

Real Estate For Sale

One, two and three Tenement Houses, Building Lots, and Farms.

Rickaby & Co.
95 Eastern Ave.

EAST CONCORD

Mrs. Harlow Higgins went last Thursday to Brightlook Hospital where she underwent an operation, on Friday. She is now convalescent.

Mrs. W. H. Webb entertained thirty of her friends and neighbors at her home at a Sunday evening concert, February 22, the occasion being Miss Lilla Finley's birthday. Mrs. Webb treated the party to cake, coffee and ice cream.

Mrs. Jane Vance who is confined to her bed with illness remains about the same. Her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vance are caring for her.

Mrs. Jennie Whitecher of Twin Mt. N. H. was entertained by her sister Mrs. G. N. Morrill, last Thursday.

Mrs. Lena Nichols, Mrs. J. C. McDonald, Mrs. Frank Fisher and Mrs. George King were in St. Johnsbury the past week.

Miss Sarah Sampson of Concord, was the guest of Mrs. McDonald last Monday.

Miss Olive Clough of Lancaster, N. H., and her sister Miss Nila Clough, teacher at the Kellogg district, were the guests of Miss Lilla Finley at the Webb home over Sunday.

Johnny Seales has resumed his work in Fitzdale.

Fred Higgins has sold his place on the hill to Eugene Moulton and moved into George Leach's up-stair tenement.

Robert Grant has returned home, after a few weeks stay with friends in St. Johnsbury and Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sweet of East St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Dana Grant.

The church social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Carpenter, last Wednesday, was largely attended from this place. J. L. Fisher carried a large load of eighteen, who greatly enjoyed the ride, as well as the social. It was a great success socially and financially, and $15.23 was added to the treasury.

Madison Nichols has sold his house in the village to Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Grant, who will take possession at once.

Mrs. Lillian Tilton, who has spent the past few months with her sister Mrs. Jane Vance, went last week to the home of her sister, Mrs. Vern Hartshorn, in Lunenburg.

Miss F. Elgoein who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDonald for the past few days, returned to her home in Whitefield, N. H., Tuesday.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid Society for the election of officers will be held with Mrs. H. A. Smith, next Monday evening. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Lilla Finley, teacher in the village school, and Miss Nila Clough, teacher of the Kellogg school, will give a spelling school, box social and entertainment, consisting of recitations, dialogues and music at the village school house this Friday evening. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the schools.

Good printing requires time. An early order will aid good work.

GREENSBORO

J. M. Stickney, for many years a resident of this town but for the past twenty years living with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Mativia, of Lyme, N. H., passed away Wednesday at the advanced age of ninety-three years, and his remains were brought here for interment beside his wife and daughter in the village cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Mativia came to Greensboro with the remains and returned to their home Tuesday.

The next regular meeting of Cassian Lake Grange will be held Thursday evening the 26th, and the following program will be presented by the lecturer: Duet, Mrs. N. H. Kaiser and Mrs. C. H. Miller; reading by Guy Allen; discussion, What may we do to raise sentiment favoring high school work in our town. C. B. Cook, B. M. Willey, S. T. Achenbach; music, Mrs. H. H. Haines; paper, the child in the rural community, Mrs. A. B. DeBrune; reading, Mrs. A. B. Cuthbertson; roll call, responded to by some quotation that has helped you.

The village schools closed Friday. The Greensboro Water Co. has declared and paid a dividend of four per cent on their capital stock, besides paying the interest on a debt of $3500 and applying the sum of $200 on the principal for the year 1913.

Robert Willey of Waterville has been spending a few days with his son B. M. Willey.

There was a hearing at the school house at the Bend Saturday before Miss Barr, superintendent of schools, Clarence Cowles of Hardwick and H. H. Stannard of Barton as referees, on the petition of Ralph Bedell and others to set aside the order of the School Board in closing the school in former No. 3 and transporting the pupils to the village, which order has been in force the past two years, and requiring the board to maintain a school in that district. The petitioners were represented by Mr. Reardon of Barton and the School Board by J. G. Simpson of this town. The finding of the referees has not been handed in at this writing.

Merl Howard went to Craftsbury Sunday to see his brother George who has just returned from Texas.

WEST DANVILLE

Grover Perkins returned from Boston, Tuesday.

A party from St. Johnsbury came up Saturday to spend Sunday in their cottage at Jones Pond.

Miss Arlene Thurston of Walden has been spending a few days at Fred Wood's.

John McCond has finished work for Albert Daniels and has gone to St. Johnsbury to work in the shops.

Miss Harriet Jenkinson and Charles Swasey of Peacham spent Monday at Harley Swasey's.

Raymond Woods and Miss Alice Parkhurst are visiting at Carl Wood's.

Henry Clifford has purchased a Holstein bull.

GRANBY

Mrs. O. M. Hodgdon is very ill. Dr. French is attending her.

Sheldon and Davis Mill burned Friday night. They were through logging and had only a few more days of sawing.

Miss Sally Hodgdon who has been stopping at L. C. Chappells has returned to her home in West Milan.

Ralph McLean has finished driving for A. J. Smith.

Mrs. Bert Gallup who has been working for Davis & Sheldon has finished her work and gone to her home in Gallups Mills.

The 25 cent piece was made famous by the American Liver Tablets, the perfect laxative.

Safe For Babies, Effective For Grown-Ups

That's Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It has the confidence of your druggist, who knows it will give you satisfaction. W. W. Nessmith, Statesboro, Ga., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in my family and have sold it in my store and it never fails to cure." Refuse a substitute. G. C. Bingham, adv.

EAST BURKE

Rob McGill attended the annual matinee and banquet of the Driving Club, Monday. Amasa Gilbert ran his blacksmith shop.

Remember the dance as usual this week, Friday night.

There will be no Epworth League meeting this week owing to the series of meetings being held here every night excepting Saturday of this week, at the Congregational church, by Rev. Hall.

The minstrel show that was repeated Saturday night drew a good house.

George Randall has been visiting friends in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coe and son Clayton are visiting relatives in St. Johnsbury and Waterford.

Milford Long is working for Howard Gorham.

Miss Glen Streeter is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ray Washburn at Swanton for two weeks.

Mrs. Flora Long from Montpelier is keeping house for Sam Fitzpatrick.

T. E. Wyman has shut down his saw mill until spring.

Miss Marion Walter is working for Mrs. Bert Streeter.

Mrs. Annie Fogg went to Victory Thursday called there by the illness of her father, Alvin Isham.

Miss Ethelyn Russell closed a very successful term of school in Pinkham last Friday, the 13th. She has returned to her home in Stillwater, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fyler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lawton Saturday.

Mrs. Nellie Jeffrey was in St. Johnsbury Monday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Nelson Perry went to St. Johnsbury Thursday to see her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Perry, at Brightlook Hospital.

Royal Eggleston went to Canaan Center, N. H., Monday to the home of his son, George.

A. D. Gilson was in St. Johnsbury on business Wednesday.

Miss Stacie Phillips is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bert Gauvin, in Orleans.

Miss Alice Harvey was not able to return to the Institute last week on account of ill health.

Miss Julia Walter of West Burke is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grace Cole.

WALDEN

The Ladies' Mite society will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jennie Kingsbury to arrange for the dinner to be given town meeting day at A. A. Scott's.

Prayer meeting this week Wednesday evening will be at G. H. Kingsbury's.

Walter Kittredge has returned home from his duties as juror at St. Johnsbury.

When weather permitted men and teams were busy putting in the year's supply of ice for the Creamery Company last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moxam, an old and respected resident, died Sunday morning at the home of her son, George Moxam. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the house, Rev. L. E. Taylor officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kingsbury and son, Lyle, went to Danville Thursday evening to attend the reception given to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillis.

RYEGATE

Burton Lowe returned to St. Johnsbury Academy last week after a week's sickness with tonsillitis.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. White, Feb. 19th.

Alida McLam was at home from St. Johnsbury Academy over Sunday. The attendance at church services on Sunday was hindered by the drifted snow in the roads.

James Nelson returned home last week from Cornell after completing the three months short term course.

William Thompson lost a valuable horse last week. It was one of a team of six horses used on the road roller. It was driven as far as Horace Chamberlain's dropping dead soon after reaching there.

Ftence Hall returned to Bradford the first of the week where she is attending the teacher's training school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis of St. Johnsbury made a short visit to Mrs. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelson, the first of the week.

MCINDOE FALLS

Neal Montgomery of East Hardwick spent last week with his uncle, C. C. Montgomery.

Mrs. Preston May of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Mrs. Horace Jackson last Thursday.

Mrs. R. M. Johnson spent Friday and Saturday at the home of her son, F. M. Johnson, at Monroe, N. H.

Percy Van Dyke left Friday to return to the Maine University at Orono, Maine. He planned to stop off at Franklin, Mass., to visit friends at Dean Academy.

Miss Mary Smith and friend of Somerville, Mass., spent last week with Miss Smith's uncle, H. C. Kent.

Miss Bertha Bedell accompanied Miss Pearl Tewksbury to her home at Newbury Saturday to stay over Sunday and Monday.

The Christian Endeavor society gave a Washington's birthday social at the vestry Monday evening. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music, readings, sketches on the life of Washington, charades, etc.

Miss Bertha Bedell entertained the young ladies at her home last Wednesday evening. The evening was very pleasantly spent with various games.

Bernard Chase returned Friday from Cottage Hospital, Woodsville, N. H.

Miss Vontie Smith of Lisbon, N. H., spent last week with Miss Bertha Bedell.

The members of the Ladies Society called on Miss Jane Sutherland last Wednesday afternoon and presented her with a bunch of carnations, the occasion being her birthday.

The Glee club orchestra and the senior class gave a promenade and box supper at the Academy Hall Friday evening. The proceeds were about fifteen dollars.

WELLS RIVER

Mrs. Smiley of Montpelier, President of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, gave an interesting talk before the Wells River Study Club last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Deming and was the guest of Mrs. Deming over night.

Dr. Munsell was in Springfield, Mass., last week attending a clinical meeting and spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. C. D. Root.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Belanger were in town Wednesday of last week. They were called to West Burke by the death of their grandson, and on their return trip stopped over here to call on Dr. Lee. At the close of G. A. R. and W. R. C. meetings they were present at the social which followed. Exercises in observance of Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays were held and Mr. Belanger made short but interesting remarks. Refreshments of hot maple syrup, doughnuts, cake and coffee and pickle were served by Mesdames Vincent, Marcy, Murphy, George and Currier. Mr. and Mrs. Belanger left on the night train for their home in Spring Valley, N. Y. The W. R. C. quartet, Mrs. Addie E. Carpenter, Mrs. Lulu Hinman, Miss Lottie P. Marshall and Miss Ida B. Larou, gave two very pleasing vocal selections during the evening.

Miss Pearl Powers has given up school and is at work in Hetherington's store. She was in the class which will be graduated from the high school in June.

William is on the sick list and Leslie Bailey is substituting for him in Hetherington's store.

Mrs. John Stevens has been ill the past week with a nurse in attendance.

S. E. Clark is in his store again, having been confined to the house by an attack of bronchitis.

Wills River Brass Band will give a concert and dance in Village Hall Friday evening of this week. Art butus Rebekah Lodge will serve refreshments.

LUNENBURG

Mrs. H. F. Lougee of St. Johnsbury was called here on Saturday by the illness of Mrs. H. T. Silsby.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Height House parlors on Thursday afternoon at 2.30. All ladies interested in the work are asked to be present.

The patriotic social planned by Howard W. R. C. for Saturday evening was postponed indefinitely on account of the illness of Mrs. H. T. Silsby, who has been president of the order for eight years.

Mrs. H. F. Warren was the guest of Littleton friends last week.

Mrs. Clayton Wright and Mrs. Morrill were business visitors in St. Johnsbury last Saturday.

The whole community is greatly saddened by the serious illness of Mrs. H. T. Silsby.

Mrs. Sherman LeClair and little daughter, Kathleen, are guests of Mrs. Laura Colby. Their home in Pittsfield, N. H., was burned last week. The aged grandmother, Mrs. Mary Smith, came also, and is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Houston.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will serve one of their good dinners on town meeting day in the dining room at the town hall.

Miss Mattie Brackett of Lancaster, was the guest of Miss Annette Bell at Riverside last week.

SHEFFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dopp were given a party and dance at the Town Hall last Friday evening. It was their fourth anniversary. Supper was served. They were presented with a 106 piece dinner set.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will hold a social at the vestry, Friday, February 27, afternoon and evening. An invitation is extended to everyone to come and have a good time. Supper from 5 to 7.30.

E. A. Smith has sold his farm to Mr. Nelson of Barton.

W. J. Smith is confined to the house.

Mrs. J. D. Waldron has gone to Manchester, N. H.

Bernice Roberts has chicken pox. Among the sick ones the past week have been Roy Orcutt, Will Miles, Mrs. Lon Simpson and George Gray.

Burleigh Drown had an operation for appendicitis last week.

EAST BARNET

Mr. and Mrs. King and children from St. Johnsbury visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall recently.

Louise Moore who came home from her school sick with tonsillitis was able to return again Thursday.

Lorraine Webster was the guest of Mrs. Carrie Corveau Wednesday.

David Warden was at E. B. Wild's to stay over Sunday.

The basket ball game between McIndoes and East Barnet was played in the town hall at Barnet, Saturday evening resulted 19 to 21 in favor of East Barnet.

Mrs. Charles Chamberlain who has been sick for some time is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shampamy are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter in their family last Friday.

Charles Harvey's children who have been sick with scarlet fever are all better.

The C. E. S. will have an oyster supper in the chapel Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. After the supper, at 8 o'clock, Rev. W. G. Clark will give an illustrated lecture on "Yellowstone Park." After the lecture there will be another oyster supper for those who were not served before the lecture and the rest of the evening will be spent in having a good social time.

MONROE

Mrs. D. E. Burns is visiting at North Monroe.

Austin Fisher is at home from Rochester for a few days.

Charles Hosford was at home from Woodsville over Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Burns and Madeline visited at Oscar Frazer's Wednesday.

Miss Belle Hinman of St. Johnsbury visited her parents here over Sunday.

The friends of Horace Duncan will be glad to learn that he is gaining from the operation he recently underwent at Burlington.

Napoleon Plamadon was called to Lyman, Friday by the death of his mother.

Mrs. Edward Monroe has finished work for Harvey Folger and gone to Littleton.

William Martin spent Sunday at his home in Woodsville.

"The Rebellion of Mrs. Barclay," a comedy in two acts, will be presented at the vestry at North Monroe, Friday evening, Feb. 27, by local talent. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society. Characters: Morton Barclay, Irving Head; Roger Stuart, Dudley Hall; Dennis O'Hara, Morris Padelford; Ethel Barclay, Carrie Padelford; Ruth Carter, Grace Blair; Mrs. Brown, Lizzie McBurney; Cora Brown, Gertrude Champany; Elsie Stuart, Agnes Hall; Mary Ann O'Connor, Martha Lang.

CONCORD

Dr. R. B. Johnson was given a post card shower February 22nd. He received 262 cards.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lee, February 23.

WHEELOCK

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cree, Arch Craig, Miss Grace Hoffman, Mrs. H. J. Mathewson and Mrs. Nellie Mathewson have been sick this last week.

Will Stafford went to Utica, N. Y., last week to look for work. It is expected he will move there in the spring.

G. W. Bean is on the sick list.

Mrs. G. W. Bean is enjoying a visit from her niece, Miss Ava Bean of Glover.

Miss Margery Bean of Glover is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dwyer.

Mrs. Mattie Mathewson is at work for Mrs. J. B. Rippley.

Mrs. Frank Scanton visited Will Stafford's one day last week.

Mrs. Nora Eastman was called to Lyndon last week by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Drown.

Town meeting dinner will be served at Mechanics Hall.

James Ball has discontinued house keeping and gone to St. Johnsbury. His daughter, Mrs. Abbie Hopkins, has gone with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dance.

Mrs. Laura Ball is quite poorly this winter.

Cassius Mosher of St. Johnsbury Center was in town last Friday.

WEST WATERFORD

February 23rd, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Chandler. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Potter who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blodgett visited Mr. and Mrs. John Potter, a few days at East St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hastings visited at Concord, Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Hastings visited at Concord from Friday until Sunday.

PASSUMPSIC

There was a baptismal service on Sunday evening in which eight united with the church by baptism. It was a beautiful and impressive service. All of the candidates were dressed in white. The pastor's subject was from Rev. 3: 5. Among those baptized were Miss Ruth Thurston, Mrs. Lillian Dow, Mrs. Chas. Morgan, Mrs. William Cross, Mrs. William Sparrow, William Sparrow, J. D. London and Harold Wood. Another baptismal service is being planned for Easter Sunday.

On Friday evening there will be a concert given by the young people of the Baptist Church of St. Johnsbury. Refreshments will be served at the close.

Next Sunday morning the Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service at which time the new members will be given the right hand of fellowship into the church.

PEACHAM

(Intended for last week.)

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. of Stevens Post held their monthly meeting Saturday, Feb. 14th, at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Comer Moore of East Peacham. Notwithstanding the inclement weather 21 people of the two orders took dinner. It being St. Valentine Day the house, also the table was decorated with hearts, both great and small, and the table fairly groaned under the weight of good things to eat. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, March 14th, with Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Mackay.

The 25 cent piece was made famous by the American Liver Tablets, the perfect laxative.

SECURITY AND PROSPERITY

at which every banking institution aims, are well illustrated by the record of The Citizens Savings Bank and Trust Company

DEPOSITS

January 1, 1892,	$ 736,194.29
" 1, 1895,	1,039,792.59
" 1, 1900,	1,375,601.18
" 1, 1905,	1,833,414.46
" 1, 1910,	2,542,615.66
" 1, 1912,	2,893,904.46
January 1, 1914,	$3,449,676.32

Capital, Surplus and Profits amount to $343,000.00.

4% Interest Paid on Savings Deposits.

Citizens Savings Bank & Trust Co.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VERMONT.

The Last Days OF Our Final Clearance Sale!

Womens' Misses' and Childrens' Coats

We shall make it worth your while to come out even if it is zero weather.

Don't Let Such Opportunities As These Slip, By And Afterwards Be Sorry.

Womens' black kersey and broadcloth coats, satin lined, formerly $12.50, $13.50, $15, $16.50. Now $7.50 each

Children's coats (sizes 2 to 14 yrs.) of all kinds of material, plush, velour, plain and cloths, grouped in four lots 95c, $1.95, $2.95, $3.95

Womens' $25, $22.50, $20, and $17.50 coats of Boucle, zibeline, chinchilla and novelty cloths Last call $9.95

25 womens tailored suits at Just Half Price. Take advantage, if you have any use for a suit, for these should be quickly absorbed at such a Tremendous reduction as this

1 lot odd coats, mackinaws, sport coats, and mixtures as well as plain cloths. Some wonderful values. Choice of the lot $5

Furs, all our fur coats, fur lined coats and furs of every description at Positive Bargain Prices

Leach & Waterman

St. Johnsbury, Vermont

French Dry Cleaners Fancy Dyers

Now is the Time to Have Your Dyeing Done

We guarantee our colors to be fast. Why? Because we use only the most expensive imported German dyes. In this, with our knowledge of the art we hope to please you.

Furs Of All Kinds

dry cleansed and restored to their original beauty

Our Glove Work is the talk of the town, try it.

All questions regarding our work cheerfully answered

Agents Wanted Everywhere

PALMER BROS. CO.,

St. Johnsbury :: :: Vermont

78 EASTERN AVE.

PHONE 550