

BARNET

(C. E. Hazleton, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Powers and daughters, Marguerite and Barbara, and Mrs. Harold Lunge were visitors in St. Johnsbury Monday. Chester Somers has purchased a Chevrolet car of Howard Elliott. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Corless of Marshfield, Vt., and Mrs. Elizabeth Blair of South Peabody, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan at English Lake, Can., Sunday. Mrs. R. H. Hazleton, Margaret Willey, Mrs. R. H. Hazleton, Mrs. Charlotte Dow, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Albee and daughter, Marjorie and Mr. E. B. Chase went up to St. Johnsbury Monday night to the Red Cross lecture. Edith Hazleton, Laura Dow and Mrs. Ora Bishop were visitors in South Ryegate Monday. Mrs. Julius Lang and daughter, Nora, visited Ella Robinson Tuesday. Max Lang was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury Monday. Mrs. Elizabeth Blair visited her daughter, Mrs. Hall Merrifield, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and daughter, Barbara, visited Mrs. Wyna House, of South Peabody, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hall Merrifield and sons, John and Stuart, visited Mrs. Merrifield's sister, Mrs. Frank Shaw, of Peabody Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. French visited their mother, Mrs. W. S. Brock Sunday. Mr. Lyman Brock of Springfield, Mass., is spending a few days with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brock, of Coira Colville of Laconia, N. H., is visiting at the home of Mrs. R. H. Hazleton. Mr. Smith of White River Junction, was a business visitor in Barnet Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Darling, of Peabody, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Gadsby. Mildred Hall went to Boston Monday to visit her sister, Christina Hall. Alice Forrest has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ben Ash, of Lyndon. Sumner Gillfillan, Harold and Howard Champney were visitors in St. Johnsbury Saturday. Alton Allen has enlisted in the army and has gone to Burlington. Mrs. Charles Duncan of McIndoe, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Phelps. Bernard and Arthur Forrest have gone to Concord to visit relatives. Miss Francis Bean has returned to her home in Merideth, N. H. Mrs. Ed Somers and daughter, Dorothy, are visiting Mrs. Somers' sister, Mrs. C. A. Bennett. Mr. McNeill, of St. Johnsbury, is working for Mr. B. L. Gadsby. Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Gillfillan and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gillfillan went to St. Johnsbury Monday night to attend the Red Cross lecture. Mrs. E. B. Chase and her sister, Mrs. W. S. Jeffers, returned to Middlebury with Mrs. Walter Sampson Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Somers and Mrs. Charlotte Dow returned to Lake More Sunday. The W. C. T. U. will hold their annual flower meeting at the Christian Endeavor room, Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Somers and daughter, Dorothy, visited Henry Wallace Sunday. Harold Somers, working for Mr. B. L. Gillfillan's store. Harriet Kellogg, of St. Johnsbury, is visiting Ellen Smith. Rev. W. C. Clark, Mrs. Kate Kinney, Mrs. Chester Somers and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith went to Greensboro last Saturday to attend the one hundredth anniversary of the first Sunday School convention in New England. Mrs. S. J. Holmes was a visitor in St. Johnsbury Monday. Mildred Smith went to Lyndon last week to attend the wedding of Miss Walters. L. E. Gillfillan is having a new piazza and steps made at his store. Roy Parker is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Ned Somers. William Campbell, of St. Johnsbury, was a business visitor in Barnet Tuesday.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER

List of Graduates From School—Happenings About the Village. (Edith McLaughlin, Correspondent.) An excellent program was presented by the graduating class of the center school last Friday evening at the Congregational church. The list of graduates is as follows: Mildred Lois Berry, Mary Elizabeth Brooks, Lura Addie Farnham, Walter Daniel Gallagher, Florence Edith Goss, Florence Natalie LaPoint, Charlotte Forsythe, McLaughlin, Gertrude, Adele McLaughlin, Bernard William Stafford, Lida Jane Wheeler, Doris Marlborough Johnson. The program was as follows: Processional; prayer, Rev. R. S. Caldwell; welcome, Bernard Stafford; song; essay, "The Making of Vermont"; Gertrude McLaughlin; recitation, Lura Farnham; song; essay, "Ethian Allen"; Doris Johnson; recitation, Florence LaPoint; essay, "St. Johnsbury Center Ninety Years Ago"; Florence Goss; ribbon drill; essay, "The History of Our Flag"; Lida Wheeler; recitation, Walter Gallagher; violin solo, Charlotte McLaughlin; essay, "The Red Cross"; Mildred Berry; recitation, Mary Brooks; song; "Ann Story"; Charlotte McLaughlin; presentation of diplomas and certificates, Supt. Walter H. Young; song; processional postlude. Mrs. Joseph Nichols is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Viola Clement in Springfield, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith have vacated their tenement here and have gone to East Burke to Mrs. Smith's home. Next Sunday will be Patriotic Sunday at the First Congregational church. The W. R. C. of St. Johnsbury at this service will present the church with a flag. There will also be some speakers from that society present. The choir will render appropriate music. Miss Grace Phelps, who has been the guest of Miss Dorothy Farnham, goes Thursday to Roxbury, where she has employment in a girls' camp for the summer. The new garage recently built by E. A. Monaghan will be dedicated Wednesday evening by a social dance. Miss Elizabeth Beane, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Beane, the past three weeks, has gone to Sunapee, N. H., where she has a position as telegraph operator in a hotel. Bert Gardner and Dean Hall enjoyed a fishing trip to East Haven on Saturday. Mrs. Addie Page is repairing the tenement in her house recently vacated by Arthur Goodenough, and when completed it will be occupied by Mrs. John Le-

LYNDONVILLE

(Edith E. Lewsey, Correspondent.) Church Notes. Congregational—The Children's Missionary Circle will meet with Mrs. Gleason on Saturday at 2 p. m. Public worship on Sunday at 10.45 a. m. and 7 p. m. The Bible school meets at 12. At the morning service they will have the communion, reception of new members and a short sermon on "The Power of Touch." In the evening the subject will be, "Why did God send the war and why does he not stop it?" The weekly Tuesday evening prayer meeting commences at 7 o'clock this week instead of 7.30. Notice the change. St. Peter's—Fourth Sunday after Trinity. Services at 10.45 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 12. Feast of St. Peter, June 29. Service at 9.30 a. m. The Women's auxiliary of St. Peter will give a whist party Tuesday evening, June 26, for the Red Cross, at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Watson. Universalist—No more services during the months of July and August. Rev. H. H. Niles and family have gone to his home in Lyndon, Mass., for their vacation. A number of people from the Universalist society are going to North Hatley, P. Q., to attend the Northern Association. Methodist—Morning service at 10.45 and evening service at 7. Prayer meeting Tuesday evening will be held early on account of the school meeting. The Ladies' Aid will meet in Cabana on Wednesday to sew for the Red Cross. They had a very successful food sale Saturday. Personals. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rice and two children, Kenneth and Katherine, are visiting at the home of G. M. Campbell for a week. Mrs. Samuel McCall from Winchester, Mass., is visiting in town. Mrs. Josephine Wilder is visiting her son, Dr. Wilder, at Whitefield, N. H. Frank Delaney has been in town recently calling on old acquaintances. Arthur McCann was in Claremont over Sunday. Rev. W. C. Johnson, formerly pastor of the W. C. E. church here now of Derby, called on old friends Monday. David Brock motored to Ryegate last Saturday with friends, returning Sunday. Frank Lynch is home for the summer vacation from his school in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Allen were recent visitors in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fairlee went to Fairlee by auto Sunday. Mr. H. Arch returned leaving the family there for a week's visit. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stille returned to Manchester after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch. Phil Ferguson is at home for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson. Joseph Bailey and two daughters from Patchogue, L. I., called on his sister, Mrs. J. C. Stephenson, recently. Edith Lewsey has returned home after spending several days with relatives in Sutton. Robert Turnbull has returned to his home in Berlin after spending several days in Sutton.

SOUTH WHEELOCK.

(Mrs. Lucy Weed, Correspondent.) About 50 friends of Gordon Smith and bride met there at the Old Red Schoolhouse last Tuesday evening to give them a reception. It was a complete surprise to them, they being sent for and asked to come up to the club-house. Music was furnished for dancing by Thrasher's orchestra. Supper was served by the ladies. A purse of money and a host of good wishes were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Frank McGovern and wife of Rochester spent a few days last week with relatives in this place. Luke Lovelace and Miss Caswell were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Lovelace in Eden. Miss Mary Buckley went Thursday to Harbor Beach, Mich., to spend the summer. George Weed and bride returned home Saturday, having spent the week at Caspian Lake, Greensboro. Mr. and Mrs. James Cook and daughter were in Barre last Saturday. The schools in this part of the town closed last Friday. Miss Loan's school presented a fine program to the parents and friends of the school. Olive Caswell was not absent the term through, Morris was absent only one-half day, Pauline and Franklin Dwyer were absent only two weeks through the year and that caused by the measles. Miss Welch's school enjoyed a picnic in the grove back of Mr. Fowler's house. Through the kindness of Mr. Fowler the grounds were in fine shape. He also presented the children with a large basket of bananas. The parents and children set down to a fine dinner, after which games were played by both old and young. At the close of the program they all returned to the schoolhouse where they held a flag raising. There will be a dance at the Old Red Schoolhouse Tuesday evening, July 3. Mrs. A. E. Weed will open a tea room at the Old Red Schoolhouse July 9. There will be no services at the church through the month of July, as the Rev. H. Niles will be away on his vacation. Miss Dorothy McDonald sany a solo and Miss Redfield and Miss McDonald a duet last Sunday.

WALDEN.

(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.) An interesting program was given by the schools in town at the graduation exercises on Friday afternoon. An organ solo by Audrey Smith was followed by the recitations and essays of the graduates: Elsie M. Foster, "The Bridge Keepers"; Carroll H. Foster, "Abraham Lincoln"; song by the school, "America the Beautiful"; Katharine Burbank, "The Progressive for Him"; Delores A. Monyham, "Vermont"; song, "The Star Spangled Banner"; by the school; Albert A. Michaud, "A Single Head of Wheat"; Erwin E. Cox, "The Capture of Rattlesnake"; song, "The Stars and Stripes Mean Home." The diplomas were presented by F. E. Cox, chairman of the school board. An address was given by Superintendent Burbank, and the exercises closed by singing America. James Allen was called to his home in Peabody by the death of his mother Wednesday. Mrs. Frank Shaw with friends spent the week-end at their cottage at Joos Pond. Mrs. Myra Moxam of Cabot visited at N. J. Kingsbury's last week. The Ladies' Mite Society will meet this week from 2 to 4 on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Guy Clifford. Several from here attended the convention at Greensboro Saturday.

EAST RYEGATE.

George B. Wallace of East Ryegate, agent for the Chevrolet car, has recently sold and delivered Chevrolets to the following parties: William Lackie, East Ryegate; Celesta Ross, South Ryegate; Leon H. Hart, Grotton; Charles Hatley, Ryegate; John Mills, North Ryegate; George Bort, Monroe, N. H.; Arthur Dickinson, R. F. D. carrier, Wells River; Eugene Whitman, Newbury Center; Chester L. Somers, Barnet; Lawrence Gardner, East Ryegate; and Edmund Gray, South Ryegate. Mr. Wallace expects to go to New York Wednesday night to make arrangements for more cars.

SHEFFIELD.

(Mrs. D. S. Roberts, Correspondent.) H. P. Simpson's family were in Hyde Park to attend the wedding of their son Alfred to Miss Hazel Fiske, Tuesday, June 26. Mrs. Archie McDowell is gaining. Mrs. Seth Allard is failing. Miss Eveleen Hamilton, of Sutton, is helping Mrs. Clinton Jones. Quite a crowd gathered at the hall for the flag-raising last Friday. Mr. Mathewson and Mr. Jameson made good remarks.

GREENSBORO BEND.

(Mrs. W. D. Hill, Correspondent.) Nearly everyone from this part of the town attended the Sunday school celebration at Greensboro Saturday. Little Doris Bailey has gone to her home in Craftsbury. Bessie Robinson is working at E. A. Buck's. W. D. Hill is sick with measles. Millard Douglass spent Monday in Morrisville. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shastney visited his sister in Woodbury Monday. Miss Jennie Young of Orleans is visiting at W. D. Hill's. A. C. Chase is quite sick. Clarence A. Mason and Lloyd Batchelder are recovering from the measles.

LYNDONVILLE

(Edith E. Lewsey, Correspondent.) Church Notes. Congregational—The Children's Missionary Circle will meet with Mrs. Gleason on Saturday at 2 p. m. Public worship on Sunday at 10.45 a. m. and 7 p. m. The Bible school meets at 12. At the morning service they will have the communion, reception of new members and a short sermon on "The Power of Touch." In the evening the subject will be, "Why did God send the war and why does he not stop it?" The weekly Tuesday evening prayer meeting commences at 7 o'clock this week instead of 7.30. Notice the change. St. Peter's—Fourth Sunday after Trinity. Services at 10.45 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 12. Feast of St. Peter, June 29. Service at 9.30 a. m. The Women's auxiliary of St. Peter will give a whist party Tuesday evening, June 26, for the Red Cross, at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Watson. Universalist—No more services during the months of July and August. Rev. H. H. Niles and family have gone to his home in Lyndon, Mass., for their vacation. A number of people from the Universalist society are going to North Hatley, P. Q., to attend the Northern Association. Methodist—Morning service at 10.45 and evening service at 7. Prayer meeting Tuesday evening will be held early on account of the school meeting. The Ladies' Aid will meet in Cabana on Wednesday to sew for the Red Cross. They had a very successful food sale Saturday. Personals. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rice and two children, Kenneth and Katherine, are visiting at the home of G. M. Campbell for a week. Mrs. Samuel McCall from Winchester, Mass., is visiting in town. Mrs. Josephine Wilder is visiting her son, Dr. Wilder, at Whitefield, N. H. Frank Delaney has been in town recently calling on old acquaintances. Arthur McCann was in Claremont over Sunday. Rev. W. C. Johnson, formerly pastor of the W. C. E. church here now of Derby, called on old friends Monday. David Brock motored to Ryegate last Saturday with friends, returning Sunday. Frank Lynch is home for the summer vacation from his school in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Allen were recent visitors in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fairlee went to Fairlee by auto Sunday. Mr. H. Arch returned leaving the family there for a week's visit. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stille returned to Manchester after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch. Phil Ferguson is at home for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson. Joseph Bailey and two daughters from Patchogue, L. I., called on his sister, Mrs. J. C. Stephenson, recently. Edith Lewsey has returned home after spending several days with relatives in Sutton. Robert Turnbull has returned to his home in Berlin after spending several days in Sutton.

DANVILLE.

Death of Fannie Pope Whittier—Hazen Road Pomona Grange to Meet in Walden. (Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.) Mrs. Fannie Pope Whittier, beloved of many hearts, entered into her heavenly home Friday afternoon, June 26, at 11 o'clock. She was 82 years of age. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a very successful business woman. She was born in Danville, N. H., and spent her childhood in this town. She was educated in the common schools of her native town. She was a member of the Methodist church, and was very active in its work. She was a devoted friend of the poor and the afflicted, and was always ready to help them in any way she could. She was a very kind and generous person, and was loved by all who knew her. Her death is a great loss to her family and to the community. Her funeral services will be held at the Danville Baptist church on Saturday morning, June 27, at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in the Danville cemetery.

EAST BURKE

Mr. and Mrs. Actor McQueen, John Charlard and wife and Miss Chiffie, of Lyndonville, were Sunday visitors at Oliver County. L. Trippe raised his new barn Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett, of Woodmont, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, of Penobscot, are spending a few weeks at the Bennett Bungalow. The school in the White District, taught by Mr. Blodgett, closed Friday with graduating exercises in the evening. Those who passed the State examination were Rose May Lavley, Perley Arthur Lavley, Capol, Herman Rice and Reginald Franklin Orcutt. Mr. and Mrs. William Mathers, and their children, of Walpole, N. H., are visiting his brothers, Henry and Isalah, and daughter, Mrs. Frank Mathers, their father, Henry Mathers, of Kirby, is spending the week here with them. Asa Hunter and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Adna Huntington and son, Clarence, returned from Boston Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Perham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powers returned Sunday. The school in the Bundy district closed Friday with a picnic in Arthur Coy's woods. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paris, of Newark, were Sunday visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gers. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gently and children, Herman and Eva, of West Burke, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver County. Miss Ruth Gero, of the Moore Trip Store, Lyndonville, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gero, Sunday. John Simpson was home from his work in Norton for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. James Naigle and son Fred went Tuesday to Northampton, Mass., to visit relatives, making a trip in their new automobile. Michael Sullivan has finished work for the present in the Darling and McDonald Grill Mill and is working in the sawmill. Miss Geneva Day, of Sheffield, is visiting Mrs. Lyman Brown. Mrs. Wilfred Breausseau has been quite sick the past week with acute indigestion, but is better at this writing. Mrs. Mary Sherburn and daughter, Donna, of Lyndon Center, were week-end visitors at Joseph Denovill's. Mrs. Dr. Root and daughter, Marjorie, spent Wednesday in Kirby, guest of Charles Leach. Mrs. George Larley, of South Rumney, N. H., is visiting her brother, Frank Kinney, and their father, Duval, in Burke Hollow, Joseph Denovill's and other relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. William Moulton, of East Charlestown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Batchelder Sunday. Wesley Humphrey lost a valuable work horse Sunday. Charles Leach, Charles Foster, John Lutz and Fred Farmer visited a Guernsey Stock Farm in Waterbury Thursday.

WEST BURKE.

(Mrs. H. L. Walter, Correspondent.) James Gaskill and Mrs. Celia Buzzell, both of West Burke, were united in marriage Sunday, June 24. Mr. Frank Allard and daughter, Jennie, and Miss Idella Draper have gone to Bethel, N. H., to work at a hotel there for the summer. Mrs. Effie Salomon of Lyndonville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Curtis Stoddard. Miss Annie Gallagher has gone to Lyndonville to work for Dr. Leonard's people. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Leonard and nephew, Master Leighton Miles, and Master Frasier motored to Orleans Monday. Mrs. Fred Frasier has been visiting relatives in Orleans the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Porter of St. Johnsbury are visitors of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Porter. David Porter and family of St. Johnsbury were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Porter. Mrs. Lewis King and children of Lebanon, N. H., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David King. Master Dick Walter is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. William Stuart at Lyndon. Dr. Howard Clisby and mother of Littleton were week-end visitors at B. W. Denmore's. Scott, the pet dog of Perry Porter and also the pet dog of the children, got run over by an auto Monday and a leg broken. Miss Mabel Wheeler has gone to Ezra Chappell's to work this summer. Children's Day was observed at the morning service last Sunday, the program "The College Bell." Preceding

CHURCH AT SHEFFIELD.

Two sisters survive. Mrs. M. D. French, of Williamstown, and Mrs. Malina Clarke, of this place. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday at 2 o'clock, the Rev. C. E. Gould officiating. Interment was in the family lot at Sheffield. Mrs. Dewey, of East Haven, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Lon Bean. Mr. and Mrs. Lusia Bean are the parents of a daughter, born June 18. The Sunday School picnic will be held in Mr. Whipple's grove Friday. The prayer meeting will be in the church vestry at 7 o'clock, instead of 7:30. The missionary meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage. The written examination of the Baptist Sunday School will be held Tuesday evening at Rev. C. E. Gould. Miss Mary Phillips, who has been spending the week at Ola Downer's, has returned home. Miss Olive Bennett, who has been ill at the Sanhan House with scarlet fever, has returned to her home at Danville.

DANVILLE.

Death of Fannie Pope Whittier—Hazen Road Pomona Grange to Meet in Walden. (Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.) Mrs. Fannie Pope Whittier, beloved of many hearts, entered into her heavenly home Friday afternoon, June 26, at 11 o'clock. She was 82 years of age. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a very successful business woman. She was born in Danville, N. H., and spent her childhood in this town. She was educated in the common schools of her native town. She was a member of the Methodist church, and was very active in its work. She was a devoted friend of the poor and the afflicted, and was always ready to help them in any way she could. She was a very kind and generous person, and was loved by all who knew her. Her death is a great loss to her family and to the community. Her funeral services will be held at the Danville Baptist church on Saturday morning, June 27, at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in the Danville cemetery.

EAST BURKE

Mr. and Mrs. Actor McQueen, John Charlard and wife and Miss Chiffie, of Lyndonville, were Sunday visitors at Oliver County. L. Trippe raised his new barn Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett, of Woodmont, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, of Penobscot, are spending a few weeks at the Bennett Bungalow. The school in the White District, taught by Mr. Blodgett, closed Friday with graduating exercises in the evening. Those who passed the State examination were Rose May Lavley, Perley Arthur Lavley, Capol, Herman Rice and Reginald Franklin Orcutt. Mr. and Mrs. William Mathers, and their children, of Walpole, N. H., are visiting his brothers, Henry and Isalah, and daughter, Mrs. Frank Mathers, their father, Henry Mathers, of Kirby, is spending the week here with them. Asa Hunter and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Adna Huntington and son, Clarence, returned from Boston Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Perham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powers returned Sunday. The school in the Bundy district closed Friday with a picnic in Arthur Coy's woods. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paris, of Newark, were Sunday visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gers. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gently and children, Herman and Eva, of West Burke, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver County. Miss Ruth Gero, of the Moore Trip Store, Lyndonville, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gero, Sunday. John Simpson was home from his work in Norton for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. James Naigle and son Fred went Tuesday to Northampton, Mass., to visit relatives, making a trip in their new automobile. Michael Sullivan has finished work for the present in the Darling and McDonald Grill Mill and is working in the sawmill. Miss Geneva Day, of Sheffield, is visiting Mrs. Lyman Brown. Mrs. Wilfred Breausseau has been quite sick the past week with acute indigestion, but is better at this writing. Mrs. Mary Sherburn and daughter, Donna, of Lyndon Center, were week-end visitors at Joseph Denovill's. Mrs. Dr. Root and daughter, Marjorie, spent Wednesday in Kirby, guest of Charles Leach. Mrs. George Larley, of South Rumney, N. H., is visiting her brother, Frank Kinney, and their father, Duval, in Burke Hollow, Joseph Denovill's and other relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. William Moulton, of East Charlestown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Batchelder Sunday. Wesley Humphrey lost a valuable work horse Sunday. Charles Leach, Charles Foster, John Lutz and Fred Farmer visited a Guernsey Stock Farm in Waterbury Thursday.

WEST BURKE.

(Mrs. H. L. Walter, Correspondent.) James Gaskill and Mrs. Celia Buzzell, both of West Burke, were united in marriage Sunday, June 24. Mr. Frank Allard and daughter, Jennie, and Miss Idella Draper have gone to Bethel, N. H., to work at a hotel there for the summer. Mrs. Effie Salomon of Lyndonville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Curtis Stoddard. Miss Annie Gallagher has gone to Lyndonville to work for Dr. Leonard's people. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Leonard and nephew, Master Leighton Miles, and Master Frasier motored to Orleans Monday. Mrs. Fred Frasier has been visiting relatives in Orleans the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Porter of St. Johnsbury are visitors of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Porter. David Porter and family of St. Johnsbury were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Porter. Mrs. Lewis King and children of Lebanon, N. H., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David King. Master Dick Walter is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. William Stuart at Lyndon. Dr. Howard Clisby and mother of Littleton were week-end visitors at B. W. Denmore's. Scott, the pet dog of Perry Porter and also the pet dog of the children, got run over by an auto Monday and a leg broken. Miss Mabel Wheeler has gone to Ezra Chappell's to work this summer. Children's Day was observed at the morning service last Sunday, the program "The College Bell." Preceding

CHURCH AT SHEFFIELD.

Two sisters survive. Mrs. M. D. French, of Williamstown, and Mrs. Malina Clarke, of this place. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday at 2 o'clock, the Rev. C. E. Gould officiating. Interment was in the family lot at Sheffield. Mrs. Dewey, of East Haven, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Lon Bean. Mr. and Mrs. Lusia Bean are the parents of a daughter, born June 18. The Sunday School picnic will be held in Mr. Whipple's grove Friday. The prayer meeting will be in the church vestry at 7 o'clock, instead of 7:30. The missionary meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage. The written examination of the Baptist Sunday School will be held Tuesday evening at Rev. C. E. Gould. Miss Mary Phillips, who has been spending the week at Ola Downer's, has returned home. Miss Olive Bennett, who has been ill at the Sanhan House with scarlet fever, has returned to her home at Danville.

DANVILLE.

Death of Fannie Pope Whittier—Hazen Road Pomona Grange to Meet in Walden. (Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Correspondent.) Mrs. Fannie Pope Whittier, beloved of many hearts, entered into her heavenly home Friday afternoon, June 26, at 11 o'clock. She was 82 years of age. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a very successful business woman. She was born in Danville, N. H., and spent her childhood in this town. She was educated in the common schools of her native town. She was a member of the Methodist church, and was very active in its work. She was a devoted friend of the poor and the afflicted, and was always ready to help them in any way she could. She was a very kind and generous person, and was loved by all who knew her. Her death is a great loss to her family and to the community. Her funeral services will be held at the Danville Baptist church on Saturday morning, June 27, at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in the Danville cemetery.

EAST BURKE

Mr. and Mrs. Actor McQueen, John Charlard and wife and Miss Chiffie, of Lyndonville, were Sunday visitors at Oliver County. L. Trippe raised his new barn Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett, of Woodmont, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, of Penobscot, are spending a few weeks at the Bennett Bungalow. The school in the White District, taught by Mr. Blodgett, closed Friday with graduating exercises in the evening. Those who passed the State examination were Rose May Lavley, Perley Arthur Lavley, Capol, Herman Rice and Reginald Franklin Orcutt. Mr. and Mrs. William Mathers, and their children, of Walpole, N. H., are visiting his brothers, Henry and Isalah, and daughter, Mrs. Frank Mathers, their father, Henry Mathers, of Kirby, is spending the week here with them. Asa Hunter and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Adna Huntington and son, Clarence, returned from Boston Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Perham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powers returned Sunday. The school in the Bundy district closed Friday with a picnic in Arthur Coy's woods. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paris, of Newark, were Sunday visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gers. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gently and children, Herman and Eva, of West Burke, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver County. Miss Ruth Gero, of the Moore Trip Store, Lyndonville, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gero, Sunday. John Simpson was home from his work in Norton for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. James Naigle and son Fred went Tuesday to Northampton, Mass., to visit relatives, making a trip in their new automobile. Michael Sullivan has finished work for the present in the Darling and McDonald Grill Mill and is working in the sawmill. Miss Geneva Day, of Sheffield, is visiting Mrs. Lyman Brown. Mrs. Wilfred Breausseau has been quite sick the past week with acute indigestion, but is better at this writing. Mrs. Mary Sherburn and daughter, Donna, of Lyndon Center, were week-end visitors at Joseph Denovill's. Mrs. Dr. Root and daughter, Marjorie, spent Wednesday in Kirby, guest of Charles Leach. Mrs. George Larley, of South Rumney, N. H., is visiting her brother, Frank Kinney, and their father, Duval, in Burke Hollow, Joseph Denovill's and other relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. William Moulton, of East Charlestown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Batchelder Sunday. Wesley Humphrey lost a valuable work horse Sunday. Charles Leach, Charles Foster, John Lutz and Fred Farmer visited a Guernsey Stock Farm in Waterbury Thursday.

WEST BURKE.

(Mrs. H. L. Walter, Correspondent.) James Gaskill and Mrs. Celia Buzzell, both of West Burke, were united in marriage Sunday, June 24. Mr. Frank Allard and daughter, Jennie, and Miss Idella Draper have gone to Bethel, N. H., to work at a hotel there for the summer. Mrs. Effie Salomon of Lyndonville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Curtis Stoddard. Miss Annie Gallagher has gone to Lyndonville to work for Dr. Leonard's people. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Leonard and nephew, Master Leighton Miles, and Master Frasier motored to Orleans Monday. Mrs. Fred Frasier has been visiting relatives in Orleans the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Porter of St. Johnsbury are visitors of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Porter. David Porter and family of St. Johnsbury were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Porter. Mrs. Lewis King and children of Lebanon, N. H., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David King. Master Dick Walter is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. William Stuart at Lyndon. Dr. Howard Clisby and mother of Littleton were week-end visitors at B. W. Denmore's. Scott, the pet dog of Perry Porter and also the pet dog of the children, got run over by an auto Monday and a leg broken. Miss Mabel Wheeler has gone to Ezra Chappell's to work this summer. Children's Day was observed at the morning service last Sunday, the program "The College Bell." Preceding

THE LESSON STUDY REMARKS WERE MADE

by superintendent and pastor appreciative of the services of Miss Adella R. Draper, who, during her term of service as one of the teachers of the village school, has acted as superintendent of the primary department of the Sunday School, has served as teacher and as trainer of the children in various exercises. Miss Draper was presented with a little volume entitled "The Laws of Divine and Human Friendship." During the summer there will be no regular meeting of the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town in the interest of Red Cross work will be held at the Union Church at Burke at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Five boys from Sutton have attended recent meetings of the Boy Scouts, most of them with the intention of joining the Junior League. The Thursday evening service will be an interesting one. The subject for discussion being "What I would do if I were the minister." In accordance with a request from Washington the sermon on Sunday morning will be in observance of the national day for the conservation of food. A patriotic rally preparatory to a canvass of the town