

LOCAL GATHERINGS

The Outlook club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Roy Taft at her home on Concord avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. F. Lowe tendered a dinner party to a number of guests Tuesday evening, in honor of her niece, Miss Hazel Cook of Boston, Mass., who is visiting at her home on Summer street.

A number of the young friends of Miss Vera Barrett were her guests at a corn roast held Wednesday evening, on the river bank back of her home at 84 Portland street.

A party from Michigan, calling themselves the Withington Zouaves, passed through St. Johnsbury Tuesday evening en route for Bretton Woods, N. H.

The Boston newspapers announced Friday the engagement of Charles LeRoy Harpham and Miss Sherlie Beatrice Wheeler of Boston and Jaffrey, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Moody and family went to Canada Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Chester Edwards, returning the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald of Westboro, Mass., visited at Moses Roy's last week. They visited at Joseph Hastie's Tuesday and called on other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Judkins returned from Lakeport Sunday, called home by the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Judkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thornton and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mackay were called to St. Johnsbury early Monday morning by the death of their brother, Dr. Mackay.

Last Monday evening about 75 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roy to give them a farewell party, as they intend to move to Boltonville in the near future.

This was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Roy. The evening was pleasantly spent in promenading and playing games in the barn.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake and cookies were served. Mrs. Agnes Blair and Mrs. Margaret Hale were at Mrs. Mary Mackay's at Peabach Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hattie Woods came Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Blain, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lackie visited at Thomas Norton's Monday afternoon.

Miss Thressa Blain visited at Joseph Hastie's and Rev. Mr. Laird's Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rollins, Mabel Darling, Ruth Bugbee and Leonard Darling were callers at J. W. Blain's Wednesday, and closed Darwin's camp for the season.

Leslie Lackie, Charles Mahoney, Nelson Blain and Walter Gillilan were in Danville Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott and children, who have been spending the summer with her aunts, Misses Sarah and Josie Brock, returned to their home in Lowell the first of the week.

Misses Elsie, Hester and Lura McLaren were in St. Johnsbury Wednesday and Mrs. James Blain, Thressa Blain and Francis Hastie Thursday. Friday evening a church social was held in the village hall. Rev. Mr. Laird gave an illustrated lecture on India. About $5.00 were taken in. The lecture was greatly enjoyed by the small number that was there.

Miss Thressa Blain left the first of the week for her school in Waterford, six miles beyond St. Johnsbury. West Barnet school began Monday with Miss Lura McLaren, No. 1 with Miss Elsie McLaren, Barnet Center with Anna Brackett of Danville, Four Corners with Nora Darling.

MONROE. (Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.) Rev. D. E. Burns attended the ministers' retreat at The Weirs last week. Mrs. Edna Bonette of Piermont has been spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. Lurancy Rice.

Miss Julia Fisher spent the week-end with Miss Marion Quimby at East Barnet. Miss Ethel Ramsey of Barnet Center visited at Mrs. Clara Shepherd's Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Cora Blamford of Medford, Mass., was the guest of Mrs. D. E. Burns several days last week.

Edward Champany was at home from Bethlehem a few days recently. Miss Alberta Nelson of St. Johnsbury spent Saturday at her home here. There was a dance and promenade at Grange hall last Friday night. Misses Quimby and King furnished music.

Several of the young people enjoyed a corn roast at the home of Miss Mildred Blanchard Saturday evening. Miss Hazel Kay of Barnet spent Thursday with Mrs. G. L. Frazer. Mr. and Mrs. George Bort and Mrs. Ella Amy with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goodrich of McIndoee enjoyed an auto trip Sunday.

Miss Emma Dewey of Boston spent Sunday at Horace Duncan's. Mrs. Ella Amy of Lisbon visited at George Bort's over Sunday. Mrs. George Bort and Laura spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

WEST BARNET.

Death of Mary Judkins—Notes of Personal Interest. (Thressa Blain, Correspondent.)

Last Thursday morning the community was saddened by the death of Mary Judkins, an old and beloved acquaintance. Mrs. Judkins was visiting her son, Don Judkins, at Barnet village. She had her things on ready to come home Saturday night when she suffered a shock, and in a short time was unconscious, and passed to that other shore Thursday morning.

Mrs. Judkins was a great worker in all activities as long as she was able, always making it pleasant for her many friends. We shall miss the kindly face, the happy smile and welcome hand-wave of Mrs. Judkins, as she always sat by the bay window facing the road. Mary Judkins was born in East Barnet, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lindsay. She was one of seven children of whom only two are living, Evaline Hoyt of Delmorte, Colo., and Orville Lindsay of California. September 21, 1870, Mary Lindsay married Loren Judkins. Two sons were born to them, Fenton and Donald. Mr. Judkins died April 17, 1900. Since that time Mrs. Judkins has always made her home with her two sons, who will sadly miss her. The funeral was held at the Barnet Center church Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Burns of Monroe preached the sermon, assisted by Rev. Mr. Brownlee. The bearers were Milo and Fred McLaren, William Higgins and James Allen. There were many beautiful flowers. Those from out of town to attend the funeral were a niece, Mrs. Frank Marshall, of Lowell, Mass., cousins, Miss Emma Lindsay of Greensboro, Murray Lindsay of Lakeport, Milo Judkins of Lakeport, Sereno Morse, Arthur Morse and wife of Danville, Mrs. Nelson Judkins and daughter of Manchester, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tilford of Passumpsic and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsay and Guy of East Barnet, Mr. and Mrs. Milan Farrow of South Peabach.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Moody and family went to Canada Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Chester Edwards, returning the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald of Westboro, Mass., visited at Moses Roy's last week. They visited at Joseph Hastie's Tuesday and called on other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Judkins returned from Lakeport Sunday, called home by the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Judkins. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thornton and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mackay were called to St. Johnsbury early Monday morning by the death of their brother, Dr. Mackay.

Last Monday evening about 75 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roy to give them a farewell party, as they intend to move to Boltonville in the near future. This was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Roy. The evening was pleasantly spent in promenading and playing games in the barn. Refreshments of ice cream and cake and cookies were served.

Mrs. Agnes Blair and Mrs. Margaret Hale were at Mrs. Mary Mackay's at Peabach Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hattie Woods came Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Blain, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lackie visited at Thomas Norton's Monday afternoon.

Miss Thressa Blain visited at Joseph Hastie's and Rev. Mr. Laird's Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rollins, Mabel Darling, Ruth Bugbee and Leonard Darling were callers at J. W. Blain's Wednesday, and closed Darwin's camp for the season.

Leslie Lackie, Charles Mahoney, Nelson Blain and Walter Gillilan were in Danville Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott and children, who have been spending the summer with her aunts, Misses Sarah and Josie Brock, returned to their home in Lowell the first of the week.

Misses Elsie, Hester and Lura McLaren were in St. Johnsbury Wednesday and Mrs. James Blain, Thressa Blain and Francis Hastie Thursday. Friday evening a church social was held in the village hall. Rev. Mr. Laird gave an illustrated lecture on India. About $5.00 were taken in. The lecture was greatly enjoyed by the small number that was there.

Miss Thressa Blain left the first of the week for her school in Waterford, six miles beyond St. Johnsbury. West Barnet school began Monday with Miss Lura McLaren, No. 1 with Miss Elsie McLaren, Barnet Center with Anna Brackett of Danville, Four Corners with Nora Darling.

MONROE. (Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.) Rev. D. E. Burns attended the ministers' retreat at The Weirs last week. Mrs. Edna Bonette of Piermont has been spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. Lurancy Rice.

Miss Julia Fisher spent the week-end with Miss Marion Quimby at East Barnet. Miss Ethel Ramsey of Barnet Center visited at Mrs. Clara Shepherd's Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Cora Blamford of Medford, Mass., was the guest of Mrs. D. E. Burns several days last week.

Edward Champany was at home from Bethlehem a few days recently. Miss Alberta Nelson of St. Johnsbury spent Saturday at her home here. There was a dance and promenade at Grange hall last Friday night. Misses Quimby and King furnished music.

Several of the young people enjoyed a corn roast at the home of Miss Mildred Blanchard Saturday evening. Miss Hazel Kay of Barnet spent Thursday with Mrs. G. L. Frazer. Mr. and Mrs. George Bort and Mrs. Ella Amy with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goodrich of McIndoee enjoyed an auto trip Sunday.

Miss Emma Dewey of Boston spent Sunday at Horace Duncan's. Mrs. Ella Amy of Lisbon visited at George Bort's over Sunday. Mrs. George Bort and Laura spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

NORTH DANVILLE. (Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.) Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Goodwin last week were Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Washburn of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Switzer and son, Walter, and granddaughter, Hilda Foote, of Fairlee.

Mrs. Henry Foote of Ipswich, Mass., visited at H. M. Goodwin's a few days last week. Walter Stanton, Fred Clifford, Mrs. Charles Clifford, Miss Florence and Howard visited at Guy Clifford's in Walden Sunday. They went in Mr. Stanton's auto.

Mrs. Eva Langmaid visited Mrs. Louisa Clifford Sunday.

RYEGATE. (Mrs. C. A. McKirahan, Cor.) Mrs. Royden Cheney went to St. Johnsbury Thursday to see her sister, who was sick at the hospital, Miss Olive McLam. Miss McLam is much better and is expected home the first of the week.

Dorothy Nelson visited the dentist at Newbury the last of the week. Miss Alice Gibson of Littleton is visiting at the home of Mrs. Gilmore Morrison in North Ryegate. Rev. I. H. Simpson preached at South Ryegate on Sunday for Rev. John Lytle, who is attending the Synod of New York at Johnstown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gebbie of Rochester, N. Y., came last week for a visit with his father, George Gebbie, and family. Emily Gebbie, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gebbie, entered the first year of grammar school at Wells River the first of last week. Miss Margaret Nelson went to Cabot last week to visit her school friend, Miss Wells.

Walter Nelson was in East Burke last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. I. D. Bemis. Mr. and Mrs. William Brook of Bradford came on Friday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Brock's brother, Wesson Sargent. Mrs. W. Sargent and little son, Charles, are expected home from St. Johnsbury the last of the week. Miss Ina L. Buchanan spent a few days recently at the home of her brother-in-law, W. Sargent.

RYEGATE.

(Mrs. C. A. McKirahan, Cor.) Mrs. Royden Cheney went to St. Johnsbury Thursday to see her sister, who was sick at the hospital, Miss Olive McLam. Miss McLam is much better and is expected home the first of the week.

Dorothy Nelson visited the dentist at Newbury the last of the week. Miss Alice Gibson of Littleton is visiting at the home of Mrs. Gilmore Morrison in North Ryegate. Rev. I. H. Simpson preached at South Ryegate on Sunday for Rev. John Lytle, who is attending the Synod of New York at Johnstown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gebbie of Rochester, N. Y., came last week for a visit with his father, George Gebbie, and family. Emily Gebbie, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gebbie, entered the first year of grammar school at Wells River the first of last week. Miss Margaret Nelson went to Cabot last week to visit her school friend, Miss Wells.

Walter Nelson was in East Burke last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. I. D. Bemis. Mr. and Mrs. William Brook of Bradford came on Friday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Brock's brother, Wesson Sargent. Mrs. W. Sargent and little son, Charles, are expected home from St. Johnsbury the last of the week. Miss Ina L. Buchanan spent a few days recently at the home of her brother-in-law, W. Sargent.

Gordon Sykes returned from northern Vermont on Sunday, the owner of a new car. He is employed for the present by A. J. Symes. Those who attended the Nelson-Fairbanks wedding on Tuesday of last week were Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Nelson and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson, Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Simpson, Arthur Symes, Knox McLam, Charles Gibson, Mr. W. T. McLam, Olive and Dales McLam and Edwin McKirahan.

Miss Lydia White of Bradford has come to spend a few weeks with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. White. Cards have been received announcing the marriage of H. M. Nelson, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Nelson, to Miss Ethel Phillips of Shirley, Me., September 7.

The students who attend the St. Johnsbury Academy returned on Monday for registration. Robert Gibson started on Friday for New Concord, where he is ready for his duties as president of the Y. M. C. A. of Muskingum college, where he is a third year student. Alida McLam, Miss Gladys Lincoln and Miss Edith Nelson began the fall term on Monday in their respective schools. Miss Lincoln the Ryegate Corn school, Miss McLam the White Lake school and Miss Nelson the White Lake school.

SOUTH RYEGATE. (M. C. Hall, Correspondent.) At the primary election held in town last week, Tuesday, there was a close contest for the republican nomination for representative between John A. McLam of Ryegate and F. J. Tewksbury of South Ryegate. Mr. McLam won out by a majority of 30 votes. Nelson A. Park of South Ryegate was the only democratic candidate and secured the nomination. Rev. John Lytle left Thursday for a two weeks' vacation, which he will spend mostly in New York state. Rev. Lloyd Simpson of Ryegate occupied Mr. Lytle's pulpit Sunday morning and evening, and next Sunday, Rev. E. Smith of Wells River will preach in the United Presbyterian church.

Charles E. Gibson acted as one of the ushers at the Nelson-Fairbanks wedding at St. Johnsbury last week, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. S. Mills and son, Samuel, motored Wednesday to Brookfield, returning Thursday. William C. Davidson has gone to Bridgeport, Conn., where he will work in an ammunition factory. Mr. and Mrs. William Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Goodine, Rev. S. T. Simpson and O. E. Boardway are among those who attended the state fair at White River Junction last week. Miss Gladys Chandler of Orleans was the guest of Miss Marie Darling last week. Miss Nellie Roben of Barre entered upon her duties as housekeeper for Mrs. Mary and Miss Cynthia Colburn last week, Tuesday.

Word was received here Tuesday of last week of the death of M. Murphy in a hospital at Bangor, Me. Mr. Murphy leaves a wife, who was Miss Lillie Grant of this place, and a baby son. Miss Cecile and Roberta Brock and Harold Grant are attending the Woodsville high school. Miss Dorothy and Edna Hartz are attending the Wells River high school. Carl Samuelson and Norman Bone went Monday to Barre to enter Goddard Seminary. Samuel P. Mills began his second year's work as teacher of mathematics in the Newport high school Monday, after spending a week with his parents here. Miss Margaret Stephens returned to her duties as teacher in the public schools at St. Johnsbury Saturday after spending the summer vacation at her home here. Secundo Barbati, the five-year-old of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barbati, fell while playing and broke his elbow Friday. Saturday he was taken to the Montpelier hospital on the advice of Dr. Darling.

Mrs. William Bone returned Saturday from a six weeks' stay in Gardner, Mass. The operation for cataract recently performed on Mrs. Bone was successful, and her many friends here are glad that her sight has so much improved that she is now able to read without difficulty. Miss Ellen Bone returned with her mother from Gardner and Mr. Bone is back from Boltonville. The village school opened Monday with Miss Lillian Guild in the primary room, Miss Lilla Samuelson in the intermediate room, and Miss Annie Beaton in the grammar room. Mrs. Burnham, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. E. Boardway, for the past week, returned to her home in Stowe Monday. Miss Mary Hooker has gone to Cabot, where she will teach this coming year. Miss Margaret McDonald began her duties as teacher in the Jefferson Hill school Monday.

MEINDOE FALLS. (J. D. Nichols, Correspondent.) The funeral of Mrs. Leslie M. Hunt was held at the home of M. D. Hunt Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hunt died at Hanover last Friday after several weeks of severe illness. She leaves her husband and two little children, Chester, aged five years and Helen, aged two years to mourn her. Those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mrs. H. J. Aldrich, Mrs. F. E. Blaney of Pompanooc, Mrs. L. R. Lewis, Mrs. F. E. Moore of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Matlock of Wilder; Elbridge Farnsworth of East Barnet; Mrs. R. G. Brock, Miss Amy Duran of Wells River; W. H. Burbank of Barnet; Mrs. P. E. Blancher and Miss Mildred of Monroe, N. H. Mr. Palmer and Mr. Stanton of Connecticut were business visitors at W. M. Phelps part of last week. Miss Alice Phelps is spending a few days at H. J. Phelps' at Barnet. Miss Carolyn Nichols is also there. Mrs. C. K. Kest is quite sick with muscular rheumatism. Prof. Gardner returned last week, Wednesday. He is boarding at C. F. Bell's. Miss Forbes, the assistant, is at Mrs. Lyons, also Miss Tuxbury, the teacher in the primary grades. Mrs. Ida Nelson has been having a vacation. She visited her aunt, Mrs. Louise Warden, at Hanover, a few days. Mrs. R. M. Johnson spent part of last week with her niece, Mrs. Fred Hubbard, at Lebanon, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chamberlain and family visited at D. M. Nichols' Sunday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Goodrich entertained Mrs. Daisy Waite of New York recently. Miss Beatrice Parker has been having some cousins from up north for company, also the McClure girls from Bradford. Miss Alice Moore has returned to Barre, Miss Alice Van Dyke, Gladys Hilliard and Marion Hilliard to Lyndon Institute. Miss Nellie Manchester teaches at St. Johnsbury, Miss Edith Bell at Lowell's Hollow, and Miss Vivian Lowrey of Barnet teaches here in the upper grades. Mrs. J. H. Smith have returned from Newfound Lake, Miss Ariene Buswell and Albert coming with them. Miss Buswell returned to Boston Wednesday, Albert will stay two weeks. C. L. Duncan has been very ill the past week. Miss Thomas of Barre, looked in attendance. Mrs. F. L. Clement of Bradford was in town Monday, called by the illness of her brother, Mr. Duncan. Alex. Welch cut his foot last Wednesday. The doctor had to take three stitches. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bedell have been entertaining their cousin, Mr. Bell. They attended White River Junction fair last Thursday. Mr. Hurd and C. B. Duncan were at White River Junction last week. J. H. Stuart left Monday night on a moose hunting trip, going from here to Quebec and still farther north from there. Will Webster of Laconia visited at R. M. Johnson's over Sunday.

GROTON. (Mrs. G. H. Millis, Correspondent.) Newton Dennis has moved from H. L. James' tenement to Mrs. Mary Dennis' tenement recently vacated by Amos Lalston. The Tom Thumb wedding was given in the Methodist church Friday evening by the little folk. It was a rainy evening but a large number attended and enjoyed the entertainment. Miss Jean Fellows left Saturday for Concord, where she will teach, and Miss Minnie Lang went to Newport where she has a position as teacher. Miss Lydia Richardson was in Woodsville Saturday. H. L. James has sold his house on the village hill to Mrs. Inez Welch. Frank Jordan has sold his farm to Frank Caruth. Mrs. E. F. Clark returned Friday from her visit in Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Keyes of Middlebury came Friday to visit their daughter, Mrs. N. R. Caldwell. They returned home Monday. The men of the Baptist church will serve a roast beef dinner next Wednesday from 6 to 8 o'clock. George Ricker and Millie Frost are attending Wells River high school. Clyde Welch went to Peacham Monday, where he will attend school at the academy. The Junior Epworth League meetings which were discontinued during the summer, will be held next Thursday at 4 o'clock in the Methodist church. The M. & W. railroad station is being painted.

WEST DANVILLE. (Mrs. E. F. Ayer, Correspondent.) Mrs. Arthur Rich and son of St. Johnsbury, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Osmond, for the past two weeks, have returned home. Israel Osgood of St. Johnsbury was a business visitor in town Saturday. John Armstrong, Jr., is spending two weeks in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Mrs. Martin Freeman and daughter, Beatrice, of Lisbon, N. H., were at John Brickett's on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Harle Swazy and family of St. Johnsbury motored through the White Mountains one day last week. Timothy and Clover at Councils', 95.50 to 99.75% pure; Germination 98%—Adv.

RECENT DEATHS

Louise W. Williams. Mrs. Louise W. Williams, 81 widow of George S. Williams and lifelong resident of St. Johnsbury, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, 18 Pearl street, Wednesday, September 13. The funeral was held from her late home Saturday, September 16. Rev. E. C. Grant of East St. Johnsbury, officiated, and was assisted by Rev. Albert Fisher of East St. Johnsbury. There were many beautiful floral gifts. The interment was in Grove cemetery at East St. Johnsbury. The bearers were, Frank Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.; William Brown of Watervliet, N. Y.; Fred Daniels and Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury; William Russell of Kirby; and Fred Hallett.

Louise W. Williams was born in Concord, Vt., July 1, 1835. She lived there until she came to St. Johnsbury with her parents at nine years of age. On July 15, 1851, she was united in marriage to George S. Williams of St. Johnsbury. Seven children were born to the marriage, of whom five are living. She began keeping house in St. Johnsbury village, where she lived for six years, moving to a farm near East St. Johnsbury which Mr. Williams carried on for many years. Upon the death of Mr. Williams, 19 years ago, his widow came to live with her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, and with whom she lived at the time of her decease. Mrs. Williams was recognized as a fine character of womanhood, a good neighbor and a good mother to her children. She will be missed by all who know her. She is survived by four daughters and one son, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The children who survive are: Mrs. William Brown, Watervliet, N. Y.; Mrs. Fred Daniels, St. Johnsbury; Mrs. William F. Russell, Kirby; Mrs. Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury, and Frank G. Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.

WHEELLOCK. (Mrs. G. L. Gerry, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson of Melrose, Mass., visited their cousin, Mrs. Nellie Mathewson, last Friday. Mrs. John Mann of St. Johnsbury came last Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. Laura Ball, and sister, Mrs. W. C. Snelling. Mrs. Sadie Cree and daughter, Miss Frances Cree of Lyndonville visited at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cree, last Wednesday. Guy Dresser raised and threshed 1,000 bushels of oats this year. Miss Avis Cree and friend, Miss Olive Waller, and brother, Stephen Cree, who have been spending their vacation with their grandfathers, S. G. Cree and father, L. W. Cree, returned to their home at Worcester, Mass., last Saturday. Mrs. Etta Wheeler of Beverly, Mass., came last Thursday to see her aunt, Mrs. Frank Scutcheon, who has been very ill the past two weeks. Fred Hoffman, S. W. Drake and Roy Gray were in Stannard last Saturday, to attend the David Smith auction. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown went last Thursday on an auto trip to visit friends in Sutton, P. Q., returning Monday. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Smith were called to St. Johnsbury last Saturday to see his sister, Mrs. Dr. Warner, who is very low. Miss Etta Gray left last Friday for St. Johnsbury, where she enters the Academy. Riverside Grange will hold their Grange fair Thursday, October 12. Carroll and Lyle Dean left last Wednesday for a few weeks' stay with relatives in Boston. The village school commenced Monday with Kathleen McLean of Newport in the primary department and Miss Gladys Bigelow of Peabach in higher grade. Elsie and George Dresser, Ralph Dean, Mildred Willey and Harold Currier went last Monday to Lyndon Center to take up their school work at the Institute.

SUTTON. Miss Hawkinson from St. Johnsbury is boarding at G. L. Gordon's. The Ladies' Mission Circle resumed its meetings after the summer vacation. The meeting was held at the parsonage last Thursday, with 15 ladies present. The program was based on home mission work, and proved to be very interesting. Next month the subject will be foreign missions. Earl Berry and bride have gone to housekeeping at the place owned by Henry T. Tarrant, known as the John M. Rice farm. Mrs. Riley H. Butterfield from West Thornton, N. H., is visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKown went to Lyndon Center Thursday evening to attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Miss Barrett. The next Grange meeting is to be held Saturday evening of the present week. Mr. Dubois from Orleans county has moved into the tenement in the Grange building over the postoffice. The schools in town opened Monday morning after three weeks closing of the fall term. Sutton Grange have given up having a fair this fall on account of the ruling of the state board of health which excluded the attendance of all children under 15 years.

NEWARA. (Porter Wallace, Correspondent.) Mrs. Nellie Annis, Mrs. Mary Annis, Julia Annis and Charley Placey attended Lancaster fair last week. Mr. and Mrs. Will Burrington of East Burke spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wilbur King. Mrs. Howard Lyndon's baby has been quite ill with scarlet fever. Mr. Clarence Straw and Leon Damon of Worcester have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Dora Damon, Chester Beane, Mrs. French, Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Annis, delegates from the Newark Sunday school, will attend the Methodist Sunday school convention held at St. Johnsbury Wednesday, Sept. 20. There will be special services at the church every night this week except Saturday.

RECENT DEATHS

Louise W. Williams. Mrs. Louise W. Williams, 81 widow of George S. Williams and lifelong resident of St. Johnsbury, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, 18 Pearl street, Wednesday, September 13. The funeral was held from her late home Saturday, September 16. Rev. E. C. Grant of East St. Johnsbury, officiated, and was assisted by Rev. Albert Fisher of East St. Johnsbury. There were many beautiful floral gifts. The interment was in Grove cemetery at East St. Johnsbury. The bearers were, Frank Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.; William Brown of Watervliet, N. Y.; Fred Daniels and Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury; William Russell of Kirby; and Fred Hallett.

Louise W. Williams was born in Concord, Vt., July 1, 1835. She lived there until she came to St. Johnsbury with her parents at nine years of age. On July 15, 1851, she was united in marriage to George S. Williams of St. Johnsbury. Seven children were born to the marriage, of whom five are living. She began keeping house in St. Johnsbury village, where she lived for six years, moving to a farm near East St. Johnsbury which Mr. Williams carried on for many years. Upon the death of Mr. Williams, 19 years ago, his widow came to live with her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, and with whom she lived at the time of her decease. Mrs. Williams was recognized as a fine character of womanhood, a good neighbor and a good mother to her children. She will be missed by all who know her. She is survived by four daughters and one son, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The children who survive are: Mrs. William Brown, Watervliet, N. Y.; Mrs. Fred Daniels, St. Johnsbury; Mrs. William F. Russell, Kirby; Mrs. Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury, and Frank G. Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.

WHEELLOCK. (Mrs. G. L. Gerry, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson of Melrose, Mass., visited their cousin, Mrs. Nellie Mathewson, last Friday. Mrs. John Mann of St. Johnsbury came last Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. Laura Ball, and sister, Mrs. W. C. Snelling. Mrs. Sadie Cree and daughter, Miss Frances Cree of Lyndonville visited at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cree, last Wednesday. Guy Dresser raised and threshed 1,000 bushels of oats this year. Miss Avis Cree and friend, Miss Olive Waller, and brother, Stephen Cree, who have been spending their vacation with their grandfathers, S. G. Cree and father, L. W. Cree, returned to their home at Worcester, Mass., last Saturday. Mrs. Etta Wheeler of Beverly, Mass., came last Thursday to see her aunt, Mrs. Frank Scutcheon, who has been very ill the past two weeks. Fred Hoffman, S. W. Drake and Roy Gray were in Stannard last Saturday, to attend the David Smith auction. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown went last Thursday on an auto trip to visit friends in Sutton, P. Q., returning Monday. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Smith were called to St. Johnsbury last Saturday to see his sister, Mrs. Dr. Warner, who is very low. Miss Etta Gray left last Friday for St. Johnsbury, where she enters the Academy. Riverside Grange will hold their Grange fair Thursday, October 12. Carroll and Lyle Dean left last Wednesday for a few weeks' stay with relatives in Boston. The village school commenced Monday with Kathleen McLean of Newport in the primary department and Miss Gladys Bigelow of Peabach in higher grade. Elsie and George Dresser, Ralph Dean, Mildred Willey and Harold Currier went last Monday to Lyndon Center to take up their school work at the Institute.

SUTTON. Miss Hawkinson from St. Johnsbury is boarding at G. L. Gordon's. The Ladies' Mission Circle resumed its meetings after the summer vacation. The meeting was held at the parsonage last Thursday, with 15 ladies present. The program was based on home mission work, and proved to be very interesting. Next month the subject will be foreign missions. Earl Berry and bride have gone to housekeeping at the place owned by Henry T. Tarrant, known as the John M. Rice farm. Mrs. Riley H. Butterfield from West Thornton, N. H., is visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKown went to Lyndon Center Thursday evening to attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Miss Barrett. The next Grange meeting is to be held Saturday evening of the present week. Mr. Dubois from Orleans county has moved into the tenement in the Grange building over the postoffice. The schools in town opened Monday morning after three weeks closing of the fall term. Sutton Grange have given up having a fair this fall on account of the ruling of the state board of health which excluded the attendance of all children under 15 years.

NEWARA. (Porter Wallace, Correspondent.) Mrs. Nellie Annis, Mrs. Mary Annis, Julia Annis and Charley Placey attended Lancaster fair last week. Mr. and Mrs. Will Burrington of East Burke spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wilbur King. Mrs. Howard Lyndon's baby has been quite ill with scarlet fever. Mr. Clarence Straw and Leon Damon of Worcester have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Dora Damon, Chester Beane, Mrs. French, Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Annis, delegates from the Newark Sunday school, will attend the Methodist Sunday school convention held at St. Johnsbury Wednesday, Sept. 20. There will be special services at the church every night this week except Saturday.

RECENT DEATHS

Louise W. Williams. Mrs. Louise W. Williams, 81 widow of George S. Williams and lifelong resident of St. Johnsbury, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, 18 Pearl street, Wednesday, September 13. The funeral was held from her late home Saturday, September 16. Rev. E. C. Grant of East St. Johnsbury, officiated, and was assisted by Rev. Albert Fisher of East St. Johnsbury. There were many beautiful floral gifts. The interment was in Grove cemetery at East St. Johnsbury. The bearers were, Frank Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.; William Brown of Watervliet, N. Y.; Fred Daniels and Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury; William Russell of Kirby; and Fred Hallett.

Louise W. Williams was born in Concord, Vt., July 1, 1835. She lived there until she came to St. Johnsbury with her parents at nine years of age. On July 15, 1851, she was united in marriage to George S. Williams of St. Johnsbury. Seven children were born to the marriage, of whom five are living. She began keeping house in St. Johnsbury village, where she lived for six years, moving to a farm near East St. Johnsbury which Mr. Williams carried on for many years. Upon the death of Mr. Williams, 19 years ago, his widow came to live with her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, and with whom she lived at the time of her decease. Mrs. Williams was recognized as a fine character of womanhood, a good neighbor and a good mother to her children. She will be missed by all who know her. She is survived by four daughters and one son, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The children who survive are: Mrs. William Brown, Watervliet, N. Y.; Mrs. Fred Daniels, St. Johnsbury; Mrs. William F. Russell, Kirby; Mrs. Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury, and Frank G. Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.

WHEELLOCK. (Mrs. G. L. Gerry, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson of Melrose, Mass., visited their cousin, Mrs. Nellie Mathewson, last Friday. Mrs. John Mann of St. Johnsbury came last Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. Laura Ball, and sister, Mrs. W. C. Snelling. Mrs. Sadie Cree and daughter, Miss Frances Cree of Lyndonville visited at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cree, last Wednesday. Guy Dresser raised and threshed 1,000 bushels of oats this year. Miss Avis Cree and friend, Miss Olive Waller, and brother, Stephen Cree, who have been spending their vacation with their grandfathers, S. G. Cree and father, L. W. Cree, returned to their home at Worcester, Mass., last Saturday. Mrs. Etta Wheeler of Beverly, Mass., came last Thursday to see her aunt, Mrs. Frank Scutcheon, who has been very ill the past two weeks. Fred Hoffman, S. W. Drake and Roy Gray were in Stannard last Saturday, to attend the David Smith auction. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown went last Thursday on an auto trip to visit friends in Sutton, P. Q., returning Monday. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Smith were called to St. Johnsbury last Saturday to see his sister, Mrs. Dr. Warner, who is very low. Miss Etta Gray left last Friday for St. Johnsbury, where she enters the Academy. Riverside Grange will hold their Grange fair Thursday, October 12. Carroll and Lyle Dean left last Wednesday for a few weeks' stay with relatives in Boston. The village school commenced Monday with Kathleen McLean of Newport in the primary department and Miss Gladys Bigelow of Peabach in higher grade. Elsie and George Dresser, Ralph Dean, Mildred Willey and Harold Currier went last Monday to Lyndon Center to take up their school work at the Institute.

SUTTON. Miss Hawkinson from St. Johnsbury is boarding at G. L. Gordon's. The Ladies' Mission Circle resumed its meetings after the summer vacation. The meeting was held at the parsonage last Thursday, with 15 ladies present. The program was based on home mission work, and proved to be very interesting. Next month the subject will be foreign missions. Earl Berry and bride have gone to housekeeping at the place owned by Henry T. Tarrant, known as the John M. Rice farm. Mrs. Riley H. Butterfield from West Thornton, N. H., is visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKown went to Lyndon Center Thursday evening to attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Miss Barrett. The next Grange meeting is to be held Saturday evening of the present week. Mr. Dubois from Orleans county has moved into the tenement in the Grange building over the postoffice. The schools in town opened Monday morning after three weeks closing of the fall term. Sutton Grange have given up having a fair this fall on account of the ruling of the state board of health which excluded the attendance of all children under 15 years.

NEWARA. (Porter Wallace, Correspondent.) Mrs. Nellie Annis, Mrs. Mary Annis, Julia Annis and Charley Placey attended Lancaster fair last week. Mr. and Mrs. Will Burrington of East Burke spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wilbur King. Mrs. Howard Lyndon's baby has been quite ill with scarlet fever. Mr. Clarence Straw and Leon Damon of Worcester have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Dora Damon, Chester Beane, Mrs. French, Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Annis, delegates from the Newark Sunday school, will attend the Methodist Sunday school convention held at St. Johnsbury Wednesday, Sept. 20. There will be special services at the church every night this week except Saturday.

RECENT DEATHS

Louise W. Williams. Mrs. Louise W. Williams, 81 widow of George S. Williams and lifelong resident of St. Johnsbury, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, 18 Pearl street, Wednesday, September 13. The funeral was held from her late home Saturday, September 16. Rev. E. C. Grant of East St. Johnsbury, officiated, and was assisted by Rev. Albert Fisher of East St. Johnsbury. There were many beautiful floral gifts. The interment was in Grove cemetery at East St. Johnsbury. The bearers were, Frank Williams of Mechanicsville, N. Y.; William Brown of Watervliet, N. Y.; Fred Daniels and Burt Dugar, St. Johnsbury; William Russell of Kirby; and Fred Hallett.

Louise W. Williams was born in Concord, Vt., July 1, 1835. She lived there until she came to St. Johnsbury with her parents at nine years of age. On July 15, 1851, she was united in marriage to George S. Williams of St. Johnsbury. Seven children were born to the marriage, of whom five are living. She began keeping house in St. Johnsbury village, where she lived for six years, moving to a farm near East St. Johnsbury which Mr. Williams carried on for many years. Upon the death of Mr. Williams, 19 years ago, his widow came to live with her daughter, Mrs. Burt Dugar, and with whom she lived at the time of her decease.