THE LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY AND ST. LOUIS SHORT LINE RAILROAD. We are informed that some action will be taken by our general Council in a short time—perhaps at the next meeting—in reference to President Bradley's proposition for Louisville, in a corporate capacity, to subscribe five hundred thousand dollars in the stock of the new short line road to St. Louis. We have attempted heretofore to impress upon the minds of our councilmen and citizens a sense of the importance to Louisville of this connection by rail with St. Louis. We publish in our column of railway intelligence this morning a table of distances by railroad from Louisville to all important points east, west, north and south, as compared with the distances between those points and our natural rival, Cincinnati. This table has been carefully and accurately prepared, and will be useful for reference by our business community, and especially to those to whom the delicate duty of solving the problem of desirable railroad communications has been committed.

A reference to the map of southern Indiana and southern Illinois will convince any practical business man of the fact that it was the construction of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, a road three hundred and forty miles in length, that diverted the trade of that wealthy district penetrated by, and tributary to that road from Louisville to Cincinnati; and a perusal of this same map and our table of comparative distances, will be equally convincing of the fact that not only all that vast trade may be regained, but that much greater additions to our commerce may be secured by the construction of the contemplated short line road by way of Mt. Carmel to St. Louis, while we will place St. Louis one hundred miles nearer Louisville than Cincinnati.

New Albany, with a population of twenty-five thousand, has subscribed $400,000 to the stock of the company; the counties along the line of the road have guaranteed equally liberal subscriptions, and Louisville, which will derive by far the greatest benefit from the success of the enterprise, is asked to contribute but $50,000. We do not deem it the part of wisdom or economy to hesitate, every consideration of prudence urging us to make the subscription.

Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railway—Junction with the Jeffersonville Road.

We learn that competent engineers began, to-day, the survey of a route by which the New Albany road will be enabled to reach the great Ohio river bridge. We presume different routes will be surveyed, but it is the general impression that a junction will be formed with the Jeffersonville road in the vicinity of Bennettsville or Sellersburg, about nine miles from this city, the two roads at those points being only two miles distant from each other, and that the trains for Louisville on the New Albany road will run over the track of the Jeffersonville road will run over the bridge. Of course this arrangement, if consummated, will be an unpleasant one for this city; yet it must be apparent to all that, in order to compete with other roads, the New Albany company must extend their track to the bridge and connect with the system of Southern roads. A second bridge across the river at this point seems to be the only remedy for the proposed diversion of the main trunk and business of the road from our city.—[New Albany Ledger.]

THE CONCLUSION OF THAT OATS STORY. —Last spring we published an account of the purchase, by Morris Morris, one of our most enterprising farmers, residing near Greenville, of thirty-two pounds of oats, for the sum of ten dollars. Well, we promised to give the conclusion of the story after harvest. We to-day fulfill the promise. Mr. Morris sowed the oats, and during harvest garnered from the thirty-two pounds of seed fifty-seven bushels of oats. The variety is known as the Norway, and is just being introduced into this part of the State.

One of the channel spans of the bridge over the Ohio river at Louisville, three hundred and seventy feet long, was completed Thursday. This is the longest span of a truss bridge erected in this country. The whole bridge will be finished in the early part of November.

PLEASANT HILL, MINN., April 9, 1866.

DR. C. W. ROBACK, Dear Sir:—Last fall my wife had the Liver Complaint so bad she was able to sit up but a few minutes at a time. I had a physician doctoring her for some time, but the medicine he gave her seemed to do her but little or no good. I was advised to get her a bottle of your Bitters, and let her try them, and see if they would help her. So I thought if one bottle would be good two would be better, and I got her two bottles, and when she had taken the last bottle she could do most of her house work. I got her one more which entirely cured her, and she looks the best I have seen her for four years. We recommended them to several of our neighbors who have used them with great success.

DR. JOHN BULLS. Great Remedies: DR. JOHN BULL, MANUFACTURER AND VENDOR OF THE CELEBRATED, SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS AND FEVER!

THE proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the cure of Ague and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and South-western country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Truly, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S Worm Destroyer. VILLASOV, WALKER CO., GA. No. 10-29th, 1866.

In John Bull's—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials and find it a most efficacious medicine. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some articles of this kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and so ready in its effects. On the contrary they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine directly from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line of M. D's, but I see no just cause or good sense in regarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its constitution. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the theories of worthless nostrums that flood the country that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully, JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

DR. JOHN BULL'S SARSAPARILLA: A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith. Read the Captain's Letter AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRETT, Missouri, April 26 1868. Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir, knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the high and medicinal qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case. I was wounded about two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for six months. Being moved to a tent, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not sat up a moment since I was wounded. I am shut through the hip. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than anything else. I wish that it is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles and charge Captain C. P. JOHNSON, St. Louis, Missouri.

P. S.—The following was written April 20, 1868, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Mother of Captain Johnson. Dr. Bull—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S. Johnson was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central N. Y., where he died, leaving the above of Dr. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhea and serofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. It cured him. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio, and Iowa, for serofula, fever sores, and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cure effected in some cases is so rapid, and FEVER SORES WERE ALMOST INSTANTLY. I am anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a serious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover. Respectfully, JESSIE JOHNSON.

BULL'S CEDRON BITTERS. AUTHENTIC DOCUMENTS. ARKANSAS HEARD FROM! Testimony of Medical Men.

STONY POINT, WHITE COUNTY, ARKANSAS May 23, 1866. Dr. John Bull—DEAR SIR: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters. My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, and I gave him your Bitters, and soon found his general health improved. Dr. Coffey, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved. Dr. Coffey, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—has improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this section. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicine this fall—especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me six bottles of each of these medicines. Respectfully, C. B. WALKER.
