JASPER:

FRIDAY, : : : JULY 30, 1858.

We see nothing in the future to warrant any hope of success by the Republican party. It needs but unity of action on the part of the Democracy of Indiana and Illinois to obtain an overwhelming triumph in the important elections which occur in these States the coming fall. Defeat can only happen in either state by personal dissensions in the party, involving no principle, and which the rank and file should not permit to influence them. Democrats need but to stand by their organization, yield obedience to its usages, support its regular nominees, and all will be well.

The above we clip from the State Sentinel, the central organ of the democracy of this State, and most cordially do we endorse it, giving us it does a true account of the bright prospect before us, and embracing the only test of fealty to the party, which has been endorsed by our own district convention at Princeton, and by all other democratic conventions throughout the State, viz: "stand by the organization, yield obedience to its usages, and support its regular nominees." Thus it will be seen that the question of Lecomptonism does not enter into the test. This is as should be; that question has been fairly settled; so let it rest. But if any one lets his views on that question, or any other question, or his love for office outweigh his love for the principles of democracy, and make him an independent candidate against the regular democratic nominee, of course he renounces his allegiance to the party, is no longer a member of it, and cannot receive the support of any good democrat. This rule will apply to our district and county offices as well as the State ticket; the district and county organizations being necessary auxiliaries to the State organization, and whose authority and efficiency must be sustained in order to insure success to the State ticket. We have been led to these remarks by noticing the easy manner in which Judge Hovey's apostasy and unblushing effrontery is treated by some democratic newspapers, and by rumors that in our own county, there are some, who have formerly been classed as good democrats, that intend running as independent candidates for county offices in opposition to the regular nominees of the party. We hope if any democrat has an inclination to do so, he will first seriously consider the step he is about taking, and let his sober, better judgment, free from all personal ambition, or desire to accommodate friends, govern him; and we are sure if he does this, he will remain firm, and support the regular candidates of that party which has stood by the Constitution and the Union, and administered the affairs of the Nation, State and County in such a manner as to secure prosperity and happiness to all.

Robbery and Arson.

On Tuesday last our town was visited by a series of the most infamous and audacious transactions we have yet had to place on record. At a late hour, when most of our citizens had retired to rest, two heartless ruffians were detected in the act of setting fire to the daguerrean car of Messrs. Bilderback & Tilman. They had placed a large quantity of shavings and other combustible material underneath the car, which being set on fire immediately burst into a vast blaze. Several young men reached the spot in time to save it from the flames. Meanwhile the dastardly knaves took to their heels, and with commendable speed scampered over fences and gardens till they were lost sight of. They made their escape for the time being, but the outline of their persons was distinctly seen by more than one, and together with the general circumstances connected with the diabolical act leave little room for doubt in the minds of most as to their identity.

As the car was standing in the public square at but a short distance from other buildings, it is impossible to estimate the extent of the evil had the villainous attempt succeeded.

On the same night, and, it is believed, by the same parties, the drug store in this place was broken into and upwards of a hundred dollars worth of the most valuable drugs in the store were stolen. Mr. Newton, the gentlemanly proprietor of the drug store, has our sympathies for the loss he has thus sustained. It is to be hoped he may recover at least a portion of the abstracted goods.

On the same night these genuine servants of Satan gave still further evidence of energy and zeal in their master's cause by removing horses from the stables of their owners, &c.

For several months back a number of similar outrages have been perpetrated in this place, on inoffensive good citizens. At each recurring instance suspicion seemed to point with increasing certainty to certain persons as the guilty agents. Since these more recent high handed acts, suspicion seems to have grown into something like certainty. They are marked men, and judging from public sentiment, which at present seems ready to burst forth into positive action, should anything further transpire, neither family ties, present or past position in society, can save them from summary punishment.

For the peace and safety of society it is earnestly to be hoped that the guilty parties will be brought to punishment. Meanwhile, even should nothing further occur to justify an arrest, suspicion, based on strong circumstantial evidence, exists in the minds of the community, in a sufficient degree to cause these evil doers to feel that "the way of the transgressor is hard."

Hon. David S. Lewis has been nominated by the Democracy of Orange county as their candidate for Representative. He is a man of excellent character and some experience, having served in the legislature with satisfaction to his constituents. The Democrats of Orange should give him a large majority.

Gen. S. D. Williamson. This well-known and well-tried veteran in the cause of democracy is again in the field. He was the unanimous choice of the Democratic Convention of Spencer county, held at Centerville on the 10th inst, being justly considered by them as by all odds the most suitable person to represent his county in the State legislature. The General has represented Spencer county for the two last consecutive terms at Indianapolis. Then he served his constituency and party generally with zeal and ability. He is a regular "old liner," and has fought in the front ranks of the democratic party for lol these many years. In seasons of political turmoil and uncertainty, such as try men's souls, the General has ever been found at his post, bidding defiance to the foe—unfurling the banner of his party, and with words of encouragement and cheer inciting the friends of the cause to rally round the standard of Democracy, and do battle for the right. As a high-minded honorable citizen, as well as a consistent, unflinching politician, he is certainly well entitled to the unwavering support of his party, and cannot but be considered by all who are capable of appreciating true merit, as well fitted to fill the position for which he has received the nomination. Supported by such men as Col. Howell, Col. Proctor, Dr. Crooks, R. L. Crosley, G. W. Lemonds, and a host of others we might name, of strong hands and steady aim, the General can scarcely fail of success. We trust that old Spencer, at the coming election, will be sufficiently true to its own interests, to roll up for this popular candidate a large majority.

Congressional Convention.

The Democrats of the First Congressional district assembled in convention at the court house in Princeton, on Thursday, the 23d inst.

The number of delegates in attendance was very large, embracing full representations from every county in the district, and including the best Democrats in the Pocket—men who are an honor to their party in point of intelligence, integrity, and loyalty to the great doctrines of Democracy.

At 10 1/2 o'clock, at the request of the chairman of the Executive committee, Dr. Graff, of Gibson, called the meeting to order, and on his motion, Judge Carnahan, of Posey, was called to the chair.

On motion, Hon John Moore, of Knox and Hon RA Clements, of Daviess, were chosen as Vice Presidents.

The Democratic editors of the District were appointed to act as Secretaries.

On motion of O T Baird, of Daviess, a committee on resolutions was appointed, consisting of two from each county; and it was decided that the members of the committee be chosen by each county. After consultation, the following gentlemen were reported to the Convention as forming the committee: Posey—EM Spencer, W P Edsen. Vanderburgh—A T Whittlesey, M Gaisk. Warrick—Noyes White, A Johnson. Spencer—R L Crosley, J S Hougland. Gibson—Smith Miller, Geo B Graff. Pike—Wm Hawthorn, W DeWolf. Dubois—Dr Stephenson, S Jerger. Martin—C S Dobbins, A Sherehoff. Daviess—RA Clements Jr, O T Baird. Knox—H S Cauthorn, Geo E Green. Dr Graff, of Gibson moved that the Convention adjourn until 1 o'clock.

Hon S. Miller opposed the motion, and offered a substitute, that the meeting proceed at once to nominate a candidate for Congress—urging that there was no difference of opinion as to who that man should be—and thereupon offered a resolution that Hon Wm E Niblack be declared the nominee by acclamation.

This motion of Mr. Miller's meeting with some opposition, because of its infringement upon the usages and precept of the party—it was finally withdrawn, and the motion to adjourn until 1 o'clock was carried.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at 1 o'clock and was called to order by the President.

The Committee on Rules, &c, reported in favor of the usual rules and regulations to govern the deliberations of the body, which report was unanimously adopted. On motion the Convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Congress, and Wm E Niblack received the unanimous vote of every county except Warrick—four of whose votes were cast for Hon John Law.

RESOLUTIONS. The Convention then proceeded to the selection of a candidate for Circuit Judge of this Judicial district. M F Burke, Esq, of Daviess, and Hon R N Carnan, of Knox, were announced as candidates. The former was declared the nominee on the first ballot. Judge Carnan received the votes of Posey and Knox.

RESOLUTIONS. The committee on resolutions now made the following report which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we fully and cordially endorse the doctrines enunciated in the Cincinnati platform.

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the honesty, integrity, and patriotism of James Buchanan, and approve of the policy of his Administration.

Resolved, That we do not regard approval or disapproval of the English bill, or of the President's Kansas policy, a test of Democracy—the only true test being acquiescence in the Democratic national and state platforms and support of the regular nominees of regular Democratic Conventions.

Resolved, That we will support, and we regard it as the duty of all Democrats to support, the nominees of the convention of 31st of January and this convention.

STORIES, &c.

The Convention then, on motion, adjourned to the court house yard, and the large crowd assembled were addressed by Mr Niblack in an exceedingly neat and felicitous speech, returning thanks for the honor conferred and confidence reposed in him by the Democracy of his district, and gave an outline of the motives and policy which had governed him in the past and would continue to govern him in the future, as a representative of the people. His remarks were received with great enthusiasm, and at the close three cheers were given for our gallant and popular nominee.

Mr Chas Dentz, of Vanderburgh, followed Mr N in a speech of great force and eloquence. His exhorting of Hovey was almost too cruel, but the crowd enjoyed it as if they thought he couldn't get a lick undeserved.

Hon J E McDonald, Democratic candidate for Attorney General, next addressed the meeting, and had not concluded when our reporter left.

Letter from President Buchanan.

The President sent the following letter to the Democracy of Philadelphia, in response to an invitation to attend their celebration on the 5th:

WASHINGTON, Saturday, July 3.

GENTLEMEN—I have received your very kind invitation to be present at the meeting of my fellow citizens in Independence Square, to celebrate the approaching anniversary of our National Independence. Would that it were in my power to accept this invitation. This, however, is impossible. May we ever continue to celebrate with ardent enthusiasm, throughout the length and breadth of the land, each successive return of the day which gave us birth as a nation. While we do this, and thus keep alive, from generation to generation, the memory of the common sufferings and the common dangers which our fathers encountered in achieving our independence, the Constitution and the Union will be preserved.

I congratulate you, with all my heart, upon the present hopeful prospects of our country. I humbly trust that a kind Providence has dispelled the angry clouds which but recently seemed to impend over it, and that we have nearly reached the end of these violent and exasperated sectional controversies which have threatened the Union.

When we contrast the present condition of our country with what it would have been at this moment, had Congress adjourned without enacting any law to mitigate the sectional strife which had been raging for years between the States of the Confederacy we have every reason to be thankful to the Supreme ruler of nations, who has ever interferred at the hour of our greatest need to shield us from danger.

From your friend, very respectfully, JAMES BUCHANAN.

New York, July 17.—A dispatch from Washington says that a special messenger left Washington, on Thursday, with dispatches for Minister Forsyth, approving of the suspension of diplomatic intercourse, and directing the withdrawal of the legation, and his return home.

Knowledge may slumber in the memory, but it never dies; it is like the dormouse in the ivied tower, that sleep while winter lasts, but wakes with the warm breath of spring." Memory is a store house in which are garnered all the thoughts and feelings that we have ever entertained.—Recollection is the faculty which enables us to bring forward our knowledge for use.
