

Concord.

One Business Change—Many Guests From Far and Near. Mrs. Harry Lillierap has sold her millinery business to Miss Edith McGinnis and sister, Mrs. Allen Hodgden. Possession given August 10. Mr. and Mrs. Allison Currier, Misses Alice and Hazel Currier and Harry Currier went to Newbury Sunday and Monday evening attended the wedding of Edson W. Currier of Newbury to Miss Marion L. Russ at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russ, White River Junction. Mr. and Mrs. Currier will reside in Newbury where Mr. Currier is in the meat business. Mrs. William Williams and daughter, who have been quite ill, are gaining. Mrs. Pamela Aldrich of Lowell, Mass., Mrs. Annie Rook and Miss Dorothy Bissett from Lowell, Mass., are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Whipple. A party consisting of Miss Mary Gillilan of Barnet, Miss Eva Batchelder of Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. Harry Lillierap, Mrs. Francis Chapman and Miss Ellen Hutchinson are spending the week at To-kum-to Cottage, Joe's Pond. Ida Richardson has a new piano. George Parris and daughter, Arline, of Lebanon, N. H., have been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Morton. Mrs. Guy C. Howard and children, Mason, Marion and Grafton went Saturday to East Ryegate to visit Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. C. M. Wallace, en route to her home in Barre. Ruth Hastings of St. Johnsbury visited in town the first of the week. Moody Evans of St. Johnsbury was at Robert Mann's the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. James Virtue and son Harold and daughter Edith left Saturday for an auto trip to Maine to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan have been entertaining Mrs. Luva Ladd and daughter Lellie from St. Johnsbury. Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Lillierap are entertained during the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Harvey and son Paul of Manchester, N. H., Mr.

and Mrs. Will Clement and daughter Madeleine of Danville and Mrs. Miranda Shackford of St. Johnsbury. Mrs. C. F. Thomas and Miss Inez Thomas of St. Johnsbury and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cutting have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cutting the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Cutting returned to their home in Lowell, Mass., Saturday. Mrs. Alec Kerr has returned from St. Johnsbury where she has been with her daughter, Mrs. John McLean, since leaving the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Gilson of East Burke visited at O. F. Harvey's Sunday. Miss Gwendola, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home with them. Mrs. Margaret Higgins, Mrs. Eva Higgins and daughter, Mrs. of Sanford, Me., Miss Edith McGinnis and Henry McGinnis of St. Johnsbury have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hodgden. Albert Barnett of Kirby has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Hannah Whitney. Mrs. C. M. Bonnett has been spending several days with Mrs. Fanny Cutting. Mrs. George Drew, Miss Florence Drew and Kenneth Morrill of St. Johnsbury were at David Morton's Friday. Mrs. Wallace Richards and daughter, Louise, from East St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Earl Lewis one day last week. Alfred Raymond and family returned to their home in New York Saturday. Kenneth Cross and family of St. Johnsbury are visiting at D. B. Cross'. Mr. and Mrs. Aldis Ladd of St. Johnsbury were in town Sunday. George H. Barker and J. E. Dunnett of Boston are at the Shadow Lake House. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Devino and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers of East Ryegate, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Willis. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Millimore and sons, George and Claude, Mrs. M. Tatro, Miss Eugenia Scott and McKay Ford took an automobile trip to Bethlehem and the twin trip to Bethlehem and the Twin mountain Sunday. Miss Ruth Houghton of Lyndon visited her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hodge, at the Shadow Lake House last week. Mrs. S. P. Streeter and daughter, Mildred of Oakdale, Mass., are at F. J. Bedell's. Mrs. F. E. McDonald of E. Burke visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cutting part of last week. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Cutting were guests of Mrs. Fanny Cutting Wednesday. Mrs. Ida Thomas of Miles Pond visited friends in town Tuesday and Wednesday. J. W. Atwood of Randolph, assistant inspector of weights and measures, was in town the last of the week. C. H. Bagley of St. Johnsbury was a business visitor in town Thursday. Marion Parker of West Burke has been visiting friends in this vicinity. Norman McLean of St. Johnsbury was in town Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Richards and children, Lou and Charles, are enjoying an auto trip to Lowell and Boston. Mrs. Minnie Webber, Miss Edith Webber of Alton Bay, N. H., and Mrs. Grace Webber and children, Marjory and Herbert and Miss Helen Webber, from Laconia, N. H., and Mrs. Mary Dana of St. Johnsbury have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hutchinson. Mrs. Brock Ingalls of St. Johnsbury was a guest at the home of Steven Haviland Wednesday. Mrs. Minnie Adams has returned from a visit with St. Johnsbury friends. Mrs. E. D. Lee and children, who have spent the past month at Pioneer Cottage, Shadow Lake, have returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith returned Saturday to their home in Watertown, Mass. Mrs. Fred Rogers of East Concord was a guest of Mrs. Nelson Burt the last of the week. Carl Frederick Richardson of Littleton, N. H., and Ralph Reed are visiting at Mrs. Luette Lewis'. Miss Leola I. Forsyth, from St. Johnsbury is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Cora Bailey. Mrs. Ina Danforth returned to her home in Newbury, Friday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Allison Currier. There will be a teachers' examination Thursday and Friday, August 13 and 14.

GROTON Death Removes an Old Citizen—Family Reunions and Other Social Events. Cornelius Farrington, an old and respected citizen of this place passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Ashford early Saturday morning. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon. The annual Welch reunion will be held at the Hooper farm Thursday. Earl Carpenter of Manchester, N. H., is visiting his father, S. C. Carpenter. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Blanchard have been visiting relatives at Gaysville the past week. Rev. Mr. Lomax will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. Nathan Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morrison and Mrs. E. S. Gordon and daughter, Kathryn of Meredith, N. H., came Saturday for a short visit with Charles Morrison. The family of S. C. Carpenter are camping at Groton Pond. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Vance and children of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Burt McGowan of Worcester, Mass., are visiting in the home of L. S. Blanchard. Charles Morrison went to the hospital at Burlington Monday for treatment. He was accompanied by Dr. I. N. Eastman. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carpenter of Boston are visiting relatives in town. The home of C. A. Ricker was the scene of a happy gathering Sunday with children and grand children to the number of 23 were present. Miss Bertha Paige, who has been working in Topsham for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. Miss Neva Ricker of Boston was a visitor in town last week. Rev. F. W. Lewis and family have returned from Lake Rokea where they have spent several weeks. Milton Farrow of Peacham spent several days in town last week. Mrs. J. J. Markham has returned from a several weeks' visit at White River Junction and Ryegate. L. S. Blanchard is having a new hardwood floor laid in his store. A. N. James and O. C. Frost are doing the work. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ricker and children are visiting relatives at Hillsboro, N. H.

LYNDON CENTER George Gunning, one of the agricultural students, has left for Montreal, en route to his home in England to take part in the war. He is a corporal in the militia. Considerable anxiety is felt in regard to the situation of the Lyndonville people who are abroad this summer. Mrs. Theodore N. Vail, who was in Italy, was fortunately able to find immediate passage home. Miss Lois Redmond who is at Tours, France, and Miss Marion Dane, who is with her brother in Germany, it is feared may be subjected to unpleasant circumstances as they are so near the seat of war. Mrs. G. M. Campbell and grand daughter, Alberta, have returned from Willoughby Lake where they have been spending a few days in their cottage. The funeral services of the Rev. W. H. Lyster were held in the Baptist church last Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mabel Johnson, the Rev. J. M. Burgin of Charleston and the Rev. E. E. Phillips of St. Johnsbury. Mr. Lyster died Sunday after a long illness from cerebral sclerosis. He was born in Durham, P. Q., Sept. 22, 1853, educated in Canada, and became a minister in the Free Baptist church. He has preached in Campbell and Danville, P. Q., Hague, N. Y., and Huntington and Lincoln, Vt. About twenty years ago he bought his home in Lyndon Center and retired from active work, although he supplied many pulpits at different times. He married Cynthia Carter of Frelingsburg, Que., 53 years ago. She survives him with three sons, Haddon of this place, Morton and Benton of Wheel, N. H., four grand children and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Pierce, of Melbourne, P. Q. Mr. Lyster was a successful and able minister of noble character, loved and respected by all. The Rev. Mabel Johnson, who has been the very successful pastor of the Free Baptist church at Lyndon Center, past, has sent in her resignation to take effect this month. Mrs. Austin Bean is stopping with her son, Will Bean, before going to her new home with her daughter in Providence, R. I. Last week she visited in Concord. Mrs. George Hubbard and daughter are spending two weeks at York Beach, Me. Mrs. Gladys Barrett Smith and sister, Miss Jennie Barrett are spending some time in Boston. Miss Emma Randlett of Richmond, P. Q., is with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Lyster. Miss Angie Willey and her mother are visiting relatives at Island Pond. Mrs. Lizzie Moody of Medford, Mass., and Mrs. Ida Flanders of Roxbury, Mass., have been recent guests of Mrs. W. N. Hubbard. Theodore Harris and two children were in Boston last week. Mrs. L. A. Ferguson is visiting in McIndoes and St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Lydia Forbes is serving as cook at the Sanborn House during the absence of Mary Nye on a vacation. Mrs. George Ferguson of Toronto, Ohio, was recent guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson. Mrs. Fannie Giffin visited her daughter, Mrs. Charles Locke, last week. The annual session of the Grand lodge Knights of Pythias, Domain of Vermont will be held in Montpelier August 17 and 18 in connection with the annual camp of the uniform rank. Northfield is experiencing an ice war, due to a disagreement between local dealers, and the consumers are suffering some inconvenience. Sam. B. Whitney, well known organist and composer died at Woodstock August 3. Mr. Whitney was born in Woodstock in 1842, and received his musical education in New York under Charles Wells.

RYEGATE Mountain Climbers Entertained at Home of W. D. White—Locals. On Wednesday evening, August 5, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. White entertained the mountain climbers who annually have climbed some of the Vermont and New Hampshire mountains, in honor of their guests, Prof. Scarlett of Newark, N. J., and John Riche, of Boston. Both are prominent members of the Appalachian Mountain club. Mr. Riche is chief of the news service of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and connected with the Boston Transcript. He is also an experienced mountain climber, having ascended the White mountains, Rockies and the Alps. He gave valuable suggestions at the initial meeting called to formulate plans for the Blue mountain section of the Green Mountain club. He was agreeably impressed with the view from Blue mountain, and its possibilities because of its geographical location, also the work that has already been done. The trail up the mountain is almost completed, the work of Prof. Scarlett and W. D. White. The outlook for a strong branch of the Green Mountain club is excellent. Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson and little son, Edward, of Brattleboro are visiting friends at Ryegate. Edwin McKrahan and Arthur Symes were appointed delegates to the Y. P. C. U. convention at Barnet Center August 18-20. The campfire girls of St. Johnsbury are occupying the Miller cottages at Ticklenaked Pond. Miss Dorothy Fairbanks and Miss Catherine Eaton have charge of the camp. A joint picnic of the two Sunday schools, Ryegate Corner and East Ryegate, will be held at Ticklenaked Pond Wednesday. Robert M. White has gone to St. Johnsbury for a few weeks. The Ladies' Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Nelson Thursday at three o'clock. PASSUMPSIC Mr. William Spinney and Mrs. Cleon Brownell of New York have come to John Foster's to spend their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Addison Preston and son of California who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wright of St. Johnsbury spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wright. Nelson Counter and Miss Ester Counter of East Burke are visiting their aunt, Mrs. M. K. Bruce. Mrs. Hannah Thurston visited in Monroe, N. H., last week. Mr. Kirkpatrick and family have moved from the Albert Barker tenement. Mr. Robert Thayer came Sunday to visit relatives. He will return to his home Wednesday. Mrs. Thayer, who has been here for the summer, will accompany him. Orville Pinney went Sunday to Center Harbor, N. H., and will return the first of the week. Mrs. S. P. Pinney, Mrs. O. N. Pinney and daughter, Ruth, will accompany him home. Mrs. Matilda De Rose was taken last week Thursday to the hospital and soon after she was taken there suffered a shock. She is doing as well as can be expected. A meeting was called Sunday after the morning service to take a vote on the resignation of Rev. L. W. Sanford. It was voted to accept the resignation. Prof. Frank Pierce of Chicago presided at the organ at both services Sunday. Ernest Skinner sang a very pleasing manner Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Plyn Douse and family are visiting in Peacham. Mr. Marshall Patterson of St. Johnsbury Center and Miss O'Brien of Albany, N. Y., visited at Mrs. Margaret Sawyer's Sunday. Mrs. Martha Goss of Manchester, N. H., is visiting at Charles Fulford's. John Gillander and his two daughters, Margaret and Alice, spent Sunday in Barre with his brother, Joseph Gillander. Mr. and Mrs. Merton Kerr of Natick, Mass., are visiting at George Bennett's and George Kerr's. Harold C. Wells of West Danville is visiting his grand mother, Mrs. Emma Wells. Miss Fanny Parkhurst spent Sunday at Mrs. Lilla Dora's. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wood and family visited recently Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Friend and family are moving into Mrs. Julia Barker's tenement. Mrs. Henry Hubbert and two daughters of Tilton, N. H., and Mrs. August Castagnuy of St. Johnsbury visited last week at Mrs. Nelson Rasha's and Mrs. Charles Bundy's. LOWER WATERFORD Mrs. Emily Lewis and Miss Helen Goss returned home last week from Cabot. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Morrison and two daughters visited friends in Littleton, N. H., Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Marice Colby and two daughters have gone to Plainfield, N. H., to visit her mother and sisters. Mrs. Alden Lowe of Leominster, Mass., is visiting her brother, Arthur Clay. There will be an all day service at the church Sunday, August 16. Rev. E. E. Grant will have charge of the morning service and at 2:00 o'clock Rev. P. D. Moody of St. Johnsbury will speak. There will be special music. Those who come are requested to bring a luncheon and hot coffee will be served in the vestry. Miss Emile Goss gave a very interesting entertainment in the vestry Wednesday evening to a good audience and was much enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. George Stoddard and son, Fred, of Peacham, were in town one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown and Mrs. Ensminger and daughter Carrie spent Friday with friends in St. Johnsbury. Mr. and Mrs. David A. Forbes of Inverness, P. Q., visited relatives in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Ross and two daughters of South Bend, Ind., and father, Charles Ross, and Paul Sherry of St. Johnsbury, were in town Sunday. Miss Nila Orent of St. Johnsbury is the guest of her uncle, Ernest Powers. Mrs. H. B. Decator of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wheeler. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ash and daughter of Lisbon visited at S. W. Bonnett's one day last week. EAST BURKE Storm Kills Cows and Washes Roads—Many Summer Visitors. George Watkins returned Saturday from his uncle's, James McGill's, where he has been for the past four weeks. Mrs. Hubbard is painting and papering and making a few other necessary repairs on her house occupied by William Carr. Ernest Mathers was home from Canada a part of last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Mathers. Miss Mildred Vance visited her aunt, Mrs. Walter Silsby in Rumney, N. H., the past week. Miss Gwendola Gilson and grand mother, Mrs. Daniel Gilson, are visiting friends and relatives in Concord. Ester and Nelson Counter are visiting relatives and friends in Barnet, McIndoes and Passumpsic for a week. Mrs. Frank McDonald went to Concord Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cutting. Ed Duval and friend from Massachusetts spent Friday at his uncle's, J. C. Lucia's. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harvey visited their son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Roland Harvey, in Hardwick Friday. Homer Corliss from Lyndonville is visiting at Charles Ball's. Mrs. Edwin Pierce from St. Johnsbury spent a part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Mathers. Harris Smith has finished work for L. T. Frasier. Mr. and Mrs. John Murkland from Barton were callers at B. F. Humphrey's Thursday. Ed Counter from Sherbrooke, P. Q., is visiting his brothers, Walter and Frank Counter. Rev. and Mrs. Keeling have returned from their vacation.

WEST DANVILLE The Marriage Reception to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roy the Event of the Week. A reception was given at Maplewood Hall August 7 by Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Blake in honor of their daughter, Gladys, and her husband, Henry Roy, who were recently married. The hall was beautifully trimmed with evergreen, ferns and flowers. Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roy and Mrs. Carrie Roy received the guests. The girls who introduced the guests were Inez Abbott, Marcia Atstin and Anna Brickett. After the reception delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake and wafers were served by the Misses Emily Armstrong, Mary Ayer, Goldie Swasey, Fannie Waldo and Pearl Odekerk. Music was furnished by Laughlin's orchestra. A violin solo by Marcia Austin, a piano solo by Maidene Walbridge, a cello solo by Ray Laughlin were also enjoyed. The guest book was in charge of Miss Hattie Goss. The young people will make their home at Barnet for the present. Many good wishes of the people go with them. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brickett and daughter, Isabella, and little son, Arthur, of Brookline, Mass., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brickett. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goss and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Conly took an auto trip to Barre Saturday. Mrs. Arthur Webster and Miss Lillian Webster spent Friday with Mrs. Clayton Farrington. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Farrington and children and Mrs. Edith Adams and daughter, Evelyn, took an auto trip to Johnson Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conley and little son of St. Johnsbury are spending the week with his brother, Jack Conley. Henry Cook of El Paso, Texas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cook. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane of Cabot and Mrs. George Cook and Henry Cook took an auto trip to Montpelier Thursday. Two years ago Miss Goldie Swasey counted 81 automobiles that passed their house in one day. Last Sunday she counted 240.

WHEN EXCELLENCE COUNTS

You want to dine HERE for at this up-to-date RESTAURANT everything from the VIANDS to the SERVICE is of top-notch excellence. Here you will always find the SEASON'S CHOICEST FOODS properly prepared by an experienced, expert chef and served faultlessly by quiet, courteous waiters. Popular Prices Phone 50 KING'S

CAMP LIFE AND COMFORT Cottages for exclusive use and meals in open hall. Automobile parties served. Banquets and dances by appointment. Fine open Dancing Pavilion. Cool drinks and confectionery All found at

Point Comfort West Danville, on Cabot shore of Joe's Pond. Boats and fishing tackle to let. When you feel too hot to get supper come here and enjoy the cool bracing air. L. D. BERRY Proprietor

"ST. JOHNSBURY TO THE FRONT." Why do we have dry cleaning sent us from practically every town in Northern Vermont and New Hampshire? Because we are equipped to do High Grade Dry Cleaning. Our work speaks for itself. Palmer Bros. Co. FRENCH DRY CLEANSERS 78 Eastern Ave. St. Johnsbury, Vt.

CITROLAX! CITROLAX! CITROLAX! It's a laxative, of course—name tells you that. And the nicest, too. Flashes thoroughly, and pleasantly, too. P. C. Crystalax, Syracuse, N. Y., says—"Have used laxatives for 15 years but this Citrolax has got everything else beat a mile. You will agree with him. Specially nice for children and delicate persons. Sweetens a sour bilious stomach very quickly and stops headache." C. C. Bingham, adv.

WHEN EXCELLENCE COUNTS

CAMP LIFE AND COMFORT

Point Comfort

"ST. JOHNSBURY TO THE FRONT."

CITROLAX! CITROLAX! CITROLAX!

CAMP LIFE AND COMFORT

Point Comfort

Point Comfort

"ST. JOHNSBURY TO THE FRONT."

The New SIX 5-Passenger $1385 7-Passenger, $1450 New FOUR Touring Car $985 New FOUR Roadster $985 Can be seen the last of the week at C. H. Goss Garage, St. Johnsbury, or Studebaker Garage, Barre