

REVOLT IN MEXICO

FORTY ARE KILLED IN BATTLE AGAINST DIAZ'S SOLDIERS.

FIGHT GOES ON FOR HOURS

Revolutionists Use Bombs in Severe Clash With Troops and Rurales—Anti-Diaz Conspirators Said to Have Date Fixed for Uprising.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 22.—Reports reaching this city from what is considered to be a reliable source are to the effect that rioting was renewed in Puebla, Mexico, Monday, and that 30 persons were killed in the fighting.

It is said on the streets here that the Mexican military authorities are conducting large numbers of the residents of Nuevo Laredo into the army for emergency service.

United States troops have been sent to the border to be stationed at many points to protect Americans.

Rioting Starts in Puebla.

Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 21.—Forty persons were killed and many were wounded in battles in the streets of Puebla between the forces of the government and a large number of persons who seek the overthrow of the present government. The fighting continued for many hours and ceased only after reinforcements of federal troops had been hurried to the aid of the Puebla rurales and police and the building in which the enemy had taken refuge was taken by storm.

Started by a Woman.

The fighting was started when a woman, seeing the approach of the police, fired into them, killing the chief. She is supposed to have been acting as guard for the anti-Diaz forces, who were holding a large meeting to disperse. As soon as the first shot was fired the anti-revolutionists opened fire with rifles from the windows of the building and a few seconds later a bomb was thrown into the midst of the police and rurales, killing and wounding scores.

Date Fixed for Uprising.

Details of the anti-Diaz conspiracy alleged to have been promoted by Francisco I. Madero, now a fugitive from Mexico, and which resulted in the arrest of several conspirators in this city and elsewhere, came to light, indicating that the date has been fixed for a general uprising. The conspirators appeared to have extended their operations to the states of Vera Cruz, Hidalgo, Coahuila, San Luis Potosi, Nuevo Leon, Puebla, Jalisco, Guanajuato, Yucatan and Zacatecas. To the authorities in all these states orders have been sent to put down any disturbances.

Government is Confident.

Notwithstanding the rumors which are still prevalent of a proposed uprising against the government, the authorities appear to feel no uneasiness over the prospect. Various regiments are under arms and ready for service at a moment's notice. As a precautionary measure the customary Sunday bull fights were prohibited.

Speaking of the situation here, Governor Guillermo de Lanza y Escandon of the federal district said:

"There will be no uprising of the Maderistas. The government is fully prepared to meet any demonstration whatever, and to crush it in its incipency."

Washington, Nov. 21.—Henry M. Hoyt, counselor of the state department, died here of peritonitis after an illness of only four days.

He held the position of solicitor general at the department of justice, in which he was succeeded a year ago by the late Lloyd Duggan. He was of the legal caliber which entitled him to consideration by the president for a position on the Supreme bench. President Taft had an eminently high regard for Mr. Hoyt and he was placed in the state department by the president to deal with some of the grave problems which are now before it.

SUFFRAGETTES' ARMY ATTACKS PARLIAMENT

Women Descend on Session of British Lawmakers and 116 Are Arrested After Lively Fight.

London, Nov. 19.—One hundred and sixteen of the 1,000 militant suffragettes who marched on the parliament building were arrested after a lively fight with the police.

Led by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the women made a determined attempt to force the police cordon about the house of commons and, reaching Premier Asquith, to insist upon the introduction of a woman's suffrage bill.

The women made every effort within their power to break the lines, bringing into play some rare military strategy and football tactics. Fighters in the front ranks retired many times to make way for fresh reserves, but the police were too strongly entrenched. Orders had been given the officers to make as few arrests as possible, but it soon became necessary to jail as many of the women as could be captured.

After Parliament square had been cleared the three leaders of the demonstration, led by Mrs. Pankhurst, were permitted to enter the lobby of the house of commons, where they were met by Mr. Asquith's secretary and informed that the premier would not see them and said that there was no chance for a suffrage bill at the present session.

WILSON SPEAKS OF PRICES

Secretary Declares Homesteaders Are Partly to Blame for Present High Values.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson blamed the homesteader of the west in part for the present high cost of living. In an address at the opening here of the United Land and Irrigation exposition.

"The homesteader," he said, "is reducing the field of operations of the ranchman, which is reducing the meat harvest of the west and becoming quite a factor in the cost of living."

Other causes, he said, were the great immigration to this country and the movement to the cities. The recent tumble in prices of meat he attributed to drought in the range country and to the big corn and oats crops.

BRIAND HIT BY ROYALIST

Premier Is Struck in Face Twice by Man Who Police Save from Mob.

Paris, Nov. 21.—Felled to the ground by blows of a youthful Royalist, Premier Briand pleaded with a mob that threw itself upon the assailant not to harm him.

President Faillieres, also attacked by the same man, assisted Briand before he looked to his own injuries.

But the pleading of Briand would not have saved the attacker had not the police quickly whisked him away, for the crowd had jumped upon him and had started to kick and beat him.

Briand was struck twice in the face and Faillieres was punched in the breast.

The breech block of the gun, which was being tested, blew backward into the crew. Lieut. Arthur G. Chaffee, who was in charge of the gun, was one of the men killed.

The ordnance bureau has ordered a board of inquiry to inquire into causes of the accident, the only witnesses to which were John C. Coleman and Sidney Dyson, both colored.

JUST-BEFORE-THANKSGIVING CALAMITY

RAID STOCK FIRMS

POSTOFFICE INSPECTORS ARREST HEADS OF BURR BROS. AND CONTINENTAL WIRELESS.

MISUSING MAILS IS CHARGE

Said to Have Robbed Investors Out of Nearly $50,000,000 With Worthless Mining, Farming and Transportation Companies.

New York, Nov. 22.—In raids so important that Postmaster General Hitchcock took charge in person, his inspectors fell on two concerns which they charge with swindling the public out of more than $40,000,000 by fraudulent use of the mails.

Heads of Firm Arrested.

Sheldon H. Burr, president of Burr Brothers; Eugene H. Burr, secretary and treasurer of the firm, and Frank H. Tobey, its vice-president, were arrested in the first raid and held in $20,000 bail each. The government charges that the firm sold between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 of mining and oil stock worth little or nothing.

Charles L. Vaughan, a director of the Continental Wireless Telegraph & Telephone company, incorporated in Arizona, was taken in the second raid and held in $10,000 bail. Inspectors say his company has sold stock to the amount of at least $1,000,000 which has brought in no return to the investors. Vaughan is treasurer of the Columbia Finance company, which acts as fiscal agent for the Continental company.

Government After Swindlers.

Both raids are further evidence that the government means business and no longer will be content with issuing fraud orders denying them the use of the mails, but will press for convictions on criminal charges.

Postmaster General Hitchcock estimates that the public has been fleeced out of at least $100,000,000 by get-rich-quick concerns in the last five years, but says their hey-day has gone, and said that other arrests, involving corporations that have sought investors the length and breadth of the country are expected shortly.

"SANE" FOOTBALL KILLS 14

Injured Number 43 During Season Just Closing—New Rules Slightly Less Casualties.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—A total of 14 dead and 43 seriously injured was the price paid for football by its followers during the season just closing, despite the use of the new rules, which were brought into being in an effort to reform the game and make it less perilous to the players.

That the new rules were successful to a more or less extent in keeping down the list of victims, is shown by the decline in the list of victims, as compared with the previous year.

During the football season of 1909 there were 23 players killed and 64 injured. Of the latter, eight died between the close of the 1909 season and the opening of the 1910. Two years ago there was one less death than in 1910, but the number of injuries ran much higher. There were 134 youths so badly hurt that they were forced to have the attention of surgeons.

KAISER PUTS BAN ON DRINK

Tells Naval Cadets They Need Strong Nerve and Character to Succeed.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—The nation which consumes the least amount of alcohol will be found at the head of the column on the fields of art and war, was the keynote of Emperor William's speech at the opening of the new naval academy at Flensburg, Prussia. The Kaiser warned the cadets against the use of alcohol and said that a fighter "needs strong nerves." The times, the emperor said, required iron-hearted men. Character was the first essential and character was founded upon strong moral and religious convictions.

DENY CRIPPEN REPRIEVE; MUST HANG WEDNESDAY

Reported in London Wife Murderer Has Made Confession—Leneve Girl Visits Prisoner.

London, Nov. 22.—Dr. H. H. Crippen, convicted of killing his wife, Belle Elmore, will be hanged November 23, the home office having denied his petition for a reprieve. When Crippen's attorneys informed him of the decision of the home office he merely bowed his head.

When Solicitor Arthur Newton, who conducted the defense of Crippen, was asked regarding the rumor that his client had confessed he refused to confirm or deny the report.

Regardless of the fact that officials of Scotland Yard denied the report that Crippen had confessed, it is asserted that a newspaper has obtained a confession from Crippen and in return will pay a large sum of money to Ethel Clare Leneve.

The Leneve girl visited Crippen in the Pentonville prison after the decision of the home secretary had been announced. The young woman for whose love Crippen was charged with killing his wife wept and cried hysterically as they talked. Crippen was deeply moved himself, more so, the prison attendants said, than at any time since his incarceration.

The friends of Doctor Crippen have not given up all hope of saving him, and a second petition is being prepared urging the home secretary to grant a reprieve on account of the doubt existing whether Belle Elmore's death has been conclusively proved. The news of the death of Doctor Crippen's father in California has been mercifully withheld from him.

EDITOR MUST GO TO JAIL

Fred W. Warren Will Have to Pay $1,000 Fine and Serve Six Months at Leavenworth.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—Fred D. Warren, editor and proprietor of Appeal to Reason, a Socialist paper published at Girard, Kan., must pay a fine of $1,000 and serve six months in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, according to a decision handed down by the United States circuit court of appeals.

Warren was convicted on a charge of violating the law forbidding the use of the mails for the circulation of scurrilous, defamatory or threatening language on the outside of an envelope or wrapper. Warren's offense consisted of using wrappers on which he printed these words:

"One thousand dollars reward will be paid to any person who kidnaps ex-Governor Taylor and returns him to the Kentucky authorities."

This referred to William S. Taylor, former governor of Kentucky.

LEO TOLSTOI DIES

AGED NOVELIST CLOSES HIS LIFE IN VOLUNTARY EXILE.

COUNTESS IS AT BEDSIDE

Sinking Man Fails to Recognize Wife and Passes Away Without Regaining Consciousness—Remained Under the Ban of Church.

Astapova, Nov. 21.—Count Leo Tolstol is dead. Doctor Makovsky and other attending physicians and Countess Tolstol and children were at his side when the end, which was peaceful, came.

Efforts of the church to gather the famous reformer into its folds effected nothing, as neither side yielded.

Tolstol, accompanied only by Doctor Makovsky, left his home at Yasnaya Polyana for the purpose of ending his days in solitude, to which he more and more inclined during his later years. His pilgrimage led him to the monastery at Shamardine, in the province of Kaluga, where he remained as the guest of his sister, Marie, who is a nun in the cloister.

Off to Join Followers.

Learning that his retreat had been discovered, he insisted upon proceeding on his journey to the Caucasus, where he hoped to spend his last days close to the Tolstol colony on the shores of the Black Sea.

But during the railroad journey he was overcome with exhaustion and the cold, and Doctor Makovsky was compelled to have him transferred to the flag station at Astapova, where he was made as comfortable as possible in the rude wooden building.

For five days he had lain there suffering from bronchitis and later from inflammation of the lungs. Specialists were called from Moscow and other places, but notwithstanding their utmost efforts, the heart of the great Russian responded but feebly to the restoratives and stimulants administered.

Sketch of His Career.

Count Lyof Nikolavitch Tolstol, usually called Count Leo Tolstol, novelist and social reformer, was born August 28, 1828, at Yasnaya Polyana, in the province of Tula, Russia.

When twenty-three years old Tolstol entered the army and served in the Caucasus and in the defense of Sevastopol against the British and French allied forces. He first made a reputation in literature by a series of vivid sketches written from Sevastopol, and when he left the army, soon after the Crimean war, he devoted himself entirely to literature.

In 1901 Tolstol was excommunicated by the holy synod and in October, 1902, he deposited his memoirs and diaries with the curator of the Rumyantsev museum on the condition that they should not be published until ten years after his death, and in November of the same year he legally made over his whole fortune, including his real and personal estate, to his wife and children.

Defense of Dukhobor Sect.

In 1895 Tolstol wrote a powerful defense of the Dukhobor Sect, which during the year had suffered great persecution for its religious professions. On the Russian censor refusing to permit its publication, Tolstol applied to the London Times, which printed the long article in full. He continued from that time on to address his literary efforts to the British press.

Tolstol several times was threatened with expulsion from Russia, and several times, according to report, was upon the point of being exiled; but he seemed on the whole to have been treated with unusual leniency, in view of his strongly pronounced views, especially as set forth in a manifesto entitled "The People's Rights," his criticisms of imperial acts and his open letters to the emperor. He was, however, expelled from Moscow in July 1901, and since had resided at Yasnaya Polyana.

R. veteran of San Jose, who has invented the concrete railroad tie, is now in escrow in the Crocker National bank. A syndicate of eastern railroads has been formed to buy the patent rights of the San Jose man and $500,000 will be given to him when the contract is signed and by January 2, 1911, the total of $17,000,000 will be placed to his account.
