind reading given by the Floyds, who are artists in their line. Mr. Floyd's sleight of hand work was varied and clever and the mind reading by his wife was out of the ordinary and quite as mystifying as were Mr. Floyd's stunts.

The Rector's Aid society of St. Andrew's church will meet with Mrs. S. G. Bundy, Friday afternoon, at 2:30. St. Margaret's Guild will hold its last meeting before the sale with Miss Marion D. Patterson, next Monday evening.

George F. Chamberlain has sold a Stewart range to Mrs. Hattie V. Elliott of Paddock Village.

Charles West shot a 150 buck, having eight prongs on its horns at Granby last week.

The basket ball season opens here on Thanksgiving when the F. C. A. quintet entertain the Bradford A. A. at F. C. A. hall. The teams play a double header, afternoon and evening, and the games promise to be fast.

First Church of Christ, Scientist will hold a Thanksgiving service Thursday morning at 10.45 in their rooms in the Pythian block. The public are cordially welcome.

Advertised letters at the St. Johnsburys postoffice: Ladies, Oelling, Mrs. W. E.; gentlemen, Cross, H. W.; Crowe, Aubrey C.; Dooen, C.; Kerrin, M. F.; Smith, George E.; Smith, Howard; Sweny, Larry; Welton, Edwin C.

The first of the Sunday afternoon services in Summerville for the winter will be held next Sunday at three o'clock with Rev. Peter Black as speaker.

The Prohibition Club of St. Johnsburys will meet with Charles Moulton, Main street, on Friday evening, Nov. 29, at 7.30 o'clock. All temperance people are invited.

The supreme court of Illinois has decided that the Modern Woodmen of America cannot increase their rates without the consent of the members of the order. This means that the old rates will prevail for at least two years more.

BARNET

Postmaster E. B. Chase Seriously Ill—Other Personal Items

Everett B. Chase is very sick with plural pneumonia but is some better now. Dr. Ross of St. Johnsburys is doctoring him and he now has two trained nurses, W. H. Burbank, our former town clerk came from New York last week and is taking his place in the office.

The schools in this village closed last Friday afternoon with exercises by the children also a little play which was much enjoyed. They will have a week's vacation for Thanksgiving. The same teachers will come back for another term.

Willard Stoddard had the good luck to get a deer this year as usual. Willard has fine luck with the four footed kind.

Rev. Mr. Hall of Lyndon preached for Rev. Mr. Clark last Sunday as Mr. Clark was called to Lyndon to the funeral of a former neighbor, who was accidentally shot one day last week.

Ira Albee and daughter, Marjorie, are spending a few days this week in Boston.

Harvey Drew was called to Waterford Monday to see his brother, Fred, who is sick.

At the spelling school at West Barnet last Thursday night Muriel Somers, 12 years old, spelled down the 8th and 9th grades.

Mrs. Harvey Phelps entertained the Ladies' society of McIndoes last Friday afternoon at her home. There were between 40 and 50 there. They enjoyed a social afternoon and had a fine supper of cake and sandwiches and coffee.

Mrs. George Walker and Mrs. Nettie Kendall have been quite sick the past week with tonsillitis, but are both better now. Mrs. C. B. Whitney has also been sick with the grip, but is better.

Dr. Aldrich and Dr. Ross and wife of St. Johnsburys and Miss Mabel Darling of South Peacham were entertained at Mrs. Gabley's last Saturday.

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by Arthur P. Welch of Barnet, a meat dealer, whose liabilities are $7,547.81 and whose assets are $5,734, with $965 exempt.

EAST BARNET

Rev. Peter Black of St. Johnsburys will give his lecture on "My Native Land, The Home of Scott and Burns," in the chapel Friday evening, Nov. 29, at 8 o'clock.

Crisie Cushman visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moore of Danville last week and she is now visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Morse in Littleton, N. H.

Mrs. Milo Judkins and two children from Laconia, N. H., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Laundry.

The Helping Hand social at Jennie Newman's last Wednesday was well attended and all report a delightful time. A beautiful dinner was served to a good crowd and the afternoon was spent in sewing for the sale.

Mrs. Jennie Newman, Mrs. John Bandy and Mrs. Carl Somers were guests of Mrs. Alvin Bandy of Barnet recently.

Fred Lindsay returned home from West Burke last Wednesday with a yoke of oxen that he had bought in Westmore.

Mrs. Grace Mason from Orford, N. H., visited her sister, Mrs. Mary Kendall, last week.

Rev. G. A. Hall from Lyndon preached here Sunday afternoon.

The subject of Rev. W. C. Clark's sermon here next Sunday afternoon will be "A Message from Mars."

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dickinson visited their daughter, Mrs. F. G. Weeks of Woodsville last Saturday.

LUNENBURG

Congratulations are in order for Ralph W. Bell and Mrs. Fannie J. Gray of Stratford, who were married by Rev. B. J. H. Shaw at the Congregational parsonage on Saturday evening, Nov. 23. They will reside at Bellview, South Lunenburg with the parents of the groom.

Mrs. Julian Bell was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strain of Groveton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop have moved from the Landon farm to the Taylor place, the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edgar Taylor.

Schools closed for the week on Friday. Miss Florence Tomlinson, teacher of the grammar grade is with friends in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bell were guests of their daughter, Mrs. H. P. Stanton of North Danville over the week-end.

Miss Sadie Brooks of Brightlook hospital was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Brown the first of the week.

The ladies of the Mite society put about $30 in their treasury as the result of the chicken pie supper last Wednesday evening. Songs by Irene and Lawrence Bell and a recitation by Maxina Colby were given after the supper.

Mrs. Wallace Phelps and Miss Ethel Foss spent the week-end in Groveton, the guests of Mrs. Fred Silsby and daughter.

Mrs. George O. Balch was in St. Johnsburys several days last week visiting her daughter, who is a pupil in the Academy.

Mrs. Bradley who is cooking at the Heights house and her son, are spending a week with friends in St. Johnsburys. Her place is filled by Mrs. George Jewell.

Goodreau

Maxime Goodreau, an employe of E. T. and H. K. Ide, died Friday morning at his home on Concord avenue, aged 35 years. He had worked as usual the day previous and had not complained of feeling ill but died at three o'clock Friday morning. He leaves a wife and two children, a father and mother in Magog, P. Q., and a brother, who works for E. and T. Fairbanks and Co. The funeral was held Monday morning from Notre Dame church.

THANKSGIVING

We Are

Thankful

That So Many Men in this section are thankful that they bought their New Winter Clothes here.

If you get your next outfit here, then you'll be thankful too.

DROP .. IN .. and let us show you how you would look in one of our NEWEST MODELS

SNAPPY SUITS For The Boys

$3.50 to 9.00

Overcoats

Plaid Backs $15 to 30
Great Coats with Belts Very Swag-ger. 16.50 to 28
Other Coats $10, 12, 13, 15

Sweaters For

For the Boys

$1 to 4.50

Steele, Taplin & Co.

W. A. TAPLIN, Prop.
CLOTHIERS, HATTERS, FURNISHERS.

ON THE HILL

FUR COATS, $16 to $100

The popular "Belmont" notch Collar made in self striped Madras. 2 for 25c

ARROW COLLARS

Chaet, Peabody & Co., Makers

Scene From the Big All English Production, "A Butterfly on the Wheel." Colonial Theatre, Saturday, Nov. 30.