Holes In It. Shuler's Machine Cross- es the Portersville Bridge.

The "REINFORCED" Concrete Floor Drops In the river.

Last Wednesday while some of his men were taking Shuler's machine across the NEW Bridge at Portersville the "REINFORCED" Concrete floor broke at 4 different places. When the machine was across the bridge, the floor had 4 large holes about 2 feet in diameter in it. The Co. Commissioners went out there yesterday and inspected their recent purchase, which was decidedly more "holey than righteous." It will cost the county $400 to patch the floor up. Nice new bridge.

"Let It Be Known."

Ben Franklin said, "If a man can do business he should let it be known."

Modern commercial history has shown that a man can not do business unless he does "let it be known"; also, that almost any man can do business if he does "let it be known."

The business world is full of instances of men who "let it be known" and do business; and the bankrupt courts are full of instances of men who failed to "let it be known"—and failed to do business.

Therefore, men and brethren in business, "let it be known."

Micheal J. Scheurich

Is this week announced as a candidate for County Assessor of Dubois County. Mr. Scheurich is a native of Bainbridge township having been born and raised and lived on a farm about 3 miles south of Jasper up to about 6 years ago when he moved to Jasper and engaged in business. While in the coal business the elevator cable on the shaft hoist broke one morning and fell down the shaft about 40 feet and Mike with it; his right leg was so badly shattered that it had to be amputated at the knee. He is married and has several children. When elected he will make the County a good Assessor. Here's best wishes.

The automobile is continuing its march of conquest as means of transportation. Automobiles are now as thick as all other vehicles on the road and getting thicker all the time.

Many people who want to try a car but don't want to spend the money that a new one costs, are looking out for second-hand cars. Anybody so interested would do well to write the Maxwell Motor Car Company of Lawrenceville, Ill., a postal requesting their catalog on used cars, in which they claim to be the largest dealers in the state outside of Chicago, and who offer a line of cars at small prices with a broader and better guarantee than given by any manufacturer of new cars.

The Indianapolis Business Men's Association arrived in Jasper Saturday afternoon accompanied by the Indianapolis Newsboy's Band on a special train; they spent about an hour with us interviewing our business men and the band consisting of about fifty newsboys gave us a good band concert.

There are, however, a number of other ways of having a good time besides indulging in the reflection that a rich man can't take it with him when he dies.

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS PEACE

Everything in Readiness for Perry Centennial Celebration in Louisville

KENTUCKIANS HOME-COMING

Parade of 5,000 Costumed School Children Opens Celebration Monday—Many Pioneers, Descendants and Prominent Visitors Among Those Participating in Gala Occasion.

Louisville, Ky.—(Special).—Louisville is in gala attire preparing for her mammoth celebration beginning next Monday and continuing through the following Sunday. So stupendous is the nature of the celebration that all railroads have granted a rate of one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip from states south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi for passengers arriving in Louisville by noon Monday, and cheap excursion rates will be in effect from points within several hundred miles.

Spectacular free attractions have been provided for every day and every evening of the Louisville celebration. A museum has been established in which have been placed hundreds of relics of the second war with Great Britain including the entire government exhibition of Commodore Oliver H. Perry's relics; the old Burgoyne cannon which was captured from the French in the French and Indian War; from the English at Yorktown; from the Americans in Hull's surrender of Detroit; and recaptured by the Kentucky troops at the Battle of the Thames; Col. Wm. Whitley's old rifle with which he led the charge of the Forlorn Hope and the old hand wrought trumpet which sounded the blast for that charge; the wampum taken from the dead chief Tecumseh and innumerable such relics.

Descendants of Pioneers To Attend. Tens of thousands of descendants of Kentucky soldiers of 1812 have written in advance that they will attend the entire week's celebration and provision has been made for a mammoth reception in their honor for Friday afternoon in the First Regiment Armory.

The celebration will formally open at 1:30 o'clock next Monday afternoon with the march of 5,000 costumed school children headed by the Centennial dignitaries and marching to the strains of several brass bands to the river front where Gov. McCreary, Mayor Head, and other notable men will formally inaugurate the celebration. R. C. Ballard Thurston, President of the National Society of the Sons of the Revolution, will deliver his famous address on the "Evolution of the American Flag" and will exhibit his collection of flags which is regarded as the finest private collection of flags in America. Regatta races for power boats and yachts will be given throughout Monday morning and Monday afternoon and for these the richest prizes in America have been offered and the fastest boats in America have entered. The fireworks display intimately tinged with historical associations of Commodore Perry's battle on Lake Erie, the most spectacular pyrotechnics since the Hudson-Fulton celebration, will be provided Monday night, and both banks of the Ohio river for a distance of five miles above Louisville will be brilliantly illuminated. Regimental drills and maneuvers will be held in front of the Court of Honor amidst the most gorgeous street and building decoration Tuesday afternoon and a parade of three thousand uniform rank members of fraternal organizations each bearing Flambeaus, will be given Tuesday night.

The Battle of the Thames including the dramatic incidences of Tecumseh's duel with Col. Richard M. Johnson, the courageous charge of the Forlorn Hope, Proctor's inglorious flight, the breaking of the British ranks, and the capture of the Indians will be given in Cherokee Park Wednesday afternoon, and it is estimated that the surrounding hillsides will contain a quarter of a million spectators. The attraction for Wednesday evening is being kept secret from the Louisville public.

The historical pageant and military and floral parade, many miles in length, containing several thousand decorated vehicles, tens of thousands of marchers on foot and an allegorical pageant consisting of twenty floats, among the most beautiful ever created in America, will consume practically the entire afternoon.

Friday afternoon will be devoted to a reception to the descendants of the soldiers of the war of 1812.

Sunday will be the centennial anniversary of the Battle of the Thames, and notable visitors will occupy the Louisville pulpits for devotional morning services. In the afternoon a memorial service will be held in the First Regiment Armory in honor of the Kentucky soldiers who gave up their lives to win the second war with Great Britain.
