60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. William Roy of West Barret Celebrate the Day With Their Descendants Around Them

Mr. and Mrs. William Roy of West Barret had the unusual distinction of observing their 60th wedding anniversary on Monday. On that day they entertained a company of 14 at dinner at their hospitable home.

The company included their son, William J. of Monroe and their two daughters, Mrs. Elmer S. Bailey, who lives with her father and mother, and Mrs. A. D. Warden, their husbands and wife, and three of their four grandchildren. Other guests were Mrs. Roy's sister and her niece, Mrs. Albert Carter of Tilton, N. H. Both Mr. and Mrs. Roy are West Barret people. Mr. Roy was born 36 years ago on the same farm that is now his home. Mrs. Roy, who was 11 in December, was born about a mile and a half from here. They were married at the bride's home and have lived here since. Mr. Roy went to the California gold fields in 1851 and was away two years but aside from that has always lived here. Mr. Roy is in perfect health for a man of his years and is able to care for Mrs. Roy, who is not strong. They are attendants of the Presbyterian Church at West Barret and have a host of friends all through the town to wish them more wedding anniversaries.

FIREMEN AT BANQUET

Met and Entertained Their Friends Around the Festive Board Saturday Evening. The second annual banquet of the firemen of St. Johnsbury was held at Sherburne's restaurant Saturday evening when about 80 firemen and their guests sat down to an appetizing dinner and for nearly an hour gave themselves over to supply the inner man.

Birney L. Hall, then presented Olin D. Adams, an ex-fireman, as master of ceremonies. Mr. Adams called on Town Representative Fred Gilman, Trustees Fred C. Mayo and A. L. Douglass, Carl Smith, who recited a Habitant poem. Chief E. A. Blodgett, O. H. Henderson, W. J. Bigelow, Birney L. Hall, John E. Tinker, Thomas C. Wallace, August Beck, Ernest Cross, E. W. Twombly from the Center, Charles B. Carr, S. A. Moore, F. E. Pierce, Joseph Walker, Harry J. Marden, W. A. Astle, Ed. Spencer, W. A. Dow, Hastings White, Robert Campbell, George Shaw, Mr. Temple from Montreal and George Benoit.

Most of the responses were short but several stories were told that added much to the hilarity of the occasion. Among the suggestions was one by Charles Carr that the pay of the volunteer firemen be increased from $35 to $50 a year. The party broke up shortly before midnight and the success of the meeting created a desire that the banquet be made an annual affair.

The committee having the affair in charge were: Birney L. Hall, Harry J. Marden, Fred E. Pierce, August Beck, Thomas C. Wallace, George Corrier, M. F. Craig, B. W. Livingstone and Harry Gray.
