OLNEY'S DEMAND.
Has Asked For Papers in The Sanguilly Case.
Emphatic Statement Has Been Made to The Madrid Government.
HAVANA, Cuba, April 7.—The case of Julio Sanguilly, it is likely, will be decided by the Madrid authorities soon. Sanguilly's friends are hopeful that an order for his release will be issued. When the Madrid government refused to furnish consular papers in the appeal proceedings, Mr. Williams informed the state department. Secretary Olney has now taken the matter up and laid before the Madrid government an emphatic statement demanding, under treaty, transcript of all the proceedings. This is expected to bring the case to an early and satisfactory conclusion. The consular general is now busy on the cases of Walter Dygert and Luis Quintana. Dygert remains in jail at Guanabacoa, but as the government's case against him seemingly rests mainly on the identity as El Indio, a chief still operating in the field and the supposed identity can be easily disproved, Dygert may soon be released. In the Havana military hospital there are 700 ill and wounded soldiers, in the Principe barracks there are 800 and in Santiago de las Vegas Infantry 400.

SUCCEEDS JAMESON.
Earl Gray Will Rule Things in South African Company's Territory.
LONDON, Eng., April 7.—Earl Gray will succeed Dr. Jameson as administrator of the chartered South African company's territory. He was one of the original applicants for a charter and has been an influential member of the company's committee.

REAL RULER OF EGYPT.
Is Now Lord Cromer, the British Ambassador at Cairo.
LONDON, Eng., April 7.—Lord Cromer, the British minister at Cairo, who is the real ruler of Egypt, is a man of the greatest ability in his profession. He has been in his position since 1883 and has been no end of an object of admiration to the British people. There is a sect in Orissa, Bengal, who worship him as their chief deity, and it is discovered that her majesty is an object of worship in the temple of Phadong-Lama in Tibet.

"Crisis Is Near."
MADRID, Spain, April 7.—The cabinet has adjourned for a few days, and it is expected to receive news of the action taken by the United States Congress on the question of Cuban independence. The Herald prints in big type, "Crisis Is Near." There is a general feeling in official circles that president Cleveland will sign the Helmsley resolutions but will postpone giving them effect in a declaration.

The Kaiser and Bismarck.
BERLIN, Germany, April 7.—The semi-official press are conjecturing that the emperor is planning to resign. Bismarck, the Bismarck newspapers do not accept any criticism of the prince, dealing with the ex-ambassador as belonging to past history, and hold that it is probable he will still be called to guide the state through a crisis.

A Hundred Slain.
LONDON, Eng., April 7.—A Bulawayo dispatch says that the Matabele have slain 100 whites and that 250 are still missing.
Vermont Sheep For Africa.
MIDDLEBURY, Vt., April 7.—George Noonan and E. D. Morrison of Addison, Vt., will sail from Boston for South Africa, taking with them two carloads of first-grade merino sheep for breeding. The sheep were selected in this vicinity.
Terrill Back From Turkey.
NEW YORK, April 7.—Hon. Mr. Terrill, United States minister to Turkey, was a passenger on the steamer Furst Bismarck, which has just arrived from Naples and Genoa. When seen at Quana, he appeared in splendid health, and said he intended leaving for Washington as soon as he landed. He regretted that he had nothing to say for publication at present.
Succeeds Pres. Hippolyte.
NEW YORK, April 7.—The Haytian legation received a cablegram announcing the election of general Tiresias Simon Sam, minister of war under Hippolyte, as president of Hayti, and that the country continues perfectly quiet.

Revival of the Olympic Games at Athens, Greece.
ATHENS, Greece, April 7.—The inauguration of the modern Olympic games which are to be held this week at Athens is due to a Frenchman, Baron de Coubertin, who prides himself on being a Philhellene and who has extensively traveled in Greece, and also to the assistance of many influential men of nearly every civilized nation. It is through the large energy and enthusiasm of Walter Dygert and Luis Quintana, Dygert remains in jail at Guanabacoa, but as the government's case against him seemingly rests mainly on the identity as El Indio, a chief still operating in the field and the supposed identity can be easily disproved, Dygert may soon be released. In the Havana military hospital there are 700 ill and wounded soldiers, in the Principe barracks there are 800 and in Santiago de las Vegas Infantry 400.

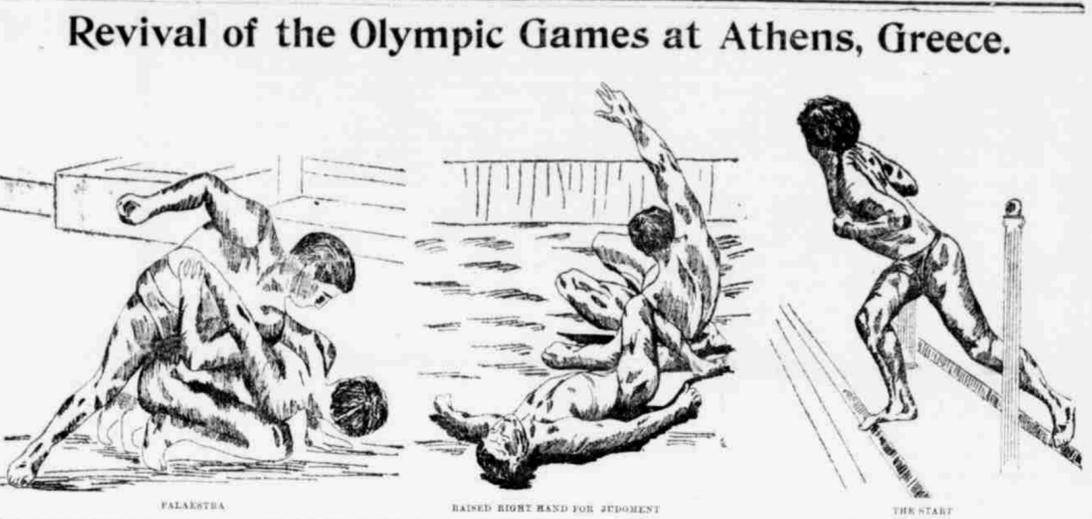

EARL GRAY, Successor to Jameson in South Africa.

WORK OF RESTORATION.
Stupendous Task of Restoring the Stadium at Athens.
The stadium at Athens, an ancient structure, has been in ruins for centuries. The restoration work is a stupendous task, involving the reconstruction of the stadium's structure and the surrounding area. The work is being carried out by a committee of experts, and it is expected to be completed in a few years.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES.
and was chosen captain of the track athletes. At Athens Greece will compete in the broad jump and throwing the discus—the last a sport new to American athletes, but one with which the American games ever consisted. Garrett has a record of 40 feet 2 inches for the shot-put and Princeton pinner hopes to win in this event. In the broad jump he has cleared 20 feet 4 inches. Princeton was entered for the 100-meter sprint a man who is credited with having done a hundred yards in 10 seconds flat. He is Francis A. Lane, who prepared for Princeton at Wittenberg college, Springfield, O. He entered the sophomore class in 1894 and is now a junior. J. H. Coffey, who was to have been one of the runners, could not obtain the permission of his parents to make the long trip. His place was taken by a less prominent figure in Princeton's track athletics—Herbert B. Janney, of Peoria, Ill., a member of the junior class of the scientific department. Janney will compete in the 400-meter race. His best time for the 440 yards is 55 seconds. Three seconds slower than Coffey's. Albert Clinton Tyler, a Wyoming boy, will represent Princeton in the pole vault. He entered the sophomore class in 1893, having got ready for college in the Princeton preparatory school. His record as an athlete is an excellent one. He was a substitute on the football team, and made a good showing in both the Harvard and Yale games when certain line injuries forced him to retire from the contest. Tyler kept up his training through the winter, and when he left on the Florida with his comrades he appeared to be in tip-top condition.

lower than the arena itself, and as the facade of the stadium was about five feet high, people might miss the entrance to the arena without cutting off the view of those in the seats. The most singular feature of this passage, and a great surprise when discovered, was the curve of the bounding wall of the seats, while the long sides of the arena are straight lines. The whole curve thus takes the form of an elongated horseshoe. The practical purpose of this curve is easily seen. It did for the spectators at the ends just what they would otherwise be tempted to do for themselves, by getting up and leaning forward to see the finish, which took place at the sphendone. For the distribution of the spectators, besides the two horizontal passages already referred to, there was a third at the top of the cavea and thirty-one flights of steps running from top to bottom, besides two broad staircases running up the face of the bounding wall of the seats, one on each side, just where the curve of the sphendone begins, the seats are broken by a rock-cut passage running clear through the hill. This was the usual mode of entrance, and the seats would have been filled with spectators upon wood, with the consolation that even old is not so hard as marble. But the king, who will distribute the silver wreaths to the victors, will sit in his box surrounded by the marble splendor of the sphendone. Above the diazoma it was impossible to lay any seats for the present occasion, and although several rows of seats were completed in marble, it had been proposed to finish the rest in Peiraean limestone, but the plan to finish in wood painted white, gained in favor, because it was believed that the stone seats could not be finished in time, and because if the intention of Averoff is ever carried out, to finish the whole cavea in marble, a greater loss of labor will be incurred by working away at the peiraean marble than by employing wood seats, which can be easily removed and sold for something besides. So, in spite of the fact that wood seats were in Greece, the bulk of the crowd at the games found fresh seats upon wood, with the consolation that even old is not so hard as marble. Above the diazoma it was impossible to lay any seats for the present occasion, and although several rows of seats were completed in marble, it had been proposed to finish the rest in Peiraean limestone, but the plan to finish in wood painted white, gained in favor, because it was believed that the stone seats could not be finished in time, and because if the intention of Averoff is ever carried out, to finish the whole cavea in marble, a greater loss of labor will be incurred by working away at the peiraean marble than by employing wood seats, which can be easily removed and sold for something besides. So, in spite of the fact that wood seats were in Greece, the bulk of the crowd at the games found fresh seats upon wood, with the consolation that even old is not so hard as marble. But the king, who will distribute the silver wreaths to the victors, will sit in his box surrounded by the marble splendor of the sphendone.
