Dr. Arthur P. Woodward, A Native of this Town Dead. A Northfield, Minn., paper contains the following notice of the sudden death of Dr. Arthur P. Woodward on Monday morning, Nov. 8. Dr. Woodward was the eldest son of the late Dr. Calvin and Susan Woodward and a brother of Mrs. Emma F. Wells of Passumpsic. None here were prepared to hear of the death of Dr. Woodward which occurred at his home in Northfield on Monday morning, Nov. 8. Dr. Woodward made his regular professional visit to Cannon Falls on Saturday and appeared in his usual health, but upon his return home was stricken with rheumatism of the heart. The body will be brought to Cannon Falls today, Friday, on the Milwaukee train which arrives at 11:10 a.m. and taken directly to the cemetery where funeral services will be held and the casket opened so those who wish to can view the remains. The pallbearers selected are C. H. Lang, W. E. Poe, O. E. Falek, Fred W. Scofield, C. E. Sherd and S. S. Lewis. Dr. Arthur Paul Woodward was born in Danville, Vermont, November 27, 1852, and at the time of his death was 63 years, 11 months and 9 days of age. His father was a noted physician and he had two brothers who were also physicians. In early life he attended school in Danville and later in 1874, graduated from Boston university. The same year, 1874, he came to Cannon Falls and practiced medicine for a number of years. In 1888 he went to Oregon and practiced for several years and later returned to Cannon Falls. Of late years he has been located in Northfield but made professional visits to Cannon Falls or vicinity every week. He had a large practice and always had the reputation of being a successful physician. In 1881 Dr. Woodward was married to Mary Denny and he is survived by his widow, three sons, Calvin of Fairbairn, Joseph and Gerald of Northfield, and two daughters, Mrs. J. F. Hatley of Victor, Colorado, and Miss Genevieve Woodward of Northfield. He is also survived by a grandson, Lyle Paul Hatley, a granddaughter, Dolores Elaine Woodward, two sisters, Mrs. Emma Wells of Vermont, Mrs. Genevieve Solomon of Lynn, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. J. H.
