JASPER:

WEDNESDAY : DECEMBER 12, 1861.

There is no important news this week, and not enough transpired within the city limits to form a good local item, therefore we issue nothing this week but a small advertising sheet.— Our subscribers shall lose nothing by this omission.

WANTED, at this office a boy, between the ages of 12 and 18, who can read and write, to learn the printing business. Such a boy, who will be steady, can have a good situation.
