Danville

A Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bovee—Personals and Locals

The Elm House was the scene of a happy gathering on New Year's night when Mr. and Mrs. Silas Bovee celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The time was socially spent congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Bovee, after which refreshments were served. There were 126 guests names enrolled on the guest book. There were many beautiful gifts including $22.50 in gold and $15 in silver. The other gifts were pieces of silver including cold meat forks, berry spoon, cream ladle, sugar shells, knives and a cake fork. There were also several pieces of linen, china and a chocolate set. A large bouquet of pink roses was among the gifts being a gift from a friend, Albert Flint of Tyngsboro, Mass. Mr. Bovee came to Danville with his parents when but 12 years of age and since that time has spent his entire life here as a farmer. He was born in Ryegate, May 25, 1835. Mrs. Bovee was born at Hoosick, N. Y., being the daughter of William and Elizabeth Oederkirk, coming here to Danville one year previous to her marriage. They are the parents of two children, Jennie, Mrs. Harry Osgood, and Corilla, Mrs. Hermon Osgood. Mr. and Mrs. Bovee are popular people in town. Both are members of the Methodist church, Mrs. Bovee being an active worker and a constant attendant. Those from out of town to attend the anniversary were a sister of Mrs. Bovee, Mrs. Wilson of St. Johnsbury Centre, Mrs. Myrtle Stafford of Lyndonville, Mr. and Mrs. Will Oederkirk of Manchester, N. H., and Mrs. Potts of Boston, besides several from the adjoining towns.

Pythian Sisters have elected the following officers for the coming year, M. E. C. Cassie Fellows; E. S. Georgiana Hodgdon; E. J. Ella S. Dow; M. of T. Nellie M. Heath; M. R. C. Mettie H. Vance; M. of F. May Hunt; P. of T. Alma K. Fisher; G. of T. May Gillis; P. C. Mary H. Chalmers.

The basket ball fans were well entertained New Year's eve by one of the best games of this season. The Newbury M. W. A. team came prepared to add the scalps of the Danville Braves to their string of victories but failed to reckon with the speed that the home five have developed. Though our boys were far under weight of the Newbury five, their speed and excellent passing held them down to a tie score. It was a great game and Danville may well be proud of her basket ball team. There will be other games that promise to be fully as interesting. The score: Danville P. Carlson, r f c. Bartlett C. Temple l f H. Peck A. Carlson c G. Smith Talsey l g G. Fisher C. Powers r e W. RECENT WEDDINGS

Morey-Preston

George Morey of this place and Miss Katherine Preston of Sheldon were quietly married at the bride's home on New Year's day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Locke as presiding clergyman. Mr. Morey has been employed in the office of A. E. Council and Son for the past year.

Anderson-Fitzpatrick

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fitzpatrick in East Burke on New Year's day occurred the marriage of their daughter, Alice Edith to Horace Anderson of this place. The ceremony took place in the bay window of the parlor, which was prettily trimmed with white ribbon forming an arch. The double ring service was performed by Rev. J. J. Hutchinson of Lyndonville in the presence of the immediate families and three intimate friends. The bride was gowned in white messaline, with a crown with lace, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were attended by Miss Elizabeth Galbraith and Tracy Buswell, and Miss Alice Anderson, sister of the groom, played the Lohengrin wedding march. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Springfield, Mass., where they remained until Saturday and returned to St. Johnsbury Sunday. Mrs. Anderson has been a popular clerk in the store of Leach and Waterman for the past year and will continue to work there and Mr. Anderson is employed in the office of E. and T. Fairbanks and Company. They have taken rooms at 28 Webster street.

NORTH DANVILLE

B. A. Hatt in Brightlook Hospital for Treatment—Personals

B. A. Hatt, who was reported last week as having serious trouble with a wound on his right ankle, caused by sticking a sharp edging into it some time since, went to Brightlook hospital last Wednesday for treatment. On Sunday following a council of doctors, the wound was opened and some slivers from the edging removed. As the wound is very deep it will take some time for it to fill out and heal, but it is hoped that he may have no further trouble with it otherwise. He is doing well as could be expected at present writing. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Drew of St. Johnsbury Center were at F. J. Hubbard's last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Fleming of St. Johnsbury were recent guests of her brother, L. L. Bennett and family. The Misses Mabel and Eva Emmons of St. Johnsbury were at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emmons, over Sunday. Representative H. B. Ward, who has been at home for the holiday recess, returned to Montpelier last Monday. Mrs. Fred Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Gilman, who was reported as seriously ill last week and was conveyed to Brightlook hospital, is gaining. Mildred A. Hatt returned to her school at Groveton, N. H., last Saturday. Her friend, Dora Farquhar, who spent the first of the week with her, went to St. Johnsbury last Tuesday, to visit relatives there, returning to her home at South Ryegate on Saturday. Elgin Gates has charge of the creamery at present, that is he takes in the cream, keeps up the fires and looks after things in general. H. B. Vard did the churning and looking after the butter last week but as he had to go to Montpelier again there was a meeting of the board of directors called last Monday afternoon to arrange for that part of the work until Mr. Hatt should be able to return. Helen M. Colby, teacher in the primary school at the village was unable to attend to her duties on account of a severe cold last Monday and Mrs. H. P. (Pearl Bell) Stanton supplied for her.

EAST BARNET

Much Moving in Town This Week—Personal Happenings

Mrs. Jennie Blandin and Miss Marjorie Nelson have both been quite sick the past week with the grip and Fred Champany is sick with pneumonia. Elmer Roy is gaining quite fast now and is able to walk to the shop. Elbridge Farnsworth went to Burlington this week to the hospital to have his eye treated. J. R. Moore accompanied him. Guy Lindsay returned to Hanover last Thursday. Marion Quimby spent New Year with Louise Moore. Marion and Madeline Weeks from Woodsville, have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dickinson, the past week. There will be quite a moving in East Barnet this week. Egbert Kendall moves into the house that he bought of Mrs. Gammell and Bennie Darling moves into the house vacated by them, and Will Cilley moves into the tenement vacated by Mr. Darling. Communion services will be held here next Sunday afternoon at 2.30. The annual church meeting and roll call will be held at Barnet Thursday, Jan. 9. A dinner will be served. Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith visited at his home Sunday. Annual Banquet Scotia Club The Scotia Club will hold its annual banquet on Friday evening, Jan. 24, at Pythian hall, which is the evening preceding the anniversary of Robert Burns' birth. These banquets have become a special social feature and have always been very enjoyable gatherings. This year it is planned to have the entertainment consist of songs and readings from Burns' poems entirely. It is expected that quite a number of our local singers will take part. The capacity of the hall is limited and only as many tickets will be sold as can comfortably be provided for.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.

Peacham

Deaths of Several Residents During The Past Week—Some Mention of Live People

Mrs. Phoebe Hubbard who has been very ill with pneumonia the past week died Saturday morning at the home of Frank Robinson, where she has boarded the past few years. She had passed through the crisis of the disease, but had not strength enough to recuperate. Mrs. Hubbard was the daughter of Reuben Richardson and Anna Patterson Richardson and was born at Craftsbury in 1835. She and her husband Roswell Hubbard, came to Peacham a number of years ago. He died six years ago. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the vestry of the Congregational church. Rev. T. A. Carlson officiated and Mrs. Carlson sang. She leaves a niece and nephew, Mrs. Oscar Bundy of Sutton and Edward Drown of Cabot. Out of town people at the funeral were Mrs. Phoebe Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Howland, Mrs. William Barr, Cabot; Mrs. Mabel Clark, Danville; George Patch, East Hardwick. The people at the North Part of the town were shocked Wednesday, Dec. 25, when it was reported that Hiland Nunn had committed suicide by shooting himself. His wife was away for a short time at one of the neighbors and it was during her absence that the gruesome deed was accomplished. It is thought he has been insane by spells since the death of his wife a short time ago. He was 59 years of age and leaves a wife, Mrs. Helen Nunn, and a son, William Nunn, also other near relatives. The funeral was held at his home Friday, Rev. J. K. Williams, officiating. The spelling school at East Peacham took place Monday evening. In the first division Anna Mary Lamb spelled down and the next in order were Esther Farrington, Jean Kenerson, Henry Farrington and Ralph Bigelow. In the second division Harold Somers spelled down and the next in order were Charles Lamb, Roscoe Farrington, Reginald Esden and Lucinda Stevenson. In the general contest Harold Somers, Mrs. J. W. Lamb and Mrs. Joseph Hunter went down on the word "omniscient" and Charles Lamb and Arthur Peake were next in order. One dollar and forty cents was realized from the sale of popcorn.

WELLS RIVER The Study Club Has Begun Work on a Six Months' Program—Locals

The Wells River Study Club had its first organized meeting Tuesday evening of last week at Mrs. Ray Farwell's. The program for six months was read and subjects for papers given out. Monday evening a meeting was held. Program, roll call, and papers by the program committee, Mesdames Hetherington, Hutchins, Parker, Martel and Goss, who conducted the company on a trip to the British Isles. Regular meetings of the club will be held the 1st and 3rd Monday evenings of each month until June. Schools reopened Monday. Mrs. W. H. Goodwin went to Berlin, N. H., Monday, returning Tuesday.

Communion in the Congregational church was observed Sunday morning at which time Misses Irma Ailken and Jennie Fortune were received into church membership. Mrs. Herman Bone, with her two children returned to Gardner, Tuesday.

LYNDON

Mrs. Frank Spencer returned Friday from Goulds, Quebec, where she went to attend the funeral of her brother. Her two sisters and a brother accompanied her home. The Literary society of the Congregational church will meet next Saturday evening, at 8.15 at Mrs. J. B. Chase's. Subject, discussed, "John Fox Jr., Novels." The choir rehearsal will be held Saturday evening at seven o'clock with Miss Ruth Paris. James Coucher left last week Friday for Albany, N. Y., where he is to attend college. Mrs. Earl Bradshaw returned Thursday from Petersburg, N. Y., where she has been to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Mary Moon. E. Wilkie was at home from Fairbanks shops several days last week on account of sickness. Don't forget the moving pictures given by F. S. Story in Mechanics' hall, next Friday evening.

Plan Series of Six Meetings

The Home Missionary department of the Woman's Association of the North church has arranged for six meetings to be held on the second and fourth Fridays of the next three months. The first of these meetings will be held next Friday, Jan. 10, in the chapel at three o'clock. The study will be taken from the book entitled "Mormonism, the Islam of America" by Bruce Kinney, published under the direction of the Council of Women for Home Missions. Two papers will be given, "History of the Mormons," by Mrs. P. F. Hazen, and "The Sacred Books of the Mormons," by Mrs. George Cheney. All the women of the church or town are cordially invited.

EAST ST. JOHNSBURY Mr. and Mrs. James Beck are visiting relatives in Boston.

Mrs. W. S. Russell and David Ramage are both sick and several others are suffering from severe colds. Mrs. Evelyn Ranney and daughter visited friends in Lyndon the past week. At the annual meeting of the Congregational church the following officers were elected: Deacons, G. I. Copp and Charles Owens; assistant, Dea. Wilbur Cushman; clerk and treasurer, G. I. Copp; Sunday school superintendent, Irving Locke; assistant superintendent, Wilbur Cushman. Rev. E. E. Grant gave his resignation as pastor to take effect at the end of this year.
