

We learn that our fellow-townsmen, Dr. HOMER SHAW, formerly Asst Surgeon of the 10th Ohio Infantry, has been promoted to the position of full Surgeon of that Regt. We wish the Doc. luck muchly, and hope this is but the fore-runner of future advancement.

FARM FOR SALE.—Those who contemplate purchasing Real Estate should give a careful reading to the fine farm advertised by SAMUEL CTRP. It will be found in another column.

We notice that CHARLIE HEED and S. M. BIGGS, leave here to-day with some 25 or 30 men for Camp Chase. The men have been recruited under the late call of the President for 100,000 six month's men. Glad are we to see that there yet lingereth in old Fairfield, some remnant of the spirit which animated our fathers in the days of '76.

Our harvest time approaches we notice an unwonted activity among our farmers in preparing to secure their crops. Young men who are loafing about town, should remember that our country friends are short of help, owing to so many having gone to war, and pitch in and lend a helping hand.

PALMER at the Bank Exchange, is noted for the fine flavors of his Ice Creams, the delicious coolness of his Lemonades, and the superb lunches he gets up. If our word ain't sufficient try them.

GEO. BURBERRY, at his grocery stand has a large and varied assortment of all kinds of groceries. George is a gentleman, and our friends will find his clerks JOHN and PHIL, courteous and affable. Give him a call.

PAPERS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—The following townships have raised the assessment made for furnishing the Gazette to the Fairfield boys, and paid over the money in the following orders: City of Lancaster $100, and over. Rushcreek $25. Liberty $20. Pleasant $40. Clearcreek $20. We urge the friends of the soldiers to have the assessments in by Saturday, so that we may begin sending the papers next week.

JOHN LEIST, Esq. Enclosed, find $5, which you will please place to the credit of John Leist. The above is from a letter enclosing $5, to be credited on the subscription of John Leist, Esq., of Amanda township. Mr. Leist had already paid a year in advance, and he thus receives credit for over four years in advance. He has always been the special friend of the press. We commend his example to all our subscribers, as worthy of imitation.

NUMBER ENROLLED.—Surgeon LEWIS has furnished us the following as the number of enrolled men in Fairfield county: Whites, 3,727. Blacks, 36. Total, 3,763.

ZANE HOUSE.—A. E. COOK, Esq., formerly of the Tallmadge House, has fitted up the Zane House, in Zanesville and is prepared to receive his friends in the coolest manner that is, the Zane House is one of the coolest and most pleasant hotels in the State, and just the place to stop during the hot summer months.

COLORED RECRUITS.—EUBERT SMITH has raised a number of colored recruits for the service. The blacks fought at Fort Hudson and Milliken's Bend, with the most determined courage. So they did under Gen. Jackson in 1812. On Monday night, the colored recruits were out drilling, and after breaking ranks, they were assailed with stones and bricks from the alley opposite. Now we would like to know of honest men, who is the most worthy of respect, the negroes who enlist to fight for their country, or the copperhead rowdies who skulk in the shadow of houses, and assail these soldiers with bricks?

A Church Stowed by Copperheads. We learn from a resident of Liberty township that the Sholey Church, one mile North of Basil, was stoned a few nights since, during divine service, by a band of Copperheads on horseback. The Minister had offended the second-class few nights before by praying for the Union and the President. Very well. If the Copperheads choose to assail the churches and the Ministers of Christ, and to withdraw from the Church, they gain nothing but the condemnation and contempt of all good men. Let the goats separate from the sheep. "By their fruits," &c.

Attention! As Saturday the Fourth day of July, is the day appointed by law, for the election of Company officers in the organization of the Militia of the State of Ohio, the Military Committee respectfully suggest to the citizens throughout the county, the importance of a well organized Militia force, for State protection in case of invasion, and hope the citizens, generally, will give the matter their earnest attention, so that good and efficient officers may be selected.

M. A. DAUGHERTY, President. JOHN B. McNEILL, Secretary.

THE GOVERNORSHIP OF OHIO. Correspondence between the Union Convention and Mr. Brough—He Accepts the Nomination.

We give below the letter conveying the official announcement of Mr. Brough's nomination, and that gentleman's reply:

LETTER FROM THE CONVENTION. COLUMBUS, OHIO, June 17, 1863. Hon. John Brough, Cleveland, Ohio:

The people of Ohio, who are loyal to the Constitution of the United States as interpreted by its immortal framers, have just spoken their sentiments in a delegated capacity on the vital issues of the day, through one of the most animated, the most earnest and most important Conventions ever held in this State.

The people had just been started at the defiant action of men of unworthy ambition, of desperate political fortunes, who, but a few days since, having deluded adherents of their party, to array themselves against the constituted authorities, had nominated for Governor an undisguised contemner of official orders.

In their insane forgetfulness of patriotic duty, these political managers conspired to promote to the high office of Commander-in-Chief of the military forces of Ohio, one who glories in having opposed force to armed rebellion, thus insulting the one hundred thousand soldiers of this State now defending the Constitution in the field.

Inspired by the loftiness of the great occasion, desiring to cast away embarrassment of all personal political trammels, and foregoing all predilections, as a band of brothers, loyal citizens and soldiers have united in a great people's movement to aid the President, summarily, to crush out the rebellion. In this spirit the Convention performed its high mission to-day. It reflected the popular heart in summoning you, Sir, from your personal engagements to devote your time and talents as standard-bearer of the National Unionists of Ohio before the people of this State.

You have been duly nominated the Union candidate for Governor of Ohio, and we are instructed to convey to you the earnest request of the Convention that you accept the nomination.

The State of Ohio is the center of the Republic—it is in the pathway of commerce between the Atlantic and the Pacific—her gigantic interests are all bound up in the perpetuation of the Union. The enemies of National Government would break up the States into principalities, or divide the whole into two Confederacies, leaving the United States confined to a thread of territory within Ohio, between the Lakes and the Ohio river.

The people are loyal and will scout such infidelity to the sublime principles of National unity. Your patriotic determination to aid the national authorities to secure a complete and honorable triumph over rebellion, binds you and the people of Ohio in a common cause, co-operating with the National Executive during the pending struggle to save the Constitution and the Union.

Believing most cordially that the people will secure to you and your colleagues a majority vote unprecedented in the history of the State, we subscribe ourselves, for the Convention, officially, Yours, &c. W. DENNISON, Pres't. JOHN D. CALDWELL, Secretary.

MR. BROUGH'S RESPONSE. CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 27, 1863. GENTLEMEN: On my return home last evening, I found your favor of 17th inst., announcing my nomination, by the Union Convention, as a candidate for Governor of Ohio.

You are fully aware, gentlemen, that this nomination has been made not only without my solicitation, but against my personal wishes. The circumstances attending it, and the manner of its presentation, scarcely admit of discussion as to the course to be adopted. Personal considerations must yield to the duty which every man owes to the State; and therefore, while appreciating alike the honors and responsibilities of the position, I assume the standard you present to me, and, to the utmost of my ability, will bear it through the contest—whether to victory or defeat, those who have chosen me must determine.

I accept and fully approve the resolutions of the Convention accompanying your note. My own position has been so fully defined that I do not consider it necessary to re-state it on this occasion. I have but one object in accepting the position your constituents have assigned me—and that is to aid you and them in sustaining the Government in the great work of suppressing this most wicked rebellion, and restoring our country to its former unity and glory.

Very truly yours, JOHN BROUGH. Messrs Wm. DENNISON, Pres't. JOHN D. CALDWELL, Secretary, Union Convention of Ohio.

ENCOURAGE OUR MECHANICS. Last Saturday night Thomas Henderson sumptuously entertained at his residence the famous Lancaster Band, for whom he fabricated a Music Chair, equaling those made at Cincinnati. We may be free, but we cannot be independent until we liberally patronize home manufactures and home mechanics. What would be thought of a person supporting a foreign family while he is permitting his own to starve? Lancaster in several respects is suffering in that way. R. E. H. L.

Attention! A DAY IN THE WOODS. MEMBERS Ede! Hoping it will not be considered as trespassing or intruding upon your time or attention, I take the liberty of offering a slight account of the Picnic of the Lancaster High School which took place at the Kettle Hills, on Friday last. It is I believe, and has been for some years past, the custom in this room, to hold an annual festival of this kind at the end of their summer term.

The day opened rather unpropitiously for the projected picnic, but who ever knew it otherwise, than a rainy day when any enjoyment for school-children was on the tapis. Ah! well do I remember in my own school-days the rain that was always sure to occur whenever we had a holiday; it inevitably rained on Fair-days, Show-days and Saturdays. But on this occasion the indomitable go-ahead-a-five-ness of Young America proved paramount to all obstacles, and despite the drizzling rain, that was falling thick and fast, the party started, having determined to proceed to the State Farm and ask permission of Mr. Howe to hold their exercises in the chapel of that institution.

Upon arriving at that place however, old Sol's beaming face had dispelled the clouds and mist to such a degree, that a return to the Kettle Hills was deemed practicable, and so the original programme was at once put in effect. Arriving there at about the hour at which the inner man is wont to require the accustomed daily sustenance, yelet dinner, we partook in common of a splendid repast furnished by the ladies, the green sward giving us a table, and the blue canopy of heaven together with the wild, romantic scenery of the Kettle Hills a banquet hall. Wit and sentiment reigned supreme, and one and all applied themselves most industriously to the demolition of the many luxuries with which the table was supplied.

Dinner being over, the party adjourned to the cave, where it had been decided the declamatory and elocutionary exercises should take place. In the meantime however, our numbers had been augmented by the arrival of quite a number of guests from the city. Of the exercises, our limited space forbids a lengthy notice. Suffice it to say that they were highly characteristic of Miss Becket's room, excellent in the praise of all who took part in them. Miss Becket presiding with grace and dignity.

Remarks being called for, Rev. Dawson and A. P. Miller responded in a neat and appropriate manner, complimenting the school very highly. I had forgotten to mention that at the commencement of the feast, Miss Becket was crowned by her scholars as a token of the love and esteem they bore her, the ceremony being performed by Mr. Henry Weaver.

To the Committee of Arrangements consisting of Miss Lizzie Carpenter, Miss Hattie Giesy and Mr. Henry Weaver, great credit is due for the admirable manner in which they discharged their duties.

At five o'clock P. M., all set out on their return home, highly delighted with themselves and the rest of mankind, nothing having occurred to mar the harmony or enjoyment of any. For the very pleasant day spent by us, we tender our thanks to Miss Becket and her scholars, and in concluding hope: "That when next the school doors riding, we may be there to see."

QUISBY, Jr. BUTTERNUTS vs. NEGROES. The Philosophy of Butternutism is singular. It denounces the employment of negro regiments to aid in crushing the Great Rebellion. Were the family of the most ultra Lancaster Butternut about being attacked by midnight murderers, would he thrust away some negroes who came to assist the whites in securing the murderers and saving his family? If he did, and the murderers proved too strong for the whites, he would be considered a walking Lunatic Asylum, having pasted on his forehead, "I am the modern Nebuchadnezzar, going to grass on four legs as punishment for my sins!" Some have "nigger on the brain," sympathizing with the oppressed, but he would have "nigger on the brain," deranging his intellectual and moral faculties. When ladies express such sentiments, we merely consider them the "weaker vessel," believing that we could kiss such ideas out of their heads in fifteen minutes if we had the chance. In fact, we are all colored people, some colored white, some yellow, some black, and some white and black at the same time when doubly tanned by southern climate and southern principles.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of grasping the hand of our old friend, A. J. Davis, Adjutant of the 17th Ohio last week. He was on a short visit to his afflicted family. He started on his return to his regiment on Tuesday morning. His report of the Ohio boys in Tennessee is highly favorable.—Columbus Gazette.

For the Gazette. "A Piece of My Mind." MURFREESBORO, Tenn. June 24, 1863. Ede. GAZETTE: The recipient of the following "piece of my mind," requests its publication, and informs Mr. J. L. that if he were here, uttering such pieces of his mind, soldiers would "hunt the camps over" for him, when unless strongly guarded he wouldn't live five minutes.

After such a display of smartness, through the "piece of mind," the closing sentence is decidedly refreshing to an intelligent soldier. Six months ago, such scrawls of treason flooded the army, and in a few cases worked harm, but there is no danger from them now.

The great unfettered, is dead, dead! We would not know of its existence but for now and then a putrid breeze wafted down through the Eagle, and as the smaller fry squirm, starting in a dirty mass in the old carcass, now and then one wanders blindly out of his province, ride "A. J. L." We do not know whether we most pity their blind, wiggling imbecility, or detest their crawling loathsome worminess.

Burnsides knocked the immortality out of the unfettered, and sent its spirit to purgatory, where we understand the spirit "circulates" largely in company with a kindred spirit—One Bragg. J. E. L.

THE LANCASTER GAZETTE. The Only Union Paper for the Counties of Fairfield and Hocking.

The most important political campaign in the history of Ohio is the campaign just opened. There are but two tickets and two issues; one for a vigorous war to suppress a monstrous rebellion and thus preserve the Union and the nation; the other for a dishonorable peace and a dissolution of the Union.

In this contest the Lancaster Gazette arrays itself on the side of the Union and the country, and against all treason and sympathy with treason, whether in the loyal or disloyal States.

The type of the Gazette having been destroyed by a band of Copperheads, on account of its support of the Government and the cause of the Union, the proprietors have purchased a new outfit, and are now prepared to publish one of the most inland papers in the State.

During the campaign we will send the Gazette to Clubs at the rate of FIFTY CENTS FOR FOUR MONTHS. Payment must always be made in advance. YEARLY TERMS—$1 50 in advance, $2 00 if not paid in advance. One copy will be sent gratis to any person sending us a club of ten. MILLER, KOOKEN & SUTPHEN, Lancaster, Ohio, June 25, 1863.
