REV. MOODY'S WARNING

In Globe Service Says, "Backwash of Billy Sunday Meetings Will Be Felt in St. Johnsbury."

A warning to "Get your house in order" was sounded to St. Johnsbury by the Rev. Paul D. Moody before a large congregation at the first of the Sunday night meetings to be held this year in the Globe theatre. In a powerful sermon in which Mr. Moody expressed the belief that the "backwash" from the Billy Sunday meetings would be felt here. He also said that the people of this vicinity were looking forward with expectancy and trepidation to the spiritual upheaval in Boston and many were planning for its effect here.

Mr. Moody spoke from the text, "Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision, for the day of the Lord is near, in the valley of decision." He spoke of the preparation being made in Boston in anticipation of the "good that is bound to come and the chances that will be made in the lives of many in that city."

In following up the thought of its effect on St. Johnsbury, Mr. Moody touched on the civic and private morals of the town and said, "There is much violation of law in this town, many who are living lives of shame, to say that St. Johnsbury is not as bad as this or that town about the state offers no excuse for the conditions that do exist. When we look at these things ourselves we are apt to overlook many things, but when we drag them out into the light and see them as God sees them then we feel things are not so well."

The speaker also referred to the tri-centennial to be observed especially by Congregational churches, of the landing of the Pilgrims, and spoke of the many hardships they endured in the pursuit of their faith and the dangers encountered in the wilderness, of how faithful the fathers were in church attendance notwithstanding Indians and other dangers. He made the statement that he thought the automobile of the present day was more of a hindrance to church attendance than was the Indian in the time of the Pilgrim. He also said, not until the conditions become so bad and there is no voice to offer protest will the need of St. Johnsbury be realized, and asked for divine aid to see things as God sees them and not as they are seen by men.

In closing he issued the warning to St. Johnsbury and emphasized the necessity for decision.

Mr. Moody will speak on many texts of interest during the winter, according to his announcement of

It is built along the lines of "Babe in Toyland," and "The Tales of Hoffman," as the leading characters in the extravaganza represent toys and dolls.

The state of New York has been carried for Hughes by a plurality of more than 100,000. The indications are that he has also carried Illinois and Indiana by a like plurality. The returns from Ohio are insufficient to determine the result in that state. All of the New England states and New Jersey as well as Wisconsin and Michigan have been removed from the list of doubtful states. Unless there is a landslide for President Wilson on the Pacific slope the election of Hughes seems certain.

An early estimate of the Hughes electoral vote without Ohio placed it at 277, eleven more than necessary for a majority in the electoral college. The Hughes majority reported from Indiana and (Continued on page five.)

NOT A VOTE FOR WILSON IN TOWN OF STANNARD

The little town of Stannard in Caledonia county distinguished itself in the national election by not casting a single vote for Pres. Wilson. The 22 votes cast for president in that town were all for Hughes.

REPUBLICANS WIN ALL OF OFFICES IN CALEDONIA COUNTY

Caledonia county went safely republican yesterday. The largest vote cast for any candidate was 3,210 for W. H. Worthen for sheriff, his competitor, Buckley, receiving 1,087 votes. Judge of Probate W. P. Smith was elected by a vote of 2,936 to 1,152 for his competitor, Samuel A. Richardson. In the state's attorney fight James B. Campbell defeated Harry W. Witters by a vote of 2,722 to 1,235. For county senators, M. G. Morse of Hardwick received 2,965 votes, W. A. Ricker of St. Johnsbury 2,987 votes and their democratic competitors, Charles A. French of Hardwick and J. G. Roy of Barnet got 1,115 and 1,134 votes respectively.

VERMONT REMAINS TRUE TO TRADITION AND SOLID G. O. P.

Burlington, Nov. 7.—Vermont remained true today to the tradition she has consistently maintained since 1856 in giving her electoral votes to the republican candidates for president and governor. In addition she re-elected the three national legislators, Senator Carroll S. Page and Congressmen Frank L. Greene and Porter V. Dale. Hughes plurality over Wilson, estimated on the basis of returns from little more than half the state, was about 20,000 and Horace F. Graham, republican candidate for governor, vanquished his democratic rival, William B. Mayo, by a little wider margin. Wilson was stronger than his party in the state, polling from 5,000 to 6,000 more votes than were given to Mayo. Both Hughes and Graham each received twice as many votes as their respective opponents. The republicans also elected their complete state ticket as follows: Lieutenant governor, Roger W. Hulburd; treasurer, Walter F. Scott; secretary of state, Guy W. Bailey; auditor of accounts, Benjamin Gates; attorney general, Herbert G. Barber. An interesting feature of the returns was the fact that Wilson carried St. Albans, where there is a large population of railroad employees. The legislature is overwhelmingly republican.

JUDGE STAFFORD'S LECTURE Holds Attention of Large Audience at Grace Church.

The lecture, "Shakespeare, the Man," delivered by Judge Wendell P. Stafford of Washington, in the assembly room of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, held the intense interest of a large audience from beginning to end. The election excitement that prevailed was all that prevented the attendance of an exceptionally large audience.

Judge Stafford dealt with his subject in a most pleasing manner and paid many tributes in the course of his lecture to the man, Shakespeare. The address was both interesting and instructive and much credit is due Arthur F. Stone, who was instrumental in getting Judge Stafford here, for supplying such a pleasant evening's entertainment.

BIG CROWD OF SPECTATORS HEARS CALEDONIAN RETURNS

A large crowd stood for hours in front of the Caledonian office last night listening to the election returns given out as they were received over the direct wire installed in the building. The excellent service rendered evidently gave satisfaction for notwithstanding the sharp cold air, large groups of political fans remained until the small hours of morning.

As the early returns came in, a veering in either direction was a signal for loud cheers by the supporters of that party. Later in the night as the returns showed a heavy Hughes leaning the republicans remained to see how large the G. O. P. vote would be, while many of the democrats still hoped that some states on the Pacific slope, voting late, would start a landslide in Wilson's direction.

The republican headquarters in the Y. M. C. A. building received the service from the Caledonian office over a private telephone wire. Returns were also supplied by messengers to the Masons, who waited for results at the Masonic temple.

WHITNEY WINS FROM SIMONDS

Elected Town Representative Over The Republican Candidate By A Vote of 806 to 761--Rest All G. O. P.--Record Vote Out

Electing Charles Whitney, Democrat, over Robert W. Simonds, Republican, by a small majority, the voters of St. Johnsbury handed republican a severe jolt at the polls yesterday. It was conceded by both parties that the fight would be hot and close, but the size of the democratic vote polled came as a surprise. It was called more of a personal affair than a party issue until the size of the presidential vote became known. Polling the largest vote in the town's history, not only was the vote for representative close, but Whitney carried nearly double the number of votes that has ever been polled on the Democratic ticket. The count stood Hughes 895, Wilson 712. A small scattering vote went to Hanly, prohibition, and Benson, socialist.

On the representative issue, outwardly both sides expressed confidence as to the outcome, but as three o'clock approached there was hustling in both camps to swing their supporters into line. The democrats had been working hard as election day approached and although the republicans were not over confident, going by the usual democratic vote cast, a veering to that quarter was hardly looked for.

As the count was made known, 806 to 761, Mr. Whitney's supporters gave him a great ovation. He made a short speech from the bandstand on Court House square in which he signified his intention to stand by the workmen of St. Johnsbury. He referred to Mr. Simonds, in speaking of the workman's compensation act by saying that while possibly he was not as capable as Mr. Simonds in constructing the workman's compensation, but he would promise to see that the workmen of St. Johnsbury did not suffer by honoring him as representative.

The county and state officers polled the usual vote in St. Johnsbury with possibly a small gain in the democratic column, but the republican ticket held sway on about the same percentage throughout. James Campbell, republican, polled 700 votes for state's attorney to 390 for Harry Witters, democrat. For governor almost the same percentage held, Horace Graham polling 1050 votes to 478 for William B. Mayo, the democratic nominee.

Reception to Mr. Whitney.

St. Johnsbury people held their reception to their representative-elect, Charles N. Whitney, last evening. The St. Johnsbury band headed a procession formed at the Avenue House and marched to the home of James Cosgrove on Main street. It was estimated that over 500 people passed the receiving line, composed of Representative-elect Charles N. Whitney and Mrs. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. James Cosgrove, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Witters. Refreshments of punch were served and cigars were at everyone's disposal.

Suspend Criticism

You are not to blame for the present Coal situation, neither are we. We can work the thing out together on a Golden Rule basis. Criticism won't help a bit.
