Y. M. C. A.

594 more men used the beds in January 1921 than the same month of last year. This meant the necessity of more help to do the work. Mr Peter M Dennis, has been employed as an assistant, especially to aid in the boys work, he has had considerable experience in this department of the work in general. Stanley Hill, who has faithfully and efficiently served the association for nearly one year as day clerk, is now caring for the night work until Mr Dennis familiarizes himself with the duties, then they both will be associated in both night and day work. Mr William Bentley, is now employed during the day and will have care of the building during those hours.

General work outside of the Boys Department has been neglected during the winter owing to the Association not having sufficient help to meet the growing needs.

By aid of the standing committees, we desire to run a pocket billiard and checker tournament and other social events. All who are interested in the above are requested to make their wants known to Mr Fred Boyce, chairman social work committee or to one of the secretaries.

The Boys pocket billiard, carroms and miniature bowling tournaments are progressing and the Friday afternoon meetings are of much interest to the boys. There is more room, boys come on and become one of the bunch.

A sing song, at the Y Saturday evening, all who enjoy a social hour of song are invited. Will be conducted by Mr C L Hall, who is supplying the Episcopal church. He is a good leader in song and a pleasant evening assured.

The Young Mens Service Club are reorganizing and again doing business.

Leather binders has been secured for the magazines which is a decided improvement in appearance as well as convenience.

The Boys club are expecting to take a hike next Saturday and many of them are already commencing to fast, the only thing that is perplexing them, how are they to get all of their food up to the camp?

The report of the delegates that attended the Older Boys Conference at St Johnsbury, at the club meeting last week and at the M E Sunday school Sunday was well worth hearing and the boys did a good job. Over five hundred boys were present at the conference, and 132 made a decided stand for the christian life, and nearly double that number pledged themselves for a better work among their associates at home.

TO THE TAXPAYERS IN REGARD TO FEDERAL INCOME TAX FOR THE PERIOD OF 1920

INDIVIDUALS

Who should file income tax returns?

Returns should be filed by every citizens of the United States and by every person residing in the United States, though not a citizen thereof, having a net income of $1000, if the person is single; and $2000 if the person is married. A widower, or widow, or husband and wife not living together, are liable for the filing of a return if their net income is $1000 or over, although they may be classified as the head of a family, dependent on the status as of December 31st, if the chief support of one or more closely related to them by blood, marriage, or adoption residing in the same household with them. An additional exemption of $200 is allowed for each child under eighteen years of age, or persons mentally or physically incapacitated.

All returns should be filed on or before March 15, 1921, with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the taxpayer resides, in order to avoid a penalty where a liability exists.

PARTNERSHIP RETURNS

Every partnership is obliged to file with the Collector of Internal Revenue a return on or before the 15th day of the third proceeding month after the closing of their books, whether a gain or loss is evidenced.

100 Vermont Children in Distress

A high class moving picture entertainment will be held in the Opera Hall in the near future to raise the Island Pond quota for the Vermont Childrens Aid Society to care for these destitute children of our own state. This is the cry of a little child, and the future of Vermont depends upon the care of its little ones. The conservation of child life is the most important service we can perform, and Vermont has a splendid organization to care for its neglected and homeless children. It cooperates with the State Board of Charities and Probation, The Red Cross, The State and Local Boards of Health, The Kurn Hattin Home The Home for Destitute Children and St. Joseph Orphanage. What can you do to help? Buy tickets to this entertainment. The Vermont Childrens Aid Society is absolutely non-sectarian, let everybody get into this project and make it a success. There will be no expense except the cost of the picture. The use of the Opera Hall and showing the picture is being contributed.

Following are the members of the local committee: Finance, Mrs E A Thurston, Mrs L A Cobb, Mrs F E Boyce; Patronesses, Mrs A E Merritt, Mrs Carl Swenson, Mrs H B Johnson, Mrs Fred Paquette, Mrs Eugene Foss, Mrs S J Maroney, Mrs A E Parlin, Mrs Ray Lindsay, Mrs F C Mosher, Mrs Lizzie Foster, Mrs C M King, Mrs. Emma Lacroix.

Island Pond to Have Chautauqua This Year Five Day Affair

Island Pond is to have a Community Chautauqua here this summer. Miss L. M. Windette, special representative from the Community Chautauquas, offices of which are located in White Plains, New York, arranged with the local people of the town for a five day session. The contract provides for lectures and entertainments and features of different kinds. There will be two programs given on each of the five days—one in the afternoon and one in the evening.

This will be the fifth time that Island Pond has enlisted under the banner of the great Community Chautauqua system. This vast organization has a reputation for presenting the best five-day Chautauqua in the country. Its operations extend into every state east of the Mississippi River and into Canada. In a single summer this company holds Chautauquas in about seven hundred towns. Such a company must necessarily be one of real service and value to the community, for if it were not it would not continue to serve these towns year after year.

Local citizens who affixed their signatures to the contract are satisfied that with a project of this kind in view, better and more worthwhile entertainment is in store for us. These same people realize that what is needed is more of the ideals which chautauquas stand for. When the Community Chautauqua does come, everyone will be urged to attend every session.

It is now that later on in the season the work of selling tickets for the Chautauqua will begin. You can make this part of the work easier for the local people who are to sell the tickets, if you will buy yours when they are first offered for sale. It will be both economical and helpful to buy season tickets because single admissions are much more expensive. The names of the talent which is to appear on the program is not announced yet. At the proper time the organizer will be in town from the White Plains offices and will give full information concerning the talent, etc. At that time the organization of the local committee will be effected. We know that the citizens of Island Pond will welcome the Community Chautauqua and will support it both morally and financially.

Poverty Social in M. E. Church

The Delta Alpha class of the M E Church gave a poverty social Monday night in the vestry of the church. About sixty-five were present. We are informed from a reliable source that if one wants to know the size of their nose, how to dress in the latest style or who is who in town just attend a poverty social.

Julia H. Clarke

Miss Julia H. Clarke died Sunday evening, after several months illness. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Giles Clarke of West Charleston, and was 78 years of age. She had always lived in West Charleston and Island Pond, with brothers and sisters. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Flora Robinson of Island Pond and Mrs. O. M. Carpenter of Derby Line, a brother, Olin Clarke of Chicago, a niece, Mrs. Carroll Davis of Newport, and two nephews, Harry and Robert Clarke.

The funeral was held from her late residence, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. A. A. Mandigo, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Burial was in the local cemetery.

A woman of sterling worth, who gave herself in efficient loving service, has come into her own. During the World War her capable hands were for many months busy knitting for the soldiers. Pleasantly situated, she would gladly have carried a few years longer to help cheer and comfort others. She gave much and was made happy by so little, but all that loving hearts and hands could do by the tender care, could not keep her here, and those who saw her resting so peacefully after falling asleep, doubt not, the awakening to life Eternal, was in a glorious dawn, the beauty of which mortal eye hath not seen, and we lingered beside her, thinking of the reunion among those who have preceded her into mystery of the Great Beyond. Where God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes, and there shall be no more death.

Womans Club

The Womans Club met at the home of Mrs Parlin January 27. The subject for the meeting was Immigration. Interesting papers were read by Mrs Merritt, Mrs King and Mrs Bosworth. The national airs of Belgium and France were played on the victrola. Then papers were read by Mrs Mandigo, Thurston and Parlin. More music and a social half hour was enjoyed. The next meeting is to be the social afternoon held at the home of Mrs Parlin on Feb. 10.

At the Congregational church Sunday morning a student, Mr Collins of the McGill Congregational College in Montreal, occupied the pulpit preaching an able interesting sermon, adding much to the pleasure of his congregation by his excellent tenor voice. Professor Richie the head of the college is expected to visit and occupy this church in the near future.

Private Stocking.

A North Shore citizen took Junior up on his knee and asked him: "Well, my little son, what would you like Santa Claus to bring you for Christmas?"

"Oh, I want him to bring me a hunding."

"A hunding, eh? And may I ask you to describe one?"

"I don't know how they look, but when you and Mr. Jones came up from the basement the other evening you said to him: 'Wasn't that a hunding?' and he said: 'It sure was! I would like to have one just like that for Christmas.' So I thought if it was something nice for Christmas I would like to have one too."—Publisher's Auxiliary.

A Little Love Story.

A dreamer and a man of action loved a woman. The dreamer said: "I shall write verses in her praise; they will touch her vanity and she will love me for them."

But the man of action said: "How old fashioned! I shall corner the stock market, and that will bring her."

So the dreamer wrote verses, and he induced a friend of his, who ran a ten-cent magazine to print them. And the man of action cornered something or other and became a millionaire.

In the meantime the girl married a man who inherited his money, and lived happy ever after.

But the dreamer was so proud of his verses that he didn't care; and the man of action was so busy that he didn't care.

The only one to suffer was the man she married.—Exchange.

Tells Joke on Himself.

The other morning when Mrs. B's new neighbor accompanied her husband to the door as he was about to start on his way to his work, she lovingly called out to him: "Good-by, sweetheart." Soon after Mrs. B and their little daughter went to the door with Mr. B. He kissed the little one and said good-by to Mrs. B.

She, not wishing to be outdone by her happy neighbor, called Mr. B— as he was half way down the walk: "Good-by, dear."

Mrs. B— turned around so quickly she looked back at her wife that he smiled and with a hearty kept on his feet. "I see," she said, "you who pressed my husband's hand on the street," said
