NOT MATTER FOR THE PUBLIC

Caruso Considers Remarks About Condition of His Throat Not His Reputation.

So much money has come to the great tenor Caruso, from the bird-like quality of his throat, that some touchiness about remarks made about that organ might not perhaps be wondered at.

One of Signor Caruso's latest lawsuits is with Prof. Della Vedova of Milan, who in 1907 operated on him for throat trouble and restored the wonderful voice.

Three years later when it was reported that Caruso's throat trouble had returned Prof. Della Vedova employed in an interview published in a Milan paper particulars of the operation he had performed.

Caruso was furious. He said that the professor had no right to divulge such particulars, which damaged the tenor's reputation and led to the belief that his voice was not perfect, owing to a weak throat.

The case was decided in the professor's favor. Then Caruso appealed against the sentence and the case was heard again before the Milan court of appeals. In a few weeks' time the court will give its decision.

It is in fact rather a serious offense to pass remarks in any sense derogatory to this valuable throat.

CONDEMNNS GAME OF GOLF

English Writer Gives Many Reasons for His Denunciation of the Popular Pastime.

On the heels of the recent golf championships in England there broke out a fierce letter-to-the-press battle, which still rages, on the merits of the game.

He called it "the incarnation of slop-footed egotism, demanding a style of stroke which cramps and spoils the style demanded for real games."

The arguments of the devotees of golf who locked to the defense of their sport may easily be imagined, but "Anti-golf" had many to side with him.

In Our Last Conflict With Britain.
One hundred years ago three United States regiments marched from Plattsburg, N. Y., for the North.

For every 11 men physicians there is one woman doctor.
Cleveland has a mounted park policewoman.

Among the women workers there are today 30 times as many bookkeepers, clerks and office workers as there were a generation ago.

At the recent session of the National Electric Light association in Philadelphia, T. C. Martin gave an interesting report on the electrical stimulation and plant growth.

SHOWS IMMENSITY OF SPACE

Map of the Universe, Almost Complete, a Most Interesting Scientific Work.

A map of the visible universe, upon which the astronomers of the world have been working for 25 years, is almost complete. It will contain every star which can be found by the most powerful telescope.

Some of the stars which will be represented have never been seen by the eye of man, and probably never will be seen.

The immensities of space which will be represented on the map are far beyond human comprehension or imagination.

The map of the heavens should be an inspiration even to the layman.

THE ART OF SELLING.

Real Salesmanship is a Light That Can't Be Obscured.

The boss wants lookers, because he knows the looker of today is the buyer of tomorrow and he wants to make the lookers feel that his store is "the best place to trade," which is only another way of saying that it is the best place to do one's looking.

Does he get it? Not from all of them. If he did there would be less need for commissions to inquire laboriously into the relation between shop-girls' wages and shopgirls' chastity,

What is salesmanship? No one quite knows. But if you will take care of the lookers, if you will make all the lookers pleasantly remember what you showed them and how you showed it to them when they were merely looking, you will have mastered one very important branch of retail salesmanship.—Collier's Weekly.

Speed of Game Birds.
The Hazel Hen Said to Be a Wonder in a Short Spurt.

What is the fastest game bird that flies? Of course, in seeking an answer to the question, as a writer in the Sportsman points out, one must assume equal conditions of atmosphere and cause for flight, for all creatures, human or other, seek their highest rate of speed under the influence of fear.

A recent writer declares that in a race of, say, 200 yards he would back a bird which, though not found in Britain, is indigenous to most of the rest of Europe and is especially familiar in Scandinavia—the hazel hen or gell-notte.

Yet, curiously enough, this is one of the forest haunting birds which, like the American "fool hen," usually fly up into a tree when flushed and, rejecting further attempts at escape, elect to be shot sitting. "But," says the writer referred to above, "on the rare occasions (and that they are rare I readily admit) when one catches a gell-notte in the open I have never seen any bird fly so fast nor move its wings with such extraordinary rapidity."

Next to it at any rate one must surely place the art, which has a marvelous knack of getting under way quickly. Some experienced observers would give the third place to a blue-rock pigeon—the wild, not the Hurlingham variety.
