

LOCAL GATHERINGS

The following letters are advertised for week ending July 11: Ladies, Miss Mary Hedge, Mrs. John Pariseau; gentlemen, Bailey, Ray C. Fisher, C. Edward (2), Means, J. W. ...

County Doctors Meet.

The annual meeting of the Caledonia County Medical Association was held Tuesday afternoon at Dr. Aldrich's cottage at Joe's Pond. About twenty members were present, three new members being admitted.

Ancient Armor.

In 1518 a battle was fought near Milan, in Italy, and so perfect was the armor of both armies that, although the conflict raged from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., no one on either side was either killed or wounded.

Disenchanted.

"Do you believe in the supernatural?" "I used to, but I don't any more." "Why?" "I married him."—Exchange.

English Walnuts.

The so called English walnut is almost exclusively the product of France, whence this country imports from 15,000,000 to 25,000,000 pounds annually.

Buoyancy of Fresh and Salt Water.

A Chinese lad dropped his ball in a narrow hole and could not get it out. So he poured water in the hole, thinking that he would float the ball to the surface.

Line of Duty.

Uncle Luke had been over into Calhoun county to see the son of his old master, now grown to ripe age and judicial office.

Hardly Possible.

"Landlord, what is this inscription on your windowpane?" "Some say it was scratched with a diamond by the poet Cowper, but others say the authenticity is doubtful."

It Had a Charm.

"I do miss Mrs. Jones. She told me all the news of the parish." "Oh, that was only gossip—no truth in it!" "Well, there, I liked to 'ear it. Truth or lies, 'twas all news to me."—London Punch.

Britain's Civil Service.

Life in a civil service office is a very drab affair today. But sixty years ago it appears to have had its compensations. Sir Algernon West, who entered the admiralty in 1851, recalls, in his "Reminiscences," the figure of an official "always dressed in a black and snuffy suit."

Artistic Temperament.

The Prima's Husband—I see a Stock Exchange seat has sold for $50,000. The Prima—My, how I'd like to sing in that house!—New York Post.

Odd Temperament.

Physician—For your ailment absolute rest is a sine qua non. Patient—But, doctor, my system won't take any quinine.—Buffalo Express.

It is in men as in soils where sometimes there is a vein of gold which the owner knows not of.—Swift.

An Unfortunate Phrase.

"Franz der kaiser." Napoleon's father-in-law, who was a rather weak and silly ruler, had nevertheless a thoroughgoing belief in absolutism and in the divine right to rule of even the most incompetent of the Hapsburgs.

According to the author of a recent life of Archduchess Maria Louisa of Austria entitled "An Imperial Victim," the emperor once raged against his doctor for remarking that he had "a good constitution."

Switzerland's Navy.

Long before Germany was to be reckoned with as a sea power Switzerland possessed a fleet equipped for warfare. Eight hundred years ago on all the larger Swiss lakes armed galleys were maintained by the rival cantons.

Character Told by the Hair.

Men with fine dark brown hair make the best husbands. They are alert, thoughtful and unselfish. The man whose hair turns gray early in life is almost invariably a good fellow.

VERMONT NEWS.

Marvin Backus, the 14-year-old son of Orrick Backus of Burkes Hills, was accidentally shot in the right forearm Monday and his arm was so badly shattered that it had to be amputated at the elbow.

J. H. Blessing of Syracuse, N. Y., was arraigned in municipal court at Bennington Monday evening and held in $5,000 bonds for the death of Jane Danforth, five years old, daughter of Charles Danforth of East Rupert.

Mrs. Harold P. Perkins was attacked Thursday night on the porch of her home at Bethel by an unknown assailant, being struck with a sharp blow on the forehead. It was about 11:00 o'clock and she was lying awake on the couch on the front piazza, with the light off, when, with no sound or warning, she was surprised to see by the dim light a man step over a gate used to keep little Barbara Perkins from falling down the steps.
