TAKEN ON A DEBT and must be sold at once one upright Everett piano. Inquire of H. E. RANDALL South St., Island Pond, Vt. 7-1f

I have a full line of vegetables at the Davis market and will fill all Island Pond orders from this stock. Orders for fall and winter left at the market or with O. T. Davis will be given my careful attention. Hopewell Farm, W. E. ROBINSON. 12-2tp

The best girl's box. After lunch a musical program was arranged as follows: Piano duet, Mrs. Turgeon and Miss Steady; solo, Mary Turgeon; duet, Misses Clare and Vivian Rooney; after which W. A. Gleason, who acted as toastmaster, called upon some of those present and all responded in a most able manner. Abel Parent's short sketch of Columbus and Columbusism was of much interest to those present. When the toastmaster called upon Mr. Parent, J. W. White won the big laugh of the evening and showed his ability as a jester, by pulling his hat from the peg and bidding everyone "good night," but we assure Mr. White he missed a treat. After the cigars the hall was cleared of the tables and dancing again prevailed until a late hour.

Gospel Campaign Closed.
Sunday, Oct. 10th, was undoubtedly the greatest day religiously Island Pond has seen for many years. Evangelist Lewis E. Smith closed the gospel campaign which he has been conducting with the Methodist and Congregational churches. Large audiences were present at every service. One hundred and ten men were at the Y. M. C. A. in the afternoon and heard Mr. Smith's address "Change Your Hitching Post." If there was a man present who didn't find out what he was tied up to—it was not the fault of the speaker. It was an address full of hot shot but none the less helpful. The Congregational church was filled in the evening and the closing address was on "Conscience and Memory," or "What will your record be?" There was a good response to the invitation to begin the Christian life and 30 people came forward to the altar and knelt as having begun the Christian life during the progress of the meetings.

The pastors of the two churches express themselves as highly gratified over the campaign and the general verdict of the people is that a genuine revival has taken place and the whole community has been stirred.
Mr. Smith left on the noon train Monday for Portland for a two days' rest and then began at Johnson, Vt., Wednesday night. He made many friends in Island Pond and has the best wishes of the people for continued success in his work.

J. C. Rockwell's "Sunny South" Co.
J. C. Rockwell's "Sunny South" company, always a favorite here, since it made its initial appearance, several seasons ago, will appear in the Opera House, Island Pond, Wednesday evening October 20th. This season, from curtain to curtain, the performance is absolutely new in every deal. Promptly at the appointed time the curtain rises and from that moment until the final you will have fun without a blush, songs of sentiment by vocalists of ability, comic ditties by comedians, who furnish humor without a taint. Year after year the "Sunny South" company and its manager, J. C. Rockwell, have grown in popularity until now the mere announcement of their coming is all that is necessary as a guarantee to the audience that they will be sent home feeling satisfied they have received full value for their money. This season the company is presenting a performance that is up-to-the-minute, bright and pleasing from start to finish. From the rise to the final fall of the curtain it will be found to be full of good clean comedy bright and catchy music, all of the whistling kind, and it is illuminated with an olio of high-class and sensational vaudeville stunts, the kind that are seldom seen outside the larger cities. During the entire performance there is a moment when some of the numerous cast are not occupied rendering matters pleasing to the audience. The organization is accompanied by a solo concert band and a superb orchestra. The band will head the "Koontown" parade at 8:00 p. m. The prices of admission have been
