

LUNENBURG.

List of Members of the Red Cross—An Educational Meeting.

(F. F. Balch, Correspondent.)

Following are the names of those who have joined the Red Cross to date. J. J. Bowker, Dr. W. M. Bronson, D. D. Snow, Mrs. I. J. Bowker, M. D. Bowker, Mrs. F. S. Bowker, Mrs. Lillian B. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rowell, Maude Kimball, Mrs. Ida Bell, Miss Annette Bell, Mrs. C. W. Turner, Harris K. Phelps, Mrs. Adeline W. Sugg, Mrs. Jean W. Wilson, Philip W. Sugg, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wilson, Mrs. Lorrana Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Wormwood, Mrs. Lela Morrow, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Clyde Jewell, Mrs. Mabel T. Balch, Mrs. Susap B. Thomas, P. J. Mallett, George H. Ramsdell, Mrs. Gottlieb T. Brethling, Mrs. Kate L. Warren, Florence P. Dodge, Mrs. Hattie M. Smith, Charles W. Turner, Mrs. Stella C. Ball, Mrs. Olive C. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sibley, Anna M. Cole, Harold Turner, Kenneth F. Turner, Myrtle Davison, Eva L. Davison, Mrs. Celia A. Snow, Kyle T. Brown, Ruby Smith, Fred M. Wheelock, Fitzdale, Mrs. H. W. Powers, Fitzdale.

A meeting of the directors of the schools of the six towns in this union was held at the high school room in the village on Saturday. All the towns were represented. State Commissioner Hillegas of Montpelier, Superintendent of Public Schools and Supt. B. B. Burbank were present and gave addresses which were very instructive.

George Sibley and sons, Ernest and Harley, went to Campton, N. H., on Wednesday, where they are employed by the Sibley Bros' plant. The trip was made by auto—Samuel Bacon of Malden was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Balch and Miss Christie on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis have moved from the tenement in Mrs. Laura Colby's house to the creamery tenement. Rev. John Robinson and Lloyd Morgan each suffered from a cold cut foot, done while using the auto. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bowker and little daughter, Georgia, went by auto to Lyndonville last week for a day with relatives. Mrs. Harley Cowles and daughter Harriet, returned home with them for the rest of the week. Mrs. Ned Bowker and son, Amanda, went to St. Johnsbury on Wednesday. Flag Day, June 14th, will be observed by the ladies of Howard W. R. C., No. 24, with an entertainment, promenade and ice cream supper at the Town hall in the afternoon.

MCINDOE FALLS.

(J. D. Nichols, Correspondent.)

The community sympathizes with Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Van Dyke and their family in the death of their son, Dr. G. Dickson Van Dyke, which occurred at Bushill sanitarium, Philadelphia, Sunday night, June 3. Death was due to Bright's disease, from which he had suffered for several weeks since the last of March. His brother, Percy, was with him the last three weeks. On account of the serious illness of Mr. Van Dyke, his mother was unable to go to him at all. Dick was a very popular young man and had studied hard, and had a bright future before him. Besides his parents, and sisters he leaves a host of friends in this place and other places where he has studied. Percy arrived with the body, accompanied by Dr. Ver Nooy of New York, and a nurse from the hospital, and a private for the funeral, which was held at the home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith of Laconia and Mrs. P. B. Van Dyke, Jr., and daughter, Barbara, came for the funeral. Miss Warden of California is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. G. Smith. Maurice Fitch and Gibson took Mrs. Van Dyke to the hospital for treatment last week. Her friends hope for an immediate recovery. Mrs. Fred Hart recently visited her sister at East Charleston. Mrs. D. M. Nichols and Dorothy spent last Wednesday at South Ryegate. The ladies' degree team of this grange worked at the home at South Ryegate Tuesday evening. Mrs. Merce Nelson returned to Barnet Saturday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. McConach. E. W. Lawler spent several days at his home recently. Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. E. Burns will be in town, and Mrs. Charles S. Jock, and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Morey of Waterbury, also F. E. Batchelder and Mr. Jenette of St. Johnsbury. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the graduation exercises of the graded schools of the town of Barnet at Barnet village Wednesday, June 13, 8 p. m. Town hall, in the afternoon, and the exercises begin in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MONROE.

(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)

Monroe observed registration day with a flag raising and appropriate exercises in the afternoon at 3 p. m. The flag was raised on a rope stretched from the hotel to W. J. Frazer's store, and was unfurled to the breeze to the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," played by the band. The flag was purchased by several citizens of the town, who thought it fitting that it should be raised on the day when our young men registered for military service. S. J. Astle presided over the exercises, which were begun at 3 p. m. Prayer was offered by Rev. C. L. Carter, the band gave several selections and the school children sang "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," accompanied by the band. Several Civil War veterans came, bearing the flag, and it was raised while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." Rev. Donald Frazer of Wells River was then introduced, and gave an eloquent and inspiring address. Closing remarks were made by Mr. D. E. Burns, after which all united in singing "America," and cheering the flag. The Ladies' Aid Society served ice cream during the afternoon. District Supt. Adolphus Linfield of Tilton preached here at North Monroe Sunday. The Ladies Aid Society meets Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Edward Emery. Rev. D. E. Burns will preach the memorial sermon to the Knights of Pythias in the M. E. church here next Sunday at 2 p. m. At the last general meeting Wednesday evening, the first and second degrees were conferred on four candidates by the degree team, the work being preceded by a drill. The literary program consisted of songs, recitations and readings. The question for discussion was "What is the Most Profitable Crop to Raise This Year?" Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt and Ariana have returned from Allston, Mass., where they have spent several weeks, being called there by the illness and death of Mrs. Pratt's grandmother, Mrs. Merrifield—Schools in town were not in session Tuesday, giving the teachers and scholars an opportunity to attend the flag raising. Miss Mildred Blanchard spent last week with Mrs. E. Farrington. Pastmaster, Ralph Wood of East Barnet has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harding. Monroe registered 33 young men Tuesday, the work having been done by Town Clerk G. L. Frazer. Frank Root of Portland, Me., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root. Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Burns of North Havenhill were here last Tuesday to attend the flag raising. George Bort has purchased a car. Miss Julia Fisher spent a few days last week in Barnet seeing for Mrs. Perley Ayer.

EAST CONCORD.

(Mrs. J. I. Folsom, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seace of St. Johnsbury are visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Higgins of St. Johnsbury were over vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Beane. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. O'Leary spent the week-end in their camp at Lake Willoughby. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stearns went Friday night to spend the week-end with Mrs. Stearns' parents in Hartford. Mrs. Horace Ayer, who has been confined to the house the past week on account of illness, is gaining slowly. Leo Mongeon returned Friday night from Boston with his wife, Will Forsythe, who has been quite sick at his home with bilious fever, is gaining slowly. The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. I. Hall. The graduating class of the Center school are invited to the First Congregational church next Sunday morning, at which time the Rev. R. S. Caldwell will preach the commencement sermon. The choir will render special music. Ryegate were recent guests of Miss Mabel and Ethel Gray. Orrin Robinson of Orleans was being visited by his son, Fred Robinson and family for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gallagher and son, Eldred, spent the week-end in Lyndonville.

SOUTH WHEELOCK.

(Mrs. Lucy E. Weed, Correspondent.)

G. W. Dodge has exchanged a farm with George John of Lyndonville for a small place there. Both parties will move this week. Henry Smith and wife have gone to Lyndon Center to work for W. N. Hubbard at the Speedwell farms. Miss Mary Buckle was in St. Johnsbury on business, while in this part of Florida, she has hired his father's farm for the coming year. Mrs. Daisy Smith remains very sick. Miss Marion Mooney spent a few days recently with Mrs. A. E. Weed. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Simon visited Mr. Simon's niece, Mrs. Waterman, at Orleans last week. Mrs. Lucy Weed was at West Burke last Wednesday to attend the educational meeting held there by Dr. Hillegas and Rev. A. W. Hewitt. Charles Welch has a valuable horse sick with pneumonia at A. E. Weed's, where the road men of Florida, who are presiding services at the home of Mr. Standish of Ayers Cliff, P. Q., was a Sunday visitor at T. Rexford's. Dr. A. Jenkins and family of West Burke visited at A. E. Weed's Sunday. J. P. Rock was in Barre the first of the week on business. Rev. W. H. Cass was at St. Johnsbury last Friday at 2.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Niles of Lyndonville will speak to the people. Miss Bertha Welch was in West Burke and St. Johnsbury on business last Wednesday. There will be a social dance at the Old Red Schoolhouse next Friday night, June 15.

EAST ST. JOHNSBURY.

(Mrs. G. W. Dodge, Correspondent.)

Mrs. B. F. Wood was stricken with paralysis Friday and is in a serious condition. Mrs. Ellen Freedy, who has been in the hospital for some time, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Babcock. Rev. A. V. Fisher returned from a few days spent in Massachusetts, bringing with him his invalid sister, Miss Mary Fisher, who will make her home at the parsonage for the present. Interesting reports of the county convention were given Sunday morning by Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Fisher and Irving Locke. Those from this place who attended the convention were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Locke, Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Fisher, Mrs. B. K. Graves, Mrs. H. M. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cushman and Mrs. G. W. Dodge. Mrs. Celia Buzzell of Burke is here caring for her mother, Mrs. B. F. Wood. Those who are interested in Red Cross work are invited to meet with Mrs. H. M. Knapp Friday afternoon.

LYNDONVILLE.

(Mildred Rivers, Correspondent.)

The Lyndonville graded school closed Friday, June 8. The eighth grade exercises were held in the school hall Friday evening. There were 24 graduates, 18 girls and 6 boys. The program consisted of piano, vocal, cello and violin solos and readings. At the close of the exercises Clifford Egan, in behalf of the class presented the principal, W. C. Jones, with a gold stick pin. The teachers have to go to their respective homes for their vacations. Sybil Barber came home Friday from her aunt's in Woodsville, where she has been very ill. She is now much better. Anna Dalbeck has gone to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. M. Dalbeck in Boston. Raymond Campbell is in Springfield, Mass., for a few days. Miss Flavia Folsom has returned from Tarrytown, N. Y., for her vacation. Mrs. H. W. Lyster entertained her Sunday school class, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Chapman a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Chapman. Mrs. H. M. Atwood has been quite ill with stomach trouble. J. P. Webster has returned from New Jersey, where he has spent the winter. The many friends of J. P. Moody in this vicinity deeply regret to hear of his death at Hanover hospital last Saturday morning. Regular meeting of Esther Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, June 12, at 7.30. Mrs. John Nash entertained the Needlecraft Circle Friday afternoon. Ed. Puffer spent Sunday with relatives in Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Thomas are spending a week in Montpelier and Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bowker of Lunenburg visited at H. P. Sibley's the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and daughters, Dorothy and Alice, are visiting in Danvers and Fairhaven Mass. H. Kennison of Boston was a guest of Prof. O. D. Mathews last week. Leroy Bennett has returned to his home in Woodmont, Conn., after spending two weeks with friends at the Bennett bungalow on Burke Mountain. Mrs. J. B. Frappier and daughter, Clara, were in Middlebury the last of the week visiting Cecil who is on guard there. J. P. Webster is ill with a stomach trouble. Mrs. L. G. Stickney, a trained nurse, of St. Johnsbury, who has been caring for Mrs. Henry Golden has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Golden and their four children have been quite ill with the measles. Wardell Squires has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Bessie Carter in Barre. People who attended the Star theater Monday evening very much enjoyed the music rendered by H. J. Boyle. It included vocal, whistling and piano solos. Lester Butterfield and friend, Miss Doris Pelsey have returned to Middlebury after having spent several days

DANVILLE.

The McDonald-Wilson Wedding Monday—Personal and Local News.

(Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.)

A very quiet home wedding took place on Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson when their only daughter, May Louise, was united in marriage to Plyn H. McDonald. The ceremony was performed at 1.45 by Rev. F. E. Currier in the presence of the near relatives of the family, the single ring service being used. The bride was attired in a white crepe de chine gown and was unattended. The couple stood by the window in the living room on the same rug and in the same position, where the bride's parents stood two years ago when their wedding ceremony was performed. The rug which was used was made by Mrs. McDonald's great grandmother. After congratulations refreshments of ice cream and wedding cake and bride's cake were served. The bride's going away suit was of midnight blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald are both popular people in town, Mrs. McDonald having been a successful and well-liked school teacher in town the past ten years and an active worker in the church and social activities. Mr. McDonald has been in Danville, and is a successful farmer and business man, and both have a host of friends who extend to them congratulations and the best of wishes in their married life. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left at once for Boston for a wedding trip, and invitations have been issued in anticipation to be held upon their return on June 20, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson, at 8 p. m.

MCINDOE FALLS.

(J. D. Nichols, Correspondent.)

The community sympathizes with Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Van Dyke and their family in the death of their son, Dr. G. Dickson Van Dyke, which occurred at Bushill sanitarium, Philadelphia, Sunday night, June 3. Death was due to Bright's disease, from which he had suffered for several weeks since the last of March. His brother, Percy, was with him the last three weeks. On account of the serious illness of Mr. Van Dyke, his mother was unable to go to him at all. Dick was a very popular young man and had studied hard, and had a bright future before him. Besides his parents, and sisters he leaves a host of friends in this place and other places where he has studied. Percy arrived with the body, accompanied by Dr. Ver Nooy of New York, and a nurse from the hospital, and a private for the funeral, which was held at the home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith of Laconia and Mrs. P. B. Van Dyke, Jr., and daughter, Barbara, came for the funeral. Miss Warden of California is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. G. Smith. Maurice Fitch and Gibson took Mrs. Van Dyke to the hospital for treatment last week. Her friends hope for an immediate recovery. Mrs. Fred Hart recently visited her sister at East Charleston. Mrs. D. M. Nichols and Dorothy spent last Wednesday at South Ryegate. The ladies' degree team of this grange worked at the home at South Ryegate Tuesday evening. Mrs. Merce Nelson returned to Barnet Saturday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. McConach. E. W. Lawler spent several days at his home recently. Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. E. Burns will be in town, and Mrs. Charles S. Jock, and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Morey of Waterbury, also F. E. Batchelder and Mr. Jenette of St. Johnsbury. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the graduation exercises of the graded schools of the town of Barnet at Barnet village Wednesday, June 13, 8 p. m. Town hall, in the afternoon, and the exercises begin in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

GROTON.

(Mrs. G. H. Mills, Correspondent.)

About 30 went to Fort Ethan Allen Sunday morning on the train and as many more by automobile. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Darling of McIndoes visited his father, I. N. H. Darling, Friday. There were 17 young men registered here Tuesday between 21 and 31 years of age. Alex. Welch has moved from McIndoes to Mrs. T. B. Hall's house recently vacated by Charles Miller. L. S. Blanchard has bought a new eight cylinder car. Children's day at the Methodist church has been postponed one week. The June 21st exhibit at the town hall fell off its piazza and fractured one rib besides being bruised quite badly. Frank Williams has moved from West Newbury to a house in Westville owned by Marshall Darling known as the Seth Welch house. Pearl Heath and Miss Millie Whitehead are visiting at the home of the bride's home in Lexington, Mass. They arrived here the next day and will live with Mr. Heath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Heath, in Westville. All of the schools in town will close this week but the village school and the one in the Welch district. Dr. H. H. Ertman was called to Franconia, N. H., Tuesday by the death of his aunt. He accompanied the remains to Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. B. S. Eastman visited her sister, Mrs. Herbert Randall, who is sick, in Wolcott last week. Miss Retta Cochran, of Danville, has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harding. Monroe registered 33 young men Tuesday, the work having been done by Town Clerk G. L. Frazer. Frank Root of Portland, Me., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root. Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Burns of North Havenhill were here last Tuesday to attend the flag raising. George Bort has purchased a car. Miss Julia Fisher spent a few days last week in Barnet seeing for Mrs. Perley Ayer.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER.

(Edith McLaughlin, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sherbrooke visited Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Stiles on Saturday, Miss Charlotte Stiles returned home with them. Wayne Blodgett, is seriously ill and it is feared he has meningitis. Mrs. C. R. Jenneson of St. Johnsbury and Mrs. Julia Parks of Lyndon were guests of Mrs. B. A. Farnham last week. Mrs. Henry Donahue of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Walter. Miss Caroline Gibson and Miss Florence Nelson of Lyndonville, and their cousins, Carl and Ben Daniels, of Waterford. Mrs. Ellen Granzer has been spending a few days with friends in Derby and Lenoxville, P. Q. Miss Elizabeth Beane of Rockland, Mass., is spending her

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY.

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose in an envelope, and mail to Mrs. & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar ointment, Foley Kidney Pills, for pain in back and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache, and sleeplessness. CHAS. A. SEARLES & CO.

EAST BURKE.

New Red Cross Chapter—Locals and Personals.

(Mrs. B. F. Humphrey, Cor.)

About 30 from here went to West Burke Wednesday to help organize a chapter of the American Red Cross including West Burke, Burke and East Burke. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. P. S. Harris vice president, Mrs. B. D. Ruggles secretary, Mrs. Harris Colby; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Porter; chairman of the supply committee, Mrs. H. W. Colbeck; chairman membership committee, Mrs. Lyman Sleeper; chairman finance committee, Rev. G. W. Douglass. The next meeting will be held at West Burke, the Burke Branch, at 10 W. R. C. Hall at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, June 14. Coffee and tea will be served. At the meeting of General Sheridan Council, No. 26, J. O. U. A. M., Monday night 13 applications were presented for membership. Refreshment of cake, wafers, doughnuts, and waffles and coffee was served. At the meeting of the election of officers. Mrs. Arthur Gilman, Mrs. Sarah Wilson from Berlin, N. H., visited Mrs. Harry Mathers last week. Mrs. Sherburne Lang and son Philo and grandson Clifton Burrington and Edward Lang were business visitors in Woodstock Saturday. Mrs. Alfred Burrington from West Lebanon, N. H., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Adna Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith at St. Johnsbury Center Wednesday. The friends here of Mrs. Ray Smith are sorry to hear of her continued illness. Mrs. Clara Gilman, Mrs. Dresser of Lyndonville visited in town Monday evening and attended General Sheridan Council, No. 26, J. O. U. A. M. meeting. Mrs. Mary Beldeau spent the week-end in Lyndonville with Mrs. Fienna Down and at the Center with Mrs. Alice Taylor and Miss Sarah Morse. Mrs. Clara Chapman from Concord has been spending the past week with Mrs. F. E. Temple. Mrs. Ellen Walter and daughter Florence from Lyndonville spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lang. A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Lang Wednesday afternoon when their daughter Lillian was married to John Wright of North Troy by Rev. E. W. Sturtevant. Only the immediate families were present. After the ceremony at 2.30 p. m. the bride and groom returned to their home in North Troy and visitors friends in Newport Center, returning to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Lang's Sunday night where they expect to reside. Julius Lang from Monroe, has been spending a few days with his brother and wife, Mrs. John Lang. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathers were in North Troy Wednesday to attend the district meeting of the Pythian Sisters. William Douglass from Windsor Mills, P. Q., visited at A. W. Caswell's Saturday. Mrs. Mary Packer and Mrs. Elsie Gray from St. Johnsbury are visiting Mrs. Charles G. Jones in Barre. Carl Narr and Warren Upson have returned to Woodmont, Conn., after spending a short time at the Bennett bungalow at the foot of Burke Mt. While here they were at Lake Willoughby fishing and caught several fish. A party is expected in a few days. Schools in town finish this week Friday. Miss Holihan of the grammar school will return to her home in Laconia, N. H. It is hoped she will return for the fall term.

LYNDONVILLE.

(Mildred Rivers, Correspondent.)

The Lyndonville graded school closed Friday, June 8. The eighth grade exercises were held in the school hall Friday evening. There were 24 graduates, 18 girls and 6 boys. The program consisted of piano, vocal, cello and violin solos and readings. At the close of the exercises Clifford Egan, in behalf of the class presented the principal, W. C. Jones, with a gold stick pin. The teachers have to go to their respective homes for their vacations. Sybil Barber came home Friday from her aunt's in Woodsville, where she has been very ill. She is now much better. Anna Dalbeck has gone to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. M. Dalbeck in Boston. Raymond Campbell is in Springfield, Mass., for a few days. Miss Flavia Folsom has returned from Tarrytown, N. Y., for her vacation. Mrs. H. W. Lyster entertained her Sunday school class, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Chapman a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Chapman. Mrs. H. M. Atwood has been quite ill with stomach trouble. J. P. Webster has returned from New Jersey, where he has spent the winter. The many friends of J. P. Moody in this vicinity deeply regret to hear of his death at Hanover hospital last Saturday morning. Regular meeting of Esther Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, June 12, at 7.30. Mrs. John Nash entertained the Needlecraft Circle Friday afternoon. Ed. Puffer spent Sunday with relatives in Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Thomas are spending a week in Montpelier and Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bowker of Lunenburg visited at H. P. Sibley's the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and daughters, Dorothy and Alice, are visiting in Danvers and Fairhaven Mass. H. Kennison of Boston was a guest of Prof. O. D. Mathews last week. Leroy Bennett has returned to his home in Woodmont, Conn., after spending two weeks with friends at the Bennett bungalow on Burke Mountain. Mrs. J. B. Frappier and daughter, Clara, were in Middlebury the last of the week visiting Cecil who is on guard there. J. P. Webster is ill with a stomach trouble. Mrs. L. G. Stickney, a trained nurse, of St. Johnsbury, who has been caring for Mrs. Henry Golden has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Golden and their four children have been quite ill with the measles. Wardell Squires has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Bessie Carter in Barre. People who attended the Star theater Monday evening very much enjoyed the music rendered by H. J. Boyle. It included vocal, whistling and piano solos. Lester Butterfield and friend, Miss Doris Pelsey have returned to Middlebury after having spent several days

LYNDONVILLE.

(Mildred Rivers, Correspondent.)

The Lyndonville graded school closed Friday, June 8. The eighth grade exercises were held in the school hall Friday evening. There were 24 graduates, 18 girls and 6 boys. The program consisted of piano, vocal, cello and violin solos and readings. At the close of the exercises Clifford Egan, in behalf of the class presented the principal, W. C. Jones, with a gold stick pin. The teachers have to go to their respective homes for their vacations. Sybil Barber came home Friday from her aunt's in Woodsville, where she has been very ill. She is now much better. Anna Dalbeck has gone to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. M. Dalbeck in Boston. Raymond Campbell is in Springfield, Mass., for a few days. Miss Flavia Folsom has returned from Tarrytown, N. Y., for her vacation. Mrs. H. W. Lyster entertained her Sunday school class, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Chapman a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Chapman. Mrs. H. M. Atwood has been quite ill with stomach trouble. J. P. Webster has returned from New Jersey, where he has spent the winter. The many friends of J. P. Moody in this vicinity deeply regret to hear of his death at Hanover hospital last Saturday morning. Regular meeting of Esther Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, June 12, at 7.30. Mrs. John Nash entertained the Needlecraft Circle Friday afternoon. Ed. Puffer spent Sunday with relatives in Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Thomas are spending a week in Montpelier and Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bowker of Lunenburg visited at H. P. Sibley's the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and daughters, Dorothy and Alice, are visiting in Danvers and Fairhaven Mass. H. Kennison of Boston was a guest of Prof. O. D. Mathews last week. Leroy Bennett has returned to his home in Woodmont, Conn., after spending two weeks with friends at the Bennett bungalow on Burke Mountain. Mrs. J. B. Frappier and daughter, Clara, were in Middlebury the last of the week visiting Cecil who is on guard there. J. P. Webster is ill with a stomach trouble. Mrs. L. G. Stickney, a trained nurse, of St. Johnsbury, who has been caring for Mrs. Henry Golden has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Golden and their four children have been quite ill with the measles. Wardell Squires has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Bessie Carter in Barre. People who attended the Star theater Monday evening very much enjoyed the music rendered by H. J. Boyle. It included vocal, whistling and piano solos. Lester Butterfield and friend, Miss Doris Pelsey have returned to Middlebury after having spent several days

LYNDONVILLE.

(Mildred Rivers, Correspondent.)

The Lyndonville graded school closed Friday, June 8. The eighth grade exercises were held in the school hall Friday evening. There were 24 graduates, 18 girls and 6 boys. The program consisted of piano, vocal, cello and violin solos and readings. At the close of the exercises Clifford Egan, in behalf of the class presented the principal, W. C. Jones, with a gold stick pin. The teachers have to go to their respective homes for their vacations. Sybil Barber came home Friday from her aunt's in Woodsville, where she has been very ill. She is now much better. Anna Dalbeck has gone to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. M. Dalbeck in Boston. Raymond Campbell is in Springfield, Mass., for a few days. Miss Flavia Folsom has returned from Tarrytown, N. Y., for her vacation. Mrs. H. W. Lyster entertained her Sunday school class, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Chapman a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Chapman. Mrs. H. M. Atwood has been quite ill with stomach trouble. J. P. Webster has returned from New Jersey, where he has spent the winter. The many friends of J. P. Moody in this vicinity deeply regret to hear of his death at Hanover hospital last Saturday morning. Regular meeting of Esther Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, June 12, at 7.30. Mrs. John Nash entertained the Needlecraft Circle Friday afternoon. Ed. Puffer spent Sunday with relatives in Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Thomas are spending a week in Montpelier and Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bowker of Lunenburg visited at H. P. Sibley's the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and daughters, Dorothy and Alice, are visiting in Danvers and Fairhaven Mass. H. Kennison of Boston was a guest of Prof. O. D. Mathews last week. Leroy Bennett has returned to his home in Woodmont, Conn., after spending two weeks with friends at the Bennett bungalow on Burke Mountain. Mrs. J. B. Frappier and daughter, Clara, were in Middlebury the last of the week visiting Cecil who is on guard there. J. P. Webster is ill with a stomach trouble. Mrs. L. G. Stickney, a trained nurse, of St. Johnsbury, who has been caring for Mrs. Henry Golden has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Golden and their four children have been quite ill with the measles. Wardell Squires has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Bessie Carter in Barre. People who attended the Star theater Monday evening very much enjoyed the music rendered by H. J. Boyle. It included vocal, whistling and piano solos. Lester Butterfield and friend, Miss Doris Pelsey have returned to Middlebury after having spent several days

KIRBY.

(Mrs. W. P. Russell, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Anderson from St. Johnsbury are spending their vacation at her father, Samuel Fitzpatrick's. Mrs. J. W. Nickerson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Reed, at Cabot. Little Miss Nickerson is sick with the measles. There was no service at the church Sunday afternoon, as so many of the regular congregation wanted to attend the graduation sermon at Lyndonville. The following are the names of the young men who registered in Kirby last Tuesday: Arthur Bridges, Hiram Barnett, Napoleon H. Carter, Merton A. Edney, Harry F. Ford, Glen Goulding, Dustin Griggs, Ralph Hartshorn, Paul Hoyt, Andrew Lassila, Harold E. Qicot, Benjamin F. Ferham, Glenn Powers, Roy F. Powers, George Roney, Isadore Singler, Clyde F. Warren, Arthur Wheeler.

NORTH DANVILLE.

(Mrs. W. P. Russell, Correspondent.)

The Caledonian National Bank will be open Wednesday evenings to receive subscriptions for the Liberty Loan.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY.

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose in an envelope, and mail to Mrs. & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar ointment, Foley Kidney Pills, for pain in back and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache, and sleeplessness. CHAS. A. SEARLES & CO.

vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Beane. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. O'Leary spent the week-end in their camp at Lake Willoughby. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stearns went Friday night to spend the week-end with Mrs. Stearns' parents in Hartford. Mrs. Horace Ayer, who has been confined to the house the past week on account of illness, is gaining slowly. Leo Mongeon returned Friday night from Boston with his wife, Will Forsythe, who has been quite sick at his home with bilious fever, is gaining slowly. The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. I. Hall. The graduating class of the Center school are invited to the First Congregational church next Sunday morning, at which time the Rev. R. S. Caldwell will preach the commencement sermon. The choir will render special music. Ryegate were recent guests of Miss Mabel and Ethel Gray. Orrin Robinson of Orleans was being visited by his son, Fred Robinson and family for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gallagher and son, Eldred, spent the week-end in Lyndonville.

EAST BURKE.

New Red Cross Chapter—Locals and Personals.

(Mrs. B. F. Humphrey, Cor.)

About 30 from here went to West Burke Wednesday to help organize a chapter of the American Red Cross including West Burke, Burke and East Burke. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. P. S. Harris vice president, Mrs. B. D. Ruggles secretary, Mrs. Harris Colby; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Porter; chairman of the supply committee, Mrs. H. W. Colbeck; chairman membership committee, Mrs. Lyman Sleeper; chairman finance committee, Rev. G. W. Douglass. The next meeting will be held at West Burke, the Burke Branch, at 10 W. R. C. Hall at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, June 14. Coffee and tea will be served. At the meeting of General Sheridan Council, No. 26, J. O. U. A. M., Monday night 13 applications were presented for membership. Refreshment of cake, wafers, doughnuts, and waffles and coffee was served. At the meeting of the election of officers. Mrs. Arthur Gilman, Mrs. Sarah Wilson from Berlin, N. H., visited Mrs. Harry Mathers last week. Mrs. Sherburne Lang and son Philo and grandson Clifton Burrington and Edward Lang were business visitors in Woodstock Saturday. Mrs. Alfred Burrington from West Lebanon, N. H., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Adna Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith at St. Johnsbury Center Wednesday. The friends here of Mrs. Ray Smith are sorry to hear of her continued illness. Mrs. Clara Gilman, Mrs. Dresser of Lyndonville visited in town Monday evening and attended General Sheridan Council, No. 26, J. O. U. A. M. meeting. Mrs. Mary Beldeau spent the week-end in Lyndonville with Mrs. Fienna Down and at the Center with Mrs. Alice Taylor and Miss Sarah Morse. Mrs. Clara Chapman from Concord has been spending the past week with Mrs. F. E. Temple. Mrs. Ellen Walter and daughter Florence from Lyndonville spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lang. A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Lang Wednesday afternoon when their daughter Lillian was married to John Wright of North Troy by Rev. E. W. Sturtevant. Only the immediate families were present. After the ceremony at 2.30 p. m. the bride and groom returned to their home in North Troy and visitors friends in Newport Center, returning to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Lang's Sunday night where they expect to reside. Julius Lang from Monroe, has been spending a few days with his brother and wife, Mrs. John Lang. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathers were in North Troy Wednesday to attend the district meeting of the Pythian Sisters. William Douglass from Windsor Mills, P. Q., visited at A. W. Caswell's Saturday. Mrs. Mary Packer and Mrs. Elsie Gray from St. Johnsbury are visiting Mrs. Charles G. Jones in Barre. Carl Narr and Warren Upson have returned to Woodmont, Conn., after spending a short time at the Bennett bungalow at the foot of Burke Mt. While here they were at Lake Willoughby fishing and caught several fish. A party is expected in a few days. Schools in town finish this week Friday. Miss Holihan of the grammar school will return to her home in Laconia, N. H. It is hoped she will return for the fall term.

LYNDONVILLE.

(Mildred Rivers, Correspondent.)

The Lyndonville graded school closed Friday, June 8. The eighth grade exercises were held in the school hall Friday evening. There were 24 graduates, 18 girls and 6 boys. The program consisted of piano, vocal, cello and violin solos and readings. At the close of the exercises Clifford Egan, in behalf of the class presented the principal, W. C. Jones, with a gold stick pin. The teachers have to go to their respective homes for their vacations. Sybil Barber came home Friday from her aunt's in Woodsville, where she has been very ill. She is now much better. Anna Dalbeck has gone to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. M. Dalbeck in Boston. Raymond Campbell is in Springfield, Mass., for a few days. Miss Flavia Folsom has returned from Tarrytown, N. Y., for her vacation. Mrs. H. W. Lyster entertained her Sunday school class, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Chapman a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Chapman. Mrs. H. M. Atwood has been quite ill with stomach trouble. J. P. Webster has returned from New Jersey, where he has spent the winter. The many friends of J. P. Moody in this vicinity deeply regret to hear of his death at Hanover hospital last Saturday morning. Regular meeting of Esther Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, June 12, at 7.30. Mrs. John Nash entertained the Needlecraft Circle Friday afternoon. Ed. Puffer spent Sunday with relatives in Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Thomas are spending a week in Montpelier and Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bowker of Lunenburg visited at H. P. Sibley's the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and daughters, Dorothy and Alice, are visiting in Danvers and Fairhaven Mass. H. Kennison of Boston was a guest of Prof. O. D. Mathews last week. Leroy Bennett has returned to his home in Woodmont, Conn., after spending two weeks with friends at the Bennett bungalow on Burke Mountain. Mrs. J. B. Frappier and daughter, Clara, were in Middlebury the last of the week visiting Cecil who is on guard there. J. P. Webster is ill with a stomach trouble. Mrs. L. G. Stickney, a trained nurse, of St. Johnsbury, who has been caring for Mrs. Henry Golden has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Golden and their four children have been quite ill with the measles. Wardell Squires has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Bessie Carter in Barre. People who attended the Star theater Monday evening very much enjoyed the music rendered by H. J. Boyle. It included vocal, whistling and piano solos. Lester Butterfield and friend, Miss Doris Pelsey have returned to Middlebury after having spent several days

LYNDONVILLE.

(Mildred Rivers, Correspondent.)

The Lyndonville graded school closed Friday, June 8. The eighth grade exercises were held in the school hall Friday evening. There were 24 graduates, 18 girls and 6 boys. The program consisted of piano, vocal, cello and violin solos and readings. At the close of the exercises Clifford Egan, in behalf of the class presented the principal, W. C. Jones, with a gold stick pin. The teachers have to go to their respective homes for their vacations. Sybil Barber came home Friday from her aunt's in Woodsville, where she has been very ill. She is now much better. Anna Dalbeck has gone to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. M. Dalbeck in Boston. Raymond Campbell is in Springfield, Mass., for a few days. Miss Flavia Folsom has returned from Tarrytown, N. Y., for her vacation. Mrs. H. W. Lyster entertained her Sunday school class, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Chapman a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Chapman. Mrs. H. M. Atwood has been quite ill with stomach trouble. J. P. Webster has returned from New Jersey, where he has spent the winter. The many friends of J. P. Moody in this vicinity deeply regret to hear of his death at Hanover hospital last Saturday morning. Regular meeting of Esther Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, June 12