Children's Diseases very Prevalent

Whooping cough is about everywhere. Measles and scarlet fever almost as bad. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for raw inflamed throats and coughing. Mrs. I. C. Hostler, Grand Isle, Nebr., says "My three children had severe attacks of whooping cough, and a very few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar gave them great relief." Contain no opiates. Do not accept a substitute. For sale by John W. Thurston. Adv.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Fred Paquette has recently unloaded two cars of Ford and Buick automobiles, which are on exhibition in the finishing room of the Fitzgerald Land & Lumber Co.'s mill. The public are invited to call and inspect the new models.

The Grangers will hold a sugar social and dance in their hall next Thursday evening, April 23. Admission will be 50 cents for sugar and dance, 15 cents for sugar alone. The social will start at 8 o'clock, but there will be the regular meeting at 7 o'clock, at which a large attendance is desired.

Charles Gane of Boston, Mass., visited friends in town the past week.

Henry Amey returned Tuesday to resume his studies at the Vermont Academy, Saxtons River, after spending the Easter vacation with his parents.

R. S. Sanders was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Belpap over Sunday.

David E. Porter, a St. Johnsbury attorney, was in town on business today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sweeney were in St. Johnsbury, Tuesday, where they visited their daughter, Esefa, who is a student nurse in the Brightlook hospital.

Mrs. H. B. Amey visited relatives in Gorham, N. H., Sunday.

Jere King has purchased a valuable horse from Fred Boyce.

Mrs. Andrew Applebee spent Sunday with her son, Earl Applebee, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Amey, accompanied by their son Henry, visited their daughter Alpha, who is attending school in Compton, Que., last week.

Harry Osborne, who has been employed in the local Herald Office for the past two years, has severed his position.

The fire department were called to extinguish a chimney fire at the home of Edw. Dickson on Derby street last Tuesday morning. The damage was small, the fire burning in one room a little.

The attendance at all the churches last Sunday morning was large, but owing to the inclement weather the evening services were not so well attended. Excellent musical programs were carried out and appropriate sermons were preached. The floral decorations in all the churches were beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Hopkins of Medicine Hat, Alberta, have been visiting relatives here this week. Mr. Hopkins will be pleasantly remembered as a former Island Pond boy.

James Kidder has moved into the house on Derby street, known as the Bunker house.

Mrs. Hattie Drown and two little daughters of Brownington, have been visiting relatives here several days this week.

BLOOMFIELD

Mrs. Rich of Averill, Mrs. Wiels of Groveton, Harry Blodgett and wife of Lemington, were called here by the death of Fred Bartlett's baby.

Dr. Hight of Groveton, was in town, Thursday.

Miss Genevieve Cooper has been confined to the house for the past week.

Harland Davis from Granby, is visiting friends in town.

Annie Wheeler, who is in the Berlin hospital, is gaining as rapidly as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartlett's infant son, Hartwell, passed away Saturday at the Lancaster hospital following an operation for appendicitis. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN PASTOR

A surprise birthday party was given to the Rev. W. C. Christie on Monday evening, April 6, by about forty of his parishioners. Mr. Christie was making calls in the country in the afternoon and returned home about 8:30 in the evening, tired and ready to retire, little dreaming of the surprise to be sprung upon him. His wife invited him to step into the parlor and upon entering the room he was greeted by the guests, his parishioners, who had so successfully planned the surprise. An enjoyable evening was spent; a splendid literary and musical treat constituted a part of the evening's programme and refreshments were served after which Mr. Arthur P. Cobb in behalf of the friends of the pastor, presented him with a purse of gold. The party broke up at midnight, all wishing their pastor many like happy birthdays.

Married in Burlington

Miss Caroline A. Bell and Arthur G. Mansur were quietly married April 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hall, Burlington, by the Rev. C. J. Staples. Relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony, the wedding being solemnized very quietly because of the recent death of Mr. Mansur's father, Col. Z. M. Mansur. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit and a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern. Mr. and Mrs. Mansur left on the noon train for New York and will return to Burlington within a short time. They will spend the summer at Newport. Mr. Mansur is a well known merchant in the Queen city.

Mrs. Phoebe Aldrich

Mrs. Phoebe Aldrich, for the past fifty years a resident of Island Pond, passed away on Easter Sunday, April 12, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Bessette.

Mrs. Aldrich had been in ill and failing health for some time. She passed her 94th birthday March 17th.

Funeral services were held from the home on Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. W. C. Christie officiating. Interment was in the old cemetery. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charles Bessette, and four sons, John, Gad and Columbus, all of whom are residents of this town, and Henry of Passaconway, N. H.

Mrs. Harmon has returned from a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. A. I. Farnham, in Canaan, Vt.

MASONIC PAST MASTERS' NIGHT

A most successful year in Masonic circles was brought to a close last Monday evening when about seventy of the brethren gathered in the lodge room. Non-resident members and visitors from Derby Line, Norton Mills, Charleston, Richmond, P. Q., Jeffersonville, Vt., White River Junction, Vt., Portland, Me., and Allston, Mass., were present.

The election resulted in the choice of the following officers for the year ensuing:

C. R. Withrow
Arthur Nourse
T. C. Carr
C. E. Johnson
F. C. Mosher

W. M.
S. W.
J. W.
Treas.
Sec'y.

The third degree was then conferred upon Eugene Foss, Sydney Barnes and John Bridge by officers who had all served as Masters of this lodge. The staff was made up as follows: M. T. Sadleir, W. M.; C. E. Coruth, S. W.; Chas. Gane, J. W.; A. E. Bishop, Treas.; F. C. Mosher, Sec'y.; C. E. Johnson, S. D.; J. W. Thurston, J. D.; R. E. Chesney, S. S.; A. M. Stevens, J. S.; G. L. Dyer, Chap.; H. B. Farmer, Tyler; L. B. Jones, L. A. Cobb, and E. J. Parsons, Craftsmen; John Sweeney, Marshal.

A banquet was served at the close of the degree work at which Chas. Gagne, A. E. Bishop and Rev. W. R. Price were the principal speakers during the postprandial exercises conducted by C. R. Withrow as Toastmaster.

The installation of the new officers will occur Monday, April 27th, at which time there will be a candidate for the third degree.

Farewell Reception

The members of the W. C. T. U., with their husbands and families, met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Randall on Wednesday evening to give Mrs. W. C. Christie a farewell reception.

The programme consisted of a piano solo by Thelma Dickson, two duets by Miss Clara Christie and Master Kenneth Christie, a piano solo by Portia Dale, reading by Miss Colby, solo by Miss Elsie Hall, and a reading by Rev. Mr. Price of East Charleston.

The members of the society presented Mrs. Christie with a five dollar gold piece, to which she feelingly responded. Dainty refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

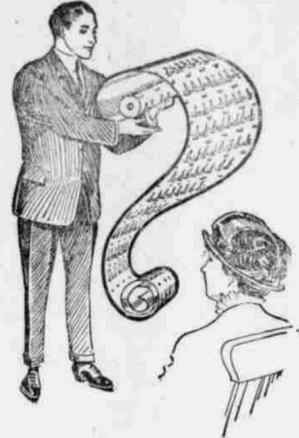

"Uncle"

The Base Ball Association will produce another of their plays, which were so successful last season. An excellent cast has been procured; the play this time will be an English comedy, entitled "Uncle," by Henry J. Bryan. This play had an extended run in New York a few years ago. The cast includes L. B. Jones, W. A. Gleason, C. R. Withrow, Ed. McCarthy, Gertrude Norton, Mrs. Frank Danforth and Mrs. A. L. Bailey.
