

LOCAL GATHERINGS

—Sheriff Worthen went to Windsor last week with Bert Bigelow of Peacham to begin the service of a term of imprisonment of one to two years.

—Articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state by the Greensboro Mills Co., which has a capital stock of $30,000 and will deal in grain and electric power. The signers are H. A. Stanley, J. R. Searles and R. W. Simonds.

—Letters advertised for the week ending Jan. 30, are: Ladies—Miss Marion Sullivan, Gentlemen—Harry Griffin, S. L. Meade, Kee N. McDonald, Frank Sabastiny.

—If the ground hog got out yesterday he had to scratch snow out as there was a steady fall all day and the heavy overcast sky shut off all possibility of seeing a shadow. Old winter began the second half in full strength and promise of much activity on the part of those who have been waiting for more snow.

—The Snow Shoe Club will hold their first meeting of the season Thursday evening, starting from the Atheneum at 7:30. After the tramp a social hour and lunch will be enjoyed at Pythian Hall.

—St. Johnsbury has a large delegation of Masons to Lyndonville Thursday evening to attend the district meeting.

—Six of the cornet pupils of Mrs. Homer Carpenter gave a recital at her home on Harrison avenue, Tuesday evening. The parts were all very well rendered and were not only a credit to the various abilities of the pupils but an especial one to Mrs. Carpenter's training. The program was much enjoyed.

—The assignments for Superior Judge Slack for the coming year are: Chittenden, March 9; Orange, June 1; Orleans, Sept. 14; Essex, Oct. 26; Addison, Dec. 7. Judge Miles will preside at the June term of county court here and Judge Stanton at the December term.

—An F. C. A. team defeated the West Darnet team at that place Friday night by the score of 26 to 24.

—With Tufts Independents as the attraction tomorrow night, F. C. A. should draw a full house. This is one of the best college teams on the road. The game scheduled with Goddard Seminary for Friday night has been cancelled so everybody will want to take in the one tomorrow night, Feb. 4.

—Harry B. Daniels was again a lucky receiver of prizes at the third annual show of the Lebanon (N. H.) Poultry Association where he had 48 entries. He brought home 21 firsts, 12 seconds, 11 thirds, 2 fourths, 2 fifths and 4 special prizes including the one for the best exhibit of Wyandottes and the one for the best exhibit for light Brahmans.

WANTS VILLAGE HALL

Resident Suggests New Location For Methodist Church and Village Getting Old Lot.

It is reported, that the Methodist Society are thinking of securing a new location, upon which to build their new church.

I have an idea that I think is worthy of a careful consideration and hope it can be carried out. If they should purchase the property corner of Church and Summer streets, move the house to the east side of the lot, for a parsonage, there would be an abundance of room to build the church on the corner, presumably running same north and south and giving them an exceptionally fine location, none better to town I maintain.

Now the town or village have already voted an appropriation, not to exceed $10,000 for a desirable lot upon which the state agree to erect a suitable armory for the guards. My idea is for the village or town to secure the old church lot on Central street, and in connection with the armory building, to erect a suitable structure that will accommodate all the town and village offices, the fire station, police station, fire alarm equipment, etc. The town and village are now paying some $700.00 a year for rent and it is said that the Passumpsic Bank have lately doubled the rent on the town clerk's and Trustee's offices. This amount would practically be ideal for such a building and there is probably no question but what desirable arrangements could be made with the state for a definite sum towards such an arrangement.

If desired, I think a nice amusement hall on the second story, for the use of the guards as a drill room, for entertainments, dances, etc., would be a very nice idea also. The present fire station is very inadequate and should not stand on a hill. When first starting any automobile on a rising grade, it is liable to go back on you. The present parsonage would be just the place for some member of our paid fire department to reside and to possibly board some of the other members, having the crew right handy to the station at all times.

I think this suggestion should be worked up by the proper authorities. A Large Property Holder in the Village.

LYNDON

(Mrs. E. F. Young, Correspondent)

Lewis Hall passed away at his home in Lyndon, Monday morning, at 2 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. Lewis Hall was born in Canada, July 14, 1825. Dec. 28, 1859, he married Miss Sophia Belmont, who with nine children survives him. His remains were taken to Danville for burial.

RECENT DEATHS.

Brainerd.

Mrs. Martha L. Brainerd, widow of the late George Brainerd, both former residents of St. Johnsbury, died at her home in Montpelier after a long illness, Jan. 13, 1915. Mrs. Brainerd was a daughter of Nathan and Betsey (Dole) Hale and was born in Danville, Feb. 15, 1832. She was a quiet unassuming lady, much beloved by her friends and one whom it was a privilege to know. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Abba M. Smith and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Pearl F. Blodgett, both of Montpelier. The funeral was from the residence on Liberty street with burial in Green Mountain cemetery, Feb. 1st.

Goodwin.

Mrs. Sarah M. Goodwin died early Wednesday morning at her home on Eastern avenue after a short illness with pneumonia. Sarah M. Durfee was born in New Bedford, Mass., April 15, 1869. She was twice married, first to Horace Wakefield and while living with him her home was first in Chelsea, Mass., and for many years in St. Johnsbury. On coming here they built a house on Railroad street and bought a farm in Danville later purchasing other real estate, including the place on Eastern avenue which has been her home for several years. After Mr. Wakefield's death she married F. F. Goodwin, who died in 1911. She and Mr. Wakefield had one daughter, Alice, Mrs. Fred Smith, now deceased, and four grandchildren, Blanche, Mrs. H. A. Ford, whom Mrs. Goodwin brought up as her own daughter, Ralph Smith of Norton, Mass., and Mrs. Fannie M. Wheldon and Miss Marion G. Brown of Mansfield, Mass. She is also survived by a sister and brother, Mrs. F. A. Fowle of Allston, Mass., and George M. Durfee of New Bedford, Mass. Mrs. Goodwin was a member Mystic Star Chapter, No. 29, O. E. S., and Olive Branch Lodge, D. of R. The funeral was on Friday afternoon, Rev. C. L. Eaton officiating and interment was in the Wakefield family lot at Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Hall.

David Hall died Saturday at the State Hospital at Waterbury where he had been a patient for the last 28 years. He was born in Canada, Nov. 3, 1830, but came here as a young man and spent most of his life here. He was twice married, both wives being deceased. He leaves five daughters and two sons, Mrs. Julia Morgan of Passumpsic, Mrs. Edward Nolin of New Haven, Conn., Mrs. Charles Malhot of St. Johnsbury, Miss Fannie Hall of Worcester, Mass., and Miss Azilda Hall of New Haven, George Hall of St. Johnsbury and Fred Hall of Newport. The funeral was on Monday morning from Notre Dame church and the interment at Mount Calvary cemetery.

Paine.

Mrs. Frank Paine died Thursday night at Brightlook hospital following serious operation performed the first of last week. She was 44 years old and while living at the Avenue House for the last two years had made many friends. The remains were taken to Skowhegan, Me., where her daughter Mrs. Tward resides for interment. She leaves beside her husband and daughter a son in Denver.

Ward.

Mrs. Jane Wilmarth Ward died last week Tuesday less than two weeks after the death of her only daughter, Claribel Ward. She had been in poor health for some time as the result of a shock and at the time of her daughter's death, it seemed doubtful if she could live long alone. She was born at Lyndon, Apr. 3, 1835, the daughter of Leonard and Dorothy Hubbard Wilmarth. On March 25, 1855, she married Thomas Ward, who died a good many years ago. She is survived by a half-brother, Harrison Wilmarth of Lyndonville and three step-children. The funeral was from the house Friday afternoon, Rev. F. B. Richards officiating.

Shaw.

A beautiful life came to a close late Saturday afternoon, Jan. 30, when Sarah T. Shaw passed peacefully from this life to the next. For six years a semi-invalid, with several severe illnesses from which she rallied, and for the past six months confined to her room most of the time, she was always patient and uncomplaining, with the words "it is all right" often on her lips. She was a woman who was never idle, always doing some service for her home, and those around her, a devoted wife and mother, and always looking on the bright side.

Sarah T. Magoon was born in North Danville, Vt., Oct. 7, 1835, the daughter of Randall and Harriet Stevens Magoon. One of a family of nine children, she was early deprived of her mother, and thrown largely upon her own resources. On Dec. 3, 1865, she married Francis Blanchard of North Danville, who died in 1869. On Oct. 15, 1873, she married William H. Shaw of St. Johnsbury, who survives her. She is also survived by one daughter, Helen F. Shaw, and two sisters, Mrs. Jane B. Knap of Providence, R. I., and Mrs. Nettie Barker of Passumpsic. In 1877, she united with the South Congregational church, of this place. Funeral services were held at her late home Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. P. D. Moody, and Dr. Edward T. Fairbanks, who read her favorite hymn, "Jesus lover of my soul," and spoke in substance of her unselfish life, her kindness in sickness, her interest in the church, and her devotion to her home.

A profusion of beautiful flowers showed the love and esteem in which she was held.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER
Conference of Grange Lecturers—Committee To Investigate Water System.

(Ella McLaughlin, Correspondent.)

A lecturers' conference was held in Fireman's hall Saturday, Jan. 30. About 15 lecturers of Caledonia county met by call of Mrs. H. C. Hovey, lecturer of Shepherd Pomona Grange. E. H. Hallett, state lecturer, addressed the meeting, speaking of the good work that had been done in the state and also in New England. He then outlined the work for the coming year, speaking of the importance of furnishing programs at each meeting made up of discussion, essays, music and further urged original work from the members. Results have proven when this has been fully done in the subordinate granges there has been an increase of attendance, more members have been received and the community at large is made better. More farmers should become members and will if good substantial agricultural work is done. Following this the lecturers all took part in a general discussion asking and answering questions pertaining to methods of conducting programs. Grange fairs were spoken of at length and some suggested that one be held in the county. Surely if such should be and the Grangers and farmers enter into this work the county fair of today would look small as far as farm exhibits are concerned. Those in attendance were Anna Mitchell of Sheffield, Mrs. Dwight Cheney, Mrs. J. L. Duvall of Sutton, Mrs. P. J. Trefren of Lyndon, Mrs. Vance of East Burke, Mrs. F. B. Hooker and Mrs. H. C. Hovey of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. C. N. Whitney, Mrs. Fred Knowlton, Mrs. E. H. Hallett, C. I. Hall, Mrs. Ella Hall, Mrs. E. M. Massey and Mrs. D. Gallagher of St. Johnsbury Center. All report a profitable meeting and expect better work in the future.

At the firemen's meeting on Saturday evening to see whether the village would put in a water system, a committee was appointed, consisting of E. H. Hallett, D. N. Jenness and Mr. Knowlton.

Miss Ruby Brooks of Lyndon Institute is spending the week-end with friends in Sutton.

for the dance at Green Mountain Hall.

In place of the C. E. Sunday evening service there was a union service at the Congregational church, Rev. Mr. Blodgett having charge.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. C. J. Berry Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dorris Hall has been confined to the house with tonsillitis and Leo Mungeon is also sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Simpson of Fitchburg are moving here into the old home place.

Emerson Campbell who went to Swanton to work has returned home.

The schoolmates of Charlotte McLaughlin met at her home on Monday evening and gave her a surprise party, it being her 11th birthday. She was the receiver of many gifts and a jolly good time was spent. Refreshments were served.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey last Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 27th, when their oldest daughter, Helen M., was united in marriage with Fred H. Gee, by the Rev. C. L. Eaton of St. Johnsbury. On Friday morning Mr. and Mrs. Gee left here enroute for Putney where they will make their future home.
