

ST. JOHNSBURY'S NEEDS.

startling predictions; nothing novel, merely by quickening memory.
There are few people in a community but possess enough "truth" for salvation and power.

Why is there so little "dynamic," because of the tendency of truth to sink into sub-consciousness, to become tradition; to become old. It is not lost, let there be a special crisis and it would flare up. For commonly truth is in "cold storage," and to be a power it must be revitalized.

Bacon speaks of "Bed-ridden truths." How can we make them alive and effective? As in the text, "Stir them up." With truth as with existence, inaction is death, action alone is life.

St. Johnsbury is not worse than other places and is better than some. Following are some reasons: As applicable elsewhere as here: Lamentable neglect of the Bible and what it purports to be; what it has done; and is doing.

Rev. F. S. Tolman
In our rides through the country section we often come to a railroad crossing, having a sign with these words on it: Stop, look, listen, and if we value our safety and that of those who are with us we will heed this sign, for battered and mangled bodies bear witness every year of negligence on this score.

Rev. C. L. Eaton
Text, John 10:10, I came that they may have life and that they may have it abundantly.
By a series of pictures he showed that just as a man maybe tone deaf or color blind or lacking in physical energy through some defect in his physical body and in that measure is dead and not alive, so many may be worldly intellectual and spiritually dead.

—The remains of Mrs. Kate Burkett, wife of Joseph Burkett of Woodville, arrived on the 3:30 p. m. train north, Friday afternoon. The interment was in Mount Pleasant cemetery where a short burial service was performed by the O. E. S. Mrs. Burkett was a native of St. Johnsbury and former resident. Her son, Paul Burnham, of Flint, Mich., accompanied the body.

NORTHFIELD HOTEL BURNS

as and trousers but had to leave his order sheets and $25 in money.
Local people who were stopping in the hotel were Lawrence Burns, James A. McManis, W. J. Roberts, manager of the Atlantic & Pacific Tea company, Charles Pate, P. A. Rogers, L. Bisseau, Sergeant B. B. McMath and George S. Bennett. Two other regulars in the hotel, Charles Morehouse and Ray Bellows, were out of town, the former being in Barre and the latter in St. Albans. While all suffered losses of their clothing, Mr. McMann lost most of all the boarders because he had to part with $75 in money, two watches, $150 in wearing apparel and the furniture in his room, he having used his own furnishings. The hotel employees were quartered on the fourth floor, and they, too, lost all their belongings.

The lower floor front was occupied by the hotel office and the parlors of Mrs. W. S. Humphrey, optician. She carried no insurance and most of her goods were taken out into the street. In the basement front of the hotel was the barber shop of William O. Robinson, whose chief damage was by water.

Hotel Owned By St. Johnsbury Man.
The hotel was owned by Ernest M. Fifield of St. Johnsbury, who bought the property September 25, 1915, from Fred K. Sawyer. Mr. Fifield was not in town at the time of the fire, the hotel being operated for him by Archie B. Dow.
